Periods greater than one year are annualized

The Fund was positioned cautiously over the past six months as a number of economic headwinds for financial services companies continue to pressure the sector. We continue to be concerned with the slowing US economy, the deepening contraction in the US housing market, and diminished liquidity in light of widening of credit spreads. Economic data on balance are worsening, while housing market conditions are deteriorating and not yet resolving in any area. Housing demand continues to slide, adding even more inventory to an overhang that is already historic in dimensions. Compounding this situation is an escalating number of subprime foreclosures which threatens to add to this supply. This wave of subprime mortgage defaults has triggered a confidence crisis in the asset-back security space. While this liquidity strain should ease in the coming months as banks reveal their exposure, we expect an acceleration of mortgage delinquencies and write-offs of asset values in the next year. The Federal Reserve Bank responded forcefully to the liquidity-crisis over the summer, slashing its policy rate by 50 basis points. In the face of current market conditions and liquidity, we expect that Federal Reserve Bank will make rate cuts faster and deeper than the market currently forecasts.

One of the Fund's largest holdings at the end of the period, Commerce Bancorp (+17.6%), was also its strongest contributor to absolute performance during the recent period. Shortly after quarter-end, Commerce Bancorp announced that it reached a definitive acquisition agreement with Toronto Dominion Bank. Shares of Canadian Western Bank (+31.0%) rose on the heels of strong earnings numbers. Abyara Planejamento (+70.2%), a REIT active in Sao Paulo, Brazil's metropolitan real estate, continued to be a solid performer. A purchase of Thornburg Mortgage (+11.0%), after its price reflected negative news from the subprime fallout, was another significant contributor.

The Fund's top detractors were in the Regional Banks and Mortgage REIT sub-sectors. BankUnited Financial (-27.8%), the Fund's largest detractor from absolute performance during the period, declined due to an increase in non-performing assets and reduced residential loan production. The Bancorp (-29.0%), a holding company for northeast retail and commercial bank The Bancorp Bank, and Capital Corp of the West (-29.7%), a holding company for California-based commercial bank County Bank, were both among the top detractors to absolute Fund performance. Arbor Realty Trust (-29.8%) sold off in tandem with other mortgage REITs this period, despite its effort to upgrade the quality of its real estate portfolio and capital raising efforts.

At the end of the period, the Fund remains positioned primarily in Regional Banks (39%) as well as Thrift & Mortgage Finance names (18%). We have trimmed our Regional Banks exposure slightly over the last six months, while increasing our exposure to Asset Managers and Investment Banking and Brokerage companies. Across sub-industries, Real Estate Management and Development companies were the strongest contributors to Fund performance over the period. The Fund's top holdings at the end of the year include Thornburg Mortgage, Commerce Bancorp, and Canadian Western Bank.

The complacency we continue to see in equity and even fixed income markets astounds us. While there are some mitigating factors such as a fearful Fed and a falling US dollar that may continue to entice foreigners to buy our assets, we believe we are in the early innings of the reversal of an economy built on too much leverage. The increased volatility we expect as a result should present opportunities for fundamental investors. While the US appears challenged, we remain excited about opportunities in non-US markets. Where appropriate, we will continue to diversify our risks geographically including investments outside of the US. Emerging economies have just experienced a major stress test, and most countries have passed it with flying colors. This is not to say that emerging markets will not be affected by the slowdown in the US and Europe. As such, we continue to find select attractive opportunities on a relative valuation outside the US, with approximately 15% of the Fund's equity securities domiciled in non-US securities. This conviction for financial stock valuations outside the US is also reflected in three of the Fund's top ten holdings being non-US securities.

With the support of the Fund's board, we are also considering the purchase of credit default swaps ("CDS") on credit indexes or individual issuers. The purchase of CDS will potentially provide the Fund with a hedge for equity exposure, or allow us to express a view on risk in anticipation of widening credit spreads.

We will continue our focus on fundamental analysis of individual financial services companies, with emphasis on those with strong balance sheets and experienced management to weather an economic downturn. The increased volatility in our sector and the challenging economic conditions create numerous investment opportunities, which we are confident will reward long-term shareholders of the Fund.

As always, we appreciate your support of the Fund.

Notes to Financial Statements (Unaudited) FIRST FINANCIAL FUND, INC.

