of $3,000,000 dated March 31, 2008 (see agreement #10 in Item 6 hereto, the "March Note") and June 30, 2008 (see agreement #11 in Item 6 hereto, the "June Note"), respectively, owed by the Issuer to STCL II (the April Note and the June Note, collectively, the "NHLD Debt"), as more fully described in Item 5(a) below. The March Note is convertible into an aggregate of 1,500,000 shares of Common Stock at a purchase price of $2.00 per share, and the June Note is convertible into an aggregate of 1,875,000 shares of Common Stock at a purchase price of $1.60 per share.

COR Securities paid an aggregate consideration of approximately $2,000,000, which consideration consisted of shares of preferred stock and warrants to purchase common stock of COR Securities issued to St. Cloud Capital Partners, L.P. and STCL II, for the above mentioned rights to the Shares, the Preferred Stock, the Warrants, and the NHLD Debt.

COR Equity obtained the funds to purchase 13,608 shares of Common Stock from working capital and capital from its limited partners.

STCL obtained the funds to fund the initial principal amount of the NHLD Debt from working capital of STCL II and capital called from limited partners.

| Item 4. | Purpose of the Transaction |

|------------------------|--|
| Indication of Interest | |
|------------------------|--|

On October 31, 2011, COR Securities submitted to the Issuer an offer letter with binding and non-binding terms to purchase newly-issued convertible preferred stock of the Issuer for $10,000,000. COR Securities' proposal set a conversion price for the preferred stock at a significant premium to the market price of the Common Stock, and offered conversion terms, warrant coverage and a warrant strike price consistent with the terms of recent financings of the Issuer in which several members of its current board of directors and/or their affiliates had participated. The offer also included other terms, including the provision of board seats and certain advisory and commercial relationships with the Issuer. The Issuer's board of directors did not timely respond to the offer and allowed it to expire.

Subsequently, COR Securities entered into discussions with a committee of the board of directors of the Issuer to negotiate the terms of an investment in the Issuer based on the original offer. In December 2011, after almost two months of further discussions, COR Securities submitted a second offer letter to the Issuer with revised terms, also consistent with those described above. The Issuer's board of directors again did not timely respond to the offer and allowed it to expire.

On January 3, 2012 COR Securities submitted a third offer letter with binding and non-binding terms (the "Offer Letter") to the Board of Directors of the Issuer indicating its interest in purchasing 100,000 newly issued shares of Series AA Convertible Preferred Stock at a price of $100 per share paying a dividend of 12% per year and convertible into Common Stock at $0.55 per share (the "Series AA Preferred"). A copy of the Offer Letter is attached hereto as Exhibit 3. The Series AA Preferred would be governed by the terms set forth in Exhibit A of the Offer Letter, including proposed dividend, liquidation, conversion, redemption, voting and board representation rights not otherwise described herein. A copy of the offer letter is attached hereto as an exhibit, which should be reviewed for all terms thereof.

Given the long history of negotiation, the efforts and resources expended by COR Securities to date without result, and the Issuer's approaching debt maturities, the proposal contained in the Offer Letter is set to expire at 5:00 p.m. Pacific Time on January 10, 2012 if not accepted.

SCHEDULE 13D

CUSIP No. 636375107

The Reporting Persons intend to review their investment in the Issuer from time to time. Subject to the limitations set forth herein and depending upon (i) the price and availability of the Common Stock, (ii) subsequent developments affecting the Issuer, (iii) the Issuer's business and prospects, (iv) other investment and business opportunities available to the Reporting Persons, (v) general stock market and economic conditions, (vi) tax considerations, and (vii) other factors deemed relevant, the Reporting Persons may decide to convert or exercise all or a portion of the warrants and notes referenced herein or increase or decrease the size of their investment in the Issuer and/or make a proposal with respect to a recapitalization of the Issuer or similar transaction.

Except as described in this Schedule 13D, none of the Reporting Persons have any present plan or proposal which relates to, or could result in, any of the events referred to in paragraphs (a) through (j), inclusive, of Item 4 of Schedule 13D. However, the Reporting Persons will continue to review the business of the Issuer and, depending upon one or more of the factors referred to above, may in the future propose that the Issuer take one or more of such actions.

