There is no assurance that the Selling Stockholder will sell any or all of the shares of our common stock offered by the Selling Stockholder under this prospectus. Delta Master Trust	13,523,218 <sup>(1)</sup>	2.0	13,523,218 <sup>(1)</sup>	—	—

Acquired by the Selling Stockholder pursuant to contributions by Delta to the Selling Stockholder on February 16, (1)2016 and March 20, 2017 in private transactions for the benefit of Delta's employees who participate in the defined benefit pension plans that Delta sponsors.

The Selling Stockholder is a pension trust established under tax-qualified defined benefit pension plans we maintain. The Trustee is a directed trustee with respect to the Selling Stockholder trust account in which the common stock is held and is subject to the direction of the Investment Manager that has discretionary authority in connection with the disposition of the shares of our common stock held by the Selling Stockholder. The Delta Benefit Funds Investment Committee has the power to revoke the appointment of the Investment Manager and appoint new investment managers or to change the scope of the appointment of the Investment Manager.

PLAN OF DISTRIBUTION

The Trustee at the direction of the Investment Manager may, or the Investment Manager may place trades directly with broker-dealers of its choice to, sell the shares of our common stock covered by this prospectus for the account of the Selling Stockholder. The registration statement, of which this prospectus is a part, registered the shares of our common stock held by the Selling Stockholder under the Securities Act to facilitate future sales by the Selling Stockholder to the public.

The Selling Stockholder may sell shares of our common stock pursuant to this prospectus from time to time except as may otherwise be limited by applicable law:

- In transactions (which may include one or more block transactions, including ordinary brokerage transactions) on the New York Stock Exchange;
- Through the writing of options (including the issuance by the Selling Stockholder of derivative securities), whether the options or these other derivative securities are listed on an options or other exchange or otherwise;
- Through purchases by a broker-dealer as principal and resale by a broker-dealer for its own account;
- Through short sales of shares of our common stock;
- In a combination of such transactions; or
- By any other lawful method.

Each sale may be made at prices related to prevailing market prices or at privately negotiated prices. The Trustee, on behalf of the Selling Stockholder and as directed by the Investment Manager, or the Investment Manager directly, may effect these transactions by selling the shares of our common stock to or through broker-dealers and these broker-dealers may receive compensation in the form of discounts or concessions from the Selling Stockholder and/or the purchaser of the shares of our common stock for which such broker-dealers may act as agent or to whom they sell as principal, or both.

In effecting sales, brokers or dealers engaged by the Trustee or the Investment Manager and/or the Investment Manager may arrange for other brokers or dealers to participate in the resales. The Trustee as directed by the Investment Manager acting on behalf of the Selling Stockholder and/or the Investment Manager, may enter into hedging transactions with broker-dealers or other financial institutions, and in connection with those transactions, broker-dealers or other financial institutions may engage in short sales of the shares of our common stock. The Trustee as directed by the Investment Manager acting on behalf of the Selling Stockholder and/or the Investment Manager also may sell shares short and deliver the shares of our common stock to close out such short positions. The Trustee as directed by the Investment Manager acting on behalf of the Selling Stockholder or the Investment Manager also may enter into options or other transactions with broker-dealers or other financial institutions that require the delivery to the broker-dealer or other financial institution of the shares of our common stock, which the broker-dealer or other financial institution may resell pursuant to this prospectus. The Trustee as directed by the Investment Manager acting on behalf of the Selling Stockholder and/or the Investment Manager may offer the shares of our common stock in connection with the writing of exchange-traded call options, which would involve the selling of exchange-traded call option contracts over the shares of our common stock. By selling a call option, the Trustee as directed by the Investment Manager acting on behalf of the Selling Stockholder and/or the Investment Manager may receive a premium payment in return for giving the buyer of such option the right to buy the common stock at a pre-determined price. The Trustee as directed by the Investment Manager acting on behalf of the Selling Stockholder or the Investment Manager also may loan or pledge the shares of our common stock to a broker, dealer or other financial institution, and upon a default, the broker, dealer or other financial institution may effect sales of the loaned or pledged shares of our common stock pursuant to this prospectus.

There is no assurance that the Trustee on behalf of the Selling Stockholder, at the direction of the Investment Manager, or the Investment Manager acting directly on behalf of the Selling Stockholder, will sell any or all of the shares of our common stock offered under this prospectus.

Delta has agreed to pay all expenses incurred in connection with the registration of the shares of our common stock offered under this prospectus, and the Selling Stockholder will pay all expenses incurred in connection with the sale of the shares of our common stock offered under this prospectus, including all underwriting discounts and selling commissions, fees and expenses of counsel and other advisors to the Selling Stockholder, transfer taxes and related charges in connection with the offer and sale of these shares of our common stock.

In connection with its sales, the Trustee, the Selling Stockholder and any participating broker/dealer may be deemed to be an “underwriter” within the meaning of Section 2(11) of the Securities Act, and any commissions they receive and the proceeds of any sale of shares of our common stock may be deemed to be underwriting discounts and commissions under the Securities Act.

In addition, any shares of our common stock covered by this prospectus that qualify for sale pursuant to Rule 144 under the Securities Act may be sold under Rule 144 rather than pursuant to this prospectus.

