(the Company), entered into a stock trading plan to sell up to a total of 300,000 shares of the Company's common stock as part of his personal long-term investment strategy. Mr. Schnatter's trading plan provides for sales of specified share amounts subject to specified limitations during a period commencing not before September 15, 2006, and is scheduled to terminate on August 31, 2007, unless terminated sooner in accordance with the terms of the plan. Shares will be sold under the plan on the open market at prevailing market prices, subject to certain minimum price thresholds.

Effective August 21, 2006, J. David Flanery, Senior Vice President and Chief Financial Officer of the Company, entered into a stock trading plan to sell up to a total of 20,000 shares of the Company's common stock to facilitate the exercise of a stock option and as part of his personal long-term investment strategy. Mr. Flanery's trading plan provides for sales of specified share amounts subject to specified limitations during a period commencing not before September 5, 2006, and is scheduled to terminate on December 17, 2007, unless terminated sooner in accordance with the terms of the plan. Shares will be sold under the plan on the open market at prevailing market prices, subject to certain minimum price thresholds.

Neither of the trading plans described above will reduce the executives' ownership of shares of the Company's common stock below the levels specified in the Company's stock ownership guidelines.

Mr. Schnatter and Mr. Flanery adopted their respective trading plans in accordance with the guidelines specified under Rule 10b5-1 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, and the Company's policies applicable to trading in Company securities by directors and executive officers. Rule 10b5-1 permits persons who are not in possession of material, nonpublic information about a company to establish pre-arranged plans to buy or sell securities of a company, in order to permit diversification of investment portfolios, to spread securities transactions over extended periods to reduce market impact and to avoid concerns about transactions occurring at a time when such persons might possess material, nonpublic information about the company.

Transactions effected through the trading plans will be reported through Form 144 and Form 4 filings with the Securities and Exchange Commission as required by law and regulation.

The Company has previously disclosed that Mr. Schnatter and certain other Company officers or directors have implemented trading plans under Rule 10b5-1. Except as may be required by law, the Company does not undertake to report stock trading plans entered into by any Company officer or director, nor to report modifications, terminations, transactions or other activities under any publicly announced trading plan or a trading plan of any officer or director of the Company.
