ITEM 1.01

ENTRY INTO A MATERIAL DEFINITIVE AGREEMENT

On April 6, 2018, Ashford Inc., a Maryland corporation (the Company), entered into a Combination Agreement (the Combination Agreement) with Monty J. Bennett and Archie Bennett, Jr., the Company's Chairman and Chief Executive Officer and his father, respectively (collectively, the Bennetts); Remington Holdings, L.P., a Delaware limited partnership (Remington); Remington Holdings GP, LLC, a Delaware limited liability company and the general partner of Remington (the General Partner); Project Management LLC, a Maryland limited liability company and wholly owned subsidiary of Remington (PM LLC); MJB Investments, LP (MJB Investments); Mark A. Sharkey; Ashford Holding Corp., a Maryland corporation and wholly owned subsidiary of the Company (New Holdco); and Ashford Merger Sub Inc., a Maryland corporation and wholly owned subsidiary of New Holdco (Merger Sub).

Relationships Among the Parties

The Company serves as the advisor to Ashford Hospitality Prime, Inc., a Maryland corporation (Ashford Prime), and Ashford Hospitality Trust, Inc., a Maryland corporation (Ashford Trust), from which the Company was spun-off in November 2014. Ashford Prime and Ashford Trust are real estate investment trusts listed on the New York Stock Exchange. Prior to the Company's spin-off, the Company entered into a mutual exclusivity agreement with Remington Lodging & Hospitality, LLC, a Delaware limited liability company (Remington L&H), a property management company owned by the Bennetts and a wholly owned subsidiary of Remington, pursuant to which the Company agreed, subject to certain terms and conditions, to utilize Remington L&H to provide property management, project management, development and related services for all hotels, if any, that the Company may acquire as well as all hotels that future companies advised by the Company may acquire.

Mr. Monty J. Bennett serves as Chairman of the Board of Directors of the Company (the Board) and Chief Executive Officer of the Company. He also serves as Chief Executive Officer of Remington L&H. Mr. Archie Bennett, Jr. is Chairman Emeritus of Ashford Trust and Chairman of Remington. Each of Mr. Monty J. Bennett and Mr. Archie Bennett, Jr. owns a fifty-percent limited partnership interest in Remington and a fifty-percent general partnership interest in Remington.

As of April 6, 2018, Mr. Monty J. Bennett and Mr. Archie Bennett, Jr. together own, or otherwise control, directly or indirectly, 405,508 shares of common stock of the Company (excluding 206,248 shares of common stock reserved for issuance to them, in the aggregate, pursuant to the Company's deferred compensation plan and including 95,000 shares of common stock issuable in respect of currently exercisable options held by Mr. Monty J. Bennett), which represents approximately 18.4% of the common stock of the Company.

Mr. Monty J. Bennett owns all of the equity interest in MJB Investments, and holds his economic interest in the limited partnership interests in Remington through MJB Investments.

Combination Agreement

Under the terms of the Combination Agreement, the Company, through New Holdco, will acquire, directly and indirectly, 100% of the securities of PM LLC (the PM LLC Transferred Securities), a Maryland limited liability company and wholly owned subsidiary of Remington Holdings, L.P., a Delaware limited partnership (Remington). Prior to the consummation of the merger of Merger Sub with and into the Company, whereby the Company will survive and become a wholly owned subsidiary of New Holdco (the Merger), Remington, Remington Hotels LLC (Remington

Edgar Filing: Ashford Inc. - Form 425

Hotels), Remington L&H, and, at or prior to the closing of the transactions contemplated by the Combination Agreement (the Transactions), PM LLC, and their respective subsidiaries (collectively, the PM Companies), the General Partner, and the Bennetts, among others, will (i) cause the PM Companies to transfer the project management business conducted, prior to the closing of the Transactions, by Remington Hotels and Remington L&H, and after the of the Transactions, by PM LLC, within the lodging industry, including construction management, interior design, architectural oversight, and the purchasing, expediting, warehousing, freight management, installation and supervision of furniture, fixtures, and equipment, and related services (the Project Management Business) to PM LLC, and (ii) cause 100% of the PM LLC Transferred Securities to be transferred to the Bennetts (collectively, the PM Formation Transaction). Following the consummation of the PM Formation Transaction and contemporaneously with the consummation of the Merger, the Bennetts will transfer to New Holdco, 100% of the PM LLC Transferred Securities in exchange for the consideration provided in the Combination Agreement (as described below) pursuant to a Contribution Agreement, dated as of the closing (the PM Contribution Agreement), among Archie Bennett, Jr., MJB Investments, Mr. Mark A. Sharkey, and New Holdco.

