Item 5.02. Departure of Directors or Principal Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Certain Officers; Compensatory Arrangements of Certain Officers.

(d) On March 1, 2011, the company's Board of Directors elected Elliott Sigal, M.D., Ph.D. to serve as a member of the Board of Directors. The size of the Board of Directors was increased to twelve in connection with Dr. Sigal's election.

Dr. Sigal is 59 years old and has worked for the company for over 13 years. He has served as executive vice president, chief scientific officer and president, Bristol-Myers Squibb Research and Development since 2004.

Due to his employment with the company, the Board of Directors has determined that Dr. Sigal is not independent under the New York Stock Exchange Listing Standards or the independence standards adopted by the Board of Directors. Dr. Sigal will continue to serve as a member of the Science and Technology Committee of the Board and he will stand for election by the company's stockholders at the Annual Meeting of Stockholders on May 3, 2011.

Dr. Sigal was not selected as a director pursuant to any arrangement or understanding between him and any other person. There are no related party transactions between the company and Dr. Sigal.

Dr. Sigal receives compensation for his service as executive vice president, chief scientific officer and president, Bristol-Myers Squibb Research and Development in accordance with the company's standard executive compensation program. Dr. Sigal will not be compensated for his service as a director of the company.

A copy of the press release announcing Dr. Sigal election is attached to this report as Exhibit 99.1.
