Forward-Looking Statements

Some statements in this Form 8-K, which are not historical facts, are "forward-looking statements" as defined by the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. Forward-looking statements include statements about the Registrant's estimates, expectations, beliefs, intentions or strategies for the future, and the assumptions underlying these forward-looking statements, including, but not limited to, statements regarding the effect of the anticipated separation of the Registrant into two separate public companies, the expected timetable for completing the spin-off transaction, whether or not the spin-off transaction occurs, and any other statements regarding events or developments that the Registrant believes or anticipates will or may occur in the future. The Registrant uses the words "anticipates," "assumes," "believes," "estimates," "expects," "intends," "forecasts," "may," "will," "should," "guidance," "outlook," and similar to identify these forward-looking statements. Forward-looking statements speak only as of the date of this Form 8-K, and the Registrant expressly disclaims any obligation or undertaking to disseminate any updates or revisions to any forward-looking statement contained herein to reflect any change in the Registrant's expectations with regard thereto or any change in events, conditions or circumstances on which any such statement is based. There is no assurance that the proposed spin-off transaction will be completed, that the Registrant's Board of Directors will continue to pursue the proposed spin-off transaction (even if there are no impediments to completion), that the Registrant will be able to separate its businesses, or that the proposed spin-off transaction will be the most beneficial alternative considered. Forward looking statements involve risks and uncertainties that could cause actual results to differ materially from historical experience or the Registrant's present expectations, including but not limited to risks and uncertainties regarding economic, competitive, governmental, and technological factors affecting the Registrant's operations, markets, products, services and prices, as well as any changes in or abandonment of the proposed separation or the ability to effect the separation and satisfy the conditions to the proposed separation, and such forward-looking statements are not guarantees of future performance. For a discussion of such risks and uncertainties, which could cause actual results to differ from those contained in the forward-looking statements, see "Risk Factors" and "Forward-Looking Statements" in the Registrant's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the most recent fiscal year, and as
