This proxy statement is furnished to shareholders of Mercantile Bank Corporation ("Mercantile") in connection with the solicitation of proxies by its Board of Directors for use at the annual meeting of its shareholders to be held on Thursday, April 28, 2005, at 9:00 a.m. local time, at Cascade Hills Country Club, 3725 Cascade Road SE, Grand Rapids, Michigan, and at any and all adjournments of the meeting. It is expected that the proxy materials will be mailed to shareholders on or about March 15, 2005.

Any proxy given pursuant to this solicitation may be revoked by the person giving it at any time before its exercise. Unless the proxy is revoked, the shares represented by the proxy will be voted at the annual meeting or any adjournment of the meeting.

The entire cost of soliciting proxies will be borne by Mercantile. The Altman Group, Inc., 1275 Valley Brook Avenue, Lyndhurst, New Jersey 07071, has been retained by Mercantile to aid in the solicitation of proxies. For these services, Mercantile has agreed to pay The Altman Group a fee of $3,500 and reimburse it for certain out-of-pocket disbursements and expenses. Directors, officers, or other employees of Mercantile or its subsidiary, Mercantile Bank of West Michigan (the "Bank"), may, without compensation other than their regular compensation, solicit proxies by further mailing or personal conversation, or by telephone, facsimile or electronic means. Mercantile will reimburse brokerage houses and other custodians, nominees and fiduciaries for their out-of-pocket expenses for forwarding soliciting material to the beneficial owners of Mercantile common stock.

The Board of Directors, in accordance with the Bylaws, has fixed the close of business on March 1, 2005 as the record date for determining shareholders entitled to notice of and to vote at the annual meeting and at any and all adjournments of the meeting.

At the close of business on the record date, the outstanding number of voting securities of Mercantile was 7,211,537 shares of common stock, each of which is entitled to one vote.

ELECTION OF DIRECTORS

Mercantile's Articles of Incorporation and Bylaws provide that the number of directors, as determined from time to time by the Board of Directors, shall be no less than six and no more than fifteen. The Board of Directors has presently fixed the number of directors at fifteen. The Articles of Incorporation and Bylaws further provide that the directors shall be divided into three classes, Class I, Class II and Class III, with each class serving a staggered three year term and with the number of directors in each class being as nearly equal as possible.

Edgar Filing: MERCANTILE BANK CORP - Form DEF 14A

The Board of Directors has nominated Betty S. Burton, David M. Cassard, Peter A. Cordes, David M. Hecht and Merle J. It is the intention of the persons named in the enclosed proxy to vote the proxy for the election of the five nominees. The proposed nominees for election as directors are willing to be elected and serve; but in the event that any nominee at the time of election is unable to serve or is otherwise unavailable for election, the Board of Directors may select a substitute nominee, and in that event the persons named in the enclosed proxy intend to vote the proxy for the person selected. If a substitute nominee is not selected, the proxy will be voted for the election of the remaining nominees. Shareholders and other persons may send communications to members of the Board of Directors who serve on the Audit Committee by utilizing the webpage on Mercantile's website (www.mercbank.com) designated for that purpose. Communications received through the webpage are reviewed by a member of Mercantile's internal audit staff and the Chairman of the Audit Committee. Communications that relate to functions of the Board of Directors or its committees, or that either of them believe requires the attention of members of the Board of Directors are provided to the entire Audit Committee, and reported to the Board of Directors by a member of the Audit Committee. Directors may review a log of these communications, and request copies of any of the communications.

The Board of Directors has a policy of encouraging members of the Board of Directors to attend the annual meetings of the shareholders. All of the directors attended last year's annual meeting.

BOARD OF DIRECTORS MEETINGS AND COMMITTEES

Mercantile has standing Audit, Compensation, and Nominating Committees of the Board of Directors.

AUDIT COMMITTEE. The members of the Audit Committee consist of Betty S. Burton, David M. Cassard, C. John Gill, David M. Hecht, Calvin D. Murdock and Merle J. Prins. The functions of the Audit Committee are described below under the heading "Audit Committee Report". The Board of Directors has determined that Mr. Cassard, a member of the Audit Committee, is qualified as an audit committee financial expert as that term is defined in the rules of the Securities and Exchange Commission. Mr. Cassard is independent, as independence for audit committee members is defined in the listing standards of the Nasdaq Stock Market and the rules of the Securities and Exchange Commission.

