Item 2.02 Results of Operation and Financial Condition.

See Item 4.02 of this report.

Item 4.02 Non-Reliance on Previously Issued Financial Statements or a Related Audit Report or Completed Interim Review.

Prior to the issuance of the consolidated financial statements of BancFirst Corporation (the Company) for the year ended December 31, 2005, management determined that the Company's consolidated statements of cash flow for the years ended December 31, 2004 and 2003 should be restated to reclassify disbursements of $96.2 million and $125.4 million, respectively, from net other increase in loans in investing activities to cash disbursements for loans originated for sale in operating activities, in accordance with Paragraph 9 of FAS 102 Statement of Cash Flows Exemption of Certain Enterprises and Classification of Cash Flows from Certain Securities Acquired for Resale. SFAS No. 102 provides that disbursements for loans initially originated by a company for sale (as opposed to loans originated for retention in a company's portfolio) must be accounted for in the statements of cash flows as operating activities.

Based solely on the facts mentioned above, on March 10, 2006, management recommended to the Company's Audit Committee that the consolidated financial statements of the Company for the years ended December 31, 2004 and 2003 should be restated in order to reflect in the included statements of cash flow the correct classification of the cash flows for the activity mentioned above. Accordingly, the Company's 2005 Annual Report on Form 10-K restated the consolidated statements of cash flow for the years ended December 31, 2004 and 2003 to reflect the correct classification of the cash disbursements for loans originated for sale as cash flows from operating activities. Because the restatement did not affect the net change in cash and due from banks for the years ended December 31, 2004 and 2003 and had no impact on the December 31, 2004 Company's consolidated balance sheet or the 2004 or 2003 consolidated statements of income and related net income per share amounts or on the consolidated statements of stockholders' equity or on the Company's liquidity, management did not consider the restatement to be material and, consequently, did not file an Item 4.02 Form 8-K in connection with the restatements to disclose to investors that the previously issued financial statements should not be relied upon. The Audit Committee agreed with management's assessment of the restatements. In order to ensure the effectiveness of the Company's disclosure controls and procedures, senior management advised the key personnel involved in the preparation and review of the Company's financial statements of the correct method of accounting for the origination and sale of loans in accordance with SFAS No. 102.

In a letter to the Company from the Staff of the Securities and Exchange Commission (the SEC) dated October 10, 2006, the Staff stated its belief that the restatement of the Company's previously issued financial statements for the years ended December 31, 2004 and 2003 were material restatements for which an Item 4.02 Form 8-K was required to disclose to investors that the previously issued financial statements should not be relied upon. As a result of this position, as well as discussions with the Staff of the SEC and similar recent restatements made by other public financial holding companies, on October 18, 2006 management of the Company recommended to the Audit Committee of the Board of Directors of the Company that the Company file an Item 4.02 Form 8-K with respect to the previously issued financial statements of the Company for the years ended December 31, 2004 and 2003. The Audit Committee agreed with management's recommendation and determined that an Item 4.02 Form 8-K should be filed to disclose to investors that the Company's previously issued consolidated statements of cash flows for the fiscal years ended December 31, 2004 and 2003, appearing in the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2004, have been restated and that, accordingly, such statements of cash flows and the related audit report thereon by the Company's former independent registered public accounting firm, Ernst & Young LLP, should no longer be relied upon.

Edgar Filing: BANCFIRST CORP /OK/ - Form 8-K

The following chart summarizes the effects of the restatement of the Company's consolidated statements of cash flow for the years ended December 31, 2004 and 2003:

	For the Years Ended December 31,
	2004	2003
Net cash provided by operating activities as previously reported	$ 134,556	$ 169,021
Restatement of cash disbursements for loans originated for sale	(96,193)	(125,398)
Reported net cash provided by operating activities	$ 38,363	$ 43,623
Net cash used for investing activities as previously reported	$ (274,560)	$ (136,688)
Restatement of net other increase in loans	96,193	125,398
Reported net cash used for investing activities	$ (178,367)	$ (11,290)

Beginning with its consolidated financial statements for the quarter ended December 31, 2005, the Company has accounted for its loan sale activities in the consolidated statements of cash flow in the manner required by SFAS No. 102. To correct the errors in classification in prior quarterly period financial statements to be consistent with this presentation, the Company has restated its consolidated statements of cash flow previously reported for the three months ended March 31, 2005, the six months ended June 30, 2005 and the nine months ended September 30, 2005. The restatements for the periods ended March 31, 2005 and June 30, 2005 have been reflected in the Quarterly Reports on Form 10-Q for the quarters ended March 31, 2005 and June 30, 2005, respectively. The restatement of the Company's consolidated statements of cash flow for the nine months ended September 30, 2005 will be reflected in its Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the quarter ending September 30, 2006.

The selected financial information set forth below shows the impact of the correction of this error on the Company's consolidated statements of cash flow for the three months ended March 31, 2005, the six months ended June 30, 2005 and the nine months ended September 30, 2005:
