Litigation.

On September 6, 2002, plaintiff Fred B. Dufresne ("Dufresne") filed suit against Adobe, Microsoft Corporation, Macromedia, Inc. and Trellix Corporation in the U.S. District Court, District of Massachusetts, alleging infringement of U.S. Patent No. 5,835,712, entitled "Client-Server System Using Embedded Hypertext Tags for Application and Database Development." Dufresne's complaint asserts that "defendants have infringed, and continue to infringe, one or more claims of the '712 patent by making, using, selling and/or offering for sale, inter alia, products supporting Microsoft Active Server Pages technology." Dufresne seeks unspecified compensatory damages, preliminary and permanent injunctive relief, trebling of damages for "willful infringement," and fees and costs. We believe the action has no merit and are vigorously defending against it.

Edgar Filing: ADOBE SYSTEMS INC - Form SC TO-I/A

On October 13, 2006, a purported shareholder derivative action entitled Steven Staehr v. Bruce R. Chizen, et al was filed in the Superior Court of California for the County of Santa Clara against certain of Adobe's current and former officers and directors, and against Adobe as a nominal defendant. The complaint asserts that stock option grants to executives were priced retroactively by Adobe and were improperly accounted for, and alleges various causes of action based on that assertion. The complaint seeks payment by the defendants to Adobe of damages allegedly suffered by it and disgorgement of profits, as well as injunctive relief.

In connection with our anti-piracy efforts, conducted both internally and through the Business Software Alliance, from time to time we undertake litigation against alleged copyright infringers. Such lawsuits may lead to counter-claims alleging improper use of litigation or violation of other local law and have recently increased in frequency, especially in Latin American countries. We believe we have valid defenses with respect to such counter-claims; however, it is possible that our consolidated financial position, cash flows or results of operations could be affected in any particular period by the resolution of one or more of these counter-claims.

From time to time, in addition to those identified above, Adobe is subject to legal proceedings, claims, investigations and proceedings in the ordinary course of business, including claims of alleged infringement of third-party patents and other intellectual property rights, commercial, employment and other matters. In accordance with U.S. generally accepted accounting principles, Adobe makes a provision for a liability when it is both probable that a liability has been incurred and the amount of the loss can be reasonably estimated. These provisions are reviewed at least quarterly and adjusted to reflect the impacts of negotiations, settlements, rulings, advice of legal counsel, and other information and events pertaining to a particular case. Litigation is inherently unpredictable. However, we believe that we have valid defenses with respect to the legal matters pending against Adobe. It is possible, nevertheless, that our consolidated financial position, cash flows or results of operations could be affected by the resolution of one or more of such contingencies."

Item 17. Additional Information.

Item 17 of the Offering Memorandum is hereby amended and restated to include the following paragraph as the first paragraph to Item 17 as follows:

"On February 7, 2007, Adobe will distribute to Eligible Optionees a notice of extension, a copy of which is attached as Exhibit 99.(a)(1)(M) to the Schedule TO filed with the SEC and is incorporated herein by reference, announcing that Adobe is extending the Offer, upon the terms and subject to the conditions set forth in the Offering Memorandum, until 11:59 p.m., Pacific Time, on Friday, February 9, 2007, in connection with the SEC's pending review of the Offer. The Offer had been previously scheduled to expire at 11:59 p.m., Pacific Time, on Thursday, February 1, 2007. On February 1, 2007, we extended the Offer until 11:59 p.m., Pacific Time, on Thursday, February 8, 2007. All references in the Offering Memorandum and the other Offer documents filed with the SEC to the "Expiration Time" shall now mean 11:59 p.m., Pacific Time, on Friday, February 9, 2007.

The second paragraph and list of materials previously filed with the SEC and identified by number in Item 17 on pages 34 and 35 of the Offering Memorandum are hereby amended and restated as follows:
