Item 7. FINANCIAL STATEMENTS, PRO FORMA FINANCIAL INFORMATION AND EXHIBITS.

(b) PRO FORMA FINANCIAL INFORMATION

Based upon the terms of the Transaction as discussed in the press release and in Item 5 above and based upon the per-share price implecite in the definitive agreement for the stock the of the new holding company ("New United") to be formed to own

United and the assets and cash to be contributed by Liberty, the pro forma effect on the Company's financial position would be as follows if the Transaction had been consummated on September 30, 2001: the Company's (1) cash and cash equivalents would have been reduced by $537 million, (2) investments in affiliates accounted for using the equity method would have increased by $1,433 million, (3) investments in available-for-sale securities would have been reduced by $466 million, (4) deferred income tax liabilities would have increased by $170 million and (5) stockholders' equity would have increased by $260 million. The following pro forma information for the Company's results of operations assumes the Transaction had been consummated as of January 1, 2000:

	Nine months ended September 30, 2001 -----	Year ended December 31, 2000 -----
(amounts in thousands,) (except per share amounts)
Share of losses of affiliates	$4,690	4,311
Net earnings (loss)	$(2,960)	986
Pro forma basic and diluted earnings (loss) attributable to common shareholders	$(1.21)	.38

These pro forma amounts are not necessarily indicative of operating results that would have occurred if the transaction discussed in Item 5 above had been consummated as of January 1, 2000. As the foregoing pro forma information includes all of the significant pro forma adjustments related to the transaction, detailed pro forma financial statements are not included herein.

As a result of a standstill agreement to be entered into between Liberty and New United and the terms of the class of common stock of New United to be received by Liberty in the Transaction, Liberty will not be able to exercise control over New United and accordingly will apply the equity method of accounting for its investment in New United.

The Transaction is subject to approval by the stockholders of United and other customary closing conditions. Holders of a number of United shares sufficient to approve the Transaction have agreed to vote in favor of the Transaction.