In consideration for the contribution of the PM LLC Transferred Securities, the respective holders thereof will receive aggregate consideration (the Aggregate Consideration) of $203,000,000 (based on the values agreed by the parties to the Combination Agreement as set forth below) as follows: 8,120,000 shares of New Holdco Series B Convertible Preferred Stock with a value agreed by the parties to the Combination Agreement of $25 per share. In the event the closing of the Transactions occurs, New Holdco will also pay up to $5,000,000 of (i) all transaction expenses incurred or funded by Remington or the PM Companies (on behalf of themselves or their affiliates), including, among other things, one half of all filing and other similar fees payable in connection with any filings or submissions under the Hart-Scott-Rodino Antitrust Improvements Act of 1976, as amended (the HSR Act) and any withholding or tax liability designated by Remington, in its discretion, as a transaction expense relating or attributable to the distribution of PM LLC Transferred Securities to Sharkey pursuant to the PM Formation Transaction and/or the receipt of Series B Convertible Preferred Stock by Sharkey under the Combination Agreement and the PM Contribution Agreement, and (ii) bonus and other payments (including applicable taxes in respect thereof) made to employees and agents of the PM Companies in connection with the closing.

The Combination Agreement provides that at, and as a condition to, the closing, the Bennetts receive, at a confidence level of more likely than not an opinion of their tax counsel that (A) the exchange on the closing date of the Combination Agreement by the Bennetts and MJB Investments of PM LLC Transferred Securities for Series B Convertible Preferred Stock under the Combination Agreement and the PM Contribution Agreement, in connection with the Merger, will qualify as a tax-free exchange under § 351 of the Code, (B) the Series B Convertible Preferred Stock will not be treated as nonqualified preferred stock (within the meaning of § 351(g) of the Code) as of the closing date of the Combination Agreement, and (C) the Bennetts will not recognize any taxable gain or income as a result of their exchange of PM LLC Transferred Securities for Series B Convertible Preferred Stock on the closing date of the Combination Agreement under the Combination Agreement and the PM Contribution Agreement.

The Board (other than Mr. Monty J. Bennett and Mr. J. Robison Hays, III, who recused themselves), acting upon the unanimous recommendation of a special committee consisting of disinterested and independent directors (the Special Committee), unanimously (i) determined that the Combination Agreement and the Transactions were fair to and in the best interests of the Company and its stockholders (other than the Bennetts), (ii) approved and adopted the Combination Agreement, the other Transaction Documents (as defined in the Combination Agreement) and the Transactions, and (iii) resolved to recommend that the Company's stockholders vote to approve and adopt the Transactions. The Special Committee's recommendation and the Board's action were based in part on a fairness opinion issued to the Special Committee by Janney Montgomery Scott LLC to the effect that, subject to the assumptions, qualifications and limitations relating to such opinion, as of the date of the Combination Agreement, the Aggregate Consideration is fair, from a financial point of view, to New Holdco.

Stockholders of the Company will be asked to vote in favor of the proposal to approve the Combination Agreement, the other Transaction Documents and the Transactions at the Company's annual stockholders meeting that will be held on a date to be announced. Stockholder approval is required under the rules of NYSE American LLC, on which the Company's common stock is listed for trading (the Company Stockholder Approval).

