Item 1.01 Entry Into A Material Definitive Agreement.

On February 25, 2005, HNI Corporation (the "Corporation") entered into a Change In Control Employment Agreement (the "Agreement") with Eric K. Jungbluth (the "Executive"), President of Allsteel Inc., a wholly owned subsidiary of the Corporation. Under the Agreement, a change in control occurs when a third person or entity becomes the beneficial owner of 20% or more of the Corporation's common stock, more than one-third of the Corporation's Board of Directors is composed of persons not recommended by at least three-fourths of the incumbent Board of Directors or upon the occurrence of certain business combinations involving the Corporation. Upon a change in control, a two-year employment contract between the Corporation and the Executive becomes effective, and all his benefits become vested under the Corporation's compensation plans.

In addition, the Executive becomes entitled to certain benefits if, at any time within two years of the change in control, any of the following occurs: (i) employment is terminated by the Corporation for any reason other than cause or disability of the Executive; or (ii) employment is terminated by the Executive for good reason, as such terms are defined in the Agreement. In such circumstances, the Executive is entitled to receive his annual salary through the date of termination, a bonus equal to the average of the Executive's annual bonuses for the prior two years prorated based on the length of employment during the year in which termination occurs and a severance payment equal to two times the sum of (i) the Executive's annual base salary and (ii) the average of the Executive's annual bonuses for the prior two years. The Executive will also be entitled to a continuation of certain employee benefits for two years or longer if comparable benefits are not otherwise available to the Executive. The Executive will be entitled to receive reimbursement for any legal fees and expenses, plus interest thereon, that may be incurred in enforcing or defending his rights under the Agreement.

The Agreement is automatically renewed, on an annual basis, for a period of two years. The Corporation's Board of Directors may terminate the Agreement if, two years after the occurrence of a change in control, the Board of Directors determines that the Executive is no longer a key executive.

The foregoing description of the Agreement is qualified in its entirety by reference to the Agreement, a form of which is filed as Exhibit 10 to the Corporation's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 1994 and incorporated herein by reference.
