Supplemental Disclosure on non-cash financing and investing activities

During the period ended September 30, 2003, the Company issued 430,000 common shares (September 30, 2002 - nil) for non-cash consideration of debt owing for services provided to the Company in the amount of $25,800 (June 30, 2002 - nil)

The foregoing unaudited financial statements contain all adjustments considered necessary by management to make the financial statements not misleading.

NOTE 1 - BASIS OF PRESENTATION

The accompanying unaudited consolidated financial statements have been prepared in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles and the rules and regulations of the Securities and Exchange Commission for interim financial information. Accordingly, they do not include all the information necessary for a comprehensive presentation of financial position and results of operations.

It is management's opinion, however that all material adjustments (consisting of normal recurring adjustments) have been made which are necessary for a fair financial statements presentation. The results for the interim period are not necessarily indicative of the results to be expected for the year.

For further information, refer to the financial statements and footnotes for the year ended December 31, 2002 included in the Company's form 10 KSB filed on or about April 15, 2003.

Item 2 - Management's Discussion and Analysis

(a) Liquidity

The Company is experiencing illiquidity and has been dependent upon shareholders to provide funds to maintain its activities. The shareholders have provided $1,418,721 to September 30, 2003, and were repaid $53,230 during 1999, $1,009,889 in 2000, and $325,579 in 2001, leaving a balance of $30,031, which is included in accounts payable. There are no specific terms of repayment.

(b) Capital Resources

The Company had a working capital deficiency of $203,351 at September 30, 2003. As noted above, the Company has been receiving funding from shareholders.

(c) Results of Operations

For the nine-month period ended September 30, 2003, the Company incurred a net loss of $31,970.

Administration expenses for the nine-month period amounted to $13,495 compared to $10,437 in the same period of 2002.

(d) Plan of Operations:

The company is investigating new business opportunities and intends to develop future plans that will include issuing shares through private placements in order to provide funds for the working capital and investment in such opportunities.

The Company has no off-balance sheet arrangements.

Item 3 - Controls and Procedures

As required by SEC rules, we have evaluated the effectiveness of the design and operation of our disclosure controls and procedures at the end of the period covered by this report. This evaluation was carried out under the supervision and with the participation of our management, including our principal executive officer and principal financial officer. Based on this evaluation, these officers have concluded that the design and operation of our disclosure controls and procedures are effective. There were no changes in our internal control over financial reporting or in other factors that have materially affected, or are reasonably likely to materially affect, our internal control over financial reporting.

Disclosure controls and procedures are our controls and other procedures that are designed to ensure that information required to be disclosed by us in the reports that we file or submit under the Exchange Act is recorded, processed, summarized and reported, within the time periods specified in the SEC's rules and forms. Disclosure controls and procedures include, without limitation, controls and procedures designed to ensure that information required to be disclosed by us in the reports that we file under the Exchange Act is accumulated and communicated to our management, including principal executive officer and principal financial officer, as appropriate, to allow timely decisions regarding required disclosure.