Each party's obligation to consummate the Transactions is subject to certain other conditions, including among other things (i) the absence of any legal restraint with respect to the Transactions, (ii) the expiration or earlier termination of the waiting period applicable to the Transactions under the HSR Act, (iii) the accuracy of the other party's representations and warranties contained in the Transaction Documents (subject to certain qualifiers, as applicable), (iv) the PM Contribution Agreement, the Merger Agreement, the Cost Sharing Agreement, and the New Holdco Restructuring Agreement (each as defined in the Combination Agreement) being in a form and substance reasonably satisfactory to the Company and the PM Parties, (v) the other party's compliance in all material respects with its covenants and agreements contained in the Transaction Documents, (vi) the Company Stockholder Approval having been obtained and (vii) the Transactions would not give rise to termination, penalty or similar rights of any counterparty of the Company and certain of its affiliates or Remington and certain of its affiliates, under any material agreement pursuant to which such parties provide services, including with respect to the project management business. The Company's obligation to close is also conditioned on, among other things, (i) there not having occurred a PM Material Adverse Effect (as defined in the Combination Agreement) with respect to PM LLC and (ii) the receipt of required contractual consents. The PM Parties' obligation to close is also conditioned on, among other things, (i) there not having occurred a Material Adverse Effect with respect to the Company (as defined in the Combination Agreement as an AINC Material Adverse Effect), (ii) their receipt of an appraisal satisfactory to them to the effect that the value of a share of Series B Convertible Preferred Stock does not exceed $25, (iii) the receipt of required contractual consents, and (iv) the receipt by the Bennetts of a satisfactory opinion of their tax counsel at a confidence level of more likely than not or higher for federal income tax purposes that (A) the exchange on the closing date of the Combination Agreement by the Bennetts and MJB Investments of PM LLC Transferred Securities for Series B Convertible Preferred Stock under the Combination Agreement and the PM Contribution Agreement, in connection with the Merger, will qualify as a tax-free exchange under § 351 of the Code, (B) the Series B Convertible Preferred Stock will not be treated as nonqualified preferred stock (within the meaning of § 351(g) of the Code) as of the closing date of the Combination Agreement, and (C) the Bennetts will not recognize any taxable gain or income as a result of their exchange of PM LLC Transferred Securities for Series B Convertible Preferred Stock on the closing date of the Combination Agreement under the Combination Agreement and the PM Contribution Agreement.

The PM Parties and the Company have each made representations and warranties and covenants in the Combination Agreement. The representations and warranties survive for eighteen months after closing of the Combination Agreement, except that specified fundamental representations of the parties survive indefinitely. The PM Parties' representations and warranties with respect to environmental and employee benefit matters survive for the period of the respective statute of limitations plus three months, and the parties' representations and warranties with respect to tax related matters survive for the period of the statute of limitations plus six months. Excepting breaches of fundamental representations and warranties and certain related matters, a party is not liable for breaches of representations and warranties until the aggregate amount of all damages suffered by the party exceed $5 million, in which event the breaching party is liable from the first dollar. Except for breaches of fundamental representations and warranties and certain tax related matters, the aggregate liability of a party for damages is $30.7 million. The aggregate liability of a party for damages is $203 million for all breaches of representations and warranties; provided, that in no event will Mr. Sharkey, MJB Investments or any member of the Special Committee of the Company have any liabilities with respect to any representations or warranties under the Combination Agreement. The PM Parties will satisfy obligations for breaches of warranties in shares of Series B Convertible Preferred Stock, valued at $25 per share.

The PM Companies and the PM Parties are subject to no-shop restrictions on their respective ability to solicit alternative acquisition proposals from third parties and to provide information to, and participate in discussions and engage in negotiations with, third parties regarding alternative acquisition proposals.

The Company is also subject to no-shop restrictions on its ability to solicit acquisition proposals regarding the Company from third parties and to provide information to, and participate in discussions and engage in negotiations with, third parties regarding alternative acquisition proposals. Notwithstanding these restrictions, prior to the Company Stockholder Approval, the no-shop provision is subject to a customary fiduciary-out provision that allows the Company, under certain circumstances and in compliance with certain procedures, to provide information to and participate in discussions and engage in negotiations with third parties with respect to an acquisition proposal that the Board determines (acting through the Special Committee) is reasonably likely to result in a Company Superior Proposal (as defined in the Combination Agreement as an AINC Superior Proposal). The Special Committee may exercise a termination right in order to accept a Superior Proposal, subject to match rights for the PM Parties and certain other conditions. In addition, prior to the Company Stockholder Approval, the Board may change its recommendation with respect to the Combination Agreement and the Transactions in response to an Intervening Event (as defined in the Combination Agreement as an AINC Intervening Event) if the Special Committee determines in good faith, after consultation with counsel, that the failure to do so would be inconsistent with the Board's duties under applicable law, but only if the Company has first negotiated in good faith to adjust the terms of the Combination Agreement so that there is no longer a basis for such change. If the Combination Agreement is terminated by the Company as provided above, the Company is required to pay the PM Parties a termination fee of $4.094 million plus the costs and expenses incurred by them.

