EXPLANATORY NOTE

This Amendment No. 1 to the Schedule 14A filed by the Registrant on January 28, 2008 is being filed to include additional information required to be filed by Items 4(b) and 5(b) of Schedule 14A as a result of the preliminary proxy statement filed by Mr. Lloyd I. Miller, III on February 4, 2008. This Amendment No. 1 also contains background information regarding the opposing solicitation. No other information in the definitive Proxy Statement has been revised, supplemented, updated or amended.

OPPOSING SOLICITATION

On February 4, 2008, Mr. Lloyd I. Miller, III filed a preliminary proxy statement referencing his intention to solicit proxies for the annual meeting. This preliminary proxy statement states that Mr. Miller intends to seek election to the Company's Board as an alternative to the Board's nominee, Russell R. Lee, III. Notwithstanding the opposing solicitation, if elected, Mr. Lee intends to serve on the Board.

The preliminary proxy statement filed by Mr. Miller also seeks proxies to: (a) vote for Proposal 2 of this Proxy Statement to ratify selection of auditors; (b) vote against Proposal 3 of this Proxy Statement to approve the 2008 Incentive Compensation Plan and (c) vote for discretionary authority to adjourn the Annual Meeting to solicit additional votes.

BACKGROUND INFORMATION

As disclosed in Mr. Miller's preliminary proxy statement, on November 20, 2007, Mr. Miller sent a letter to the Company in which he provided notice of his intention to nominate himself at the Annual Meeting for election by the common stockholders to serve as a director of the Board. On November 21, 2007, Mr. Miller amended his Schedule 13D to disclose such intention. Subsequent to receiving Mr. Miller's November 20, 2007 letter, the Company and Mr. Miller entered into discussions regarding Mr. Miller's intention to nominate himself as a candidate for the Board and Mr. Miller agreed to suspend his nomination activities pending mutual discussion among the parties. Based on a meeting held on January 15, 2008, the Company believed that it and Mr. Miller had reached an agreement to provide Mr. Miller with observer rights to attend a single meeting of the Board (in lieu of being on the Board), subject to further documentation.

Based on the January 15, 2008 meeting and its other discussions with Mr. Miller, the Company was in the belief that Mr. Miller was not going to engage in a solicitation in opposition and filed its definitive proxy statement on January 28, 2008. On that same day, the Company learned that Mr. Miller desired to be granted observer rights to attend multiple Board meetings. Nonetheless, at that time, the Company believed that: (i) Mr. Miller and E.J. Elliott (the Company's Chairman and CEO) would enter into discussions to resolve this misunderstanding and (ii) based on discussions with Mr. Miller, that at worst, he would attempt to nominate himself at the Company's Annual Meeting without engaging in a proxy contest. The Company did not become aware that Mr. Miller had revived his intention to engage in a solicitation in opposition until he contacted the Company on February 1, 2008. As described above, Mr. Miller filed a preliminary proxy statement on February 4, 2008.
