The Meeting will be held on Tuesday, May 16, 2006 at 11:00 a.m. EDT at the Bar Harbor Club located at 111 West Street in Bar Harbor, Maine. The official Notice of the Annual Meeting of Stockholders accompanies this Statement. A Form of Proxy for use at the meeting and a return envelope for the proxy are enclosed. Proxies are being solicited by the Board of Directors of the Company, ("the Board"), principally through the mail.

The Board of Directors and Management of the Company may also solicit proxies personally, or by telephone, e-mail, or facsimile transmission. The entire expense of solicitation, including costs of preparing, assembling, and mailing the proxy material will be borne by the Company. These expenses are not expected to exceed the amount normally expended for an annual meeting at which directors will be elected.

Unless contrary instructions are specified, if the enclosed proxy is executed and returned (and not revoked) prior to the Annual Meeting, the shares of common stock of the Company represented thereby will be voted (1) FOR the election of the five persons nominated as directors by the Board of Directors for a term of three years and the election of two persons nominated as directors by the Board of Directors for a term of two years; and (2) FOR setting the number of directors at 14, and (3) to transact such other business as may properly come before the Annual Meeting or any adjournment thereof.

DIRECTORS AND EXECUTIVE OFFICERS

Directors and Nominees:

Proposal I - Election of Directors

At the Annual Meeting of the Stockholders, five (5) director-nominees will stand for reelection to serve until the 2009 Annual Meeting of the Stockholders and two nominees will be elected to serve until the 2008 Annual Meeting of the Stockholders and until each director's successor is elected and qualified. The Company's Bylaws require that directors be elected for a term of at least three (3) years or such shorter term as may be necessary to comply with the maximum age restrictions set forth in the Bylaws or to equalize, as closely as possible, the members sitting in staggered classes. Each nominee has consented to serve and to the use of his or her name in this Proxy. Five of the seven nominees currently serve on the Board of the Company.

The Board has determined that the director-nominees and a majority of the continuing directors are "independent directors" as required in accordance with applicable laws, regulations, and AMEX listing requirements. The exception is Director Murphy, who serves as President and Chief Executive Officer of the Company. Director Murphy does not serve as a voting member of the Audit, Compensation and Human Resources, or Governance Committees.

The Proxies will be voted, unless authority to do so is expressly withheld, in favor of the seven nominees nominated by the Board of Directors. The Board of Directors recommends voting "FOR" the election of each nominee as a director of the Company.

Proposal II - Setting the Number of Directors at 14

The Company's Board of Directors currently consists of 14 members. The Board of Directors recommends the number of Company directors for the coming year be set at fourteen (14). The Board of Directors recommends that you vote "FOR" setting the number of directors for the ensuing year at 14.

A majority of the Board of Directors meets the independence standards established by AMEX. The Board of Directors of the Company held a total of eleven (11) regular meetings and one (1) annual meeting. The Bylaws of the Company provide for a minimum of quarterly meetings. Each Director attended at least 75% of the total number of board and committee meetings that he or she was eligible to attend.

The Board encourages, but does not require, each Director to attend its Annual Meeting of Stockholders. All of the Board's members attended the 2005 Annual Meeting.

Committees

Executive Committee

The Bylaws of the Company provide that after each Annual Meeting of Directors, the Board shall designate from among its members an Executive Committee with the authority to exercise all the powers of the Board of Directors in regard to ordinary operations of the business of the Company when the Board is not in session, subject to any specific vote of the Board. The Executive Committee for 2005 included Directors Colwell, Dodge, Dudman, Eaton, Murphy, Phillips, Shea, and Toothaker. Mr. Colwell serves as Chairperson. The Executive Committee held two (2) meetings in 2005.

The Company Bylaws provide that the Board may elect or appoint such other committees, as it may deem necessary or convenient to the operations of the Company. The Board has appointed a standing Audit Committee, a standing Governance Committee, and a standing Compensation and Human Resources Committee.

