Table of Contents

Section 1	Corporate name, Registered Office, Purpose and Duration
	Article 1
Corporate name, Registered office	1 Under the Corporate name Novartis AG Novartis SA Novartis Inc. there exists a company limited by shares with its registered office in Basle.
	Article 2
Purpose	1 Purpose of the Company is to hold interests in enterprises in the area of health care or nutrition. The Company may also hold interests in enterprises in the areas of biology, chemistry, physics, information technology or related areas. 2 The Company may acquire, mortgage, liquidate or sell real estate and intellectual property rights in Switzerland or abroad. 3 In pursuing its purpose, the Company strives to create sustainable value.
	Article 3
Duration	1 The duration of the Company is unlimited.
Section 2	Share Capital
	Article 4
Share capital	1 The share capital of the Company is CHF 1,318,811,500, fully paid-in and divided into 2,637,623,000 registered shares. Each share has a nominal value of CHF 0.50. 2 Upon resolution of the General Meeting of Shareholders registered shares may be converted into bearer shares and reversed bearer shares may be converted into registered shares.
	Article 5
Shareholders register and restrictions of registration, Nominees	1 The Company shall maintain a shareholders register showing the names, first names, domicile, address and nationality (in the case of legal entities the registered office) of the holders or usufructuaries of registered shares. 2 Upon request acquirers of registered shares are registered in the shareholders register as shareholders with the right to vote, provided that they declare explicitly to have acquired the registered shares in their own name and for their own account. Subject to the restrictions set forth in paragraph 6 of this article, no person or entity shall be registered with the right to vote for more than 2% of the registered share capital as set forth in the commercial register. This restriction of registration also applies to persons who hold some or all of their shares through nominees pursuant to this article. All of the foregoing is subject to Article 685d paragraph 3 of the Swiss Code of Obligations.

- 3 The Board of Directors may register nominees with the right to vote in the share register to the extent of up to 0.5% of the registered share capital as set forth in the commercial register. Registered shares held by a nominee that exceed this limit may be registered in the shareholders register if the nominee discloses the names, addresses and the number of shares of the persons for whose account it holds 0.5% or more of the registered share capital as set forth in the commercial register. Nominees within the meaning of this provision are persons who do not explicitly declare in the request for registration to hold the shares for their own account and with whom the Board of Directors has entered into a corresponding agreement.
- 4 Corporate bodies and partnerships or other groups of persons or joint owners who are interrelated to one another through capital ownership, voting rights, uniform management or otherwise linked as well as individuals or corporate bodies and partnerships who act in concert to circumvent the regulations concerning the limitation of participation or the nominees (especially as syndicates), shall be treated as one single person or nominee within the meaning of paragraphs 2 and 3 of this article.
- 5 After hearing the registered shareholder or nominee, the Board of Directors may cancel registrations with retroactive effect as of the date of registration if the registration was effected based on false information. The respective shareholder or nominee shall be informed immediately of the cancellation of the registration.
- 6 The Board of Directors shall specify the details and give the necessary orders concerning the adherence to the preceding regulations. In particular cases it may allow exemptions from the limitation for registration in the share register or the regulation concerning nominees. It may delegate its duties.
- 7 The limitation for registration in the share register provided for in this article shall also apply to shares acquired or subscribed by the exercise of subscription, option or conversion rights.

Article 6

Share certificates

- 1 The Company may issue certificates representing several shares. They may be exchanged at any time for smaller portions or individual share certificates.

Table of Contents

Dematerialised shares	Article 7 1 The Company may renounce the printing and delivery of certificates and may, with the consent of the owner of issued shares, cancel issued certificates for registered shares that are returned to the Company. It may renounce the issuance of new certificates for registered shares if the owner of the shares does not demand the issuance of certificates for its shares with the co-operation of the bank which handles the book entries. 2 Registered shares not represented by a certificate may only be transferred by way of assignment, which assignment must encompass all rights connected with the transferred shares. To be valid, the assignment must be notified to the Company. Registered shares not represented by a certificate which a bank has been instructed by the shareholder to administer may only be transferred with the co-operation of that bank. 3 Registered shares not represented by a certificate may only be pledged to the bank which handles the book entries of such shares for the shareholder, and only based on a written pledge agreement. A notification of the Company is not necessary. The right to require delivery of a certificate may be transferred to the bank accepting the pledge. In all other cases, the pledge of registered shares requires the transfer of the certificates to be valid.
Exercise of rights	Article 8 1 The shares are not divisible. The Company accepts only one representative per share. 2 The right to vote and the other rights associated with a registered share may only be exercised by a shareholder, usufructuary or nominee who is registered in the share register.
Section 3	Corporate Bodies A. General Meeting of Shareholders
Competence	Article 9 1 The General Meeting of Shareholders is the supreme body of the Company.

a. Ordinary General Meeting	1 The Ordinary General Meeting of Shareholders shall be held each year within six months after the close of the fiscal year of the Company; at the latest twenty days before the meeting the business report and the report of the auditors shall be made available for inspection by the shareholders at the registered office of the Company.
b. Extraordinary General Meetings of Shareholders	Article 11 1 Extraordinary General Meetings of Shareholders shall take place upon request of the Board of Directors or the Auditors. 2 Furthermore, Extraordinary General Meetings of Shareholders shall be convened upon resolution of a General Meeting of Shareholders or if it is required by one or more shareholders who are representing in the aggregate not less than one tenth of the share capital and submit a petition signed by such shareholder or shareholders specifying the items for the agenda and the proposals.
Convening of General Meetings	Article 12 1 General Meetings of Shareholders shall be convened by the Board of Directors at the latest twenty days before the date of the meeting. The meeting shall be convened by way of a notice appearing once in the official publication organs of the Company. Registered shareholders may also be informed by mail. 2 The notice of a meeting shall state the items on the agenda and the proposals of the Board of Directors and as the case may be of the shareholders who demanded that a General Meeting of Shareholders be convened and, in case of elections, the names of the nominated candidates.
Agenda	Article 13 1 One or more shareholders whose combined shareholdings represent an aggregate nominal value of at least 1 million Francs may demand that an item be included in the agenda of a General Meeting. Such a demand must be made in writing at the latest forty-five days before the meeting and shall specify the items and the proposals of such a shareholder. 2 No resolution shall be passed at a General Meeting on matters for which no proper notice was given. This provision shall not apply to proposals to convene an Extraordinary General Meeting or to initiate a special audit.
