PROXY STATEMENT

These proxy materials are furnished to you in connection with the solicitation of proxies by the Board of Directors of Group 1 Automotive, Inc. for use at our 2005 Annual Meeting of Stockholders and at any adjournment of that meeting. The meeting will be held at JPMorgan Chase, Mezzanine Level, 707 Travis Street, Houston, Texas, on Wednesday, May 18, 2005, at 10:00 a.m., central time. This proxy statement and the enclosed proxy card are being mailed to stockholders beginning on or about April 22, 2005. Because many stockholders are unable to attend the meeting, our Board of Directors solicits proxies from our stockholders to ensure that each stockholder has an opportunity to vote on all matters scheduled to come before the meeting. We urge you to read carefully the material in this proxy statement.

ABOUT THE ANNUAL MEETING

What is the purpose of the meeting?

At our annual meeting, stockholders will act upon the matters outlined in the notice of meeting, including the election of directors, the ratification of Ernst & Young LLP as our independent auditors and consideration of any other matters properly presented at the meeting. In addition, senior management will report on our business and financial performance during fiscal 2004 and respond to your questions.

Who is entitled to vote at the meeting?

Only our stockholders as of 5:00 p.m., central time, on March 21, 2005, the record date, are entitled to receive notice of the annual meeting and to vote at the meeting. On March 21, 2005, there were 23,521,169 shares of Group 1 common stock issued and outstanding and entitled to vote at the meeting.

How many votes can I cast?

You are entitled to one vote for each share of Group 1 common stock you owned at 5:00 p.m., central time, on March 21, 2005 on all matters presented at the meeting.

How do I vote my shares?

If you hold your shares as a stockholder of record, you can vote in person at the annual meeting or you can provide a proxy to be voted at the meeting by:

calling 1-866-540-5760;

using the Internet, at www.proxyvoting.com/gpi; or mailing the enclosed proxy card.

Table of Contents

If you are a stockholder of record and you would like to vote by telephone or by using the Internet, please refer to the specific instructions set forth on the enclosed proxy card. Voting by telephone or by the Internet is expressly permitted in Delaware, our state of incorporation. The telephone and Internet voting procedures have been set up for your convenience and have been designed to authenticate your identity, allow you to give voting instructions and confirm that those instructions have been recorded properly. If you wish to vote using a paper format and you return your signed proxy to us before the annual meeting, we will vote your shares as you direct.

If you choose to submit your proxy with voting instructions by telephone or through the Internet, you will be required to provide your assigned control number located on the enclosed proxy card before your proxy will be accepted. In addition to the instructions that appear on the enclosed proxy card and information sheet, step-by-step instructions will be provided by recorded telephone message or at the designated Web site on the Internet. Once you have voted in accordance with those instructions, you will receive confirmation that your proxy has been successfully submitted.

If you hold your shares in street name, you will receive instructions from your broker or other nominee describing how to vote your shares. If you do not instruct your broker or nominee how to vote such shares, they may vote your shares as they decide as to each matter for which they have discretionary authority under the rules of the New York Stock Exchange.

If you vote by granting a proxy, Earl J. Hesterberg, Jr., our President and Chief Executive Officer or Robert T. Ray, our Senior Vice President, Chief Financial Officer and Treasurer, will vote the shares of which you are the stockholder of record in accordance with your instructions. If you submit a proxy card without giving specific voting instructions, Messrs. Hesterberg or Ray will vote those shares as recommended by our Board of Directors.

What is the difference between a stockholder of record and a street name holder?

If your shares are registered directly in your name with Mellon Investor Services, LLC, our stock transfer agent, you are considered the stockholder of record with respect to those shares. If your shares are held in a stock brokerage account or by another nominee, you are considered the beneficial owner of those shares, and your shares are held in street name.

How do I vote my shares in person at the meeting?

If you are a stockholder of record, you may vote your shares by completing a ballot at the meeting. If you choose to do so, please bring the enclosed proxy card or proof of identification. Even if you currently plan to attend the annual meeting in person, we recommend that you also submit your proxy as described above so that your vote will be counted if you later decide not to attend the meeting. If you hold your shares in street name, you may only vote those shares in person if you obtain a signed proxy from your broker or other nominee giving you the right to vote the shares.

Can I revoke my proxy?

Yes. You can revoke your proxy at any time before it is exercised by:

submitting written notice of revocation to Jeffrey M. Cameron, Group 1 Automotive, Inc., 950 Echo Lane, Suite 100, Houston, Texas 77024; submitting another proxy by telephone, via the Internet or by mail that is later dated and, if by mail, that is properly signed; or attending our meeting and voting your shares in person.

Table of Contents

What vote is required to approve the election of directors?

In the election of directors, you may either vote FOR the nominees or WITHHOLD your vote for the nominees. Abstentions and broker non-votes will have no effect on the outcome of the election of the directors. If a nominee receives a plurality of the votes cast, he will be elected to our Board of Directors.

Abstentions occur when stockholders are present at the annual meeting but choose to withhold their vote for any of the matters upon which the stockholders are voting. Broker non-votes occur when nominees (such as banks and brokers) that hold shares on behalf of beneficial owners do not receive voting instructions from the beneficial owners before the meeting and do not have discretionary authority to vote those shares under the applicable rules of the New York Stock Exchange.

What vote is required to approve the ratification of the appointment of Ernst & Young LLP as Group 1's independent auditors?

In voting on the ratification of the appointment of Ernst & Young LLP as our independent auditors, you may vote FOR the ratification, AGAINST the ratification or ABSTAIN from voting on the ratification. Holders of a majority of the shares of our common stock cast with respect to the proposal must vote FOR the ratification of the appointment of Ernst & Young LLP as our independent auditors in order for such ratification to be approved at the annual meeting. Abstentions and broker non-votes are not counted as votes cast with respect to the proposal.

How does the Board of Directors recommend I vote on the proposals?

The Board of Directors recommends that you vote:

FOR each of the nominees for director set forth on pages 4 and 5; and

FOR the ratification of the appointment by the Audit Committee of Ernst & Young LLP as our independent auditors.

What is a quorum?

A quorum is the presence at the meeting, in person or by proxy, of the holders of a majority of the outstanding shares of our common stock as of the record date. There must be a quorum for the meeting to be held. If you submit a valid proxy card, vote by Internet or phone, or attend the meeting, your shares will be counted to determine whether there is a quorum. Abstentions and broker non-votes will be counted toward the quorum.

May I propose actions for consideration at next year's annual meeting of stockholders or nominate individuals to serve as directors?

You may submit proposals for consideration at future stockholder meetings, including director nominations. In order for a stockholder proposal, including a director nomination, to be considered for inclusion in our proxy statement for next year's annual meeting, the written proposal must be received by us no later than December 23, 2005. In addition, for a stockholder proposal, including a director nomination, to be considered at next year's annual meeting, the written proposal must be received by us no earlier than February 17, 2006 and no later than March 9, 2006. Please read Stockholder Proposals for 2006 Annual Meeting on page 34 for a more detailed discussion of the requirements for submitting a stockholder proposal for consideration at next year's annual meeting.

