Item 8.01. Other Events

On January 31, 2008, Capital One Financial Corporation (the Company) announced that its Board of Directors authorized the repurchase of up to two billion dollars ($2,000,000,000) of the Company's $0.01 par value common stock (the Common Stock). A copy of the press release is attached as Exhibit 99.1.

Cautionary Factors.

The attached press release and information provided pursuant to Items 8.01 and 9.01 contain forward-looking statements, which involve a number of risks and uncertainties. The Company cautions readers that any forward-looking information is not a guarantee of future performance and that actual results could differ materially from those contained in the forward-looking information as a result of various factors including, but not limited to, the following:

general economic and business conditions in the U.S. and or UK, including conditions affecting employment levels, interest rates, consumer income, spending and savings that may affect consumer bankruptcies, defaults, charge-offs, and deposit activity;
 an increase or decrease in credit losses (including increases due to a worsening of general economic conditions in the credit environment);
 continued intense competition from numerous providers of products and services which compete with the Company's businesses;
 the success, timeliness and financial impact of the Company's restructuring initiative, including costs, cost savings and other benefits;
 changes in interest rates;
 the success of the Company's marketing efforts;
 the ability of the Company to continue to securitize its credit cards and consumer loans and to otherwise access the capital markets at attractive rates and terms to capitalize and fund its operations and future growth;
 financial, legal, regulatory, accounting changes or actions that may affect investment in, or the overall performance of, a product or business; with respect to financial and other products, changes in the Company's aggregate loan balances and/or number of customers and the growth rate and composition thereof, including changes resulting from factors such as shifting product mix, amount of actual marketing expenses made by the Company and attrition of loan balances;
 the amount of deposit growth;
 general market conditions in the mortgage industry;
 changes in the reputation of the credit card industry and/or the Company with respect to practices or products;
 any significant disruption in our operations or technology platform;
 the Company's ability to maintain a compliance infrastructure suitable for its size and complexity;
 the amount of, and rate of growth in, the Company's expenses as the Company's business develops or changes or as it expands into new market areas;
 the ability of the Company to build the operational and organizational infrastructure necessary to engage in new businesses;
 the Company's ability to execute on its strategic and operational plans;
 any significant disruption of, or loss of public confidence in, the United States Mail service affecting our response rates and consumer payments;
 the ability of the Company to recruit and retain experienced personnel to assist in the management and operations of new products and services;
 the risk that the businesses acquired by the Company will not be integrated successfully;
 the risk that the cost savings and any other synergies from the acquisitions may not be fully realized or may take longer to realize than expected; disruption from the acquisitions making it more difficult to maintain relationships with customers, employees or suppliers; and other risk factors listed from time to time in the Company's SEC reports including, but not limited to, the Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2006 and the Quarterly Reports on Form 10-Q and Form 10-Q/A for the quarters ended March 31, 2007, June 30, 2007 and September 30, 2007.

Item 9.01. Financial Statements, Pro Forma Financial Information and Exhibits.
