NAM TAI ELECTRONICS, INC.

CEO to Resign Effective May 31, 2007 to Rejoin Yu Ming As Chief

VANCOUVER, CANADA April 12, 2007 Nam Tai Electronics, Inc. (Nam Tai or the Company) (NYSE Symbol: NTE) today announced that it is accepting, with regret, the resignation of Mr. Warren Lee as Nam Tai's Chief Executive Officer, effective May 31, 2007, so that Mr. Lee can accept the position of Managing Director of Yu Ming Investments Limited (Yu Ming).

Yu Ming is an investment company listed in Hong Kong, engaged in investments of property, private equity, structured financing and listed securities. Before joining Nam Tai, Mr. Lee had served Yu Ming since July 1992.

I was asked personally by the person-in-charge of Yu Ming to succeed him, Warren Lee said, and it is a gesture I just could not decline. During my short tenure at Nam Tai, I have come to appreciate its business ethic and the dedication of its management team. It is truly an organization of which to be proud.

Mr. Lee has brought with him a new perspective for Nam Tai's management. His presence with us, although of short duration, has been positive and he has made a valuable contribution to Nam Tai. We regret but understand his decision, said Mr. M. K. Koo, Nam Tai's Chairman and founder, and wish him every good fortune in his new challenge.

Pending the identification or recruiting of a suitable successor for Mr. Lee, Mr. Koo will assume the duties and responsibilities as Nam Tai's Chief Executive Officer.
