ITEM 1.01. Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

On February 11, 2015, Ralph Lauren Corporation (the “Company”) and certain of its foreign subsidiaries (collectively with the Company, the “Borrowers”) entered into a definitive amended and restated credit agreement (the “Agreement”) for a revolving credit facility (the “Facility”) with JPMorgan Chase Bank, N.A. as administrative agent (the “Administrative Agent”), Bank of America, N.A. as syndication agent, Wells Fargo Bank, N.A., HSBC Bank USA, N.A. and Deutsche Bank Securities Inc. as co-documentation agents, and a syndicate of financial institutions and institutional lenders (the “Lenders”). The Agreement amended and restated the Company’s Credit Agreement, dated as of March 10, 2011, by and among the Company, certain of its foreign subsidiaries, the lenders party thereto, the Administrative Agent, and Bank of America, N.A., Wells Fargo Bank, N.A., HSBC Bank USA, N.A. and Deutsche Bank AG New York Branch as syndication agents (as amended from time to time, the “Existing Credit Facility”). The Facility may be used to finance the working capital needs, capital expenditures, certain investments and general corporate purposes of the Borrowers and their subsidiaries (which may include commercial paper back-up) and for short-term funding of acquisitions. Letters of credit (the “Letters of Credit”) may be issued under the Agreement as described below. Certain terms and conditions of the Facility are as follows:

Structure. The Agreement provides for a five-year senior revolving credit facility in an aggregate amount at any one time outstanding of up to $500 million, including sub-facilities for Letters of Credit. In addition, the Agreement provides that the revolving commitments under the Facility may be increased to $750 million, subject to certain terms and conditions. The Facility will mature in February 2020. Loans may be made, at the Borrowers’ election, in Euros, Hong Kong Dollars, Japanese Yen and certain other currencies, in addition to U.S. Dollars.

Letters of Credit. The Facility will be available for the issuance of Letters of Credit by the Administrative Agent or one or more other Lenders. Standby Letters of Credit may be issued in respect of obligations of the Company or any of its subsidiaries incurred pursuant to contracts made or performances undertaken, or to be undertaken, or like matters relating to contracts to which the Company or any of its subsidiaries is, or proposes to become, a party in the ordinary course of business, including, but not limited to, for insurance purposes and in connection with lease transactions. Commercial Letters of Credit may be issued to finance purchases of goods by the Company and its subsidiaries in the ordinary course of business. The aggregate amount outstanding at any time with respect to Letters of Credit may not exceed $50 million.

Interest Rates and Fees. Pursuant to the Agreement, borrowings under the Facility bear interest at a rate per annum equal to, at the Borrowers’ option, either (a) an alternate base rate or (b) a rate based on the rates applicable for deposits in the interbank market for U.S. Dollars or the applicable currency in which the loans are made (the “Adjusted LIBO Rate”) plus an applicable margin. The applicable margin for Adjusted LIBO Rate loans will be adjusted by reference to a grid (the “Pricing Grid”) based on ratings for the Company’s senior, unsecured long-term indebtedness provided by established ratings agencies. Additionally, the Borrowers will pay a commitment fee, calculated at a rate per annum determined in accordance with the Pricing Grid, on the average daily unused amount of the Facility, payable quarterly in arrears, and certain fees with respect to Letters of Credit that are issued.

Optional Prepayments and Commitment Reductions. Loans under the Agreement may be prepaid and commitments may be terminated or reduced by the Borrowers without premium or penalty (other than “breakage costs” described below under “Yield Protection”) in minimum amounts of generally, in the case of prepayments, $500,000, and in the case of partial commitment reductions, $1 million.

Guarantors. The Facility is guaranteed by each of the direct and indirect subsidiaries of the Company which, on February 11, 2015, were guarantors under the existing Guarantee Agreement dated as of March 10, 2011, in favor of the Administrative Agent under the Existing Credit Facility, that remain in existence, and all other existing and future domestic significant subsidiaries of the Company.

Restrictive Covenants and Other Matters. The Agreement contains negative covenants that, subject to significant exceptions, limit the ability of the Company and its subsidiaries to, among other things, incur debt, engage in new lines of business, incur liens, engage in mergers, consolidations, liquidations and dissolutions, dispose of substantially all of the assets of the Company and its subsidiaries, make investments, loans, advances, guarantees and acquisitions and enter into transactions with affiliates. The Company and its subsidiaries must also meet on a quarterly basis a test based on the ratio of (a) consolidated debt to (b) consolidated earnings before interest, taxes, depreciation, amortization and lease expense.

Events of Default. The Agreement contains events of default that are customary for a facility of this nature, including (subject in certain cases to grace or cure periods) nonpayment of principal, nonpayment of interest, fees or other amounts, material inaccuracy of representations and warranties, violation of covenants, cross-default to other material indebtedness, guarantees ceasing to be in full force or effect, bankruptcy or insolvency events, certain events arising under the Employee Income Retirement Security Act of 1974, as amended, material judgments and a failure of Ralph Lauren or persons related to him to maintain control of the Company as specified in the Agreement. If an event of default occurs, the commitments of the Lenders to lend under the Facility may be terminated and the maturity of the amounts owed may be accelerated.

Yield Protection. The Agreement contains customary provisions including indemnification of the Lenders for “breakage costs” incurred in connection with, among other things, any prepayment of a loan bearing interest based upon the Adjusted LIBO Rate on a day other than the last day of an interest period with respect to such loan.

In the ordinary course of their business, the Lenders and certain of their affiliates have in the past or may in the future engage in investment and commercial banking or other transactions of a financial nature with the Company or its affiliates, including the provision of certain advisory services and the making of loans to the Company and its affiliates. In particular, certain affiliates of the Lenders are agents and/or lenders under the Existing Credit Facility.

This summary does not purport to be complete and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the Agreement which is attached hereto as Exhibit 10.1. Interested parties should read this document in its entirety.
