Item 8.01. Other Events

On January 25, 2007, Capital One Financial Corporation (the Company) announced that its Board of Directors approved a stock repurchase program authorizing the repurchase of up to three billion dollars ($3,000,000,000) of the Company's $.01 par value common stock (the Common Stock). The Company intends to conduct the program over 2007 and 2008. A copy of the press release is attached as Exhibit 99.1.

Cautionary Factors.

The attached press release and information provided pursuant to Item 8.01 contain forward-looking statements, which involve a number of risks and uncertainties. The Company cautions readers that any forward-looking information is not a guarantee of future performance and that actual results could differ materially from those contained in the forward-looking information as a result of various factors including, but not limited to, the following:

continued intense competition from numerous providers of products and services which compete with the Company's businesses;

changes in interest rates;

the success of the Company's marketing efforts;

an increase or decrease in credit losses (including increases due to a worsening of general economic conditions);

the ability of the Company to continue to securitize its credit cards and consumer loans and to otherwise access the capital markets at attractive rates and terms to capitalize and fund its operations and future growth;

financial, legal, regulatory, accounting changes or actions that may affect investment in, or the overall performance of, a product or business;

general economic conditions affecting consumer income, spending and savings which may affect consumer bankruptcies and defaults, charge-offs, and deposit activity; with respect to financial and other products, changes in the Company's aggregate loan balances and/or number of customers and the growth rate and composition thereof, including changes resulting from factors such as shifting product mix, amount of actual marketing expenses made by the Company and attrition of loan balances;

the amount of deposit growth; changes in the reputation of the credit card industry and/or the Company with respect to practices or products;

any significant disruption in our operations or technology platform;

the Company's ability to maintain a compliance infrastructure suitable for its size and complexity;

Edgar Filing: CAPITAL ONE FINANCIAL CORP - Form 8-K

the amount of, and rate of growth in, the Company's expenses as the Company's business develops or changes or as it expands into new market areas;

the ability of the Company to build the operational and organizational infrastructure necessary to engage in new businesses or to expand internationally;

the Company's ability to execute on its strategic and operational plans;

any significant disruption of, or loss of public confidence in, the United States Mail service affecting our response rates and consumer payments; the ability of the Company to recruit and retain experienced personnel to assist in the management and operations of new products and services;

the risk that the businesses acquired by the Company will not be integrated successfully;

the risk that the cost savings and any other synergies from the acquisitions may not be fully realized or may take longer to realize than expected; disruption from the acquisitions making it more difficult to maintain relationships with customers, employees or suppliers; and other risk factors listed from time to time in the Company's SEC reports including, but not limited to, the Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2005.

Item 9.01. Financial Statements, Pro Forma Financial Information and Exhibits.
