AUDITORS' REPORT

To the Directors

We have audited the balance sheet of cs-live.com inc. as at December 31, 2000 and the statements of operations and deficit and cash flows for the period from incorporation on January 13, 2000 to December 31, 2000. These financial statements are the responsibility of the Company's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audit.

We conducted our audit in accordance with Canadian generally accepted auditing standards. Those standards require that we plan and perform an audit to obtain reasonable assurance whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation.

In our opinion, these financial statements present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of the Company as at December 31, 2000 and the results of its operations and its cash flows for the period then ended in accordance with Canadian generally accepted accounting principles.

Notes to Financial Statements

For the period from incorporation on January 13, 2000 to December 31 2000

-----

cs-live.com Inc. (the "Company") was incorporated under the Canada Business Corporations Act on January 13, 2000. The Company develops and markets software that enables businesses to implement a real time customer service function over the Internet.

1. Significant accounting policies:

- (a) Going concern: These financial statements have been prepared on the basis of accounting principles applicable to a going concern which assumes that the Company will realize the carrying value of its assets and satisfy its obligations as they become due in the normal course of operations.

The ability of the company to continue as a going concern and to realize the carrying value of its assets is dependent on the success of future operations, and the continuing support of its shareholders and lenders. It cannot be determined at this time whether these objectives will be realized.

These financial statements do not reflect adjustments in the carrying values of its accounts receivable, investment tax credits receivable, prepaid expenses or capital assets that would be necessary if the going concern assumption were not appropriate should the Company not be able to continue its normal course of business.

Edgar Filing: 800AMERICA COM INC - Form 8-K

(b) Use of estimates:

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with Canadian generally accepted accounting principles requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosures of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the period. Actual results could differ from those estimates

(c) Capital assets:

Capital assets are recorded at cost less accumulated amortization. Amortization is provided on the declining balance basis using the following annual rates:

Asset Type	Rate
Office furniture and equipment	20%
Computer equipment	30%
Software	30%

Leasehold improvements are amortized on a straight-line basis over the related lease term.

cs-live.com inc.

Notes to Financial Statements, page 2

For the period from incorporation on January 13, 2000 to December 31, 2000

1. Significant accounting policies (continued):

(d) Revenue recognition:

The Company generates revenues from licensing its software. License revenues are recognized over the term of the license.

Consulting and software customization revenues are recognized as the services are rendered. Billings in advance of services rendered are recorded as deferred revenue and are recognized at the time services are rendered.

(e) Research and development expense:

Research costs are expensed as incurred. Development costs are expensed in the year incurred unless management believes a development project meets the generally accepted accounting criteria for deferral and amortization. In the opinion of management, no development costs incurred to date meet all the criteria for deferral and amortization. Therefore, all development costs have been expensed as incurred.

Edgar Filing: 800AMERICA COM INC - Form 8-K

(f) Income taxes:

Future tax assets and liabilities are recognized for the future tax consequences attributable to differences between the financial statement carrying amounts of existing assets and liabilities and their respective tax bases. Future tax assets and liabilities are measured using enacted or substantively enacted tax rates expected to apply to taxable income in the years in which those temporary differences are expected to be recovered or settled. The effect on future tax assets and liabilities of a change in tax rates is recognized in income in the period that included the enactment date.

(g) Foreign currency:

Foreign currency transactions are translated into Canadian dollars of exchange rates in effect on the date of the transactions. Monetary assets and liabilities are translated into Canadian dollars at the exchange rate in effect as at the balance sheet date. Foreign currency gains and losses are included in income.

(h) Stock option plan:

The Company applies the intrinsic value-based method of accounting for its stock compensation granted to employees. Under this method, compensation expense is recorded on the measurement date (which is generally the date of grant) only if the current market price of the underlying stock exceeded the exercise price. The Company applies the fair value-based method of accounting for stock compensation granted to non-employees. Under this method, compensation expense is measured at the grant date based on the fair value of the award determined using an option pricing method.

2. Amalgamation of ADR Explorations Ltd. (ADR):

Effective August 30, 2000, the Company amalgamated with ADR and continued under the name "new cs-live.com inc.". This transaction was treated as a reverse takeover of ADR by "old cs-live.com inc.", and accounted for under the purchase method, as provided by Canadian generally accepted accounting principles.

Under reverse takeover accounting, the financial statements of their amalgamated entity are considered a continuation of the financial statements of "old cs-live in.". For the purposes of this share exchange, "old cs-live.com inc." is deemed to have acquired ADR for an ascribed purchase price of $1, which represents the assets and liabilities, acquired. As such, the net assets of "old cs-live.com inc." have remained at their carrying values. In addition, as "old cs-live.com inc." commenced operations January 13, 2000, no comparative figures have been presented,

Edgar Filing: 800AMERICA COM INC - Form 8-K

Included in general and administrative expenses and contributed surplus is $149,567, which represents the fair value of common shares issued to non-employees in exchange for services.

(c) Purchases warrants:

On April 28, 2000, 571,158 common share purchase warrants were issued as part of a share offering. Each warrant is exercisable until April 28, 2001 to acquire one common share at a price between $0.80 and $1.20 per share.

On August 30, 2000, 670,244 common share purchase warrants were issued as part of the amalgamation of ADR Explorations Ltd. Each warrant is exercisable to acquire one common share at $1.00 per share anytime within 12 months of the date of commencement of the quotation or trading of the common shares on the Canadian Venture Exchange.

At December 31, 2000, 1,241,402 purchase warrants were outstanding.

