Item 5.02 Departure of Directors or Certain Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Certain Officers; Compensatory Arrangements of Certain Officers.

On January 31, 2011, the following management changes occurred at Supreme Industries, Inc. (the Company):

Robert W. Wilson, 66, retired as President and Chief Operating Officer of the Company and President and Chief Executive Officer of the Company's wholly-owned subsidiary, Supreme Indiana Operations, Inc. (Supreme Indiana) effective immediately. He is remaining on the Board of Directors of the Company and will work with the Company in transitioning its leadership as a special advisor to the Board of Directors on special projects. Mr. Wilson will continue to receive his current base salary as provided for in his employment contract during this transition period.

Herbert M. Gardner, 71, resigned as Chief Executive Officer of the Company; however, he is remaining as Chairman of the Board. He will be involved in the transition of management of the Company.

Kim Korth, 56, was appointed President and Chief Executive Officer of the Company and Supreme Indiana in an interim capacity. She is the sole owner and President of IRN Inc., a transportation advisory firm, which has been working with the Company since May 2010. She was also appointed to the Board of Directors of the Company on January 31, 2011. She has been appointed to a special committee which is assisting the Company's leadership team during the transition period and is beginning the process of identifying and hiring a permanent President and Chief Executive Officer of the Company and Supreme Indiana. Since 1995, Ms. Korth has been the sole owner and President of IRN Inc. In appointing her to the Board of Directors, the Board of Directors considered that she has worked as a consultant to the Company, is an expert in strategic and operational planning and organizational design and has experience serving on both public company and private company boards. She is a member of the Board of Directors of Stoneridge, Inc., an independent designer and manufacturer of highly engineered and electronic components, modules and systems for the medium and heavy duty truck, automotive, agricultural and off-highway vehicle markets. During 2010, the Company paid IRN Inc. approximately $215,500 for consulting services. The Company is currently negotiating an employment agreement with Ms. Korth. There are no family relationships between Ms. Korth and any other executive officers or directors of the Company.
