MARCH 6, 2014

LBG CAPITAL NO. 1 PLC AND LBG CAPITAL NO. 2 PLC ANNOUNCE AN OFFER TO EXCHANGE
CERTAIN ENHANCED CAPITAL NOTES FOR ADDITIONAL TIER 1 SECURITIES ISSUED BY LLOYDS
BANKING GROUP PLC

LBG Capital No. 1 plc (“LBG 1”) and LBG Capital No. 2 plc (“LBG 2” and, together with LBG 1, “the Offerors”) announced that they have commenced an offer to exchange Fixed Rate Reset Additional Tier 1 Securities (the “Additional Tier 1 Securities”) issued by Lloyds Banking Group plc (“LBG”) up to a total of $1,675,000,000 (the “Maximum New Issue Size”) for certain Enhanced Capital Notes issued by the Offerors (the “ECNs”) set out in the table below (the “Exchange Offer”). The Exchange Offer is being made on the terms and subject to the conditions set out in the prospectus dated March 6, 2014 (the “Prospectus”). Capitalized terms not otherwise defined in this announcement have the same meaning as assigned to them in the Prospectus.

LBG has filed a registration statement on Form F-4 (including the Prospectus contained therein) relating to the Exchange Offer with the Securities and Exchange Commission (the “SEC”) and a tender offer statement on Schedule TO and other documents relating to the Exchange Offer. Holders are advised to read carefully the Prospectus and other documents which LBG has filed with the SEC for full details of, and information on the procedures for participating in, the Exchange Offer. Copies of these documents are available for free by visiting EDGAR on the SEC website at www.sec.gov or from the Dealer Managers and the Exchange Agent whose contact details are set out at the end of this announcement.

Rationale for the Exchange Offer

In 2009, the Lloyds Banking Group (the “Group”) undertook a significant capital raising exercise in order to reinforce the Group’s going-concern capital ratios, and to meet the Financial Services Authority’s (“FSA”) stress test requirements. As a component of the exercise, the Group issued 33 series of enhanced capital notes, with a nominal amount of £8.4bn currently outstanding.

The terms and conditions of the enhanced capital notes include a Regulatory Call Right (as defined below) should, amongst other things, the enhanced capital notes cease to be taken into account for the purposes of any “stress test” applied by the Prudential Regulatory Authority (“PRA”) (successor to the FSA) in respect of core capital. Whilst still uncertain, management of LBG believes recent developments resulting in higher capital requirements for banks, including a changed definition of core capital, make it likely that the enhanced capital notes will not provide going concern benefit under future stress tests.

These recent developments include:

- a requirement in the CRR1 that with effect from January 1, 2014 convertible additional tier 1 capital instruments should have a conversion trigger set at no less than 5.125% CET1 Ratio (“CET1 Ratio” means, the ratio of a firm’s common equity tier 1 capital to its risk weighted assets, and calculated in accordance with the end-point requirements of CRD IV);

- statements by the PRA in late 2013 that a conversion trigger of 5.125% CET1 Ratio may not convert in time to prevent the failure of a firm and that it expects major UK firms to meet a 7% CET1 Ratio determined in accordance with the end-point requirements of CRD IV;

- a statement by the European Banking Authority in January 2014 that tier 2 instruments must have a conversion trigger above a 5.5% CET1 Ratio to be recognized in its forthcoming stress tests; and

- an announcement by the PRA that, following a consultation commenced in October 2013, it expects to revise stress testing methodology and pass marks in 2014.

As a result of differences in definition, the Group’s CET1 Ratio is substantially lower than the core tier 1 ratio on which the conversion trigger of the enhanced capital notes is based. As at December 31, 2013, the difference was 4.0%. Applying the same difference to the 5.0% core tier 1 ratio used as the enhanced capital notes conversion trigger gives a 1.0% CET1 Ratio determined in accordance with end-point requirements of CRD IV, well below the CRR minimum requirements.

The Group is today launching prioritised exchange offers to holders of enhanced capital notes to exchange their enhanced capital notes for new additional tier 1 securities at a price consistent with current trading prices. The offers provide holders with a means to eliminate the uncertainty around the Regulatory Call Right in the enhanced capital notes. In addition, such exchange offers are expected to result in sufficient additional tier 1 securities being issued to meet the Group’s medium-term additional tier 1 target.