Table of ContentsITEM 1 - ELECTION OF DIRECTORS

Our Restated Certificate of Incorporation provides for a classified Board of Directors. The directors are divided into three classes, with each class serving for a period of three years. As a result, the stockholders elect approximately one-third of the members of our Board of Directors annually. You are being asked to elect two Class III directors at this annual meeting to serve until the 2008 annual meeting, until his successor is elected and qualified or until the earlier of his death, resignation or removal. The term for our Class I directors expires in 2006, and the term for our Class II directors expires in 2007.

In accordance with our bylaws, the two nominees who receive the greatest number of votes cast for election by our stockholders will be elected as directors. As a result, abstentions, votes WITHHELD, and broker non-votes will have no effect on the outcome of the election of directors, assuming a quorum is present or represented by proxy at the annual meeting. Stockholders may not cumulate their votes in the election of our directors.

Unless otherwise instructed or unless authority to vote is withheld, the enclosed proxy will be voted for the election of the nominees listed in this proxy statement. We have no reason to believe that the nominees will be unable or unwilling to serve if elected. However, if a nominee should become unable or unwilling to serve for any reason, proxies may be voted for another person nominated as a substitute by our Board of Directors, or the Board of Directors may reduce the number of directors.

The following table sets forth certain information, as of the date of this proxy statement, regarding the nominees and the other directors of Group 1.

OUR BOARD OF DIRECTORS RECOMMENDS A VOTE FOR THE ELECTION OF EACH OF THE NOMINEES FOR DIRECTOR.

CORPORATE GOVERNANCE

Corporate Governance Guidelines

Our Board of Directors has adopted Corporate Governance Guidelines, which can be viewed on our Web site at www.group1auto.com. Among other matters, the guidelines include the following:

Director Qualification Standards

The Nominating/Governance Committee is responsible for establishing criteria for selecting new directors and actively seeking individuals to become directors for recommendation to the Board. This assessment will include members' qualification as independent, as well as consideration of diversity, age, skill and experience in the context of the needs of the Board.

The number of directors that constitutes the Board will be between three and nine. The Board believes that a smaller board generally functions more effectively than a large board as smaller boards generally promote greater participation by each board member, more effective and efficient decision making and greater individual accountability.

No director may serve on more than four other public company boards.

Table of Contents

Director Responsibilities

The basic responsibility of each director is to exercise his or her business judgment to act in what he or she reasonably believes to be in the best interests of Group 1 and its stockholders.

Directors are expected to attend Board meetings and meetings of committees on which they serve, and to spend the time needed and meet as frequently as necessary to properly discharge their responsibilities.

Directors are encouraged to attend the annual meeting of stockholders.

Director Access to Management and Independent Advisors

The Board and each committee of the Board have the power to hire independent legal, financial or other advisors as they may deem necessary.

The Board has full and free access to the officers and employees of Group 1 and welcomes regular attendance at each Board meeting of senior officers of Group 1.

Chief Executive Officer Evaluation and Management Succession

The Compensation Committee will annually review and approve corporate goals and objectives relevant to the compensation of the Chief Executive Officer, evaluate the performance of the Chief Executive Officer in light of those goals and objectives and set the compensation of the Chief Executive Officer.

The Nominating/Governance Committee will meet annually on succession planning.

Annual Performance Evaluation, Director Orientation and Continuing Education

The Board will conduct an annual self-evaluation of itself, its committees and each individual director.

All new directors must participate in an orientation program.

The Board will periodically allocate meeting time to receive information and updates on corporate governance issues, director best practices and legal and regulatory changes.

Code of Ethics for Chief Executive Officer, Chief Financial Officer, Controller and Certain Other Officers

The Board has adopted a code of ethics for our Chief Executive Officer, our Chief Financial Officer, our Controller and all other financial and accounting officers of Group 1. A copy of this code of ethics can be viewed on our Web site at www.group1auto.com. Any change to, or waiver from, this code of ethics will be disclosed on our Web site within five business days after such change or waiver. Among other matters, this code of ethics requires each of these officers to:

act with honesty and integrity, including the ethical handling of actual or apparent conflicts of interest in personal and professional relations;

avoid conflicts of interest and disclose any material transactions or relationships that reasonably could be expected to give rise to a conflict of interest;

work to ensure that Group 1 fully, fairly and accurately discloses information in a timely and understandable manner in all reports and documents that Group 1 files with the Securities and Exchange Commission and in other public communications made by Group 1;

comply with applicable governmental laws, rules and regulations; and report any violations of the code to the Chief Executive Officer and the Chairman of the Audit Committee.

Code of Conduct

The Board has adopted a code of conduct, which sets forth the standards of behavior expected of every employee, director and agent of Group 1. A copy of this code of conduct can be viewed on our Web site at www.group1auto.com. Among other matters, this code of conduct is designed to deter wrongdoing and to promote:

honest and ethical dealing with each other, with clients and vendors of Group 1, and with all other third parties; respect for the rights of fellow employees and all third parties; equal opportunity, regardless of age, race, sex, sexual orientation, color, creed, religion, national origin, marital status, veteran status, handicap or disability;

fair dealing with employees and all other third parties with whom Group 1 conducts business;

avoidance of conflicts of interest;

compliance with all applicable laws and regulations;

the safeguarding of Group 1 assets; and the reporting of any violations of the code to the appropriate officers of Group 1.

INFORMATION ABOUT OUR BOARD OF DIRECTORS AND COMMITTEES

Our Board of Directors held six meetings in 2004. During the year, all directors attended at least 81% of the meetings of the Board of Directors and of the committees on which each served. Under our corporate governance guidelines, our directors are encouraged to attend the annual meeting of our stockholders. All of our directors attended our 2004 annual meeting of stockholders.

The Independence of the Members of the Board of Directors

The Board of Directors has determined that each member of the Board of Directors, other than Messrs. Hesterberg, Hollingsworth and Howard, is independent as that term is defined in the New York Stock Exchange's listing standards.

Max P. Watson, Jr., who is a director and a member of the Compensation Committee, is the brother of John S. Watson who, although not an employee of Group 1, served as our Secretary until his resignation in March 2005. In addition, John Watson had been engaged to provide advisory services to Group 1 from time to time. During the twelve months ended December 31, 2004, Group 1 paid John Watson approximately $64,375 in fees.

The Board of Directors has determined that Max Watson is independent under the rules of the New York Stock Exchange. In making this decision, the Board considered John Watson's relationship with Group 1. The Board determined that such relationship is not material to the independence of Max Watson based on the following: (i) the relationship is not a direct relationship between Group 1 and Max Watson, but rather a relationship between Group 1 and Max Watson's brother; (ii) the Secretary of Group 1 only performs a ministerial function, and John Watson was neither an executive officer nor an employee of Group 1; (iii) the Board's view, based on Max Watson's service on the Board since 2001, that Max Watson has demonstrated a history of acting in a manner independent from management; (iv) the fact that John Watson has provided legal services to Group 1 (whether as a partner of Vinson & Elkins L.L.P. or as an individual consultant) since Group 1's inception in 1995 and prior to Max Watson's election to the Board; and (v) the fact that the relationship did not implicate any of the New York Stock Exchange's bright line independence disqualifications set forth in Section 303A(2).

Group 1 has in the past, and may, in the future, make donations to various charitable organizations. From time to time, some of our directors, officers and employees have been, and in the future may be, affiliated with such charities. Our Board of Directors has determined that any such affiliations have not impacted the independence of our directors.

