As the beneficial and record of 340,900 shares of Class C Preferred Stock, the Filing Parties have the power to vote 68.3% of the total votes held by all holders of Class C Preferred Stock, which is sufficient to approve the Amendments on behalf of the Class C Preferred Stock.

The Agreement also provides that the Filing Parties agree to vote their shares of the Issuer's Common Stock and Class C Preferred Stock to amend the Certificate of Designations of the Class C Preferred Stock to (a) allow the Issuer to acquire shares of its Common Stock for a period of five years from the date of completion of the tender or exchange offer, without the approval of the holders of the Class C Preferred Stock, notwithstanding that accrued and unpaid dividends may exist with respect to the Class C Preferred Stock, and (b) provide that the existing right of the holders of Class C Preferred Stock to elect two directors to the Issuer's Board of Directors when dividends on the Class C Preferred Stock are unpaid may be exercised only if and so long as at least 140,000 shares of Class C Preferred Stock remain issued and outstanding.

The Certificate of Designations of the Class C Preferred Stock currently prohibits the Issuer from purchasing, redeeming or otherwise acquiring any shares of Common Stock or other securities ranking junior to the Class C Preferred Stock as to dividends and rights upon liquidation and provides that when dividends on the Class C Preferred

Stock are in arrears and unpaid in an amount equal to at least six quarterly dividends the Class C Preferred Stock holders have the exclusive right to vote for and elect two additional directors during period the dividends remain in arrears.

The foregoing is a summary of the material terms of the Agreement. The above discussion is qualified by reference to such copy of the Agreement. A copy of the Agreement is filed herewith as Exhibit 2.