Audit Committee

The members of the Audit Committee included directors Toothaker, Dudman, Fernald, Eaton, Smith, and Woodside. Mr. Toothaker serves as Chairperson of the Committee. The Audit Committee met four (4) times during 2005. See Appendix A for Report of Audit Committee

The Company's Board has determined that the Audit Committee is composed of independent directors, in accordance with applicable AMEX listing requirements as of December 31, 2004. The Audit Committee operates under a written charter, which has been adopted by the Audit Committee and the Company Board. Audit Committee members do not accept any consulting, advisory, or other compensatory fees (except director fees) and are not affiliated with the Company (except as a director) or any of its subsidiaries.

The Audit Committee has the sole authority to appoint and replace the Independent Registered Public Accounting Firm. The Audit Committee is responsible for the compensation and oversight of the Independent Registered Public Accounting Firm and this firm reports directly to the Audit Committee. The Audit Committee assists the Board of Directors in fulfilling its oversight responsibilities with respect to (i) the financial information to be provided to stockholders and the Commission; (ii) the review of quarterly financial statements; (iii) the system of financial controls management has established; and (iv) the internal audit, external audit and loan review processes.

The Governance Committee is responsible for screening candidates, recommending nominees to the full Board of Directors (including the slate of returning directors) to be elected each year, making recommendations concerning the size and composition of the Board of Directors, recommending Committee structure and membership, and sponsoring new director orientation and education. The Governance Committee has a written charter, which may be viewed on the Company's general website at www.BHBT.com.

The Governance Committee expects to identify nominees to serve as directors of the Company primarily by accepting and considering the suggestions and nominee recommendations made by directors, management, and stockholders. To date the Governance Committee has not engaged any third parties to assist it in identifying candidates for the Board of Directors. The Governance Committee considers among other things the background, business and professional experience (including any requisite financial expertise or other special qualifications), current employment, community service, and other board service of its directors and nominees, as well as racial, ethnic, and gender diversity of the Board as a whole. The Governance Committee generally considers a candidate's qualifications in light of these broad criteria as well as an assessment as to whether the candidate can make decisions on behalf of or while representing the Company in a manner consistent with our stated business goals and objectives. The Governance Committee will also consider the candidate's "independent" status in accordance with applicable regulations and listing standards.

Compensation and Human Resources Committee

The Compensation and Human Resources Committee reviews and considers recommendations from management concerning executive compensation policies, employee benefit plans, and salary administration programs, including reviewing annually the performance, total compensation, and recommended adjustments for all executive officers and the executive officers of the Company's subsidiaries. Named executive officers, with the exception of Mr. Hurley, participated in a tiered bonus plan for fiscal years 2003, 2004, and 2005. During 2003 each participating named executive officer received 6% of base salary for surpassing a net income threshold and up to an additional 6% of base salary for achieving individually assigned goals in the areas of loan, deposit, and income growth as well as successful implementation of strategic plan initiatives. The 2004 plan provided each of the participating named executive officers 5.5% for surpassing a net income threshold and up to an additional 5.5% for achieving individually assigned goals in loan, deposit, and income growth, along with strategic plan initiatives. In 2005, the named executives participated in a similarly designed plan providing for a 5% payout upon achieving an established net income threshold, and up to an additional 5% for meeting individually assigned goals. A third tier of the plan provided Messrs Murphy and Shencavitz an additional $9,000 and $5,250, respectively for achieving financial results in excess of 10% over 2004 net income results. Mr. Hurley did not participate in the above-described incentive programs for 2003, 2004 or 2005. He participated in an individually designed "pay for performance" program spanning 2004 and 2005 resulting in a payment of 25% of salary in 2005. Mr. Read did not participate in any plan for 2005. In addition, the Board of directors voted a one-time performance bonus to Gerald Shencavitz in the amount of $6,911 in appreciation for the organization, implementation, and completion of the complex Sarbanes-Oxley 404 compliance requirement. All of the foregoing amounts are included in the bonus amounts reflected in the Summary Compensation Table for each named executive officer.

