Item 2.03. Creation of a Direct Financial Obligation.

Item 3.01. Unregistered Sale of Equity Securities.

On March 29, 2007, ProLogis closed the sale of an additional $150 million aggregate principal amount of its 2.25% convertible senior notes due 2037 (the Notes) pursuant to the exercise of an overallotment option by the initial purchasers. The aggregate proceeds to ProLogis from the sale of the Notes pursuant to the overallotment option, after the initial purchasers' discounts and offering expenses, are estimated to be approximately $148 million. ProLogis intends to use the net proceeds for the repayment of debt under its global line of credit and for general corporate purposes.

The Notes will bear interest at a rate of 2.25% per annum and mature on April 1, 2037. Prior to February 1, 2012, upon the occurrence of specified events, the Notes will be convertible at the option of the holder into cash, common shares or a combination of cash and common shares, at the election of ProLogis, at an initial conversion rate of 13.0576 shares per $1,000 principal amount of Notes. The initial conversion price of approximately $76.58 represents a 20% premium to the closing price of ProLogis' common shares on March 20, 2007. On and after February 1, 2012, the Notes will be convertible at any time at the option of the holder into cash, common shares, or a combination of cash and common shares, at the election of ProLogis, at the initial conversion rate. The initial conversion rate is subject to adjustment in certain circumstances.

On or after April 5, 2012, ProLogis may at its option redeem all or part of the Notes for cash, provided that ProLogis must make at least 10 semi-annual interest payments (including the interest payments on October 1, 2007 and April 1, 2012) in full before redeeming any Notes. ProLogis may also redeem all of the Notes at any time prior to maturity to the extent necessary to preserve ProLogis' status as a real estate investment trust. Holders may require ProLogis to repurchase the Notes for cash in full on April 1 of 2012, 2017, 2022, 2027 and 2032 and at any time prior to their maturity upon a fundamental change. In connection with any redemption or repurchase, the redemption or repurchase price will be equal to 100% of the principal amount of the Notes being redeemed or repurchased plus any accrued and unpaid interest.

In connection with the initial closing of the sale of the Notes on March 26, 2007, ProLogis entered into a Registration Rights Agreement (the Registration Rights Agreement) with the initial purchasers. Under the Registration Rights Agreement, ProLogis has agreed, for the benefit of the holders of the Notes, to file with the Securities and Exchange Commission, or have on file, a shelf registration statement providing for the sale by the holders of the Notes and the common shares, if any, issuable upon conversion of the Notes (the Registrable Securities), and to use best efforts to cause such shelf registration statement to become effective within 180 days after the original issuance of the Notes and to use its best efforts to keep the registration statement effective until such time as all of the Notes and the common shares issuable on the conversion thereof cease to be outstanding or have either (A) been sold or otherwise transferred pursuant to an effective registration statement or (B) are eligible to be sold pursuant to Rule 144(k) or any successor provision, subject to certain exceptions set forth in the Registration Rights Agreement. ProLogis will be required to pay liquidated damages in the form of specified additional interest to the holders of the Notes if it fails to comply with its obligations to register the Notes and the common shares issuable upon conversion of the Notes within specified time periods, or if the registration statement ceases to be effective or the use of the prospectus is suspended for specified time periods. ProLogis will not be required to pay liquidated damages with respect to any Note after it has been converted for common shares.

This Current Report on Form 8-K does not constitute an offer to sell, or a solicitation of an offer to buy, any security and shall not constitute an offer, solicitation or sale in any jurisdiction in which such offer, solicitation or sale would be unlawful.
