Item 3.03 Material Modifications to Rights of Security Holders.

On October 24, 2005, the Board of Directors of Chicago Mercantile Exchange Holdings Inc. (the "Company") approved a Second Amendment (the "Second Amendment") to the Company's Rights Agreement, by and between the Company and Computershare Investor Services, LLC (as successor to Mellon Investor Services LLC), as Rights Agent, originally adopted as of November 30, 2001, and amended by the First Amendment to the Rights Agreement, dated as of November 13, 2002 (the "Rights Agreement"). The Second Amendment amends the Rights Agreement to increase from $105 to $1,000 the "Purchase Price" required to be paid upon the exercise of a "Right" under the Rights Agreement to purchase one "Unit" consisting of one one-thousandth of a share of the Company's Series A Junior Participating Preferred Stock, par value $.01 per share.

The Board of Directors believes the increase in the purchase price is necessary for the Rights Agreement to continue to serve the purpose for which it was initially adopted and was brought about by the increase in value of the Company's Class A common stock at the time of the Company's initial public offering of $35.00 per share to $348.00 per share on October 21, 2005, the last trading day prior to the Board of Directors' approval of the Second Amendment. The Board of Directors continues to believe the Rights Agreement is necessary to preserve for the Company's stockholders the long-term value of the Company in the event of a potential takeover that is deemed by the Board of Directors to be coercive or unfair or otherwise not in the best interests of the Company's stockholders. The rights will continue to trade with the Company's Class A common stock, unless and until they are separated upon the occurrence of certain future events.

The rights have certain anti-takeover effects. The rights will cause substantial dilution to a person or group that attempts to acquire the Company on terms not approved by the Company's Board of Directors. The rights should not interfere with any merger or other business combination approved by the Board of Directors since the rights may be amended to permit such acquisition or redeemed by the Company at $0.01 per right prior to the earlier of (i) a person or group of affiliated or associated persons acquiring beneficial ownership of 15% or more of the shares of the Company's common stock or Class A common stock, (ii) a person or group of affiliated or associated persons commencing a tender offer that would result in the acquisition of 15% or more of the shares of the Company's common stock or Class A common stock or (iii) the final expiration of the rights. The rights may also be redeemed following a person, entity or group of affiliated or associated persons acquiring beneficial ownership of 15% or more of the shares of common stock under certain limited circumstances.

The Board of Directors is not currently aware of any attempt to take over or acquire the Company. While it may be deemed to have potential anti-takeover effects, the amendment to increase the exercise price of the rights is not prompted by any specific effort or takeover threat currently perceived by management.

A copy of the Second Amendment is attached hereto as Exhibit 4.1 and is incorporated herein by reference.
