Item 5.02 Departure of Directors or Certain Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Certain Officers; Compensatory Arrangements of Certain Officers.

On March 1, 2012, Kevin Campbell, group chief executive of the Technology growth platform of Accenture plc (the Company or Accenture), informed the Company of his intention to resign from Accenture for personal reasons, effective immediately.

In connection with his departure from Accenture, the Company entered into an agreement with Mr. Campbell, pursuant to which, among other items, Mr. Campbell has agreed that he will not compete with the Company or solicit its clients or employees during the 12-month period following his separation from the Company. In exchange for agreeing to the terms of the separation arrangement, along with signing a general release of claims in favor of Accenture, Mr. Campbell will be entitled to receive, among certain other consideration: (1) cash payments totaling $3 million over a 12-month period and (2) the vesting of unvested equity comprised of (a) approximately 52,701 shares of time-vested restricted share units plus an additional number of shares to be determined based on actual dividends declared by the Company prior to the regular release dates in accordance with Mr. Campbell's equity award agreements (dividend shares) and (b) up to an additional 90,510 shares of performance-based restricted share units (plus related dividend shares), subject to the Company's achievement of certain performance goals. The separation agreement further provides that, among other remedies available to the Company, Mr. Campbell's right to receive separation payments will be forfeited, and he will have an obligation to re-pay any separation payments received and forfeit any restricted share units that vest pursuant to the separation agreement, in the event that he breaches his restrictive covenants.

The foregoing summary of the separation agreement does not purport to be complete and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the agreement itself, which is filed hereto as Exhibit 10 and is incorporated herein by reference.