Item 5. Interest in Securities of the Issuer²⁹

The percentages used herein are calculated based upon the 20,446,704 Shares issued and outstanding as of August 11, 2011, as reported on the Issuer's Report on Form 10-Q, as filed on August 15, 2011 with the Securities and Exchange Commission.

(a) According to the Issuer, there were 20,446,704 shares of Common Stock outstanding as of August 11, 2011.

1. COR Securities is the beneficial owner of 8,034,718 shares of common stock of the Issuer, consisting of the following:

The 2,004,083 Shares;

The Warrants to purchase 2,053,005 shares of Common Stock;

The 6,026 shares of Preferred Stock which are convertible into an aggregate of 602,630 shares of Common Stock. The Preferred Stock has no dividend rights, votes on an as-converted basis (less one share) with the Common Stock and has a liquidation preference of $50.00 per share, which is junior in preference only to the holders of the Issuer's Series A Preferred Stock, to the extent any such shares remain outstanding;

3,375,000 shares of Common Stock (which consists of shares of Common Stock issuable pursuant to the terms of the NHLD Debt). Pursuant to the terms of a Grant of Preemptive Right dated as of December 27, 2011 and filed as Exhibit 2 hereto, STCL II granted to COR Securities a pre-emptive right to purchase the NHLD Debt prior to its maturity (i) any time at a price equal to the face value with accrued interest or (ii) within 15 days of notice at the value of an unsolicited offer that STCL II gives COR Securities notice that it intends to accept. STCL II will not enter into an agreement to restructure the NHLD Debt prior to February 15, 2012. On or after February 15, 2012, if STCL II intends to enter an agreement to restructure the NHLD Debt, it shall give COR Securities notice thereof, including the material terms, and provide COR Securities 15 days to purchase the NHLD Debt at face value with accrued interest. Notwithstanding the foregoing, STCL II may, at any time and without notice, enter into an agreement to restructure the NHLD Debt if STCL II determines, in its sole and reasonable discretion, that immediate action, including but not limited to deferral of payment or other changes in terms, is required to preserve the value of the NHLD Debt.

COR Securities' beneficial ownership, as described above, represents 30.23% of the outstanding shares of Common Stock.

2. COR Equity is the beneficial owner of 13,608 shares of Common Stock, which represents .06% of the outstanding shares of Common Stock.
3. STCL II is the beneficial owner of 3,375,000 shares of Common Stock (which consists of shares of Common Stock issuable pursuant to the terms of the NHLD Debt).

The NHLD Debt bears interest at 10% per annum payable quarterly in arrears, matures four years from the date of issuance, is initially convertible into 1,500,000 shares of Common Stock (for the April Note) and 1,875,000 shares of Common Stock (for the June Note) and is unsecured. The NHLD Debt may be redeemed at the option of the Issuer at 165% of the principal amount of the note plus accrued and unpaid interest if redeemed between March 31, 2011 and March 31, 2012 (for the April Note) and June 30, 2011 and June 30, 2012 (for the June Note). STCL II may convert the note at any time. In addition, the Issuer may force STCL II to convert the note if the market price and trading volume of the Issuer's Common Stock reaches certain levels as set forth in the NHLD Debt. The NHLD Debt is automatically prepayable upon the occurrence of a Change of Control (as defined in the NHLD Debt) or at the option of the holder in event of the death of, or termination under certain circumstances of the employment of Mark Goldwasser, the Issuer's Chairman and Chief Executive Officer.

STCL II's beneficial ownership represents 14.17% of the outstanding shares of Common Stock.

4. Marshall Geller is the direct owner of 61,050 shares of Common Stock. Such amount includes 6,300 shares held in Mr. Geller's IRA. Also, because Mr. Geller is a co-founder and senior manager of SCGP II, LLC the general partner of STCL II, Mr. Geller may be deemed to own beneficially the 3,375,000 shares of Common Stock issuable pursuant to the terms of the NHLD Debt, which together with Mr. Geller's shares represents 14.42% of the outstanding shares of Common Stock.
- (b) COR Securities has the power to direct the vote of 8,034,718 shares of Common Stock and the power to direct the disposition of 8,034,718 shares of Common Stock, assuming conversion and exercise of all Issuer securities held by it. In COR Capital's