(d) Stock options:

Under the terms of the Stock Option Plan, the Company is authorized to issue up to 15% of the common shares outstanding on a non-diluted basis to its employees, officers, directors and other service providers. The exercise price of each option equals the market price of the Company's stock on the date prior to the date of the grant. The maximum term of an option is five years. Options are granted at the discretion of the Board and vest annually in three equal tranches starting on the first anniversary of the grant.

amounts as measured by tax laws. The tax effects of temporary differences that gave rise to significant portions of the future tax asset and future tax liability are as follows:

	2000
Expected tax rate	44.0%
Expected tax expense applied to net loss	$(753,000)
Increase (decrease) in taxes resulting from:
Non-deductible compensation expense (note 6)	47,000
Valuation allowance	711,000
Share issue costs	(9,000)
Other miscellaneous items	4,000
Income tax expense	$ -

8. Commitments:

The Company is committed to payments under operating leases for office space and equipment. Annual payments are approximately: 2001 - $78,000; 2002 - $57,700; 2003 - $52,000; and 2004 - $3,000.

9. Loss per share:

For the purposes of the loss per share computation, the weighted average number of common shares has been used. Had the stock options and purchase warrants been exercised, the effect on the loss per share would be anti-dilutive.

10. Segmented information:

Management has determined that, as of December 31, 2000, the Company operates in one industry segment, which involves the development and marketing of software that enables organizations to implement a real-time customer service function over the internet, and one geographic segment, being Canada.

11. Financial instruments:

Concentrations of credit risk:

The company is exposed to credit-related losses in the event of non-performance by counterparts. Credit exposure is minimized by dealing with only creditworthy counterparties.

Fair values:

The carrying values of cash and cash equivalents, accounts receivable, investment tax credits receivable, accounts payable and accrued liabilities, note payable and shareholder loan approximate fair values due to the short-term maturities of these instruments.

For the period from incorporation on January 13, 2000 to December 31, 2000

12. Subsequent events:

- (a) On February 23, 2001, the Company completed a private placement of convertible debentures (the "Debentures") having a principle value of $350,000. The Debentures have a two-year term and bear interest at a rate of 20% per annum, payable annually, in arrears. At the option of the holder, the Debentures can be converted, in whole or in part, into common shares of the company at a conversion price equal to the greater of $1 and the twenty-day weighted average closing price of the Company's common shares on the Canadian Venture Exchange.

Purchasers of the Debentures also receive one Class A purchase warrant and one Class B purchase warrant for each $2 of Debentures purchased. Each Class A purchase warrant entitles the holder to acquire one common share of the Company for a period of 24 months at an exercise price of $1 or if the Company completes an offering of securities raising at least $500,000 during the 12-month period following the closing of the Debenture offering, the exercise price shall be the per share offering price of the subsequent offering. Each Class B purchase warrant entitles the holder to acquire one common share of the Company for a period of 24 months at an exercise an equivalent number of Class A purchase warrants.

- (b) Subsequent to year end, the shareholders' loans of $127,500 were converted into the Debentures described above having a principle value of $127,500. The shareholders' were no issued and Class A or Class B purchase warrants.

800America.com, Inc.
ProForma Financial Information
Unaudited ProForma Combined Condensed
Financial Information

On September 24, 2001 800America.com, Inc. (800America) acquired all the outstanding common and preferred stock of cslive.com, Inc. (cslive). In exchange for 450,000 shares of common stock of 800America and fifty thousand dollars ($50,000) the acquisition was accounted for as a purchase.

The unaudited proforma combined condensed balance sheet has been prepared to reflect the transaction as of June 30, 2001. The following unaudited proforma combined condensed statements of income combine the results of operations of cslive and 800America for the year ended December 31, 2000 and for the six months ended June 30, 2001 as if the acquisitions of cslive, which closed on September 24, 2001 had occurred on January 1, 2000 and January 1, 2001 respectively. The proforma information was prepared based on historic financial statements and the related notes of cslive and 800 America.

The unaudited proforma combined condensed financial statements and the notes thereto should be read in conjunction with the historic financial statements and related notes of cslive and 800America appearing elsewhere in this report. The proforma information is not necessarily indicative of the result that would have been obtained had such events actually occurred on the dates specified nor is it necessarily indicative of the future results of the combined company. Actual statements of income of the combined companies will be consolidated commencing on the date of acquisition.

The common stock component of the purchase price was computed from the average trading price of the stock over three (3) days either side of the trade date September 24, 2001, resulting in an average price of two (2) dollars per share. The purchase price was reduced by fifty thousand ($50,000), due to the restricted conditions of the stock and its volatility. The resulting purchase price then is as follows:

Common Stock	900,000
Less Valuation Allowance	(50,000)
	850,000
Cash	50,000
	900,000

Allocations of the purchase price is as follows:

Web Development	450,000
Goodwill	450,000
	900,000

Cs-live web development and technology provides real-time communications using the Internet as the delivery medium. Cs-live technology enables companies with a web presence to maximize the effectiveness of the Internet with applications that provide enhanced real-time communications over the web, including live chat and rich media. Cs-live provides solutions for eLearning, eMarketing, eSupport and eSurveys, brings cs-live's customers web sites to the next level with live and interactive customer management solutions.

The goodwill will not be amortized as the Company adopts Financial Accounting Standards Board Opinion Number 142 on January 1, 2002 which will require a (at a minimum) an annual review for impairment and recognition of such losses as they occur in the future.