Executive Sessions of the Board of Directors

The independent directors meet in executive session at each regularly scheduled meeting of the Board of Directors. In addition, the non-management directors meet in executive session at least annually at a regularly scheduled meeting of the Board of Directors. Mr. Adams, our non-executive Chairman of the Board, presides over these meetings and is responsible for preparing an agenda for the meetings of the independent directors or non-management directors in executive session.

Committees of the Board of Directors

Our Board of Directors has established three standing committees to assist it in discharging its responsibilities: the Audit Committee, the Compensation Committee and the Nominating/Governance Committee. The following chart reflects the current membership of each of our Board's committees:

Name	Audit Committee	Compensation Committee	Nominating/Governance Committee

Audit Committee

Our Audit Committee functions in an oversight role and has the following purposes:

oversee the quality, integrity and reliability of the financial statements and other financial information we provide to any governmental body or the public;

oversee our compliance with legal and regulatory requirements;

oversee our independent auditors' qualifications and independence;

oversee the performance of our internal audit function and independent auditors;

oversee our systems of internal controls regarding finance, accounting, legal compliance and ethics that our management and Board of Directors have established;

Table of Contents

provide an open avenue of communication among our independent auditors, financial and senior management, the internal auditing department, and our Board of Directors, always emphasizing that the independent auditors are accountable to the Audit Committee; and perform such other functions as our Board of Directors may assign to the Audit Committee from time to time.

In connection with these purposes, the Audit Committee annually selects, engages and evaluates the performance and on-going qualifications of, and determines the compensation for, our independent auditors, reviews our annual and quarterly financial statements, and confirms the independence of our independent auditors. The Audit Committee also meets with our management and external auditors regarding the adequacy of our financial controls and our compliance with legal, tax and regulatory matters and significant Group 1 policies. While the Audit Committee has the responsibilities and powers set forth in its charter, it is not the duty of the Audit Committee to plan or conduct audits, to determine that our financial statements are complete and accurate, or to determine that such statements are in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States and other applicable rules and regulations. Our management is responsible for the preparation of our financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States and our internal controls. Our independent auditors are responsible for the audit work on our financial statements. It is also not the duty of the Audit Committee to conduct investigations or to assure compliance with laws and regulations and our policies and procedures. Our management is responsible for compliance with laws and regulations and compliance with Group 1 s policies and procedures.

Our Board of Directors has adopted an Audit Committee Charter. The Audit Committee reviewed and recommended an amendment to its charter, which was approved by the Board of Directors at its regularly scheduled meeting in May 2004. A copy of the revised Audit Committee Charter is attached as Exhibit A to this Proxy Statement for your reference and is also posted on our Web site, www.group1auto.com.

During 2004, the Audit Committee met 14 times and consisted of Mr. Adams (Chairman), Mr. Quinn, Mr. Lataif and Mr. Strange. On April 9, 2005, Mr. Strange was appointed Chairman of the Audit Committee, filling the position vacated by Mr. Adams in connection with his appointment as Chairman of the Board. Mr. Strange also serves on the Audit Committees of Compass Bancshares, Inc., New Jersey Resources Corporation, Newfield Exploration Company and BearingPoint, Inc. The Board of Directors has determined that such simultaneous service on these other Audit Committees and our Audit Committee will not impair the ability of Mr. Strange to serve effectively on our Audit Committee.

All members of the Audit Committee are independent as that term is defined in the New York Stock Exchange s listing standards and as that term is defined by Rule 10A-3 promulgated under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934. Our Board of Directors has determined that each member of the Audit Committee is financially literate and that Mr. Strange has the necessary accounting and financial expertise to serve as chairman. Our Board of Directors has determined that Mr. Strange is an audit committee financial expert following a determination that Mr. Strange met the criteria for such designation under the Securities and Exchange Commission rules and regulations. The Audit Committee Report is set forth on pages 15 and 16 of this Proxy Statement.

Compensation Committee

Our Compensation Committee has the following purposes:

review, evaluate, and approve our agreements, plans, policies, and programs to compensate the corporate officers of Group 1;

produce an annual report on executive compensation and to publish the report in our proxy statement for our annual meeting of stockholders;

Table of Contents

otherwise discharge the Board of Directors responsibility relating to compensation of our corporate officers;
and

perform such other functions as our Board of Directors may assign to the Compensation Committee from time to time.

In connection with these purposes, the Compensation Committee approves the compensation levels and terms of employment for our executive officers, including salary and bonus levels. In addition, the Compensation Committee oversees our incentive compensation, stock purchase and deferred compensation plans. All members of the Compensation Committee are independent as that term is defined in the New York Stock Exchange's listing standards. In May 2004, Mr. Strange was appointed to the Compensation Committee. The Compensation Committee, consisting of Mr. Watson (Chairman), Mr. Adams, Mr. Quinn and Mr. Strange, held nine meetings during fiscal year 2004.

Our Board of Directors has adopted a Compensation Committee Charter, which is posted on our Web site, www.group1auto.com.

The Compensation Committee's Report on Executive Compensation is set forth on pages 18 through 27 of this Proxy Statement.

Nominating/Governance Committee

Our Nominating/Governance Committee was formed in November 2002 to serve the following purposes:

assist our Board of Directors by identifying individuals qualified to become members of our Board of Directors and recommend director nominees to our Board of Directors for election at the annual meetings of stockholders or for appointment to fill vacancies; recommend director nominees to our Board of Directors for each committee of our Board of Directors; advise our Board of Directors about the appropriate composition of our Board of Directors and its committees;

advise our Board of Directors about and recommend to our Board of Directors appropriate corporate governance practices and assist our Board of Directors in implementing those practices;

lead our Board of Directors in its annual review of the performance of the Board of Directors and its committees;

direct all matters relating to the succession of our Chief Executive Officer; review and make recommendations to the Board with respect to the form and amount of director compensation;

and

perform such other functions as our Board of Directors may assign to the Nominating/Governance Committee from time to time.

In connection with these purposes, the Nominating/Governance Committee actively seeks individuals qualified to become members of our Board of Directors, seeks to implement the independence standards required by law, applicable listing standards, our certificate of incorporation or bylaws, and our corporate governance guidelines, and identifies the qualities and characteristics necessary for an effective Chief Executive Officer.

All members of the Nominating/Governance Committee are independent as that term is defined in the New York Stock Exchange's listing standards. The Nominating/Governance Committee, consisting of Mr. Quinn (Chairman), Mr. Adams, Mr. Lataif and Mr. Watson, held four meetings during fiscal year 2004.

Table of Contents

The Nominating/Governance Committee is responsible for establishing criteria for selecting new directors and actively seeking individuals to become directors for recommendation to the Board of Directors. In considering candidates for the Board of Directors, the Nominating/Governance Committee will consider the entirety of each candidate's credentials. There is currently no set of specific minimum qualifications that must be met by a nominee recommended by the Nominating/Governance Committee, as different factors may assume greater or lesser significance at particular times and the needs of the Board of Directors may vary in light of its composition and the committee's perceptions about future issues and needs. However, while the Nominating/Governance Committee does not maintain a formal list of qualifications, in making its evaluation and recommendation of candidates, the committee may consider, among other factors, diversity, age, skill, experience in the context of the needs of the Board of Directors, independence qualifications and whether prospective nominees have relevant business and financial experience, have industry or other specialized expertise, and have high moral character.

