On March 18, 2013, the Board of Directors (the “Board”) of Annaly Capital Management, Inc. (the “Company”) announced the appointment of John H. Schaefer as a member of the Board. Mr. Schaefer, age 61, has over 30 years financial services experience including serving as a member of the management committee of Morgan Stanley from 1998 through 2005 and as President and Chief Operating Officer of the Global Wealth Management division of Morgan Stanley. Mr. Schaefer retired in February 2006 and from 2008 through 2012 served as a board member and chair of the audit committee of USI Holdings Corporation. Mr. Schaefer has a B.B.A. in Accounting from the University of Notre Dame and an M.B.A. from the Harvard Graduate School of Business.

The board of directors believes that Mr. Schaefer’s qualifications include, among other things, his broad financial services management experience, including management of strategic planning, capital management, human resources, internal audit and corporate communications. None of the corporations or organizations that have employed Mr. Schaefer during the past five years is a parent, subsidiary or other affiliate of us.

The appointment was effective March 17, 2013. There are no arrangements or understandings between the appointee and any other person pursuant to which he was appointed. There are also no family relationships between the appointee and any director or executive officer of the Company and the appointee does not have any direct or indirect material interest in any transaction required to be disclosed pursuant to Item 404(a) of Regulation S-K.