Note 1. Significant Accounting Policies

First Financial Fund, Inc. (the "Fund") was incorporated in Maryland on March 3, 1986, as a closed-end, diversified management investment company. The Fund's primary investment objective is to achieve long-term capital appreciation with the secondary objective of current income by investing, under normal conditions, at least 65% of its assets in financial services companies, except for temporary or defensive purposes. In addition, pursuant to a non-fundamental investment policy adopted by the Fund, under normal conditions it invests at least 80% of its assets in securities issued by financial service companies. The 80% non-fundamental policy may be changed upon 60-days advance notice to stockholders. "Financial service companies" include savings and banking institutions, mortgage banking institutions, real estate investment trusts, consumer finance companies, credit collection and related service companies, insurance companies, security and commodity brokerage companies, investment advisory firms and financial conglomerates, and holding companies of any of these companies.

The following is a summary of significant accounting policies followed by the Fund in the preparation of its financial statements. The preparation of financial statements in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles in the United States of America, which requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

Securities Valuation: Securities for which market quotations are readily available (including securities listed on national securities exchanges and those traded over-the-counter) are valued at the last quoted sales price on the valuation date on which the security is traded. If such securities were not traded on the valuation date, but market quotations are readily available, they are valued at the most recently quoted bid price provided by an independent pricing service or by principal market makers. Securities traded on NASDAQ are valued at the NASDAQ Official Closing Price ("NOCP"). Where market quotations are not readily available or where the pricing agent or market maker does not provide a valuation or methodology, or provides a valuation or methodology that, in the judgment of the adviser, does not represent fair value ("Fair Value Securities"), securities are valued at fair value by a Pricing Committee appointed by the Board of Directors, in consultation with the adviser. In such circumstances, the adviser makes an initial written recommendation to the Pricing Committee regarding valuation methodology for each Fair Value Security. Thereafter, the adviser conducts periodic reviews of each Fair Value Security to consider whether the respective methodology and its application is appropriate and recommends methodology changes when appropriate. The Pricing Committee reviews and makes a determination regarding each initial methodology recommendation and any subsequent methodology changes. All methodology recommendations and any changes are reviewed by the entire Board of Directors on a quarterly basis.

Short-term securities which mature in more than 60 days are valued at current market quotations. Short-term securities which mature in 60 days or less are valued at amortized cost, which approximates fair value.

Repurchase Agreements: The Fund may enter into repurchase agreement transactions with United States financial institutions. It is the Fund's policy that its custodian take possession of the underlying collateral securities, the value of which exceeds the principal amount of the repurchase transaction, including accrued interest. To the extent that any repurchase transaction exceeds one business day, the value of the collateral is marked-to-market on a daily basis to maintain the adequacy of the collateral. The value of the collateral at the time of the execution must be at least equal to 102% of the total amount of the repurchase obligations, including interest. If the seller defaults, and the value of the collateral declines or if bankruptcy proceedings are commenced with respect to the seller of the security, realization of the collateral by the Fund may be delayed or limited.

Foreign Currency Translation: The books and records of the Fund are maintained in US dollars. Foreign currencies, investments and other assets and liabilities denominated in foreign currencies are translated into US dollars at the exchange rate prevailing at the end of the period, and purchases and sales of investment securities, income and expenses transacted in foreign currencies are translated at the exchange rate on the dates of such transactions. Foreign currency gains and losses result from fluctuations in exchange rates between trade date and settlement date on securities transactions, foreign currency transactions and the difference between the amounts of interest and dividends recorded on the books of the Fund and the amounts actually received. The portion of foreign currency gains and losses related to fluctuation in the exchange rates between the initial purchase trade date and subsequent sale trade date is included in gains and losses on investment securities sold.

Securities Transactions and Net Investment Income: Securities transactions are recorded on the trade date. Realized gains or losses on sales of securities are calculated on the identified cost basis. Dividend income is recorded on the ex-dividend date, or for certain foreign securities, when the information becomes available to the portfolios. Interest income including amortization of premium and accretion of discount on debt securities, as required, is recorded on the accrual basis, using the effective interest method.

Dividend income from investments in real estate investment trusts ("REITs") is recorded at management's estimate of the income included in distributions received. Distributions received in excess of this amount are recorded as a reduction of the cost of investments. The actual amounts of income and return of capital are determined by each REIT only after its fiscal year-end, and may differ from the estimated amounts.

Federal Income Taxes: The Fund intends to qualify as a registered investment company ("RIC") by complying with the requirements under subchapter M of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, applicable to RICs and intends to distribute substantially all of its taxable net investment income to its stockholders. Therefore, no Federal income tax provision is required.