COMPENSATION COMMITTEE. The members of the Compensation Committee consist of David M. Cassard, Peter A. Cordes, Lawrence W. Larsen, and Calvin D. Murdock. Each member of the Compensation Committee is independent, as independence for compensation committee members is defined in the listing standards of the Nasdaq Stock Market. The Compensation Committee's responsibilities include considering and recommending to the Board of Directors compensation and benefits for officers of Mercantile, and administering Mercantile's Independent Director Stock Option Plan and Employee Stock Purchase Plan of 2002. At present, all officers of Mercantile are also officers of the Bank, and although they receive compensation from the Bank in their capacity as officers of the Bank, they presently receive no separate cash compensation from Mercantile. The Bank also has a compensation committee whose members are the same as that of Mercantile's Compensation Committee.

NOMINATING COMMITTEE. The members of the Nominating Committee consist of Betty S. Burton, Edward J. Clark, Peter A. Cordes, Doyle A. Hayes, David M. Hecht, Lawrence W. Larsen and Donald Williams, Sr. The Nominating Committee is responsible for making recommendations to the Board of Directors as to its size and composition, and evaluating and recommending to the Board of Directors candidates for election as directors at Mercantile's annual meetings. The Nominating Committee has a charter, which is available on Mercantile's website (www.mercbank.com). Each member of the Nominating Committee is independent, as independence for nominating committee members is defined in the listing standards of the Nasdaq Stock Market.

The Nominating Committee will consider as potential nominees persons recommended by shareholders. Recommendations should be submitted to the Nominating Committee in care of the Secretary of Mercantile, 5650 Byron Center Avenue SW, Wyoming, Michigan 49519. Each recommendation should include a personal biography of the suggested nominee, an indication of the background or experience that qualifies the person for consideration, and a statement that the person has agreed to serve if nominated and elected.

The Nominating Committee has used an informal process to identify potential candidates for nomination as directors. Candidates for nomination have been recommended by an executive officer or director, and considered by the Nominating Committee and the Board of Directors. Generally, candidates have been members of the West Michigan community who have been known to one or more of the Board members. The Nominating Committee has not adopted specific minimum qualifications that it believes must be met by a person it recommends for nomination as a director. In evaluating candidates for nomination, the Nominating Committee will consider the factors it believes to be appropriate, which would generally include the candidate's personal and professional integrity, business judgment, relevant experience and skills, and potential to be an effective director in conjunction with the rest of the Board of Directors in collectively serving the long-term interests of Mercantile's shareholders. Although the Nominating Committee has the authority to retain a search firm to assist it in identifying director candidates, there has to date been no need to employ a search firm. The Nominating Committee does not evaluate potential nominees for director differently based on whether they are recommended to the Nominating Committee by a shareholder.

Shareholders who themselves wish to effectively nominate a person for election to the Board of Directors, as contrasted with recommending a potential nominee to the Nominating Committee for its consideration, are required to comply with the advance notice and other requirements set forth in Mercantile's Articles of Incorporation.

During 2004, there were a total of 16 meetings of the Board of Directors of Mercantile. In addition, there were five meetings of the Audit Committee, three meetings of the Compensation Committee and two meetings of the Nominating Committee during 2004. Each director attended at least 75% of the total number of meetings of the Board of Directors and committees of the Board of which he or she was a member, held during 2004.

DIRECTOR COMPENSATION

For 2004, non-employee directors of the Bank were paid an annual retainer of $7,500, and a fee of $400 for each meeting of the Board of Directors or a committee of the Board of Directors of the Bank that they attended. In addition, non-employee directors of Mercantile were paid $400 for each meeting of the Board of Directors or a committee of the Board of Directors of Mercantile that they attended, when for Board meetings, there was not also a meeting of the Board of Directors of the Bank on the same day, and for committee meetings, there was not also a meeting of a committee of the Board of Directors of the Bank having the same name or designated function on the same day.

Beginning January 2, 2005, the Board of Directors increased the annual retainer for non-employee directors of the Bank to $12,000, and increased the fee for each meeting of the Board of Directors of the Bank that a director attends to $700. Beginning the same date, meeting fees were established at $600 for each meeting of the Audit Committee, $500 for each meeting of the Compensation Committee, and $400 for each meeting of other committees of the Board of Directors of the Bank. Fees of the same amount have been established for meetings of Mercantile's Board of Directors and its committees, when for Board meetings there is not also a meeting of the Board of Directors of the Bank on the same day, and for committee meetings there is not also a meeting of a committee of the Board of Directors of the Bank having the same name or function on the same day. For meetings that are held by telephone or other remote communications equipment, the meeting fees are half the amount described above. Beginning January 2, 2005, annual retainer fees were established for the Chairmen of three of the committees of Mercantile's Board of Directors. The annual retainers are, for the Chairman of the Audit Committee -- $4,000, for the Chairman of the Compensation Committee -- $2,000, and for the Chairman of the Nominating Committee -- $1,000. The same persons currently serve on the Boards of Directors of Mercantile and the Bank. Under the Bank's deferred compensation plan for non-employee directors, directors may elect to defer the receipt of the annual retainer and meeting fees until they are no longer serving on the Board.