The Combination Agreement contains termination rights for both the Company and the PM Parties, including the right of either party to terminate the Combination Agreement if the Transactions are not consummated before December 31, 2018.

Terms of Series B Convertible Preferred Stock

The Articles Supplementary establishing the terms of the Series B Convertible Preferred Stock issued in exchange for the PM LLC Transferred Securities will provide that each share of Series B Convertible Preferred Stock will (A) have a liquidation value of $25 per share, (B) be entitled to cumulative dividends at the rate of (i) 5.50% per annum until the first anniversary of the closing of the Transactions, (ii) 6.00% per annum from the first anniversary of the closing of the Transactions until the second anniversary of the closing of the Transactions, and (iii) 6.50% per annum thereafter, in each case, payable quarterly in arrears, (C) participate in any dividend or distribution on the common stock of New Holdco in addition to the dividends on the Series B Convertible Preferred Stock, (D) be convertible into voting common stock of New Holdco at $140 per share, and (E) provide for customary anti-dilution protections. In the event New Holdco fails to pay the required dividends on the Series B Convertible Preferred Stock for two consecutive quarterly periods (a Preferred Stock Breach), then, until such arrearage is paid in cash in full, (i) the dividend rate on the Series B Convertible Preferred Stock will increase to 10.00% per annum until no Preferred Stock Breach exists; (ii) no dividends may be declared and paid, and no other distributions or redemptions may be made, on the New Holdco common stock; and (iii) the New Holdco board of directors will be increased by two seats and Archie Bennett, Jr., during his lifetime, and 55% of the holders of Series B Convertible Preferred Stock thereafter, and Monty J. Bennett, during his lifetime, and 55% of the holders of Series B Convertible Preferred Stock thereafter, will each be entitled to designate one individual (other than Archie Bennett Jr.) to fill such newly created seats.

The Articles Supplementary will provide that, so long as any shares of Series B Convertible Preferred Stock are outstanding, New Holdco is prohibited from taking specified actions without the consent of at least 55% of the holders of Series B Convertible Preferred Stock, including (i) modifying the terms, rights, preferences, privileges or voting powers of the Series B Convertible Preferred Stock; (ii) altering the rights, preferences or privileges of any capital stock of New Holdco so as to affect adversely the Series B Convertible Preferred Stock; (iii) issuing any security senior to the Series B Convertible Preferred Stock, or any shares of Series B Convertible Preferred Stock other than pursuant to the Combination Agreement; (iv) entering into any agreement that expressly prohibits or restricts the payment of dividends on the Series B Convertible Preferred Stock or the common stock of New Holdco or the exercise of the Change of Control Put Option (as defined below); or (v) other than the payment of dividends on the Series B Convertible Preferred Stock or payments to purchase any of the Series B Convertible Preferred Stock, transferring New Holdco's or its subsidiaries' cash balances or other assets to the Company or any other subsidiary of the Company other than by means of a dividend payable by New Holdco pro rata to the holders of the New Holdco common stock.

Investor Rights Agreement

At the closing of the Transactions, Mr. Monty J. Bennett, Mr. Archie Bennett, Jr., MJB Investments, Mr. Mark A. Sharkey and New Holdco will enter into an investor rights agreement (the Investor Rights Agreement) governing the relationship of such parties subsequent to such closing.