Additional items included in the Other Annual Compensation column include social club dues, relocation expenses, and imputed life insurance amounts on group term insurance in excess of the allowable $50,000, non-taxable IRS limit. The $179,500 paid in 2005 to Dean S. Read represents $29,273 in payments under the provisions of his supplemental retirement plan and $150,499 in severance payments under a signed agreement further described on page 16.

All Other Compensation represents accrued amounts for future retirement benefits under the Company's Supplemental Executive Retirement Plan.

Retirement Plans

The Company has a contributory 401(k) retirement plan available to all employees including the named executive officers. Employees may contribute between 1% and 50% of their compensation (subject to applicable regulatory restrictions), to which the Company will match 50% of the first 3% deferred by an employee and 25% on the second 3% deferred. The Board of Directors voted to credit each eligible participant's 401(k) account with 4% of salary for the years 2005, 2004 and 2003. Total Company contributions into the 401(k) Plan were $423,699, $391,273, and $392,824, for the years ended December 31, 2005, 2004, and 2003, respectively.

The Company also maintains a nonqualified, noncontributory, defined-benefit; supplemental executive retirement program (the "SERP") for certain highly compensated executive employees. Mr. Murphy, Mr. Read and Mr. Shencavitz were the only authorized participants in the SERP as of December 31, 2005 (the "Participants"). Under the SERP the Participants are eligible to receive upon retirement, early retirement, a change in control of the Company, disability or death, an individually defined benefit payment based upon years of service.

Upon Normal Retirement Age defined, as age 68 for Mr. Murphy and age 65 for Mr. Shencavitz, monthly payments of $11,200 and $8,583 will be paid under the SERP plan to the named executives (or their beneficiary) for a period of 240 months. There are also provisions under the plan for reduced monthly payments in the event of an early retirement by any of these individuals. As of December 31, 2005, Messrs Murphy and Shencavitz have vested monthly benefits of $3,764, and $1,086, respectively. Former Bank President, Mr. Dean S. Read, began receiving monthly payments of $3,252.50 for 240 months, beginning April 1, 2005, representing his accrued benefit through March 2005 under this program.

Compensation of Directors

For the first six months of 2005, the directors of the Company, Bar Harbor Bank & Trust, and Bar Harbor Trust Services received a fee of $400 for each meeting of the Company and its subsidiary boards attended and $400 for each committee meeting attended. Members of the Board received $400 when the Company and the Bank held joint meetings. The fee paid for the attendance at the 2005 Annual Meeting was $400 per member of the Company Board of Directors. The Chairperson of the Company Board received a quarterly retainer of $750 in addition to meeting fees.

In July, 2005 compensation for the directors of the Company, Bar Harbor Bank & Trust, and Bar Harbor Trust Services was increased to $500 for each meeting of the Company and its subsidiary boards attended and $500 for each committee meeting attended. Members of the Board received $500 when the Company and the Bank held joint meetings. The fee paid for attendance at upcoming Annual Meetings was set at $500 per member of the Company Board of Directors. In addition, each Director began receiving a quarterly stipend of $1,000 and the Chairperson began receiving a quarterly stipend of $2,500 in addition to their meeting fees.

Meetings of the Board of Directors of the Company are held monthly. Director Murphy, who also serves as an officer of the Company, does not receive directors' fees.

