"Company") reached an agreement to settle an insurance claim by the Company seeking recovery of a fraud loss that occurred and was recognized in 2002. In the third quarter of 2002, the Company reported a charge-off of $12.5 million relating to a mortgage warehouse loan to Community Home Mortgage Corporation and Community Home Funding Group, Ltd (the "Community Entities") as a result of a fraud perpetrated by the Community Entities and other entities and persons affiliated with the Community Entities. The Company asserted a claim under its fidelity bond to recover the fraud loss and associated expenses. The insurance carrier disclaimed coverage of the Company's loss in December 2003, and the Company commenced litigation in 2004 to seek coverage under the fidelity bond. The Company and the insurance carrier reached a settlement of the litigation that will result in a payment to the Company in the amount of $7.5 million. After legal fees and related litigation expenses, the Company estimates a net recovery of approximately $5.8 million before taxes, which will be recognized in the second quarter of this year. At this time, the Company does not expect any additional recoveries with respect to this matter. The Company exited the mortgage warehouse lending business in November 2003.
