Item 5.03. Amendment to Articles of Incorporation or Bylaws; Change in Fiscal Year.

On April 11, 2011, the Board of Directors of Wintrust Financial Corporation (the Company ) amended the Company s Amended and Restated By-Laws, effective immediately. The amendments require that shareholder proposals and nominations must be made not less than 90 nor more than 120 days prior to the anniversary date of the immediately preceding annual meeting of shareholders. This requirement will be deemed satisfied by a shareholder if he or she has notified the Company of his or her intention to present a proposal at an annual meeting in accordance with Rule 14a-8 under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the Exchange Act ). Shareholders making a proposal or nomination must also include in his or her notice to the Company information regarding any hedging activities with respect to his or her shareholdings, a representation that he or she intends to appear in person or by proxy at the meeting to introduce such business, the consent of each nominee to be named in a proxy statement and to serve as a director if elected, and all other information that would be required in a proxy statement filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission pursuant to Section 14 of the Exchange Act. These amendments to the advance notice provisions will be effective for the 2012 annual meeting of shareholders.

The Amended and Restated By-Laws also contain a number of clarifying changes to ensure that the Amended and Restated By-Laws are current and operate as intended, including:

- each director will hold office until the next annual meeting of shareholders or until a successor has been elected and qualified;

- a director may resign at any time and may be removed from office in accordance with the provisions of the Illinois Business Corporation Act;

- a director may participate in and act at any meeting of the Board of Directors through the use of telephone or other communications equipment; and

- payments made to a director, officer or employee of the Company need not be reimbursed if disallowed as a deductible expense by the Internal Revenue Service.

The foregoing information is qualified in its entirety by reference to the Company s Amended and Restated By-Laws, as amended, a copy of which is attached hereto as Exhibit 3.2 and is incorporated herein by reference.
