VULCAN OUTLINES STRONG VALUE PROPOSITION

IN NEW SHAREHOLDER PRESENTATION

Birmingham, Alabama, March 30, 2012 Vulcan Materials Company (NYSE:VMC) has released an updated investor presentation on the Company's compelling value proposition. The presentation is available at www.realaggregatesleader.com and on Vulcan's corporate website at www.vulcanmaterials.com. It is also being filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC) and will be accessible on the SEC's website at www.sec.gov.

In the presentation, Vulcan detailed the Company's strong value proposition, including Vulcan's:

1. Premium aggregates operations.

- Vulcan's aggregates assets are positioned in better and faster growing markets than those of Martin Marietta Materials, Inc. (NYSE:MLM). Vulcan's top five states are projected to grow by over 16.1 million people between 2010 and 2020, 75% more than Martin Marietta's top five states, which are projected to grow by just 9.2 million people.
- Vulcan serves 18 of the top 25 U.S. metropolitan areas ranked by projected population growth; Martin Marietta serves only 9.i
- Vulcan has consistently achieved higher aggregates price growth. Since 2006, Vulcan's aggregates prices have increased at a 5.0% compounded annual growth rate, compared to just 3.6% for Martin Marietta.ii
- Vulcan's aggregates 2011 cash gross profit unit margin was 32% higher than Martin Marietta's ($4.08 per ton vs. $3.10 per ton).ii

2. Solid SAG and cash flow management.

- By the end of 2012, Vulcan is on target to have reduced Selling, Administrative and General (SAG) expenses by at least 32% since 2007.iii
- Vulcan's consistently superior working capital management leads to more efficient cash conversion than Martin Marietta's.

3. Substantial operating leverage, which drives strong EBITDA growth as markets recover.^{iv}

- Vulcan achieved superior earnings growth during the previous recovery. Between 2003 and 2006, Vulcan's EBITDA (Earnings Before Interest, Taxes, Depreciation and Amortization) grew by $555 million, or 70%, compared to $193 million, or 57%, for Martin Marietta.ⁱⁱⁱ
 - Vulcan's non-aggregates businesses are at cyclical troughs and have considerable upside potential.^{iv}
 - Wall Street analysts estimate that Vulcan's EBITDA will grow at more than double the rate of Martin Marietta's: Vulcan's EBITDA is expected to grow by 233% from current levels to mid-cycle including expected savings from the Profit Enhancement Plan, compared to 91% expected EBITDA growth for Martin Marietta.^v

4. Outperformance in results and Wall Street expectations since Martin Marietta launched its hostile offer.

- Vulcan's fourth quarter 2011 results demonstrate Vulcan's superior operating leverage and early signs of a market recovery.^{iv}
- Vulcan grew gross profit by $23.6 million in the fourth quarter of 2011 (from the fourth quarter of 2010), while Martin Marietta's gross profit grew only $1.3 million; Vulcan grew EBITDA by $32.3 million in the fourth quarter of 2011, while Martin Marietta's EBITDA declined by $1.0 million.^{vi}
- Since Martin Marietta announced its hostile offer in December 2011, Wall Street analysts have raised their consensus estimate for Vulcan's 2012 EBITDA by 15%, compared to a 1% increase for Martin Marietta.^{vii}

5. Well-defined Profit Enhancement Plan, which is expected to add significant value that belongs to Vulcan shareholders.

- Vulcan has already captured $55 million in run-rate cost savings from its completed 2011 restructuring initiatives.
- Vulcan's recently announced Profit Enhancement Plan is expected to generate an additional $100 million of annual EBITDA improvement.

6. Planned Asset Sales that accelerate deleveraging and build value.

- $500 million in expected net proceeds from Planned Asset Sales will be used to reduce debt, further strengthening Vulcan's balance sheet and credit profile.

7. De-risked balance sheet, which will further enhance shareholder value.

8. Commitment to restore a competitive dividend when prudent to do so.

The full basis for the Vulcan Board's recommendation to reject the Martin Marietta offer is set forth in Vulcan's Schedule 14D-9, which was filed on December 22, 2011 with the SEC and is available on the SEC's website at www.sec.gov. FORWARD-LOOKING STATEMENT DISCLAIMER

This document contains forward-looking statements. Statements that are not historical fact, including statements about Vulcan's beliefs and expectations, are forward-looking statements.

