Item 3. Source and Amount of Funds or Other Consideration.

The securities being reported in this statement were acquired beneficially by the Reporting Persons pursuant to (i) a Notes Purchase Agreement (Purchase Agreement) dated August 18, 2010 by and among the Company and its wholly-owned direct and indirect subsidiaries, on the one hand, and Cinda HK (also referred to as in the Investor), on the other, (ii) a capital trust loan contract (Onshore Loan Agreement) dated August 18, 2010 by and among the Company, Well Kent International Enterprises (Shenzhen) Company Limited, China Jingu International Trust Co., Ltd. (the latter two entities being Lenders), and Xi an TCH Energy Technology Co., Ltd. (Xi an TCH), as borrower (the Borrower) and (iii) an exchange rights agreement (Exchange Rights Agreement) also dated August 18, 2010 by and among the Company, the Lenders, Cinda HK and Xi an TCH.

Under the terms of the Purchase Agreement, the Company sold to the Investor, on December 28, 2010, a secured convertible note in the principal amount of $7,533,411, the US dollar equivalent of RMB 50 million (the Note). Pursuant to the Purchase Agreement, the Company, upon 45 days notice to the Investor, may require the Investor to purchase an additional convertible note (Additional Note) in the principal amount of the US dollar equivalent of RMB 50 million. The Note bears interest at a variable rate and matures on December 28, 2013. The principal face amount of the Note, together with any interest thereon, is convertible, at the option of the Investor, at any time on or after the date on which the audited consolidated financial statements of the Company for the fiscal year ending December 31, 2010 are available, and prior to the maturity of the Notes, into shares of Common Stock at a conversion price determined per the terms of the Note. The Additional Note, if and when issued, will be convertible into shares of Common Stock on similar terms.

Under the terms of the Onshore Loan Agreement the Lenders made a loan in the amount of RMB 50 million on January 30, 2011 (the Loan). The Loan matures on January 30, 2014. The Onshore Loan Agreement provides that the Lenders may be required to extend an additional Loan in the amount of RMB 50 million upon request of the Borrower (the Additional Loan). Pursuant to the terms of the Exchange Rights Agreement, which makes reference to the Onshore Loan Agreement, the Lenders have the option at any time after the date on which the audited consolidated financial statements of the Company for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2010 are available, and prior to the maturity date of the Loan, to exchange the entire Loan amount for shares of Common Stock at an exchange price determined per the terms of the Exchange Rights Agreement. The Additional Loan, if made, will be exchangeable, per the Exchange Rights Agreement, for shares of Common Stock upon similar terms.

Assuming that the conversion/exchange price is not adjusted, the number of shares of Common Stock issuable to the Investor upon conversion of the maximum possible amount of the Note and to the Lenders pursuant to exchange of the Loan as per the Exchange Rights Agreement, would be 6,124,724 with cash payment to the Investor and the Lenders in lieu of any fractional shares. The shares of Common Stock issuable upon conversion of the Note and exchange per the Exchange Rights Agreement are the only reportable shares of Common Stock beneficially held by the Reporting Persons. The conversion/exchange price for the Note is subject to adjustment based upon the Company's earnings per share for the year ended December 31, 2010. The exchange price for the Loan is further subject to adjustment based upon changes in the exchange rate between the U.S. dollar and the RMB.

Assuming the Additional Note is issued and the Additional Loan is made, the maximum number of shares of Common Stock issuable upon conversion of the Note and the Additional Note, together with the maximum number of shares issuable upon exchange of the Loan and the Additional Loan would be 12,249,448, assuming no change in the U.S. dollar to RMB exchange rate.

The Note contains customary affirmative and negative covenants and events of default. If an event of default were to occur, the principal amount and accrued and unpaid interest and all other amounts payable under the Note would become immediately due and payable, upon demand. The obligations of the Company under the Note rank pari passu to all other secured debt of the Company.

The source of the purchase price for the Note, and the lending amount under the Onshore Loan Agreement contemplated by the Exchange Rights Agreement, was the self-owned operating funds of the Reporting Persons.

Item 4. Purpose of Transaction.

The Reporting Persons are acquiring the rights to acquire shares of Common Stock through conversion of the Note and exchange of the Loan per the Exchange Rights Agreement for investment purposes. The Reporting Persons may, from time to time, depending upon market conditions and other factors deemed relevant by the Reporting Persons, acquire other promissory notes, warrants or rights to acquire shares of Common Stock outside of those contemplated by the Purchase Agreement or the Exchange Rights Agreement. The Reporting Persons reserve the right to, and may in the future choose to, change their purpose with respect to the investment and take such actions as they deem appropriate in light of the circumstances including, without limitation, to dispose of, in the open market, in a private transaction, by gift, or otherwise, all or a portion of the Notes, Loan or shares of Common Stock which they now own or may hereafter acquire from the Company.

Except as described above or elsewhere herein, at the date of this Statement, the Reporting Persons do not have plans or proposals which would result in:

 - (g) Except as set forth below changes in the Company's charter, bylaws or instruments corresponding thereto or other actions which may impede the acquisition of control of the Company by any person;
 - (h) Causing a class of securities of the Company to be delisted from a national securities exchange or to cease to be authorized to be quoted in an inter-dealer quotation system of a registered national securities association;

(i) A class of equity securities of the Company becoming eligible for termination of registration pursuant to Section 12(g)(4) of the Act; or

(j) Any action similar to any of those actions enumerated above.

In connection with the Purchase Agreement and the Exchange Rights Agreement, the Company, the Investor, on behalf of itself and the Lenders and certain of the Company's other major shareholders entered into an Amended and Restated Shareholders Agreement, dated as of August 18, 2010 (the "Shareholders Agreement"). The Shareholders Agreement entitles the Investor to nominate two representatives to the Company's Board of Directors, which Board of Directors, pursuant to the terms of the Shareholders Agreement, shall have no more than seven (7) members. The Investor has not presently nominated any members to the Company's Board of Directors, although the Investor reserves the right to do so at its sole discretion, pursuant to the terms of the Shareholders Agreement.

Under the terms of the Shareholders Agreement, the Investor has certain rights with respect to all subsequent transactions to directly or indirectly, sell, assign, transfer or otherwise dispose of Common Stock undertaken or proposed to be undertaken by the principal shareholder of the Company party to the Shareholders Agreement. By exercising these rights, the Investor could impede the acquisition of control of the Company by other persons.
