On November 23, 2011, Artio Global Investors Inc. (the “Company”) entered into amended and restated employment agreements (the “Amended Employment Agreements”) with each of Anthony Williams, the Company’s President and Chief Operating Officer, and Francis Harte, the Company’s Chief Financial Officer, which amended certain provisions of each of Messrs. Williams and Harte’s employment agreements with the Company, effective September 29, 2009 (the “Original Employment Agreements”).

The Amended Employment Agreements provide that if Messrs. Williams or Harte, as applicable, is terminated by the Company without Cause (whether or not related to a Change in Control) after the end of the Initial Term, he will be entitled to: (i) continued payment of his base salary for 12 months; (ii) a bonus payment equal to the higher of (A) the average of the discretionary bonuses awarded to him during the most recent three years or (B) the discretionary bonus awarded to him in the immediately preceding year; (iii) an additional prorated bonus equal to the bonus to be awarded as calculated in clause (ii); (iv) continued vesting or lapse of restrictions of his initial restricted stock unit award; and (v) all other benefits as described in the Original Employment Agreements.

The Amended Employment Agreements further provide that if Messrs. Williams or Harte, as applicable, is terminated by the Company (i) without Cause (whether or not related to a Change in Control), on or before the end of the Initial Term, (ii) without Cause within two years of a Change in Control that occurs on or before the end of the Initial Term, or (iii) for Good Reason within two years following a Change in Control, he will be entitled to the sums or benefits described in paragraphs 6(b)(i), (iv), (v) and (vii) of the Amended Employment Agreements, plus (A) continued payment of his base salary for 24 months; (B) a bonus payment, equal to two times the higher of (x) the average of the discretionary bonuses awarded to him during the most recent three years or (y) the discretionary bonus awarded to him in the immediately preceding year; and (C) an amount in cash based on the amount of the pension contribution made or credited to the pension plans in the two immediately preceding plan years.

“Good Reason” means: (i) a substantial and material diminution of responsibilities, duties, authority, title or a change in reporting structure of Messrs. Williams or Harte, as applicable; (ii) the failure by the Company to pay compensation or provide benefits to Messrs. Williams or Harte, as applicable, as and when required by the Amended Employment Agreement; (iii) a material reduction in annual incentive compensation except as a result of neglect or failure in any material respect to perform or to discharge your duties or the imposition of similar reductions affecting all senior officers of the Company and its subsidiaries, or all senior officers of the successor to the Company’s business; (iv) requiring Messrs. Williams or Harte, as applicable, to relocate his office more than 40 miles from its present location; or (v) the failure by the Company to assign the Amended Employment Agreement to any successor to the Company’s business; provided, however, Good Reason shall not exist unless Messrs. Williams or Harte, as applicable, gives the Company written notice specifying a Good Reason event and the Company fails to cure such event within 30 days of having been given such written notice.

All capitalized terms used, but not defined herein, shall have the meanings set forth in the Amended Employment Agreements.
