Part III-Narrative

State below in reasonable detail the reasons why Forms 10-K, 20-F, 11-K, 10-Q, 10-QSB, N-SAR or the transition report portion thereof could not be filed within the prescribed time period.

On March 20, 2003, Evolve Software, Inc. (the Registrant), along with certain of its subsidiaries, filed voluntary petitions for Chapter 11 bankruptcy protection in the United States Bankruptcy Court for the District of Delaware (the Bankruptcy Court). These cases are being jointly administered under case number 03-10841 (PJW). No trustee, receiver or examiner has been appointed, and the Registrant and its subsidiaries will act as debtors-in-possession while being subject to the supervision and orders of the Bankruptcy Court.

On April 24, 2003, the Registrant completed a sale of substantially all of its assets to Primavera Systems, Inc. pursuant to the Asset Purchase Agreement, dated as of March 19, 2003, by and among Primavera Software, Inc., Primavera Systems, Inc. and the Registrant. The sale was approved by the Bankruptcy Court on April 23, 2003.

The Registrant has ceased all operations and terminated all its employees except for certain employees needed to manage the orderly liquidation of its assets. The Registrant is currently managing its assets as a debtor in possession pursuant to Sections 1107 and 1108 of the Bankruptcy Code and is in the process of liquidating its assets for the benefit of its estate and creditors. The Registrant expects to file a plan of liquidation with the Bankruptcy Court calling for the disposition of its remaining assets and distributing all of the proceeds therefrom to its creditors. The Registrant expects that after paying off its creditors and winding down its operations, it will have about $6 million to distribute to the holders of its Series B Preferred Stock and will not have any assets to deliver to the holders of its Series A Preferred Stock or Common Stock.

The Registrant has requested that the Staff of the Securities and Exchange Commission (the Commission) indicate that it would not recommend enforcement action if the Registrant followed certain modified reporting procedures in lieu of filing the regular periodic reports specified under Section 13(a) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended and the rules promulgated thereunder (the No Action Request). As of the date hereof, the Registrant has not received a formal response from the Commission with regard to its No Action Request.

If the No Action Request is granted, the Registrant will not file its Form 10-Q for the fiscal quarter ended March 31, 2003 (the Form 10-Q) and in lieu of filing the Form 10-Q, the Registrant would file under Form 8-K copies of monthly operating reports that are required to be filed with the Bankruptcy Court pursuant to the Bankruptcy Code Section 2015.

estimate of the results cannot be made.

Due to the bankruptcy filing, the cessation of the Registrant's operations and the ongoing orderly liquidation of the Registrant's assets, the Registrant's financial statements for the fiscal quarter ended March 31, 2003 will change significantly from the fiscal quarter ended December 31, 2003. However, an estimate of these changes cannot be made at this time because: (i) the Registrant has not finished closing its books for the fiscal quarter ended March 31, 2003; (ii) the Registrant has not retained an independent accountant firm to review its financial statements; and (iii) the Registrant will need to revise financial statements to utilize the liquidation method of accounting as a result of the events described in Part III of this filing.