Income and capital gain distributions are determined and characterized in accordance with income tax regulations, which may differ from generally accepted accounting principles. These differences are primarily due to (1) differing treatments of income and gains on various investment securities held by the Fund, including timing differences and (2) the attribution of expenses against certain components of taxable investment income. The Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, imposes a 4% nondeductible excise tax on the Fund to the extent the Fund does not distribute by the end of any calendar year at least (1) 98% of the sum of its net investment income for that year and its capital gains (both long-term and short-term) for its fiscal year and (2) certain undistributed amounts from previous years.

Dividends and Distributions to Stockholders: The Fund expects to declare and pay dividends from net investment income and distributions of net realized capital gains, if any, annually. Dividends and distributions to stockholders, which are determined in accordance with federal income tax regulations and which may differ from generally accepted accounting principles, are recorded on the ex-dividend date. Permanent book/tax differences related to income and gains are reclassified to paid-in-capital when they arise.

Note 9. Recently Issued Accounting Pronouncement

In June 2006, the Financial Accounting Standards Board ("FASB") issued FASB Interpretation No. 48, ("FIN 48") "Accounting for Uncertainty in Income Taxes" an interpretation of FASB Statement No. 109". FIN 48 clarifies the accounting for uncertainty in income taxes recognized in accordance with FASB Statement No. 109, "Accounting for Income Taxes." This interpretation prescribes a recognition threshold and measurement attribute for the financial statement recognition and measurement of a tax position taken or expected to be taken in a tax return. It also provides guidance on de-recognition, classification, interest and penalties, accounting in interim periods, disclosure and transition. FIN 48 is effective for fiscal years beginning after December 15, 2006. The adoption of FIN 48 had no material impact on the Fund's financial statements.

In September 2006, the FASB issued Statement of Financial Accounting Standards No. 157, "Fair Value Measurements" (SFAS No. 157). SFAS No. 157 defines fair value, establishes a framework for measuring fair value in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles and expands disclosure about fair value measurements. SFAS No. 157 is effective for fiscal years beginning after November 15, 2007. Management is currently evaluating the impact the adoption of SFAS No. 157 will have on the Fund's financial statement disclosures.

In February 2007, the FASB issued Statement of Financial Accounting Standards (SFAS) No. 159, "The Fair Value Option for Financial Assets and Financial Liabilities" including an amendment of FASB Statement No. 115." SFAS No. 159 permits entities to elect to measure certain financial assets and liabilities at fair value. Unrealized gains and losses on items for which the fair value option has been elected will be reported in earnings at each subsequent reporting date. SFAS No. 159 is effective as of the beginning of the first fiscal year that begins after November 15, 2007. Management is currently evaluating the impact the adoption of SFAS No. 159 will have on the Fund's financial statements.

Note 10. Significant Events

At a board meeting held on July 24, 2006, the Audit Committee selected and the Board ratified Deloitte & Touche LLP as the Fund's independent registered public accounting firm to replace KPMG LLP ("KPMG").

The reports of the financial statements audited by KPMG for the Fund for the past 3 years did not contain an adverse opinion or disclaimer of opinion, and were not qualified or modified as to uncertainty, audit scope or accounting principles. There were no disagreements between the Fund and KPMG on any matters of accounting principles or practices, financial statement disclosure, or auditing scope or procedures, which disagreements, if not resolved to the satisfaction of KPMG would have caused it to make reference to the subject matter of the disagreements in connection with its reports on the financial statements of such years.

Board of Directors' Approval (Unaudited) FIRST FINANCIAL FUND, INC.

Discussion Regarding the Board of Directors' Approval of the Investment Advisory Contract

Wellington Management Company, LLP (the "Adviser") has entered into an Investment Advisory Agreement with the Fund (the "Advisory Agreement") pursuant to which the Adviser is responsible for managing the Fund's assets in accordance with its investment objectives, policies and limitations. The Advisory Agreement was recently amended in July 2006, after required approval was obtained from the Fund's board of directors and stockholders, to increase the advisory fees payable to the Adviser under the Advisory Agreement. The 1940 Act requires that the Board, including a majority of the Independent Directors, annually approve the terms of the Advisory Agreement. At a regularly scheduled meeting held on April 27, 2007, the Directors, by a unanimous vote (including a separate vote of the Independent Directors), approved the renewal of the Advisory Agreement.