Employment and Change in Control Agreements

On November 7, 2003, the Company amended its written employment agreement with Joseph M. Murphy, Chief Executive Officer (CEO) originally dated January 3, 2003 (the Employment Agreement) in connection with his service as CEO of Bar Harbor Bankshares to reflect changes in the Company's Supplemental Retirement Programs and implementation of Change of Control Agreements. The Employment Agreement provides for the payment of an annual base salary to the CEO of not less than $18,333.33 per month (an annualized rate of not less than $220,000.00 per annum). The Employment Agreement provides for a review of the CEO's base salary not less than annually and may be adjusted at the Company's sole discretion. The CEO is also eligible to participate in a performance compensation plan with goals and incentive payments to be approved by the Board annually. The Employment Agreement is for an initial term of two (2) years with provisions for automatic extensions of one (1) year each in the absence of notice from the Company of its intention not to extend the term of the Employment Agreement. The initial term of the Employment Agreement commenced on January 3, 2003 and continued through January 3, 2005, unless sooner terminated. Neither the Company nor the CEO has given notice of termination and, therefore, the Employment Agreement has been extended by its terms through January 3, 2007. The Employment Agreement contains restrictions on competition by the CEO with the Company during the term of the Employment Agreement and for a period of one (1) year following the cessation of the CEO's employment with the Company regardless of reason. The Employment Agreement also provides, with limited exceptions, for a severance payment to the CEO in the event his employment is terminated within one (1) year following certain events defined to constitute a change in control of the Company. This severance payment resulting from a termination of employment following a change in control is equal to two (2) times the CEO's base annual salary, incentive compensation payments earned, and any accrued but unused vacation time. Both the Compensation and Human Resources Committee and the Board of Directors have reviewed and approved the Employment Agreement.

Other Change in Control, Confidentiality and Non-competition Agreements

The Company entered into Change in Control, Confidentiality and Non-competition Agreements with former Bank President Mr. Dean S. Read and the Company's Chief Financial Officer, Mr. Gerald Shencavitz. These Agreements provide for severance of both salary and benefits for Messrs Read and Shencavitz. Mr. Shencavitz will receive salary and benefits under his agreement for a period of eighteen months in the event of both a change of control of the Company and subsequent termination (or constructive termination) within twelve months after a change of control, unless such termination was for cause. The Company also agreed to pay any excise tax imposed on the executive under Section 4999 of the Internal Revenue Code and provide for health insurance and other standard benefits for a period of 18 months.

The Company has also entered into a Change in Control, Confidentiality and Non-competition Agreement with Bar Harbor Trust Services President, Daniel A. Hurley, III. Mr. Hurley's agreement provides for severance of both salary and benefits for a period of twelve months in the event of both a change of control of the Company and subsequent termination (or constructive termination) within twelve months of a change of control, unless such termination was for cause.

All of these agreements were entered into as part of a total compensation program to attract and retain qualified executives and not entered into in response to any effort known to the Board of Directors by any party or entity to acquire control of the Company.

In addition to the foregoing, all executive officers of the Company are entitled to participate in certain group health, dental and term life insurance benefits. In accordance with Company policy, all such benefits are generally available to employees of the Company and its subsidiaries.

Severance Arrangement with Mr. Read:

Dean S. Read resigned from his position as President of Bar Harbor Bank & Trust, the Company's principal financial services subsidiary, effective February 25, 2005. In connection with Mr. Read's resignation, the Company and Mr. Read have entered into a severance agreement pursuant to which, among other things, the Company will pay Mr. Read a severance payment of $215,000 payable over fourteen (14) consecutive months and will pay a portion of Mr. Read's health benefits for an equivalent period of time. The Severance Agreement also contains non-disclosure, non-solicitation, and non-competition covenants in favor of the Company.

Mr. Read voluntarily deferred a portion of his base salary over several years into a non-qualified deferred compensation plan. He received a lump sum distribution of these deferred salary dollars in the amount of $123,694 in 2005. This amount has already been accounted for on the Company's financials during the years that Mr. Read deferred these salary dollars.

Compensation Committee Interlocks and Insider Participation

The Compensation and Human Resources Committee is comprised of Company directors Phillips, Dodge, Fernald, Shea, and Woodside. Mr. Phillips serves as Chairperson of the Committee. The Company's and the Bank's Chief Executive Officer, Mr. Murphy and Bar Harbor Bank & Trust's Human Resources Officer, Mrs. Marsha C. Sawyer, along with former Bank President, Read, served on the committee in a non-voting, ex-officio capacity during 2005. Certain members of the Committee and their affiliates and families are borrowers from the Company's banking subsidiary Bar Harbor Bank & Trust. All loans and credit commitments to such persons were made in the ordinary course of business and were on substantially the same terms, including interest rates and collateral, as those prevailing at the time for comparable transactions with unaffiliated persons, and did not involve more than the normal amount of risk of collectability or present other unfavorable features to the Company's subsidiaries.