The committee may consider candidates for the Board from any reasonable source, including from a search firm engaged by the committee or stockholder recommendations, provided that the procedures set forth below are followed. The Nominating/Governance Committee does not intend to alter the manner in which it evaluates candidates based on whether the candidate is recommended by a stockholder or not. However, in evaluating a candidate's relevant business experience, the committee may consider previous experience as a member of our Board of Directors. Any invitation to join the Board of Directors must be extended by the Board of Directors as a whole, by the Chairman of the Nominating/Governance Committee and by the Chairman of the Board.

Stockholders or a group of stockholders may recommend potential candidates for consideration by the Nominating/Governance Committee by sending a written request to our Secretary at our principal executive offices, 950 Echo Lane, Suite 100, Houston, Texas 77024 not earlier than the 150th calendar day and not later than the 120th calendar day before the first anniversary of the date our proxy statement is released to stockholders in connection with the preceding year's annual meeting. The written request must include the candidate's name, contact information, biographical information and qualifications. The request must also include the potential candidate's written consent to being named in our proxy statement as a nominee and to serving as a director if nominated and elected. The stockholder or group of stockholders making the recommendation must also disclose, with the written request described above, the number of shares of common stock that the stockholder or group beneficially owns and the period of time the stockholder or group has beneficially owned the securities. From time to time, the committee may request additional information from the nominee or the stockholder.

The stockholder recommendation procedures described above do not preclude a stockholder of record from making nominations of directors or making proposals at any annual stockholder meeting; provided that they comply with the requirements described in the section entitled Stockholder Proposals for 2006 Annual Meeting.

Our Board of Directors has adopted a Nominating/Governance Committee Charter, which is posted on our Web site, www.group1auto.com.

Stock Ownership Guidelines

In November 2004, our Board of Directors approved certain stock ownership guidelines for our non-employee directors. Under the guidelines, each director is required to maintain ownership of a minimum of 3,000 shares of our common stock. Such minimum ownership is required to be achieved within three years of election to our Board of Directors or, in the case of our current directors, by November 2007. Restricted stock or phantom stock units granted to our directors as part of their annual retainer will count toward such minimum ownership requirement without regard to the vesting or other liquidity provisions related thereto.

Director Compensation

During 2004, the annual retainer fee for our non-employee directors was $12,000. Our non-employee directors also received $1,500 for attendance at each Board meeting and $1,000 for attendance at each committee meeting. The chair of each committee received an additional $4,000 annual fee for serving in that capacity.

Table of Contents

Effective November 17, 2004, the Board of Directors approved the following changes to the compensation payable to Group 1's non-employee directors:

an annual retainer of (a) $35,000 in cash and (b) restricted stock or phantom stock units valued at $60,000 at the time of the grant pursuant to the Group 1 Automotive, Inc. 1996 Stock Incentive Plan;

an additional cash retainer of $15,000 for the chair of the Audit Committee and for the presiding director, and $7,500 for the chairs of the Compensation Committee and the Nominating/Governance Committee;

a meeting fee of $2,500 for each Board and Audit Committee meeting attended, and $1,500 for each Compensation Committee and Nominating Governance Committee meeting attended; and the use of one company vehicle, or the economic equivalent, equal to $17,600 annually, paid quarterly.

In connection with the election of Mr. Adams as Chairman of the Board, the Board of Directors approved the payment of an additional cash retainer of $100,000 to the non-executive Chairman of the Board. All cash retainer amounts are paid quarterly and all meeting fees are payable on the date of the meeting. As a result of a change approved in March 2005, the equity portion of the annual retainer will be paid annually. Abbreviated meetings, as determined at the discretion of the chair, will result in the payment of one-half of the regular fees for such meeting. Due to the increase in the cash retainer approved at the November 2004 meeting, each of our non-employee directors received an annual cash retainer of $17,750 in 2004.

Some of our directors have elected to participate in the Group 1 Automotive, Inc. Deferred Compensation Plan. The plan provides select employees and members of our Board of Directors who elect to participate, an opportunity to accumulate additional savings for retirement on a tax-deferred basis. Participants in the plan can choose from various defined investment options in which the deferred compensation is notionally invested. One investment option is a declared interest rate, which was set by the Compensation Committee at 10.0% for 2004 and for 2005. Group 1 has complete discretion over how the deferred funds are utilized and they represent an unsecured obligation of Group 1 to the participants. During 2004, Messrs. Adams, Lataif and Quinn elected to participate in the 10.0% declared interest rate investment option, deferring $75,250, $51,750 and $68,625, respectively, of their retainer and attendance fees.

On March 10, 2005, the Board of Directors of Group 1 approved a grant of $60,000 of restricted stock or phantom stock units to each non-employee director of Group 1 in payment of the equity portion of the annual retainer for 2005, as well as a grant of $15,000 of restricted stock or phantom stock units in payment of the equity portion of the annual retainer for the remainder of 2004. Based on the closing prices of Group 1 common stock on November 17, 2004 and March 14, 2005, each non-employee director is entitled to receive 513 shares of restricted stock or phantom stock units in payment of the equity portion of the annual retainer for the remainder of 2004, and 2,189 shares of restricted stock or phantom stock units in payment of the equity portion of the annual retainer for 2005. Each non-employee director has the option to select whether he shall receive restricted stock or phantom stock units. Each of these grants was made effective as of the later of March 14, 2005 and the date on which the director made an election to receive restricted stock or phantom stock units. Subsequent grants of equity awards in payment of the equity portion of the annual retainer are expected to be made annually in March.

The restricted stock or phantom stock units shall vest fully after six months. Any unvested restricted stock and any phantom stock units may not be sold or otherwise transferred. In the event that the director's membership on the Board of Directors is terminated for any reason other than death or disability, such director shall, for no consideration, forfeit to Group 1 all of his unvested shares of restricted stock or phantom stock units. All unvested restricted stock or phantom stock units held by a director shall vest upon the death or disability of such director. The vested phantom stock units held by a director shall be settled in shares of Group 1 common stock upon the termination of such director's membership on the Board of Directors.

The Audit Committee discussed with Ernst & Young LLP such firm's independence. The Audit Committee has also considered whether the provision of non-audit services to our Company by Ernst & Young LLP is compatible with maintaining their independence.

Based on the review and discussions referred to above, the Audit Committee recommended to the Board of Directors that the audited financial statements referred to above be included in Group 1's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2004, for filing with the Securities and Exchange Commission.

Audit and Other Fees

Set forth below is a summary of certain fees paid to Ernst & Young LLP, our independent auditors, for services related to the fiscal years ended December 31, 2003 and December 31, 2004. In determining the independence of Ernst & Young LLP, the Audit Committee considered whether the provision of non-audit services is compatible with maintaining Ernst & Young LLP's independence.