For so long as Mr. Monty J. Bennett, Mr. Archie Bennett, Jr., MJB Investments, and Mr. Mark A. Sharkey (together with each person that succeeds to their respective interests as the result of a transfer permitted under the Investor Rights Agreement, Covered Investors) beneficially own no less than 20% of the issued and outstanding shares of common stock of New Holdco (taking into account the Series B Convertible Preferred Stock on an as-converted basis), Monty J. Bennett, during his lifetime, and 55% of the Covered Investors thereafter, and Archie Bennett, Jr., during his lifetime, and 55% of the Covered Investors thereafter, will each be entitled to nominate one individual (other than Archie Bennett Jr.) for election as a member of the board of directors of New Holdco (each, a Seller Nominee). Mr. Monty J. Bennett will serve as a Seller Nominee. In the event of a Series B Convertible Preferred Stock Breach (as defined in the Articles Supplementary), 55% of the Holder Group Investors will be entitled to nominate a total of two additional individuals for election as members of the board of directors of New Holdco.

For five years after the closing of the Transactions, each of the Covered Investors are prohibited from transferring common stock of New Holdco or Series B Convertible Preferred Stock to any person that is or would become, together with such person's affiliates and associates, a beneficial owner of 10% or more of the shares of common stock of New Holdco and Series B Convertible Preferred Stock, except (i) to family members and in connection with estate planning, (ii) as a result of any voting agreement between Monty J. Bennett and Archie Bennett, Jr., (iii) transfers in which no transferee (or group of affiliated or associated transferees) would purchase or receive 2% or more of the outstanding voting shares of New Holdco, (iv) in connection with any widespread public distribution of shares of common stock of New Holdco or Series B Convertible Preferred Stock registered under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, or (v) a transfer to any transferee that would beneficially own more than 50% of the outstanding common stock of New Holdco and Series B Convertible Preferred Stock without any transfer from a Covered Investor, unless such transfer restrictions have been waived by the affirmative vote of the majority of the stockholders of New Holdco that are not affiliates or associates of the Covered Investors.

The Investor Rights Agreement provides that Covered Investors agree that on matters submitted to a vote of the holders of voting securities of New Holdco, the Covered Investors will have the right to vote or direct or cause the vote of the shares as to which they hold sole voting power or are held by immediate family members (or a trust for the benefit of such person) (Sole Voting Shares) as the Covered Investors determine, in their sole discretion, except (i) if, prior to the fifth anniversary of the closing of the Transactions only with respect to the voting securities of New Holdco, the combined voting power of the Reference Shares (as defined below) of New Holdco exceeds 25.0% (plus the combined voting power of (i) any common stock of New Holdco purchased by any Covered Investor in an arm's length transaction after the closing of the Transactions from a person other than New Holdco or a subsidiary of New Holdco, for cash, including through open market purchases, and (ii) privately negotiated transactions or any distributions of common stock of New Holdco by either of Ashford Trust or Ashford Prime to its respective stockholders pro rata) of the combined voting power of all of the outstanding voting securities of New Holdco entitled to vote on any given matter, then Reference Shares of New Holdco representing voting power equal to such excess will be deemed to be Company Cleansed Shares under the Investor Rights Agreement. The Covered Investors agree that they will vote, or cause to be voted, out of the Covered Investors Sole Voting Shares, shares constituting voting power equal to the voting power of the Company Cleansed Shares in the same proportion as the holders of such class or series of voting securities of New Holdco vote their shares with respect to such matters, inclusive of the Reference Shares of New Holdco voted by the Covered Investors. These restrictions may be waived by a majority vote or consent of the independent directors of New Holdco that have no personal interest in the matter to be voted upon. Reference Shares means all voting securities of New Holdco that are (without duplication): (a) beneficially owned by any Covered Investor, including any such voting securities as to which any Covered Investor has sole or shared voting power; (b) beneficially owned by any member of a Group of which any Covered Investor is a member; or (c) subject to or referenced in any derivative or synthetic interest that (i) conveys any voting right in New Holdco common stock or (ii) is required to be, or is capable of being, settled through delivery of New Holdco common stock in either case, that is held or beneficially owned by any Covered Investor or any controlled affiliate or any Covered Investor. The Covered Investors also agree among themselves that the total number of votes attributable to Reference Shares that are not Cleansed Shares will be proportionately allocated among the Covered Investors based on a percentage, the numerator of which is the number of Reference Shares held by such Covered Investor, and the denominator of which is the total number of Reference Shares held by all Covered Investors in the aggregate.

