Transamerica Corporation buys back USD 281 million of debt in tender offer

Transamerica Corporation, a US subsidiary of AEGON N.V., announced today the successful completion of the cash tender offer for outstanding legacy debt securities issued by two affiliated trusts, Transamerica Capital II and Transamerica Capital III. Debt securities with a total liquidation amount of USD 281 million were purchased in the tender offer, which expired November 20, 2006 at 5 pm (EST).

The aggregate payment for the purchased securities, which will total USD 345 million (EUR 267 million), will be refinanced through funds provided by AEGON N.V., Transamerica Corporation's parent company.

The transaction will allow AEGON N.V. to take advantage of the current favorable interest rate environment to refinance the debt at a lower rate and reduce annual interest expenses going forward.

The settlement of the tender offer has taken place on November 21, 2006.