Regulatory Calls of ECNs

Pursuant to the terms and conditions of the ECNs, should any series of ECNs cease to qualify for inclusion in the lower tier 2 capital of the Group or, as a result of changes to the Regulatory Capital Requirements (as defined in the terms and conditions of the ECNs) or the interpretation or application thereof by the PRA, cease to be taken into account for the purposes of any “stress test” applied by the PRA, in each case as more fully described in condition 8(e) of the terms and conditions of the relevant ECNs, the issuer of the relevant series of ECNs has the right, which is subject to various conditions as described in condition 8(b) of the terms and conditions of the relevant ECNs, to call such series (the “Regulatory Call Right”).

There can be no assurance that the ECNs will continue to count for the purposes of “stress tests” to be applied by the PRA to the Group.

1 The implementation of the Basel III Reforms by relevant authorities in the EU consists of a legislative package including a fourth capital requirements Directive (the “CRD IV Directive”) and a new Capital Requirements Regulation (the “CRR”), collectively known as “CRD IV”.

For most series of ECNs, the relevant Regulatory Call Price (as defined in the relevant terms and conditions of the ECNs), together with accrued but unpaid interest, is substantially lower than the Exchange Consideration pursuant to the Exchange Offer.

The Regulatory Call Right applies to each separate series of ECNs and, where available, the relevant Offeror may choose which individual series to call.

If the Regulatory Call Right were, by its terms, ever to become exercisable and the relevant Offeror wished to make use of it, LBG and the Offerors currently intend that they would prioritise the redemption of those series of ECNs, some part of which series is accepted for exchange in the Exchange Offer, or which rank in the relevant Exchange Priority, ahead of those series of ECNs which have been so accepted for exchange, except if the relevant series of ECNs is pro-rated by the relevant Offeror pursuant to the Exchange Offer.

Concurrently with the Exchange Offer, LBG 1 and LBG 2 are inviting holders of certain of their euro and sterling denominated enhanced capital notes to exchange such securities and are inviting certain eligible retail holders of their sterling denominated enhanced capital to sell such securities to LBG 1 or LBG 2 (as applicable) for cash, in each case pursuant to the Concurrent Non-U.S. Exchange Offers (as defined in the Prospectus). Only the Exchange Offer is being made by means of the Prospectus. Documentation in relation to the Concurrent Non-U.S. Exchange Offers will be or have been published separately.

Exchange Offer; Exchange Consideration

LBG 1 and LBG 2 are offering to exchange, on the terms and conditions described in the Prospectus, up to a total of the Maximum New Issue Size of the Additional Tier 1 Securities, plus accrued and unpaid interest in cash, plus (if applicable) cash amounts in lieu of any fractional Additional Tier 1 Securities, for the ECNs.

For each $1,000 of the ECNs validly tendered and accepted for exchange, holders of a particular series will be eligible to receive a principal amount of the Additional Tier 1 Securities set out in the table above (the “Exchange Consideration”).

The Exchange Offer is subject to a minimum new issue size of at least $750,000,000 in aggregate principal amount of Additional Tier 1 Securities being issued in exchange for ECNs validly tendered pursuant to the Exchange Offer and not withdrawn (the “Minimum New Issue Size”) and certain other conditions set out under the heading “The Exchange Offer—Terms of the Exchange Offer—Exchange Offer Conditions” in the Prospectus.

Maximum Offer Amount

The Offerors will, if they accept any tenders, accept tenders that will result in issuing Additional Tier 1 Securities in an aggregate principal amount that is no greater than the Maximum New Issue Size of $1,675,000,000. The Offerors expressly reserve the right to increase, decrease or waive such Maximum New Issue Size in their sole discretion at any time, subject to compliance with applicable law.