Report of the Compensation and Human Resources Committee on Executive Compensation

The Compensation and Human Resources Committee administers and recommends to the Board of Directors of the Company its executive compensation programs. These programs are intended to provide a package of base salary, traditional benefits, options, retirement payments, and incentive opportunities to its executives to achieve both current and long-term return on the stockholder's investment and align the executive's interest to those of the Company and its Subsidiaries employees, customers, and stockholders

. The Committee does not use a formal set of criteria in evaluating the compensation of executive officers. However, some of the factors generally considered by the Compensation and Human Resources Committee are detailed below.

Levels of compensation are, in part, guided by the Company's need to attract and retain qualified executives who can make a major contribution to the success of the Company. The Committee regularly reviews compensation surveys and public filings disclosing compensation levels comparing the Company's subsidiaries with comparable institutions in the State of Maine and New England.

Compensation Program Components

The Company's compensation program can be generally described as being comprised of two primary components: (a) base salary and benefits, and (b) executive incentive compensation programs. Base salary and benefits include items such as retirement plan benefits and insurance programs, and are intended to adequately compensate executive officers and employees for capable performance of their core duties and responsibilities associated with their positions. Named executive officers, Messrs Murphy and Shencavitz and six other senior officers participated in a three-tiered executive incentive plan for 2005. The first tier provided for an incentive payment determined by meeting a certain earnings threshold. The second tier provided for an additional incentive payment based upon individually assigned goals such as loan and deposit growth, quality measures, and implementation of strategic plan initiatives. A third tier represented payments for achieving financial results in excess of 10% over 2004 net income results. Individual payments to named executive officers, Messrs Murphy and Shencavitz, along with other participating officers, under this three-tier program ranged from 9.95% to 13.95% of base salary.

Mr. Hurley did not participate in the above-described incentive programs for 2003, 2004 or 2005. He participated in an individually designed "pay for performance" program spanning 2004 and 2005 resulting in a payment of 25% of salary in 2005. Mr. Read did not participate in any plan for 2005.

An accrual for payment of these incentives was booked in 2005, but actual payments were made to participating individuals early in 2006.

Performance Measures

The Committee considers certain performance measures in evaluating the compensation of the Company's executive officers including the named executive officers as well as other senior officers. In addition to using Maine and New England banking surveys, other guiding factors the Company uses in establishing appropriate levels of executive officer compensation are the specific performance of each executive officer, the performance of the Company as a whole, the financial plan for the year, and such other general factors as the business climate.

Stock Option Plan

An additional component of compensation for Company employees in management positions, including named executive officers, is the award of options to purchase shares of Common Stock at fixed prices. The Company's Stock Option Plan, which is scheduled to expire October 2010, is based on performance in that the options only have value if the market value of Common Stock increases.

Compensation of the Chief Executive Officer

The Committee annually reviews the Chief Executive Officer's (CEO) existing compensation arrangement, the performance of the Company and its Subsidiaries, the CEO's performance, and the compensation of chief executive officers in other similar companies of comparable size and performance characteristics.

The compensation of the Company's CEO is generally divided into two basic parts: (a) salary and benefits, and (b) executive incentive compensation. The Company's Employment Agreement with the CEO provides for a review of his base salary no less than annually and it may be adjusted at the Company's sole discretion. His base salary for 2005 was increased 8.04% over 2004. The second part of the compensation program for the CEO is based upon the incentive compensation program described above. The program resulted in 12.37% of additional compensation for the CEO based upon the achievement of strategic and financial objectives determined by the Committee and approved by the Board of Directors.

The CEO does not receive any director fees for his participation as a member of the Company's Board of Directors or as a director of any of the Company's subsidiaries.

The Committee believes the CEO's compensation is competitive with compensation provided by other similar companies of comparable size and performance histories.

The 2005 Compensation and Human Resources Committee have submitted the foregoing report to stockholders regarding compensation.