Generally, these statements relate to future financial performance, results of operations, business plans or strategies, projected or anticipated revenues, expenses, earnings (including EBITDA and other measures), dividend policy, shipment volumes, pricing, levels of capital expenditures, intended cost reductions and cost savings, anticipated profit improvements and/or planned divestitures and asset sales. These forward-looking statements are sometimes identified by the use of terms and phrases such as believe, should, would, expect, project, estimate, anticipate, intend, plan, will, can, may or similar expressions elsewhere in this document. These statements are subject to numerous risks, uncertainties, and assumptions, including but not limited to general business conditions, competitive factors, pricing, energy costs, and other risks and uncertainties discussed in the reports Vulcan periodically files with the SEC.

Forward-looking statements are not guarantees of future performance and actual results, developments, and business decisions may vary significantly from those expressed in or implied by the forward-looking statements. The following risks related to Vulcan's business, among others, could cause actual results to differ materially from those described in the forward-looking statements: risks that Vulcan's intentions, plans and results with respect to cost reductions, profit enhancements and asset sales, as well as streamlining and other strategic actions adopted by Vulcan, will not be able to be realized to the desired degree or within the desired time period and that the results thereof will differ from those anticipated or desired; uncertainties as to the timing and valuations that may be realized or attainable with respect to intended asset sales; future events relating to Martin Marietta's unsolicited offer to acquire Vulcan; those associated with general economic and business conditions; the timing and amount of federal, state and local funding for infrastructure; the lack of a multi-year federal highway funding bill with an automatic funding mechanism; the reluctance of state departments of transportation to undertake federal highway projects without a reliable method of federal funding; the impact of a prolonged economic recession on Vulcan's industry, business and financial condition and access to capital markets; changes in the level of spending for private residential and nonresidential construction; the highly competitive nature of the construction materials industry; the impact of future regulatory or legislative actions; the outcome of pending legal proceedings; pricing of Vulcan's products; incurred and potential costs associated with Martin Marietta's unsolicited takeover attempt and proxy contest; weather and other natural phenomena; energy costs; costs of hydrocarbon-based raw materials; healthcare costs; the amount of long-term debt and interest expense incurred by Vulcan; changes in interest rates; the impact of Vulcan's below investment grade debt rating on Vulcan's cost of capital; volatility in pension plan asset values which may require cash contributions to the pension plans; the impact of environmental clean-up costs and other liabilities relating to previously divested businesses; Vulcan's ability to secure and permit aggregates reserves in strategically located areas; Vulcan's ability to manage and successfully integrate acquisitions; the potential of goodwill impairment; the potential impact of future legislation or regulations relating to climate change or greenhouse gas emissions or the definition of minerals; and other assumptions, risks and uncertainties detailed from time to time in the reports filed by Vulcan with the SEC. All forward-looking statements in this communication are qualified in their entirety by this cautionary statement. Vulcan disclaims and does not undertake any obligation to update or revise any forward-looking statement in this document except as required by law. Vulcan notes that forward-looking statements made in connection with a tender offer are not subject to the safe harbors created by the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. Vulcan is not waiving any other defenses that may be available under applicable law.

Vulcan ReconciliationReconciliation of Non-GAAP Financial Measures*Amounts in millions of dollars

Generally Accepted Accounting Principles (GAAP) does not define cash gross profit and Earnings Before Interest, Taxes, Depreciation and Amortization (EBITDA). Thus, they should not be considered as an alternative to any earnings measure defined by GAAP. We present these metrics for the convenience of investment professionals who use such metrics in their analysis, and for shareholders who need to understand the metrics we use to assess performance. The investment community often uses these metrics as indicators of a company's ability to incur and service debt. We use cash gross profit, EBITDA and other such measures to assess the operating performance of our various business units and the consolidated company. We do not use these metrics as a measure to allocate resources or as liquidity measures. Reconciliations of these metrics to their nearest GAAP measures are presented below:

Cash gross profit

Cash gross profit adds back noncash charges for depreciation, depletion, accretion and amortization to gross profit.