	2003	2004
Audit Fees	$ 788,328	$ 1,887,187
Audit Related Fees	18,000	159,271
Tax Fees	124,735	112,250
All Other Fees

Audit Fees. Audit fees consisted of amounts incurred for services performed in association with the annual financial statement audit (including required quarterly reviews), and other procedures required to be performed by the independent auditor to be able to form an opinion on our consolidated financial statements, as well as specific procedures performed by the external auditors in connection with their review of Group 1's internal control structure in accordance with the requirements of Section 404 of the Sarbanes-Oxley Act of 2002. Other procedures included consultations relating to the audit or quarterly reviews, and services performed in connection with SEC registration statements, periodic reports and other documents filed with the SEC or other documents issued in connection with securities.

Audit Related Fees. Audit related fees consisted of amounts incurred for assurance and related services that are reasonably related to the performance of the audit or review of Group 1's financial statements or that are traditionally performed by the independent auditor. Audit related services in 2004 primarily consisted of consultations related to management's documentation and assessment of Group 1's internal controls over financial reporting as required by Group 1's adoption of Section 404 of the Sarbanes-Oxley Act of 2002.

Tax Fees. Tax fees consisted of amounts incurred for tax compliance and tax consultation services provided.

All Other Fees. No other fees were incurred during the periods presented.

Table of Contents

The Audit Committee considers whether the provision of these services is compatible with maintaining Ernst & Young LLP's independence, and has determined such services for fiscal 2004 and 2003 were compatible. All of the services described above were pre-approved by the Audit Committee pursuant to paragraph (c)(7)(ii)(C) of Rule 2-01 of Regulation S-X under the Exchange Act, to the extent that rule was applicable during fiscal 2003 and 2004.

Ernst & Young LLP does not provide any internal audit services to Group 1. We use a separate firm, Crowe Chizek and Company LLP, for internal audit services.

In November 2003, the Audit Committee adopted a policy requiring pre-approval by the Audit Committee of all services (audit and non-audit) to be provided to Group 1 by its independent auditor. In accordance with this policy, the Audit Committee has given its annual approval for the provision of audit services by Ernst & Young LLP through May 31, 2005 and has also given its approval for up to a year in advance for the provision by Ernst & Young LLP of particular categories or types of audit-related, tax and permitted non-audit services, in each case subject to a specific budget. Any proposed services to be provided by the independent auditor not covered by one of these approvals, including proposed services exceeding pre-approved budget levels, will require special pre-approval by the Audit Committee. The Audit Committee does not delegate its responsibilities to pre-approve services performed by the independent auditor to management.

EXECUTIVE COMPENSATION

Compensation Committee Report on Executive Compensation

Background

The executive compensation program is designed to attract, motivate and retain executives who are important to our long-term success. In this process, we want to align an executive's compensation with Group 1's attainment of business goals and an increase in stockholder value. To achieve this goal, we have established a pay-for-performance philosophy by using both short-term compensation plans and long-term incentive compensation plans that are dependent upon our performance. Our short-term compensation plans consist of base salary and our annual bonus plan, and our long-term incentive compensation plans include our stock incentive, employee stock purchase, deferred compensation, and 401(k) plans. The Compensation Committee reviews executive compensation and makes appropriate adjustments based on company performance, achievement of predetermined goals, and changes in an executive's duties and responsibilities. The compensation of other Group 1 employees is based on a similar philosophy.

The Compensation Committee employs Towers Perrin, a consulting firm experienced in executive compensation that has access to national compensation surveys and our financial records, and reviews each element of compensation to ensure that the total compensation delivered reflects company performance, while also retaining market competitiveness. During the last review, in November 2004, the Compensation Committee confirmed that the executive compensation program met the targeted objectives, but determined it would be beneficial to have some portion of the bonus compensation tied to the achievement of goals specific to the individual or the function being performed.

Base Salary. Our goal is to set base salaries for all executive officers at levels that are competitive with similar positions at other comparable companies. In order to achieve this goal, we generally seek to provide base salaries that fall in the 50th percentile of companies that are included in a compensation study prepared annually by Towers Perrin. For purposes of this study, our peer group of companies includes all of our publicly-traded competitors in the new vehicle auto retailing industry, as well as several other public retail companies in the used vehicle and parts and service segments of the automotive industry. In addition to the peer group information included in the Towers Perrin study, the Compensation Committee historically has considered individual performance and the financial performance of Group 1 in setting base salaries. Executive salary levels have been and will continue to be based on market salary levels, individual performance and the financial performance of Group 1.

Incentive Compensation Plan. The Compensation Committee has adopted a cash incentive compensation program for Group 1's executive officers that is based on Group 1's annual earnings per share, as adjusted in the Compensation Committee's sole discretion for extraordinary or unusual items included in actual operating results. Depending on the earnings per share target achieved, executive officers were eligible to earn bonuses up to 150% of their base compensation for 2004, dependent upon their position. Combined base salary and maximum achievable incentive compensation is generally targeted to fall in the 75th percentile of companies in the compensation study. This is in line with our philosophy that executive compensation above competitive levels should come primarily from the incentive portion of the compensation package when Group 1 is achieving its goals. Group 1's performance in 2004 fell short of the required minimum earnings per share target necessary for its executive officers to earn incentive bonuses under this plan and no bonuses were paid to our executive officers for 2004 other than certain signing bonuses for executive officers who joined Group 1 in 2004. In March 2005, the Compensation Committee approved our 2005 incentive compensation plan. Marking a change from the 2004 bonus plan, a portion of 2005 bonuses will be paid based on the achievement of specified individual and/or departmental goals established by the Compensation Committee and management. If the goals applicable to such individual are satisfied, such executive officer may earn a bonus of up to 40% of his base salary. The remaining portion of each executive officer's potential bonus for 2005 is subject to the achievement of earnings per share targets. Under this portion of the bonus program, bonuses are paid based on the achievement of specified levels of earnings per share for 2005, as adjusted in the Compensation Committee's sole discretion for extraordinary or unusual items included in Group 1's operating results. Depending on the earnings per share target that is achieved, our Executive Vice President may earn a bonus of up to 110% of his base salary, and our Senior Vice Presidents may earn bonuses of up to 60% of their base salaries. Elements of this redesigned incentive compensation plan will also be used to formulate the incentive compensation plans of Group 1's other corporate level employees. Our new Chief Executive Officer will not participate in our 2005 incentive compensation plan. Under his employment agreement, in lieu of participating in the 2005 incentive compensation plan, Mr. Hesterberg will be entitled to a bonus of $1,000,000 on April 21, 2006 if he is then employed by Group 1. In addition, Mr. Hesterberg is entitled to a one-time signing bonus of $1,000,000.

