Item 7.01 Regulation FD Disclosure

Attached as Exhibit 99.1 to this Current Report on Form 8-K (this “Report”) and incorporated into this Item 7.01 by reference is the updated investor presentation dated June 2016 (the “Investor Presentation”) that will be used by Hennessy Capital Acquisition Corp. II (the “Company”) in making presentations to certain existing and potential stockholders of the Company with respect to the proposed acquisition by the Company of all of the outstanding capital stock of USI Senior Holdings, Inc. (“USI Parent”), which, through its subsidiaries (together with USI Parent, “USI”), conducts its business under the “United Subcontractors, Inc.” name, through the merger of HCAC II, Inc., a Delaware corporation and a wholly owned subsidiary of the Company, with and into USI Parent, with USI Parent surviving such merger as a direct wholly owned subsidiary of the Company (the “Business Combination”) pursuant to the terms of that certain Agreement and Plan of Merger, dated April 1, 2016, by and among USI Parent, the Company, HCAC II, Inc. and North American Direct Investment Holdings, LLC, solely in its capacity as the Stockholder Representative (the “Merger Agreement”).

The foregoing (including Exhibit 99.1) is being furnished pursuant to Item 7.01 and shall not be deemed to be filed for purposes of Section 18 of the Securities and Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the “Exchange Act”), or otherwise be subject to the liabilities of that section, nor shall it be deemed to be incorporated by reference in any filing under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, or the Exchange Act.

Additional Information About the Business Combination and Disclaimer

The proposed Business Combination will be submitted to stockholders of the Company for their consideration. The Company has filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission (the “SEC”) a definitive proxy statement on June 10, 2016 in connection with the Business Combination and other matters and will mail the definitive proxy statement and other relevant documents to its stockholders as of the June 6, 2016 record date established for voting on the Business Combination. The Company’s stockholders and other interested persons are advised to read the definitive proxy statement and any other relevant documents that have been or will be filed with the SEC in connection with the Company’s solicitation of proxies for its stockholders’ meeting to be held to approve, among other things, the Business Combination because these documents contain important information about the Company, USI and the Business Combination. Stockholders may also obtain a copy of the definitive proxy statement as well as other relevant documents that have been or will be filed with the SEC, without charge, at the SEC’s website located at www.sec.gov or by directing a request to Hennessy Capital Acquisition Corp. II, Attn: Nicholas A. Petruska, Executive Vice President, Chief Financial Officer and Secretary, 700 Louisiana Street, Suite 900, Houston, Texas, 77002 or by telephone at (713) 300-8242. This Current Report on Form 8-K does not constitute an offer to sell or the solicitation of an offer to buy any securities, or a solicitation of any vote or approval, nor shall there be any sale of securities in any jurisdiction in which such offer, solicitation or sale would be unlawful prior to registration or qualification under the securities laws of any such jurisdiction.

Participants in the Solicitation

The Company and its directors and executive officers and other persons may be deemed to be participants in the solicitations of proxies from the Company's stockholders in respect of the proposed Business Combination. Information regarding the Company's directors and executive officers and a description of their direct and indirect interests in the Company, by security holdings or otherwise, is contained in the Company's definitive proxy statement filed by the Company with the SEC on June 10, 2016, and which can be obtained free of charge from the sources indicated above.

Forward Looking Statements

This Current Report on Form 8-K includes "forward-looking statements" within the meaning of the "safe harbor" provisions of the United States Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. Forward-looking statements may be identified by the use of words such as "estimate," "plan," "project," "forecast," "intend," "expect," "anticipate," "believe," "see" or similar expressions other similar expressions that predict or indicate future events or trends or that are not statements of historical matters. Such forward-looking statements with respect to the benefits of the Business Combination, the future financial performance of the Company following the Business Combination, changes in the market for USI's services, and expansion plans and opportunities, including future acquisition or additional business combinations are based on current information and expectations, forecasts and assumptions, and involve a number of judgments, risks and uncertainties. Accordingly, forward-looking statements should not be relied upon as representing the Company's views as of any subsequent date, and the Company does not undertake any obligation to update forward-looking statements to reflect events or circumstances after the date they were made, whether as a result of new information, future events or otherwise, except as may be required under applicable securities laws. You should not place undue reliance on these forward-looking statements. As a result of a number of known and unknown risks and uncertainties, actual results or performance may be materially different from those expressed or implied by these forward-looking statements. Some factors that could cause actual results to differ include, but are not limited to: (1) the occurrence of any event, change or other circumstances that could give rise to the termination of the Merger Agreement; (2) the outcome of any legal proceedings that may be instituted against USI or the Company following announcement of the proposed Business Combination and related transactions; (3) the inability to complete the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement due to the failure to obtain approval of the stockholders of the Company, consummate the anticipated debt financing or satisfy other conditions to the closing of the Business Combination (4) the ability to obtain or maintain the listing of the Company's common stock on the NASDAQ Capital Market following the Business Combination; (5) the risk that the proposed Business Combination disrupts the parties' current plans and operations as a result of the announcement and consummation of the transactions described herein; (6) the ability to recognize the anticipated benefits of the Business Combination, which may be affected by, among other things, competition and the ability of the combined business to grow and manage growth profitably; (7) costs related to the Business Combination; (8) changes in applicable laws or regulations; (9) the possibility that USI or the Company may be adversely affected by other economic, business, and/or competitive factors; and (10) other risks and uncertainties indicated from time to time in the definitive proxy statement filed by the Company in connection with the Business Combination, including those under "Risk Factors" therein, and other factors identified in the Company's prior and future filings with the SEC, available at www.sec.gov.