On October 18, 2001, the Board of Directors adopted an Independent Director Stock Option Plan that was approved by the shareholders at the April 18, 2002 annual meeting. In each of 2001, 2002, 2003 and 2004, options were granted to the non-employee directors of Mercantile under the plan. In October of 2004, options for 500 shares were granted under the plan to each of Ms. Burton, Ms. Jones, and Messrs. Cassard, Clark, Cordes, Gill, Hayes, Hecht, Larsen, Murdock, Prins, Visser, and Williams. The options are first exercisable five years after their date of grant, subject to accelerated vesting as provided in the plan. The exercise price is $46.625 per share for the 2004 options. The exercise price is 125 percent of the fair market value per share on the day the options were granted.

AUDIT COMMITTEE REPORT

Edgar Filing: MERCANTILE BANK CORP - Form DEF 14A

The following Audit Committee Report does not constitute soliciting material and should not be deemed filed or incorporated by reference into any other Mercantile filing under the Securities Act of 1933 or the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, except to the extent Mercantile specifically incorporates this report by reference.

Each member of the Audit Committee is independent, as independence for audit committee members is defined in the listing standards of the Nasdaq Stock Market and the rules of the Securities and Exchange Commission. The Audit Committee's primary purpose is to assist the Board of Directors in overseeing:

- the accounting and financial reporting process;
- audits of financial statements;
- internal accounting and disclosure controls; and
- the internal audit functions.

In carrying out its responsibilities, the Audit Committee supervises the relationship between Mercantile and its independent auditors, including having direct responsibility for their appointment, compensation and retention, and reviewing the scope of their audit services, and approving audit and permissible non-audit services. The Audit Committee reviews and discusses the annual and quarterly financial statements, as well as the internal audit plan.

The Board of Directors has adopted a charter for the Audit Committee. A copy of the charter is available on Mercantile's website (www.mercbank.com).

Management has the primary responsibility for the financial statements and the reporting process, including Mercantile's systems of internal controls. In fulfilling its oversight responsibilities, the Audit Committee reviewed the audited financial statements for the year ended December 31, 2004 with management, including a discussion of the quality and the acceptability of Mercantile's financial reporting and controls.

The Audit Committee reviewed with the independent auditors, Crowe Chizek and Company LLC ("Crowe Chizek"), who are responsible for expressing an opinion on the conformity of those audited financial statements with generally accepted accounting principles, their judgments as to the quality and the acceptability of Mercantile's financial reporting and such other matters as are required to be discussed with the Audit Committee under generally accepted auditing standards, including the matters required to be discussed pursuant to Statement on Auditing Standards No. 61 (Communications with Audit Committees). In addition, the Audit Committee has discussed with Crowe Chizek the auditors' independence from management and Mercantile, including the matters in the auditors' written disclosures required by the Independence Standards Board Standard No. 1 (Independence Discussions with Audit Committees). The Audit Committee has considered the compatibility of the provision of non-audit services with maintaining the auditors' independence.

The Audit Committee also discussed with Mercantile's internal and independent auditors the overall scope and plans for their respective audits. The Audit Committee meets periodically with the internal and independent auditors, with and without management present, to discuss the results of their examinations, their evaluations of Mercantile's internal controls, and the overall quality of Mercantile's financial reporting.

Edgar Filing: MERCANTILE BANK CORP - Form DEF 14A

In reliance on the reviews and discussions referred to above, the Audit Committee recommended to the Board of Directors that the audited financial statements be included in the Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2004 for filing with the Securities and Exchange Commission. The Audit Committee also evaluated and reappointed Mercantile's independent auditors for fiscal 2005.

COMPENSATION COMMITTEE REPORT

The following Compensation Committee Report and the shareholder return performance graph included elsewhere in this proxy statement do not constitute soliciting material and should not be deemed filed or incorporated by reference into any other Mercantile filing under the Securities Act of 1933 or the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, except to the extent Mercantile specifically incorporates this report or the performance graph by reference.