Equity Incentive Plan. We have historically granted stock options to employees, including our executive officers, to align their long-term interests with those of our stockholders. Additionally, granting stock options allows our employees to develop and maintain a potentially significant equity ownership position in Group 1. We granted options to purchase an aggregate of 80,000 shares of common stock to two executive officers upon their acceptance of employment with Group 1 in 2004. In addition, we reviewed the use of restricted stock and phantom stock units as alternatives for Group 1's equity-based compensation program. In March 2005, the Compensation Committee approved awards of restricted stock or phantom stock units, at the recipient's option. These awards were made in lieu of, or in the case of the two executive officers receiving options in 2004, in addition to, the awards that typically would have been made in November 2004 under the equity incentive plan. Aggregate awards of restricted stock and phantom stock units to be granted to our executive officers and approved by the Compensation Committee in March 2005 totaled 103,000 shares and phantom units. The amounts of the awards were determined by the Compensation Committee based on the recommendation of Towers Perrin and the specific design of Group 1's plan with respect to the types of awards granted, as well as individual performance and the financial performance of Group 1. Generally, the restrictions relating to these awards lapse with respect to 40% of the award after two years and with respect to 20% of the award in each year thereafter, although Mr. Turner's restricted stock or phantom stock units vest 50% annually. Our new Chief Executive Officer was granted 70,000 shares of restricted stock or phantom stock units in connection with his hiring. Such shares of restricted stock or phantom stock units will vest as follows: (i) 20,000 shares will vest on April 21, 2007, (ii) 10,000 shares will vest on April 21, 2008, (iii) 10,000 shares will vest on April 21, 2009, and (iv) 30,000 shares will vest on April 21, 2010. Any unvested restricted stock and any phantom stock units may not be sold or otherwise transferred. Unless otherwise provided by the Committee, in the event that the executive officer's employment with Group 1 is terminated for any reason other than death or disability, such executive officer shall, for no consideration, forfeit to Group 1 all of his unvested shares of restricted stock or phantom stock units. All unvested restricted stock or phantom stock units held by an executive officer shall vest upon the death or disability of such executive officer. The vested phantom stock units shall be settled in shares of Group 1 common stock upon the applicable officer's termination of employment with Group 1. The Compensation Committee believes awards of options, restricted stock or phantom stock units more completely align management's interests with those of Group 1 and its stockholders, while increasing Group 1's ability to retain key members of its executive management team.

Employee Stock Purchase Plan. Generally, under this plan, all employees, including our executive officers, are offered the opportunity to purchase a limited amount of Group 1 common stock at a 15% discount to market. This is an additional equity incentive we offer to all of our employees to further promote the enhancement of stockholder value.

Deferred Compensation Plan. Group 1's deferred compensation plan is designed as a retention tool for key employees and general managers. It allows participants the opportunity to accumulate additional savings for retirement on a tax-deferred basis. Participants in the plan are allowed to defer receipt of a portion of their salary and/or bonus compensation. Officers may contribute up to 50% of base compensation and up to 100% of incentive compensation. Participants can choose from various defined investment options in which the deferred compensation is notionally invested. One investment option is a declared interest rate, which was set by the Compensation Committee at 10.0% for both 2004 and 2005. Group 1 has complete discretion over how the deferred funds are utilized and they represent an unsecured obligation of Group 1 to the participants.

401(k) Plan. Group 1 has a defined contribution profit sharing plan designed to assist eligible employees of Group 1 in providing for their retirement. Group 1 matches the contributions of its employees to the plan, up to a maximum of three percent of eligible compensation, or $6,150 for 2004 and $6,300 for 2005. Matching contributions may be in the form of cash or shares of Group 1 common stock or a combination of both, as determined by the Compensation Committee. To date, all Group 1 matches have been in cash for all employees.

Table of Contents

Vehicle Allowance. Our executive officers and their spouses are provided a vehicle, or the economic equivalent.

Chief Executive Officer Compensation

As described above, our executive compensation philosophy is based on providing competitive base salaries with incentive compensation programs. The compensation of our Chief Executive Officer is consistent with this philosophy. The following discussion summarizes the compensation of Mr. Hollingsworth, our former Chairman, President and Chief Executive Officer, for 2004.

Base Salary. Mr. Hollingsworth's base salary was $725,000 during 2004. The base salary portion of Mr. Hollingsworth's compensation was targeted to approximate the 50th percentile of salaries paid to chief executive officers by peer group companies in the compensation study.

Incentive Compensation Plan. Mr. Hollingsworth did not earn a cash bonus for 2004, as compared to a cash bonus of $990,000 for 2003. Consistent with our other executive officers, Mr. Hollingsworth's potential bonus for 2004 was tied to earnings per share, and Group 1's diluted earnings per share in 2004 did not meet the lowest targeted level for a cash bonus payment.

Equity Incentive Plan. In 2004, we did not grant Mr. Hollingsworth options to purchase shares of our common stock under the Group 1 Automotive, Inc. 1996 Stock Incentive Plan. The Compensation Committee determined not to grant any stock options to Mr. Hollingsworth, or any other of our executive officers, with the exception of the grants to Messrs. Ray and Herman upon their acceptance of employment with Group 1, because the Compensation Committee was reviewing the use of restricted stock and phantom stock units as alternatives for Group 1's equity-based compensation programs. In March 2005, the Compensation Committee approved an award of 50,000 shares of restricted stock. This award was made in lieu of the award that typically would have been made in 2004 under the equity incentive plan. The amount of the award was determined by the Compensation Committee based on the recommendation of Towers Perrin and the specific design of Group 1's plan with respect to the type of award granted, as well as individual performance and the financial performance of Group 1.

Deferred Compensation Plan. Mr. Hollingsworth participated in the Group 1 Automotive, Inc. Deferred Compensation Plan during 2004, deferring $590,000 of his incentive compensation earned during 2003, and paid in 2004. Mr. Hollingsworth did not defer any of his base salary in 2004. In 2004, Mr. Hollingsworth selected the 10.0% declared interest rate investment option for all of his deferrals under the plan. Since the average federal interest rate during 2004 was 6.16%, Mr. Hollingsworth earned $128,146 in above-market interest during 2004 on the aggregate amount deferred in all prior periods under this plan. As of December 31, 2004, Mr. Hollingsworth had an accumulated balance of $3,616,059 under the Deferred Compensation Plan.

Split Dollar Life Insurance. On January 23, 2002, Group 1, with the approval of the Compensation Committee, entered into an agreement with a trust established by Mr. Hollingsworth and his wife (the Split-Dollar Agreement). Under the Split-Dollar Agreement, Group 1 committed to make advances of a portion of the insurance premiums on a life insurance policy purchased by the trust on the joint lives of Mr. and Mrs. Hollingsworth. The terms of the agreement require Group 1 to pay the portion of the premium on the policies not related to term insurance each year for a minimum of seven years. Group 1's obligations under the Split-Dollar Agreement to pay premiums on the split-dollar insurance are not conditional, contingent or terminable under the express terms of the contract. Premiums to be paid by Group 1 are approximately $300,000 per year. The face amount of the policy is $7.5 million. Group 1 is entitled to reimbursement of the amounts paid, without interest, upon the first to occur of (a) the death of the survivor of Mr. and Mrs. Hollingsworth or (b) the termination of the Split-Dollar Agreement. In no event will Group 1's reimbursement exceed the accumulated cash value of the insurance policy, which will be less than the premiums paid in the early years. The Split-Dollar Agreement terminates upon the later to occur of the following: (a) the date that Mr. Hollingsworth ceases to be an officer, director, consultant or employee of Group 1 for any reason other than total and permanent disability or (b) January 23, 2017. The insurance policy has been assigned to Group 1 as security for repayment of the amounts Group 1 contributes toward payments due on such policy.

Table of Contents

In accordance with the terms of the Split-Dollar Agreement, Group 1 paid the 2002 premium in the amount of $299,697 in January and April 2002. However, due to the uncertainty surrounding the applicability of the Sarbanes-Oxley Act of 2002 (Sarbanes-Oxley Act) to split-dollar life insurance arrangements, Group 1, Mr. and Mrs. Hollingsworth, and the trustees of the trust entered into letter agreements pursuant to which Mr. and Mrs. Hollingsworth and the trustees consented to the deferral of Group 1's then-current obligations to pay premiums in 2003 and 2004 on the split-dollar life insurance policies until January 2005 or such earlier time as the parties mutually determine that such payments are not prohibited by the Sarbanes-Oxley Act.