The Selling Stockholder is a trust that is subject to the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974, as amended (“ERISA”), and Section 4975 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the “Code”). Prohibited transactions under Title I of ERISA and Section 4975 of the Code could arise if, absent an available exemption, a person or entity which is a “party in interest,” as defined under ERISA, or a “disqualified person,” as defined under the Code, were to purchase any of the shares of our common stock being offered by the Selling Stockholder, unless the Selling Stockholder receives in exchange for the shares at least the price then prevailing on a national securities exchange and no commission is charged to the Selling Stockholder. Any such potential purchaser should consult with counsel to determine whether an exemption is available with respect to any such purchase.

In order to comply with the securities laws of certain states, if applicable, the shares of our common stock must be sold in such jurisdictions only through registered or licensed brokers or dealers. In addition, in certain states the shares of our common stock may not be sold unless they have been registered or qualified for sale in the applicable state or an exemption from the registration or qualification requirement is available and is complied with.

At the time a particular offering of shares of our common stock is made, if required, a prospectus supplement will set forth the number of shares being offered and the terms of the offering, including the name of any underwriter, dealer or agent, the purchase price paid by any underwriter, any discount and other item constituting compensation, any discount or concession allowed or reallocated or paid to any dealer, and the proposed selling price to the public.

(ii) to reflect in the prospectus any facts or events arising after the effective date of this registration statement (or the most recent post-effective amendment thereof) which, individually or in the aggregate, represent a fundamental change in the information set forth in this registration statement. (iii) to include any material information with respect to the plan of distribution not previously disclosed in this registration statement or any material change to such information in this registration statement;

provided, however, that paragraphs (a)(1)(i), (a)(1)(ii) and (a)(1)(iii) above do not apply if the information required to be included in a post-effective amendment by those paragraphs is contained in reports filed with or furnished to the SEC by the Registrant pursuant to section 13 or section 15(d) of the Exchange Act that are incorporated by reference in this registration statement, or is contained in a form of prospectus filed pursuant to Rule 424(b) that is part of the registration statement.

(2) That, for the purpose of determining any liability under the Securities Act, each such post-effective amendment shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.

(3) To remove from registration by means of a post-effective amendment any of the securities being registered which remain unsold at the termination of the offering.

(4) That, for the purpose of determining liability under the Securities Act to any purchaser:

(i) Each prospectus filed by the Registrant pursuant to Rule 424(b)(3) shall be deemed to be part of the registration statement as of the date the filed prospectus was deemed part of and included in the registration statement; and

(ii) Each prospectus required to be filed pursuant to Rule 424(b)(2), (b)(5), or (b)(7) as part of a registration statement in reliance on Rule 430B relating to an offering made pursuant to Rule 415(a)(1)(i), (vii), or (x) for the purpose of providing the information required by section 10(a) of the Securities Act shall be deemed to be part of and included in the registration statement as of the earlier of the date such form of prospectus is first used after effectiveness or the date of the first contract of sale of securities in the offering described in the prospectus. As provided in Rule 430B, for liability purposes of the issuer and any person that is at that date an underwriter, such date shall be deemed to be a new effective date of the registration statement relating to the securities in the registration statement to which that prospectus relates, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof. Provided, however, that no statement made in a registration statement or prospectus that is part of the registration statement or made in a document incorporated or deemed incorporated by reference into the registration statement or prospectus that is part of the registration statement will, as to a purchaser with a time of contract of sale prior to such effective date, supersede or modify any statement that was made in the registration statement or prospectus that was part of the registration statement or made in any such document immediately prior to such effective date.

(5) That, for the purpose of determining liability of the Registrant under the Securities Act to any purchaser in the initial distribution of the securities, the undersigned Registrant undertakes that in a primary offering of securities of the undersigned Registrant pursuant to this registration statement, regardless of the underwriting method used to sell the securities to the purchaser, if the securities are offered or sold to such purchaser by means of any of the following communications, the undersigned Registrant will be a seller to the purchaser and will be considered to offer or sell such securities to such purchaser:

(i) Any preliminary prospectus or prospectus of the undersigned Registrant relating to the offering required to be filed pursuant to Rule 424;

(ii) Any free writing prospectus relating to the offering prepared by or on behalf of the undersigned Registrant or used or referred to by the undersigned Registrant;

(iii) The portion of any other free writing prospectus relating to the offering containing material information about the undersigned Registrant or its securities provided by or on behalf of the undersigned Registrant; and

(iv) Any other communication that is an offer in the offering made by the undersigned Registrant to the purchaser.

(b) The undersigned Registrant hereby undertakes that, for purposes of determining any liability under the Securities Act, each filing of the Registrant's annual report pursuant to section 13(a) or section 15(d) of the Exchange Act (and, where applicable, each filing of an employee benefit plan's annual report pursuant to section 15(d) of the Exchange Act) that is incorporated by reference in this registration statement shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered herein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.

(c) Insofar as indemnification for liabilities arising under the Securities Act may be permitted to directors, officers and controlling persons of the Registrant pursuant to the foregoing provisions, or otherwise, the Registrant has been advised that in the opinion of the SEC such indemnification is against public policy as expressed in the Securities Act and is, therefore, unenforceable. In the event that a claim for indemnification against such liabilities (other than the payment by the Registrant of expenses incurred or paid by a director, officer or controlling person of the Registrant in the successful defense of any action, suit or proceeding) is asserted by such director, officer or controlling person in connection with the securities being registered, the Registrant will, unless in the opinion of its counsel the matter has been settled by controlling precedent, submit to a court of appropriate jurisdiction the question whether such indemnification by it is against public policy as expressed in the Securities Act and will be governed by the final adjudication of such issue.
