Item 5. Other Events.

On September 30, 2003, Dynegy Inc. (Dynegy) issued a press release announcing its intention to offer approximately $300 million aggregate principal amount of 9.875% second priority senior secured notes due 2010 (the 2010 Notes) and 10.125% second priority senior secured notes due 2013 (the 2013 Notes) and, together with the 2010 Notes, the Notes), all to be issued by Dynegy Holdings Inc. (DHI) in a private placement transaction with a yield to maturity based on current market rates. The 2010 Notes and the 2013 Notes are additional issuances of DHI's $525 million principal amount of existing 9.875% Second Priority Senior Secured Notes due 2010 (the Issued 2010 Notes) and $700 million principal amount of existing 10.125% Second Priority Senior Secured Notes due 2013 (the Issued 2013 Notes) and, together with the Issued 2010 Notes, the Issued Notes). Each of the 2010 Notes and the 2013 Notes will be treated as a single class with the Issued 2010 Notes and Issued 2013 Notes, respectively, under the indenture governing the Issued Notes. The offering of the Notes is conditioned on the effectiveness of an amendment to DHI's credit facility.

A copy of the Press Release further describing the proposed private placement transaction is attached hereto as Exhibit 99.1 and is incorporated herein by reference.

Item 9. Regulation FD Disclosure

In connection with the offering of the Notes described in Item 5 of this report, Dynegy anticipates disclosing to prospective purchasers of the Notes the information set forth below, which is included herein for informational purposes and should not be deemed filed under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended.

Dynegy's management hereby affirms its revised guidance estimate announced on August 13, 2003 of ($0.07) to $0.01 per share for Dynegy's generation, natural gas liquids and regulated energy delivery segments. This guidance estimate includes corporate-level expenses, including the additional interest expense expected to be incurred in connection with the offering of the Notes. This guidance estimate excludes the results associated with Dynegy's customer risk management business, which includes tolling contracts, and its discontinued operations, which includes Dynegey's former communications business, as well as related exit costs. This guidance estimate also continues to exclude the non-cash, implied dividends associated with the Series B preferred stock previously held by ChevronTexaco, as well as the cumulative effect of changes in accounting principles.

As of September 25, 2003, Dynegey's liquidity was $1.453 billion. This consisted of $722 million in cash and $1.1 billion in revolving bank credit, less $369 million in letters of credit posted against the line of credit. Total collateral posted, including cash and letters of credit, was $670 million.

Certain statements included in this Form 8-K are intended as forward-looking statements. These statements include assumptions, expectations, predictions, intentions or beliefs about future events, particularly the consummation of the private placement offering described above and management's expectations for 2003 earnings per share from Dynegey's generation, natural gas liquids and regulated energy delivery segments. Dynegey cautions that actual future results may vary materially from those expressed or implied in any forward-looking statements. Specifically, Dynegey cannot assure you that its actual 2003 results will align with the guidance estimate set forth above or that the proposed private placement offering described above will be consummated. More information about the risks and uncertainties relating to these forward-looking statements are found in Dynegey's SEC filings, including its Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2002, as amended, and its Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the quarter ended June 30, 2003, which are available free of charge on the SEC's web site at <http://www.sec.gov>.
