As previously announced, Bemis' Special Meeting is scheduled to take place on May 2, 2019 at 10:00 a.m. Eastern Time (9:00 a.m. Central Time) at The Langham, Chicago, 330 North Wabash Avenue, Chicago, Illinois 60611. Bemis shareholders will have the opportunity to benefit from the increased dividend, which nearly doubles from Bemis' current dividend, and the value creation driven from not only the $180 million of cost synergies identified as part of the transaction but also additional potential revenue synergies from cross-selling opportunities. Our employees will benefit as part of a larger, more diversified organization, and I have every confidence that they will carry forward the Bemis legacy of innovation, respect, ethics, and accountability. This is the next exciting chapter for Bemis, and we look forward to creating value for our stakeholders through this combination.

The Bemis Board of Directors unanimously recommends that shareholders vote FOR the merger proposal as well as all other Bemis proposals.

Proxy Statement and Special Meeting of Bemis Shareholders to Approve Combination with Amcor

Colleagues,

We continue to make good progress on our proposed merger with Amcor. Another milestone was reached today when we filed our definitive proxy statement with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission. As you may be aware, a proxy statement is a legal document that is required when a company is soliciting shareholder votes, which we are doing as we seek approval for the combination. The proxy includes the date of the Special Shareholder Meeting to approve the transaction, which is May 2, and outlines information and background related to the merger.

If you are a shareholder, your vote is important no matter how many or how few shares you own. As detailed in the proxy materials, the entire Bemis Board unanimously believes this combination is in the best interest of Bemis shareholders and recommends that shareholders vote FOR the proposal to approve the Amcor merger agreement, as well as all other proposals included on the proxy card.

In addition to the benefits employees will realize from being part of an even larger, stronger company, we believe that Bemis shareholders will also benefit from an expected significant dividend increase after the transaction closes. If you were a shareholder as of March 20, you will soon be receiving information about how to vote. Be on the lookout for that information either electronically or in the mail, depending on how you have personally elected to receive communications on your shares. Every vote counts, and you are encouraged to vote your proxy.

We are one step closer to completing the transaction, which we continue to expect will close mid-May. In addition to the proxy filing, we continue to work diligently with regulatory authorities in Brazil and the United States to obtain the remaining regulatory approvals for the combination. We are pleased with the support we have received from regulators thus far and are confident that the transition to one company will be seamless.

It is important to remember that until the transaction closes, Bemis and Amcor must continue to operate as independent companies. It remains extremely important that we remain focused on working safely, executing our financial plans, and serving our customers well.

Edgar Filing: BEMIS CO INC - Form DEFA14A

Thank you again for your continuous hard work and dedication to Bemis and for all you do to make our company successful.

Best regards,

Bill Austen
President and CEO
