Press Release

CVRD Announces Memorandum of Cooperation with NUCOR

Rio de Janeiro, April 18, 2002 - Companhia Vale do Rio Doce (CVRD), the world's largest producer of iron ore and pellets, and Nucor Corporation (NUCOR), the largest steelmaker in North America, signed a non-binding memorandum of cooperation (MOU) for the purpose of advancing their mutual interests in the identification of potential iron and steel business opportunities to be jointly developed in the following areas:

- (a) projects that offer low cost, environmentally friendly iron-based products;
- (b) projects that offer strategic positions in North and South America;
- (c) opportunities that may arise as a result of the restructuring of the North American steel industry which are deemed to be advantageous to both parties.

This MOU puts together two financially strong companies, with solid cash flows and balance sheets. "We are very excited to begin a relationship with such a strong company as CVRD" said Dan Dimicco, NUCOR Vice Chairman, President and CEO. "Not only are they a huge player in the world iron ore markets, but also understand the nuances of the steel business. This combination brings a powerful team to the table to explore many opportunities throughout the Americas."

Roger Agnelli, CVRD CEO, commented, "bringing together CVRD and NUCOR is associating winning companies with different expertise and resources. As a mining company, CVRD is focused on providing productivity-enhancing solutions to the steel industry. The possibilities are unlimited."

About CVRD

Incorporated on June 1, 1942 as a state-owned company and privatized on May 7, 1997, CVRD is the largest diversified mining company of the Americas, with a market capitalization of approximately US$ 11 billion. It is the world's largest producer and exporter of iron ore and pellets and one of the leading global producers of manganese and ferro-alloys. It also produces bauxite, gold, kaolin, potash, alumina and aluminum. CVRD is a major cargo transportation player in Brazil owning and operating several railroads and ports. It owns two hydroelectric power plants and it is building seven others. It also has stakes in steel and fertilizer companies in Brazil and abroad.

About NUCOR

NUCOR is the largest steel producer in the United States and has over US$ 4.5 billion in sales annually. NUCOR is the nation's largest recycler, recycling over 10 million tons of scrap steel annually and is the nation's largest consumer of pig iron and HBI products. NUCOR and affiliates are manufacturers of steel products, with operating facilities in ten states. Products produced are: carbon and alloy steel - in bars, beams, sheet, and plate; steel joists and joist girders; steel deck; cold finished steel; steel fasteners; metal building systems; and light gauge steel framing.