The compensation of the executive officers of Mercantile is determined by the Board of Directors based on recommendations of the Compensation Committee. Mercantile seeks to establish compensation at a level that will attract, motivate and retain experienced executive officers who can increase shareholder value, deliver competitive products and services to customers, and provide leadership for employees. Salaries are intended to be competitive, and reflect factors such as individual performance, level of responsibility, and prior experience. Incentive compensation and stock option awards are intended to align the interests of executive officers with that of the shareholders and reward performance that increases shareholder value.

Executive compensation is comprised of the following:

1. Salary.
2. Incentive compensation payable in the form of a cash bonus based on the attainment by Mercantile of annual performance criteria recommended by the Compensation Committee and approved by the Board of Directors.
3. Performance based discretionary cash awards made by the Compensation Committee from a bonus pool.
4. Discretionary awards of stock options.
5. Participation in other benefit plans offered to all employees including 401(k), health insurance, disability insurance and life insurance.

Annual salaries for Mercantile's Chairman and Chief Executive Officer and President and Chief Operating Officer increased in 2004. Since Mercantile commenced business in 1997, growth in earnings per share and asset levels has been significant, including in each of the more recent years. The salary increase granted these two executive officers during 2004 recognizes the contribution these individuals have made to the success of the organization. Executive salaries and incentive compensation are also based in part on information derived from industry compensation studies performed by Mercantile's auditors, from surveys conducted by the Michigan Bankers Association and the Bank Administration Institute, and from the SNL Executive Compensation Review for Banks and Thrifts. Compensation information is also taken from proxy materials filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission by other comparable financial institutions. This information is analyzed by Mercantile's Director of Human Resources and presented to the Compensation Committee for the formulation of a salary recommendation to be approved by the Board of Directors.

Executive bonuses are also determined by the Board of Directors as the result of a recommendation by the Compensation Committee and are based on the same criteria as is the incentive compensation for all non-lender employees.

EMPLOYMENT AGREEMENTS

GERALD R. JOHNSON, JR. AND MICHAEL H. PRICE. Effective December 1, 1998, the Bank and Mercantile entered into Employment Agreements with Mr. Johnson and Mr. Price providing for their employment from December 1, 1998 through December 31, 2001, and certain severance, confidentiality and non-compete arrangements that would continue after the employment period. Effective December 31, 1999, the Employment Agreements were amended and restated. The amendments extended the employment period an additional year to December 31, 2002, and provide for the employment period to extend an additional year, each December 31, starting December 31, 2000, so that as of each December 31, there will be three years remaining in the employment period. The annual extension of the employment period can be avoided by the Bank, Mercantile, or the officer giving notice to the others that the employment period is not to be extended. Effective October 12, 2000, and October 18, 2001, the Employment Agreements were further amended and restated, primarily to establish the base salaries for 2001 and 2002 for Mr. Johnson and Mr. Price.

The Employment Agreements with Mr. Johnson and Mr. Price provide them with annual base salaries for each year in the amounts established from year to year by the Board of Directors of the Bank. The annual base salary for each year may not be less than the amount established for the immediately preceding year. The Board of Directors established Mr. Johnson's annual base salary at $370,000 for 2004, and at $420,000 for 2005. The Board of Directors established Mr. Price's annual base salary at $325,000 for 2004, and at $365,000 for 2005.

In addition to the annual base salary, the Employment Agreements provide that Mr. Johnson and Mr. Price are entitled to participate in any employee benefit and incentive compensation plans of Mercantile and the Bank, including health insurance, life and disability insurance, stock option, profit sharing and retirement plans. Under a profit sharing plan in effect for 2004, Messrs. Johnson and Price each received a bonus for 2004 of 50% of their annual base salary for that year. In addition, for 2004, each of them received a $30,000 discretionary merit award. Under a profit sharing plan expected to be in effect for 2005, Messrs. Johnson and Price may each receive a bonus of up to 50% of their annual base salary for 2005. It is anticipated that the bonuses for 2005, for Mr. Johnson, Mr. Price and the other non-lending officers of the Bank, will be payable only to the extent that after taking into account the payment, the after tax net operating income of Mercantile for 2005 would exceed 120% of the prior year's after tax net income.

In the event that either of the officers becomes disabled or dies during the employment period he is entitled to benefits under his Employment Agreement. In the event of disability, the officer continues to receive his then current annual base salary through the end of the employment period, and any disability benefits payable under disability plans provided by the Bank or Mercantile. The officer also continues to participate in life, disability, and health insurance plans of the Bank or Mercantile, through age 65, to the extent permitted under such plans. If the officer dies during the employment period, the Bank is obligated to pay the officer's legal representative a death benefit of $250,000, and if the Bank or Mercantile owns any life insurance insuring the life of the officer, the proceeds of the policies are payable to the named beneficiaries.

