Part III-Narrative

State below in reasonable detail the reasons why Forms 10-K, 20-F, 11-K, 10-Q, 10-QSB, N-SAR or the transition report portion thereof could not be filed within the prescribed time period.

The registrant will be unable to file Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2002 because of the time required to restate its prior period financial statements. From the time of the approval of a Plan of Liquidation and Dissolution (the Plan of Liquidation) by the registrant's shareholders in 1998 until August 2002, the registrant prepared its financial statements using a liquidation basis of accounting. On August 28, 2002, CFC Partners, Ltd. acquired a 51.2% interest in the common stock of the registrant throught the issuance of new common shares. In connection with the issuance of these shares, the registrant's board of directors terminated the Plan of Liquidation.

As a result of the termination of the Plan of Liquidation, effective August 29, 2002, the registrant re-adopted accounting principles applicable to going concern entities. Furthermore, in order to provide comparative financial information, the registrant is restating its liquidation-basis financial statements for prior periods to conform such statements to the current presentation.

|X| Yes | | No

(3) Is it anticipated that any significant change in results of operations from the corresponding period for the last fiscal year will be reflected by the earnings statements to be included in the subject report or portion thereof?

|X| Yes | | No

If so: attach an explanation of the anticipated change, both narratively and quantitatively, and, if appropriate, state the reasons why a reasonable estimate of the results cannot be made.

The registrant expects to report net income of approximately $57,000 (a loss of $.08 per share because of preferred dividend requirements) for the year ended December 31, 2002 compared to a restated net loss of $601,000 ($.39 per share) for 2001. The registrant realized a gain of $242,000 from the sale of its insurance company subsidiary in June 2002 and also collected $255,000 in August 2002 in settlement of certain litigation and other disputes. Prior to these settlements, the registrant had not reflected any receivables for such amounts because of the uncertainty as to both the collectibility of any amount in connection with these matters and the amounts which might be received.

In 2001, the Company incurred $216,000 in expenses related to the settlement of litigation in which it was a defendant.SWIZ12B25_registrant=Consumers Financial Corporation