On March 2, 2004, the Compensation Committee received a legal opinion from Vinson & Elkins L.L.P., Group 1's outside legal counsel, that, based on the facts, assumptions and legal analysis set forth in the opinion, such counsel believed there is a reasonable basis to conclude that Group 1's payment of premiums as required by the terms of the Split-Dollar Agreement would not violate the prohibitions of Section 402 of the Sarbanes-Oxley Act. In such opinion, Vinson & Elkins stated that, although the matter is not free from doubt, the Split-Dollar Agreement appeared to meet the requirements of the grandfather clause in Section 402 because the Split Dollar Agreement was entered into before the date of enactment of the Sarbanes-Oxley Act, because the obligations of Group 1 to pay premiums on the split-dollar insurance are not conditional, contingent or terminable under the express terms of the contract, and because the agreed-upon deferrals were adverse to Mr. and Mrs. Hollingsworth and beneficial to Group 1. Vinson & Elkins also stated that its conclusion is subject to change if any definitive interpretive guidance is issued in the future by the SEC or the Department of Justice, or if Section 402 is interpreted judicially.

In May 2004, at Group 1's request, Vinson & Elkins submitted a no-action request to the SEC requesting that the staff of the SEC concur with Group 1's view that the grandfather clause in Section 402 permitted the payment of the premiums on the life insurance policies pursuant to the Split-Dollar Agreement. In October 2004, the SEC informed Vinson & Elkins that it did not intend to issue guidance related to Section 402 of the Sarbanes-Oxley Act and asked Vinson & Elkins to withdraw the no-action request. Subsequently, in November 2004, the Compensation Committee took the matter up for consideration in light of these developments. At that time, after diligent review and analysis of Group 1's obligations under the Split-Dollar Agreement, the SEC's refusal to respond to Group 1's request for guidance, and the opinion of Vinson & Elkins, dated November 8, 2004, the conclusion of which was unchanged but which was updated to reflect the SEC's non-response to the no-action request, the Compensation Committee approved (1) Group 1's resumption of the payment of a portion of the premiums on certain life insurance policies as contractually required under the terms of the Split-Dollar Agreement, and (2) Group 1's payment of the premiums under such life insurance policies previously deferred by Group 1 pursuant to the letter agreements described above. In November 2004, Group 1 made a payment of $600,000 representing the premiums previously deferred, and in January 2005, Group 1 made a payment of $300,000 representing the portion of the premiums then due under the life insurance policies in accordance with the Split-Dollar Agreement.

Tax Deductions for Compensation. In conducting the programs applicable to executives, the Compensation Committee considers the effects of Section 162(m) of the Internal Revenue Code, which denies publicly held companies a tax deduction for annual compensation in excess of one million dollars paid to their chief executive officer or any of their four other most highly compensated executive officers who are employed on the last day of a given year, unless their compensation is based on performance criteria that are established by a committee of outside directors and approved, as to their material terms, by that company's stockholders. Based on current interpretive authority, our ability to deduct compensation expense generated in connection with the exercise of options granted under our stock incentive plan should not be limited by Section 162(m). Group 1's stock incentive plan has been designed to provide flexibility with respect to whether restricted stock awards will qualify as performance-based compensation under Section 162(m) and, therefore, be exempt from the deduction limit. If the forfeiture restrictions relating to a restricted stock award are based solely upon the satisfaction of one of the performance criteria set forth in the stock incentive plan, then the compensation expense relating to such an award should be deductible by Group 1 if the restricted stock award becomes vested. However, compensation expense deductions relating to a restricted stock award will be subject to the Section 162(m) deduction limitation if the award becomes vested based upon any other criteria set forth in such award (such as vesting based upon continued employment with Group 1 or upon a change of control). Phantom stock awards under our stock incentive plan do not qualify as performance-based compensation under Section 162(m) and, therefore, are subject to the deduction limit. The restricted stock and the phantom stock units granted to our chief executive officer and our other executive officers in March and April 2005, each of which are subject to vesting based on continued employment with Group 1, will be subject to the Section 162(m) deduction limitation. In addition, the portion of total salary and bonus compensation that exceeds one million dollars for each of our Chief Executive Officer and our other executive officers does not so qualify and is subject to the limitation on deductibility under Section 162(m). As a result, we have in the past and may from time to time in the future, pay compensation to our executive officers that is not deductible.

Respectfully submitted by the Compensation Committee of the Board of Directors of Group 1,

Max P. Watson, Jr. (Chairman)

John L. Adams

Stephen D. Quinn

Employment Agreements

Group 1 entered into an employment agreement with Mr. Hesterberg on April 9, 2005. In accordance with the employment agreement, Group 1 has agreed, subject to the terms and conditions of the employment agreement, to employ Mr. Hesterberg through April 20, 2010. Mr. Hesterberg's current annual base salary under the employment agreement is $1,000,000. The base salary may be increased from time to time by Group 1. The base salary may not be reduced during the first 12 months of the term of the employment agreement and may not be reduced other than pursuant to a reduction that is applied to substantially all other executive officers of Group 1.

Under the employment agreement, Mr. Hesterberg is entitled to a one-time signing bonus of $1,000,000. In addition, in lieu of participation in Group 1's annual incentive compensation program, Mr. Hesterberg will be entitled to a bonus of $1,000,000 on April 21, 2006 if he is then employed by Group 1. Mr. Hesterberg's bonus for the twelve months ending April 21, 2007 under Group 1's annual incentive compensation program will be at least $510,000, of which $350,000 will be payable following the end of Group 1's 2006 fiscal year and the remainder of which will be payable following Group 1's 2007 fiscal year. All subsequent bonus awards will be determined by the Compensation Committee of the Board of Directors of Group 1 in its sole discretion in accordance with the terms of Group 1's annual incentive compensation program.

Mr. Hesterberg is also entitled to participate, on the same basis generally as our other employees, in all general employee benefit plans and programs that are made available to all or substantially all of our employees. In addition, upon an involuntary termination, all restricted stock and stock options will become 100% vested and the exercise of those stock options will continue to be permitted as if his employment had continued for the full term of the employment agreement. An involuntary termination includes:

termination of Mr. Hesterberg by Group 1 without cause (as defined in the employment agreement);

a material breach of Mr. Hesterberg's employment agreement by Group 1;

the relocation of Mr. Hesterberg by more than 50 miles; a material diminution in his position, duties or authority; or Upon Mr. Hesterberg's death or long-term disability, his restricted stock and stock options (if any) will become 100% vested. We are not obligated to pay any amounts to Mr. Hesterberg other than his pro rata base salary through the date of his termination upon:

voluntary termination of employment by Mr. Hesterberg;

termination of employment by us for cause, as defined in the employment agreement;

death of Mr. Hesterberg; or long-term disability of Mr. Hesterberg.