The Employment Agreements provide severance benefits in the event that the officer's employment is terminated by Mercantile and the Bank without "Cause" or the officer elects to terminate his employment for "Good Reason" during the employment period. In such event, the officer is entitled to receive the greater of (i) his annual base salary through the end of the employment period or (ii) $500,000; in either case payable over 18 months in equal monthly installments. In addition, in the case of such a termination of employment, the officer is entitled to continue his participation in life, disability and health insurance plans provided by the Bank or Mercantile for 18 months, to the extent permitted under such plans, to an assignment of any assignable term life insurance policies owned by the Bank or Mercantile insuring his life, and to $10,000 for out-placement, interim office and related expenses. The Employment Agreements also provide severance benefits in the event that after the employment period and prior to the officer reaching the age of 65, the officer's employment is terminated by the Bank and Mercantile without "Cause" or the officer's annual base salary is reduced without "Cause". In such event, the officer receives the same benefits as are described above for a termination during the employment period, except that when determining the cash severance payable to him over the 18 months following his termination, the alternative of receiving his annual base salary through the end of the employment period does not apply, and instead he receives the stated dollar amount of $500,000. In the event that an officer's employment is terminated for "Cause" during the employment period, the officer is not entitled to any accrued rights that he may then have under any stock option plan of Mercantile.

Under the Employment Agreements, Mr. Johnson and Mr. Price agree not to disclose, except as required by law, any confidential information relating to the business or customers of the Bank or Mercantile, or use any confidential information in any manner adverse to the Bank or Mercantile. In addition, each has agreed that for 18 months following his employment with the Bank and Mercantile, he will not be employed by, or act as a director or officer of, any business engaged in banking within a 50 mile radius of Grand Rapids, Michigan that solicits customers of the Bank.

ROBERT B. KAMINSKI, JR. The Bank and Mercantile entered into an Employment Agreement with Mr. Kaminski for his services as an officer of Mercantile and the Bank beginning January 1, 2001, on substantially the same terms as the Employment Agreements described for Mr. Johnson and Mr. Price above, except that the compensation and severance amounts are different. Effective October 18, 2001, the Employment Agreement was amended and restated primarily to establish the base salary for Mr. Kaminski for 2002. The Employment Agreement provides Mr. Kaminski with an annual base salary for each year in the amount established from year to year by the Board of Directors of the Bank. The annual base salary for each year may not be less than the amount established for the immediately preceding year. The Board of Directors established Mr. Kaminski's annual base salary at $190,000 for 2004, and at $215,000 for 2005. Under a profit sharing plan in effect for 2004, Mr. Kaminski received a bonus for 2004 of 45% of his annual base salary for that year. In addition, for 2004, Mr. Kaminski received a $25,000 discretionary merit award. Under a profit sharing plan expected to be in effect for 2005, Mr. Kaminski may receive a bonus of up to 45% of his annual base salary for 2005. The Employment Agreement also establishes a death benefit of $100,000, and a minimum severance benefit of $250,000 during his employment period and $125,000 after the employment period.

CHARLES E. CHRISTMAS. The Bank and Mercantile entered into an Employment Agreement with Mr. Christmas for his services as an officer of Mercantile and the Bank beginning January 1, 2001, on substantially the same terms as the Employment Agreements described for Mr. Johnson and Mr. Price above, except that the compensation and severance amounts are different. Effective October 18, 2001, the Employment Agreement was amended and restated primarily to establish the base salary for Mr. Christmas for 2002. The Employment Agreement provides Mr. Christmas with an annual base salary for each year in the amount established from year to year by the Board of Directors of the Bank. The annual base salary for each year may not be less than the amount established for the immediately preceding year. The Board of Directors established Mr. Christmas' annual base salary at $170,000 for 2004, and at $180,000 for 2005. Under a profit sharing plan in effect for 2004, Mr. Christmas received a bonus for 2004 of 45% of his annual base salary for that year. In addition, for 2004, Mr. Christmas received a $25,000 discretionary merit award. Under a profit sharing plan expected to be in effect for 2005, Mr. Christmas may receive a bonus of up to 45% of his annual base salary for 2005. The Employment Agreement also establishes a death benefit of $100,000, and a minimum severance benefit of $250,000 during his employment period and $125,000 after the employment period.
