During the public conference call held the morning of November 14, 2002, to discuss Williams' third quarter earnings, it was mentioned that Williams would be required to make an additional cash contribution of approximately $50,000,000 to its pension plan during the fourth quarter of 2002. However, Williams continues to evaluate its pension funding obligations and an accurate estimate of the potential cash contribution, if any, is unknown at this time.