Under the employment agreement, if any payment made by Group 1 to or for the benefit of Mr. Hesterberg would be subject to the excise tax imposed by Section 4999 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, Group 1 is required to pay Mr. Hesterberg an additional amount to cover any such taxes and any interest or penalties imposed with respect to such taxes.

For a period of two years after his termination of employment with Group 1, Mr. Hesterberg has agreed not to compete with Group 1 and not to induce any employee of Group 1 to leave his or her employment with Group 1 or hire any employee of Group 1.

Our employment agreement with Mr. Hollingsworth extends through November 2, 2005. Mr. Hollingsworth's current annual base salary under the employment agreement is $760,000. Under the employment agreement, Mr. Hollingsworth's participation in bonus plans is governed by the incentive compensation plans adopted by the Compensation Committee of the Board applicable to Mr. Hollingsworth. Under the employment agreement, Mr. Hollingsworth is also entitled to participate, on the same basis generally as our other employees, in all general employee benefit plans and programs that are made available to all or substantially all of our employees.

Under the terms of the employment agreement, in the event of an involuntary termination of Mr. Hollingsworth's employment, Mr. Hollingsworth is entitled to receive his base salary plus his incentive bonus for the year prior to his termination for each year remaining on his employment agreement. In addition, upon an involuntary termination, Mr. Hollingsworth's stock options become 100% vested and the exercise of those stock options will continue to be permitted as if his employment had continued for the full term of his employment agreement. An involuntary termination includes termination of Mr. Hollingsworth by Group 1 without cause (as defined in the employment agreement), a material breach of Mr. Hollingsworth's employment agreement by Group 1 or the dissolution, merger, sale of substantially all of the assets or a change of control (as defined in the employment agreement) of Group 1. Under the terms of the employment agreement, we are not obligated to pay any amounts to Mr. Hollingsworth other than his pro rata base salary through the date of his termination upon:

voluntary termination of employment by Mr. Hollingsworth;

termination of employment by us for cause, as defined in the employment agreement;

death of Mr. Hollingsworth; or long-term disability of Mr. Hollingsworth.

Mr. Hollingsworth has agreed not to compete with Group 1 for a period of two years after termination of his employment and not to induce any employee of Group 1 to leave his or her employment with Group 1 or hire any employee of Group 1 for a period of three years after termination of his employment.

Under the terms of the employment agreement, if any payment made by us to or for the benefit of Mr. Hollingsworth would be subject to the excise tax imposed by Section 4999 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, we are required to pay Mr. Hollingsworth an additional amount to cover any such taxes and any interest or penalties imposed with respect to such taxes.

Mr. Turner entered into an employment agreement with us dated November 3, 1997. His agreement expired on November 2, 2002. The employment agreement provides that, unless terminated or not renewed by us or Mr. Turner, the term of his employment will continue on a month-to-month basis unless terminated at any time by either us or him, with or without cause, upon 30 days' notice. Under the terms of his employment agreement, Mr. Turner is generally prohibited from competing or assisting others to compete with Group 1 during the period of employment and for a period of three years after termination of employment and from inducing any other employee to terminate employment with Group 1 during the period of employment and for a period of five years after termination of employment. Mr. Turner's current annual base salary is $500,000 and may be increased from time to time by Group 1. Mr. Turner's participation in bonus plans will be governed by the incentive compensation plans adopted by the Compensation Committee of the Board applicable to executive officers. Mr. Turner is also entitled to participate, on the same basis generally as our other employees, in all general employee benefit plans and programs that are made available to all or substantially all of our employees.

Mr. Thompson resigned as Executive Vice President, Chief Financial Officer and Treasurer effective March 31, 2004. In connection with his resignation, Mr. Thompson and Group 1 entered into an amendment to his employment agreement. Under the terms of the amendment, Mr. Thompson agreed to continue to serve as an employee of Group 1 until January 1, 2005. In consideration of his services to Group 1, we paid him $5,000 per month. He was also entitled to an additional payment of $39,166.68 in April 2004 as reimbursement of accrued vacation and certain other expenses. As permitted by his stock option agreements, his options continued to vest in accordance with their terms so long as he remained an employee and he continued to be entitled to exercise his options in accordance with their terms until three months after termination of his employment. The amendment also modified his non-competition obligations to provide that he is generally prohibited from competing or assisting others to compete with Group 1 until March 31, 2006 and from inducing any other employee to terminate employment with Group 1 until March 31, 2007. Prior to the amendment, Mr. Thompson was subject to the same non-competition periods as Mr. Turner.

Please refer to the Compensation Committee's Report on Executive Compensation for an additional discussion of executive compensation.

Registration Agreement

During 2001, Mr. Howard entered into a registration agreement with us. Under the agreement, we included 700,000 shares of Group 1 common stock owned by Mr. Howard in a registration statement that we were filing for our benefit, in return for Mr. Howard's agreement not to sell any shares of Group 1 common stock owned by him, except for shares of common stock sold pursuant to the registration statement, until the earlier of (i) the first business day immediately following the consummation of the sale of all his shares of common stock covered by the registration statement or (ii) the first business day immediately following the termination of the registration agreement by Mr. Howard or us. The registration agreement allows us to defer the sale by Mr. Howard of any shares of common stock covered by this registration statement under certain circumstances. We agreed to pay all expenses incurred in connection with the registration statement, other than expenses directly attributable to the inclusion of Mr. Howard's shares of our common stock in the registration statement. In addition, Mr. Howard agreed to pay any underwriters discounts and commissions applicable to his shares of common stock covered by the registration statement as well as the costs for experts or professionals, including counsel, employed by Mr. Howard or on his behalf in connection with the registration of his shares under the registration agreement. We have agreed to indemnify Mr. Howard for liabilities arising under the Securities Act with respect to any offering of his shares under the registration statement, other than liabilities arising from information furnished by Mr. Howard. Pending Transaction

On March 10, 2005, the Board of Directors of Group 1 waived the applicability of Group 1's conflict of interest policy set forth in its Code of Conduct in respect of a proposed transaction between Mr. Howard and Group 1. The proposed transaction involves the construction by Mr. Howard of a Toyota dealership on a portion of a 12 acre parcel of land owned by Mr. Howard adjacent to Group 1's Bob Howard Automall, which dealership facilities are leased by Group 1 from Mr. Howard. The Toyota facility, on which construction is expected to commence in 2006, would be built to suit Group 1's specifications. Following its construction, Mr. Howard would also lease this facility to Group 1 under a lease agreement having an initial term of 10 years. In addition, Group 1 would have the right to extend the term for four successive five year terms. Mr. Howard would fund the development cost of the facility, which is expected to be approximately $3.5 million. Based on appraisals received by Mr. Howard and Group 1, Group 1 believes the land on which the facility will be situated has a value of approximately $4.2 million. It is anticipated that the initial rent under the lease agreement will be approximately $655,000 per year, subject to increases based upon the increase in the consumer price index during the term of the lease. At this time, no definitive agreements have been executed with Mr. Howard regarding the proposed transaction.

The Committee will report to the Board on a regular basis, and the Board shall provide an annual performance evaluation of the Committee.

While the Committee has the responsibilities and powers set forth in this Charter, it is not the duty of the Committee to plan or conduct audits or to determine that the Company's financial statements and disclosures are complete and accurate and are in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States and applicable rules and regulations. These are the responsibilities of the Company's management and the Company's independent auditors.
