Item 1.01 Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

On January 14, 2010, Hawaiian Airlines, Inc. (the Company), a wholly-owned subsidiary of Hawaiian Holdings, Inc. (the Registrant), entered into a definitive Complete Fleet Services Agreement (Agreement) with Delta Air Lines, Inc. (Delta) pursuant to which Delta will perform certain specifically described maintenance, materials and component provisioning and management, and technical services for, and in respect of, Airbus A330 aircraft (Aircraft) to be acquired and operated by the Company. During the term of the Agreement, Delta will be the exclusive provider of such specified services for the Aircraft and compensation will be based on a combination of power by the hour (subject to specified minimums), and time and materials, rates. The term of the Agreement expires twelve years after induction of the last Aircraft projected to enter into the Company s fleet.

The foregoing description of the Agreement is not complete and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of the Agreement which the Registrant intends to file with the Securities and Exchange Commission as an exhibit to its next periodic report and is incorporated by reference herein. The Registrant also intends to seek confidential treatment of certain terms of the Agreement at such time.

The Company currently has additional agreements with Delta to provide maintenance and other services for its other aircraft, engines, parts and equipment as well as a marketing alliance with Delta that provides reciprocal frequent flyer mileage accrual and redemption privileges on certain flights.