Factors Considered

Generally, the Board considered a number of factors in renewing the Advisory Agreement including, among other things, (i) the nature, extent and quality of services to be furnished by the Adviser to the Fund; (ii) the investment performance of the Fund compared to relevant market indices and the performance of comparable funds; (iii) the advisory fees and other expenses paid by the Fund; (iv) the profitability to the Adviser of its investment advisory relationship with the Fund; (v) the extent to which economies of scale are realized and whether fee levels reflect any economies of scale; (vi) support of the Adviser by the Fund's principal stockholders; and (vii) the historical relationship between the Fund and the Adviser. The Board also reviewed the ability of the Adviser to provide investment management and supervision services to the Fund, including the background, education and experience of the key portfolio management and operational personnel, the investment philosophy and decision-making process of those professionals, and the ethical standards maintained by the Adviser.

Deliberative Process

To assist the Board in its evaluation of the quality of the Adviser's services and the reasonableness of the fees under the Advisory Agreement, the Board received a memorandum from independent legal counsel to the Independent Directors discussing the factors generally regarded as appropriate to consider in evaluating investment advisory arrangements and the duties of directors in approving such arrangements. In connection with its evaluation, the Board also requested and received various materials relating to the Adviser's investment services under the Agreement. These materials included reports and presentations from the Adviser that described, among other things, the Adviser's organizational structure, financial condition, internal controls, policies and procedures on brokerage practices, soft-dollar commissions and trade allocation, comparative investment performance results, comparative sub-advisory fees, and compliance policies and procedures. The Board also reviewed a report prepared by the Fund's Administrator comparing the Fund's performance to a group closed-end and open-end financial sector equity funds determined to have similar, though not identical, investment strategies as the Fund (the "Peer Group"). The Board also considered information received from the Adviser throughout the year, including investment performance and returns as well as stock price and net asset value.

In advance of the April 27, 2007 meeting, the Independent Directors held a special telephonic meeting with counsel to the Fund and the Independent Directors. The purpose of this meeting was to discuss the renewal of the Advisory Agreement and to review the materials provided to the Board by the Adviser in connection with the annual review process. The Board held additional discussions at the April 27, 2007 Board meeting, which included a private session among the Independent Directors and their independent legal counsel at which no employees or representatives of the Adviser were present.

The information below summarizes the Board's considerations in connection with its approval of the Advisory Agreement. In deciding to approve the Advisory Agreement, the Board did not identify a single factor as controlling and this summary does not describe all of the matters considered. However, the Board concluded that each of the various factors referred to below favored such approval.

Nature, Extent and Quality of the Services Provided; Ability to Provide Services

The Board received and considered various data and information regarding the nature, extent and quality of services provided to the Fund by the Adviser under the Advisory Agreement. The Adviser's most recent investment adviser registration form on the Securities and Exchange Commission's Form ADV was provided to the Board, as were the responses of the Adviser to information requests submitted to the Adviser by the Independent Directors through their independent legal counsel. The Board reviewed and analyzed the materials, which included information about the background, education and experience of the Adviser's key portfolio management and operational personnel and the amount of attention devoted to the Fund by the Adviser's portfolio management personnel. The Board also reviewed the Adviser's policies and procedures on side-by-side management of hedge funds and other accounts and any impact these have on the success of the Fund. The Board was satisfied that the Adviser's investment personnel, including Nicholas C. Adams, the Fund's principal portfolio manager, devote an adequate portion of their time and attention to the success of the Fund and its investment strategy, particularly given the reduction in the number of accounts managed by Mr. Adams that occurred in 2006. Based on the above factors, the Board concluded that it was generally satisfied with the nature, extent and quality of the investment advisory services provided to the Fund by the Adviser, and that the Adviser possessed the ability to continue to provide these services to the Fund in the future.

Investment Performance

The Board considered the investment performance of the Fund since inception, as compared to both relevant indices and the performance of two comparable closed-end financial services funds. The Board noted favorably that for the three-, five-, ten-year, and since inception periods ended February 28, 2007, the Fund's performance based upon total return outperformed the Standard & Poor's 500 Index, the Fund's primary relevant benchmark, as well as the NASDAQ Composite, the NASDAQ Banks Index, the SNL All Daily Thrift Index, and the SNL MBS REITS Index, the Fund's secondary benchmarks. For the one-year period ended February 28, 2007, the Fund underperformed versus the Standard & Poor's 500 Index and the SNL MBS REITS Index, despite its total return of 10.00% during the period, but had outperformed the Fund's other secondary benchmarks. The Board also acknowledged that the Fund had outperformed the two most comparable closed-end financial services funds over the same period. The Board recognized that the Fund received a Lipper 2006 Performance Achievement Certificate based on its number one ranking in the Lipper Closed-End Equity Fund Performance Analysis for Sector Equity Funds for the ten-year period ending December 31, 2006.