After the seventh anniversary of the closing of the Transactions, New Holdco will have the option to purchase all or any portion of the Series B Convertible Preferred Stock, in $25.0 million increments, on a pro rata basis among all Covered Investors at a price per share equal to $25.125, plus accrued but unpaid dividends.

Each Covered Investor has the option, exercisable on one occasion, to sell to the Company all of the Series B Convertible Preferred Stock then owned by such Covered Investor (the Change of Control Put Option) at any time during the ten business day consecutive period following the consummation of a Change of Control. Change of Control means, with respect to any Covered Investor, any of the following, in each case that was not voted for or consented to by such Covered Investor solely in its capacity as a stockholder of the Company (but not in any other capacity): (a) any person (other than Mr. Monty J.

Bennett, Mr. Archie Bennett, Jr., MJB Investments, their controlled affiliates, any trust or other estate in which any of them has a substantial beneficial interest or as to which any of them serves as trustee or in a similar fiduciary capacity, any immediate family member of Mr. Monty J. Bennett or Mr. Archie Bennett, Jr., or any group (as defined in Rule 13d-5(b) under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934)) acquires beneficial ownership of securities of New Holdco that, together with the securities of the Company or New Holdco previously beneficially owned by the first such person, constitutes more than 50% of the total voting power of New Holdco's outstanding securities, or (b) the sale, lease, transfer or other disposition (other than as collateral) of all or a majority of New Holdco's (taken as a whole) assets or income or revenue generating capacity, other than to any direct or indirect majority-owned and controlled affiliate of the Company.

In the event that a Covered Investor exercises the Change of Control Put Option, the price to be paid by the Company to such exercising Covered Investor will be an amount equal to (i) $25.125, plus (2) all accrued and unpaid dividends, plus, (3) in the event that the Change of Control Put Option is exercised prior to the fifth anniversary of the closing of the Transactions, an additional amount equal to, initially, 15% of $25 per annum and reduced by 3% for each year, inclusive of the year in which the Change of Control Put Option is exercised, until the fifth anniversary of the closing of the Transactions, payable in cash.

The Investor Rights Agreement also provides that, except for issuances contemplated by the transaction documents entered into under the Combination Agreement, New Holdco will not issue any equity securities, rights to acquire equity securities of New Holdco or debt convertible into equity securities of New Holdco ("New Securities") unless the Company, New Holdco or Merger Sub, as the case may be, gives each of Mr. Monty J. Bennett, Mr. Archie Bennett, Jr., and MJB Investments (together with each person that succeeds to the interests as an immediate family member or controlled entity transferee, "Holder Group Investors") notice of its respective intention to issue New Securities and the right to acquire such Holder Group Investor's pro rata share of the New Securities.

Subject to certain exclusions, the Investor Rights Agreement provides that for a period of the later of three years following the closing of the Transactions or three years following the date on which Mr. Monty J. Bennett is not principal executive officer of the Company, each of Mr. Monty J. Bennett, Mr. Archie Bennett, Jr., MJB Investments will not, directly or indirectly (i) engage in, or have an interest in a person that engages directly or indirectly in, the Project Management Business anywhere in the United States (excluding certain passive investments and existing relationships); or (ii) intentionally interfere in any material respect with the business relationships between PM LLC and customers, clients or vendors of PM LLC.

The Investor Rights Agreement terminates by its terms on the earliest of (i) the written agreement of New Holdco and 55% of the Covered Investors and (ii) the date on which the Covered Investors no longer own any New Holdco common stock or Series B Convertible Preferred Stock; provided certain specified provisions will last for the time periods provided by their terms and others will last indefinitely.

A Covered Investor will automatically cease to be bound by the Investor Rights Agreement solely in its capacity as a Covered Investor at such time as such Covered Investor no longer owns any common stock of New Holdco or Series B Convertible Preferred Stock, provided certain specified provisions will last for the time periods provided by their terms and others will last indefinitely.
