On September 30, 2008, the registrant and its wholly-owned subsidiary (collectively “PetroHunter”) closed on the sale of an undivided 50% working interest in four exploration permits comprising approximately seven million acres in the Beetaloo Basin of the Northern Territory, Australia, to Falcon Oil & Gas Ltd. PetroHunter received securities convertible into shares of Falcon common stock having an agreed upon value of $20 million, in addition to the $5 million in cash paid by Falcon to PetroHunter on August 25, 2008. PetroHunter retains an undivided 50% working interest and will remain operator of the Beetaloo Basin project. Falcon has agreed to use its best efforts to file a preliminary prospectus qualifying the distribution of the common shares underlying the convertible securities within 20 business days.

Marc A. Bruner, the Chairman, CEO and President of Falcon, is the founder and largest shareholder of PetroHunter. Falcon advised PetroHunter and has announced that Mr. Bruner did not participate in the vote by the Falcon Board of Directors when the Falcon board voted to approve this transaction.