The Board further considered the investment performance of the Fund as compared to the performance of the Peer Group for the one-, three- and five-year periods ended March 31, 2007. The Board noted that the Fund ranked number one in performance based upon total return of the net asset value versus the returns of the comparable funds in the Peer Group for the five-year period ended March 31, 2007, and was in the second quintile (i.e., the top 40% of funds in the Peer Group) for the three-year period ending on that date. The Board also noted that the Fund's performance had ranked in the last quintile (i.e., the bottom 20% of the funds in the Peer Group) for the one-year period ended March 31, 2007. The Board attributed the Fund's short term underperformance to the Adviser's stated desire to reduce the Fund's risk exposure given its cautiously pessimistic outlook for the financial services sector and the fact that several of the funds in the Peer Group focused on other sectors that experienced strong performance relative to the financial services sector. The Board ascribed greater weight to the long-term performance of the Fund against its benchmarks and other financial services funds.

Costs of Services Provided and Profits Realized by the Adviser

In evaluating the costs of the services provided to the Fund by the Advisers, the Board relied on statistical and other information regarding the Fund's total expense ratio and its various components, including advisory fees and investment-related expenses. The Board also noted that in 2006, in connection with a proposed increase in advisory fees under the Advisory Agreement that was ultimately approved by the Board and the Fund's stockholders, it had conducted a detailed evaluation of the Fund's expense ratio and the advisory fees charged by the Adviser. The Board noted that fees under the Advisory Agreement had been determined to be at the median fee rate for a group of six similarly situated non-leveraged, closed-end sector equity funds chosen by Lipper Analytical Services, Inc., an independent consultant, and that the fees were comparable to the fees earned by the Adviser on other portfolios managed by Mr. Adams.

The Board also obtained information regarding the overall profitability of the Adviser. The profitability information was obtained to assist the Board in determining the overall benefits to the Adviser from its relationship to the Fund. The Board compared the overall profitability of the Adviser to the profitability of certain publicly traded investment management firms. Based on its analysis of this information, the Board determined that the overall level of profits earned by the Adviser did not appear to be unreasonable based on the profitability of other investment management firms and the quality of the services rendered by the Adviser.

Based on these factors, the Board concluded that the fee under the Advisory Agreement was reasonable and fair in light of the nature and quality of the services provided by the Adviser.

Economies of Scale

The Board considered whether there have been economies of scale with respect to the management of the Fund, whether the Fund has appropriately benefited from any economies of scale, and whether the fee is reasonable in relation to the Fund's assets and any economies of scale that may exist. The Board noted that the existing fee schedule under the Advisory Agreement includes breakpoints. In evaluating economies of scale, the Board noted that the Advisers' internal costs of providing investment management services to the Fund had continued to increase, particularly costs associated with attracting and retaining talented investment personnel and compliance costs. The Board concluded that the breakpoints in the fee schedule are acceptable and appropriately reflect any economies of scale expected to be realized by the Adviser in managing the Fund's assets if the Fund's net assets increase.

Stockholder Support and Historical Relationship with the Fund

The Board also weighed the views of the Fund's largest stockholders, which are affiliated with the family of Mr. Stewart R. Horejsi. As of March 31, 2007, the Lola Brown Trust No. 1B and other entities affiliated with the Horejsi family held approximately 35% of the Fund's outstanding common shares. The Board understood from Mr. Horejsi that these stockholders were supportive of the Adviser and the renewal of the Advisory Agreement. The Board also noted that the Fund had received a limited amount of negative feedback from other Fund stockholders in connection with the increase in the level of advisory fees in 2006. The Board also recognized that the Fund's stock price had traded at a premium over the Fund's net asset value for almost the entire year ended March 31, 2007, which the Board believed reflected the confidence of the Fund's stockholders in the Adviser, although the Fund's stock price on March 31, 2007 was $14.25, which represented a 6% discount to the Fund's net asset value of $15.14 on that date.

Approval

The Board based its decision to approve the renewal of the Advisory Agreement on a careful analysis, in consultation with independent counsel, of the above factors as well as other factors. In approving the Advisory Agreement, the Board concluded that the terms of the Advisory Agreement are reasonable and fair and that renewal of the Advisory Agreement is in the best interests of the Fund and its stockholders.