Acceptance of ECNs; Exchange Priority; Proration

LBG 1 and LBG 2 will accept tenders in accordance with the Exchange Priority set out in the table above until either (i) all of the ECNs validly offered for exchange have been accepted or (ii) the principal amount of Additional Tier 1 Securities to be delivered in exchange for ECNs is the maximum such principal amount that can be delivered without exceeding the Maximum New Issue Size. Where the acceptance in accordance with the Exchange Priority of all valid tenders of a series of ECNs would require a greater principal amount of Additional Tier 1 Securities to be delivered than the Maximum New Issue Size, ECNs validly tendered and not validly withdrawn prior to the Expiration Deadline in accordance with the Exchange Priority and, in the case of that particular series, on a pro rata basis up to the Maximum New Issue Size. Tenders of a series of ECNs with a lower Exchange Priority than the lowest ranking series of ECNs with respect to which any tenders are accepted, will not be accepted. The Offerors reserve the right at their absolute discretion, but are under no obligation, to increase or waive the Maximum New Issue Size at any time, subject to compliance with applicable law.

LBG will not deliver fractional Additional Tier 1 Securities pursuant to the Exchange Offer. Instead, each tendering holder of ECNs who would otherwise be entitled to a fractional Additional Tier 1 Security will receive cash in an amount equal to such fractional entitlement.

Holders whose ECNs tendered in the Exchange Offered are not accepted, who validly withdraw their tenders prior to the Expiration Deadline or who do not participate in the Exchange Offer, will not be eligible to receive Additional Tier 1 Securities in exchange for such ECNs and shall continue to hold such ECNs subject to their terms and conditions.

Withdrawal Rights

Validly tendered ECNs may be withdrawn at any time prior to the Expiration Deadline but not thereafter. Holders wishing to exercise any such right of withdrawal should do so in accordance with the procedures of the relevant Clearing System.

Exchange Offer Period and Results

The Exchange Offer commenced today, March 6, 2014, and will end at 11:59 p.m. (New York City time) on April 2, 2014, unless extended, re-opened or earlier terminated as provided in the Prospectus.

The relevant deadline set by the relevant Clearing System or any intermediary for the submission of Exchange Instructions may be earlier than this deadline.

Unless the Exchange Offer is extended, on April 3, 2014, the Offerors will announce the following information: (i) the aggregate principal amounts of each series of ECNs which LBG 1 and LBG 2 will be accepting for exchange; (ii) the satisfaction, modification or waiver of the Minimum New Issue Size condition; (iii) whether tenders of each series of ECNs are to be accepted in full (if at all) or on a pro rata basis and, where accepted on a pro rata basis, the extent to which such tenders will be scaled; (iv) the aggregate principal amount of Additional Tier 1 Securities to be issued in the Exchange Offer; and (v) the Settlement Date.

Announcements in connection with the Exchange Offer will be made (i) by the issue of a press release to a Notifying News Service, (ii) by the delivery of notices to the relevant Clearing System for communication to Direct Participants and (iii) through RNS, and may also be found on the relevant Reuters International Insider Screen. Copies of all such announcements, press releases and notices can also be obtained from the Exchange Agent, the contact details for whom are set out below.

Each intermediary must comply with the applicable laws and regulations concerning information duties vis-à-vis its clients in connection with the ECNs or the Exchange Offer.

General

The Exchange Offer does not constitute an offer to buy or the solicitation of an offer to sell ECNs and/or Additional Tier 1 Securities in any circumstances in which such offer or solicitation is unlawful. In those jurisdictions where the securities or other laws require the Exchange Offer to be made by a licensed broker or dealer and the Dealer Manager or, where the context so requires, any of its affiliates is such a licensed broker or dealer in that jurisdiction, the Exchange Offer shall be deemed to be made on behalf of LBG 1 and/or LBG 2 by such Dealer Manager or affiliate (as the case may be) in such jurisdiction.

Each holder of ECNs participating in the Exchange Offer will be deemed to give certain representations in respect of the jurisdictions referred to above and generally as set out in “The Exchange Offer Certain Matters Relating to Non-U.S. Jurisdictions” in the Prospectus. Any tender of ECNs for exchange pursuant to the Exchange Offer from a holder that is unable to make these representations may be rejected. The Offerors, LBG, the Dealer Managers and the Exchange Agent reserve the right, in their absolute discretion, to investigate, in relation to any tender of ECNs for exchange pursuant to the Exchange Offer, whether any such representation given by a holder is correct and, if such investigation is undertaken and as a result LBG 1 or LBG 2 determines, as the case may be, (for any reason) that such representation is not correct, such tender may be rejected.