CERTAIN RELATIONSHIPS AND RELATED TRANSACTIONS

Transactions with Management and Others

The Company has entered into a long-term lease for its new Bank branch located in Somesville, Maine effective February 1, 2006 (the "Somesville Lease"). The Somesville Lease has an initial term of five years and five months. During the first year of the Somesville Lease term, the base rent is Sixty Thousand Dollars ($60,000.00), pro-rated for any partial lease year. During each subsequent lease year the base rent shall be increased using a formula tied to certain changes in the consumer price index. In addition to base rent, the Bank is responsible to pay as "additional rent" certain defined real estate taxes; operating expenses, and other costs, charges and expenses associated with the premises as required under the lease. The "Landlord" under the Somesville Lease is A.C. Fernald Sons, Inc., a Maine corporation. Mr. Robert Fernald of Mount Desert is a shareholder, director and officer of A.C. Fernald Sons, Inc. and is the father of Company nominee director Lauri E. Fernald. Lauri E. Fernald does not own any stock or hold any corporate office or other position with A.C. Fernald Sons, Inc. and has no direct or indirect interest in the Somesville Lease other than her familial relationship with Mr. Robert Fernald.

The Company and former Bank President, Dean S. Read entered into a severance agreement dated March 3, 2005 pursuant to which, among other things, the company will pay Mr. Read a severance payment of $215,000 payable over fourteen (14) consecutive months and will pay a portion of Mr. Read's health benefits for an equivalent period of time. The Severance Agreement also contains non-disclosure, non-solicitation, and non-competition covenants in favor of the Company. Mr. Read also received a lump sum distribution of previously deferred salary dollars in the amount of $123,694 in 2005. Salary amounts previously deferred have been accounted for on the Company's financials during the years that Mr. Read deferred these salary dollars.

Except as set forth above and with regard to "Indebtedness of Management" described below, none of the nominees for directors, other continuing directors, or named executive officers of the Company or any of its subsidiaries engaged in 2005 in any transaction with the Company or any of its subsidiaries, in which the amount involved or exceeds $60,000.

Indebtedness of Management

The Company's wholly owned subsidiary, Bar Harbor Bank & Trust, has had, and expects to have in the future, banking transactions in the ordinary course of its business with directors, officers, principal stockholders, and their associates. All such transactions have been and will be made on substantially the same terms, including interest rates and collateral, as those prevailing at the time for comparable transactions with others. No such transactions have involved more than normal risk of collectability or presented other unfavorable features, and no loans outstanding to directors, officers, principal stockholders, or their associates in an amount in excess of $60,000 are non-accruing or past due or otherwise considered to be potential problem loans. All loans made by the Company and its subsidiaries to directors and executive officers are regulated by the Company's federal and state regulators.

These regulations (known as "Reg. O") set forth various practices and reporting requirements for loans to directors and officers. In addition, the Sarbanes-Oxley Act of 2002 permits banks and bank holding companies to extend credit to their directors and officers provided that such extensions of credit are (a) made or provided in the ordinary course of the consumer credit business of such issuer; (b) of a type that is generally made available by such issuer to the public; and (c) made by such issuer on market terms, or terms that are no more favorable than those offered by the issuer. We believe that all extensions of credit to our directors and executive officers satisfy the foregoing conditions.

PERFORMANCE GRAPH

The following graph illustrates the estimated yearly percentage change in the Company's cumulative total stockholder return on its Common Stock for each of the last five years. Total stockholder return is computed by taking the difference between the ending price of the Common Stock at the end of the previous year and the current year, plus any dividends paid divided by the ending price of the Common Stock at the end of the previous year. For purposes of comparison, the graph also illustrates comparable stockholder return of AMEX listed banks as a group as measured by the AMEX Market Index and the peer group index as defined by AMEX. The graph assumes a $100 investment on December 31, 2000 in the common stock of each of the Company, the AMEX peer group banks and the AMEX Market Index as a group and measures the amount by which the market value of each, assuming reinvestment of dividends, has increased as of December 31 of each calendar year since the base measurement point of December 31, 2000.

Market values for 2001, 2002, 2003, 2004 and 2005 are based on information obtained from the American Stock Exchange.
