REGAL BELOIT CORPORATION

NOTES TO CONDENSED CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

March 30, 2013

(Unaudited)

1. BASIS OF PRESENTATION

The accompanying (a) condensed consolidated balance sheet of Regal Beloit Corporation (the "Company") as of December 29, 2012, which has been derived from audited financial statements, and (b) unaudited interim condensed consolidated financial statements as of March 30, 2013 and for the three months ended March 30, 2013 and March 31, 2012, have been prepared pursuant to the rules and regulations of the Securities and Exchange Commission. Certain information and note disclosures normally included in annual financial statements prepared in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States have been condensed or omitted pursuant to those rules and regulations, although the Company believes that the disclosures made are adequate to make the information not misleading.

It is suggested that these condensed consolidated financial statements be read in conjunction with the consolidated financial statements and the notes thereto included in the Company's 2012 Annual Report on Form 10-K/A filed on March 26, 2013.

In the opinion of management, all adjustments considered necessary for a fair presentation of financial results have been made. Except as otherwise discussed, such adjustments consist of only those of a normal recurring nature. Operating results for the three months ended March 30, 2013 are not necessarily indicative of the results that may be expected for the entire fiscal year ending December 28, 2013.

The condensed consolidated financial statements have been prepared in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States, which require the Company to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities at the date of the consolidated financial statements and revenues and expenses during the periods reported. Actual results could differ from those estimates. The Company uses estimates in accounting for, among other items, allowance for doubtful accounts; excess and obsolete inventory; share-based compensation; acquisitions; product warranty obligations, pension assets and liabilities, derivative fair values, goodwill impairment, health care, retirement benefits, rebates and incentives, litigation claims and contingencies, including environmental matters, and income taxes. The Company accounts for changes to estimates and assumptions when warranted by factually based experience.

The Company operates on a 52/53 week fiscal year ending on the Saturday closest to December 31.

As of the beginning of the first quarter of 2013, the Company adopted new guidance that requires an entity to disclose information about offsetting and related arrangements to enable users of its financial statements to understand the effect of those arrangements on its financial position. This information will enable users of an entity's financial statements to evaluate the effect or potential effect of netting arrangements with certain financial instruments and derivative instruments. This new guidance is applicable to the Company's derivative instruments. See Note 13 of Notes to Condensed Consolidated Financial Statements.

As of the beginning of the first quarter of 2013, the Company adopted new guidance that requires footnote disclosures on a prospective basis regarding the changes in accumulated other comprehensive loss by component and the line items affected in the statements of income. See Note 4 for the additional information.

As of the beginning of the first quarter of 2013, the Company changed its inventory valuation method for the finished goods of recently acquired North American businesses to the LIFO method from the FIFO method. The Company believes the change to the LIFO method is preferable because it will improve matching of current costs with revenues when there is volatility in the cost of raw materials, and is consistent with the method used for the majority of the Company's other North American finished goods inventory. Prior period consolidated financial statements have not been retrospectively adjusted because the impact of the change is immaterial. The cumulative effect of this change was immaterial.

2. OTHER FINANCIAL INFORMATION

Inventories

Inventories are valued at first-in, first-out (FIFO) for approximately 47% and 31% of the Company's inventory is determined using the last-in, first-out (LIFO) inventory valuation method as of March 30, 2013 and December 29, 2012, respectively. The approximate percentage distribution between major classes of inventories was as follows:

	March 30, 2013		December 29, 2012
Raw Material and Work in Process	44	%	43	%
Finished Goods and Purchased Parts	56	%	57	%
Investments

Investments are comprised of term deposits which have original maturities of greater than three months and remaining maturities of less than one year. Investments with maturities greater than one year may be classified as short-term based on their highly liquid nature and their availability to fund future investing activities. The fair value of term deposits approximates their carrying value. These investments are included in Prepaid Expenses and Other Current Assets on the Company's Condensed Consolidated Balance Sheets.

2012 Acquisitions

On February 3, 2012, the Company acquired Milwaukee Gear Company ("MGC"), a Wisconsin-based leading manufacturer of highly engineered gearing components for oil and gas applications as well as a wide variety of other commercial and industrial applications. The purchase price of MGC was $80.3 million paid in cash, net of cash acquired. MGC is reported as a part of the Company's Mechanical segment.

In 2008, the Company entered into a Term Loan Agreement (“Term Loan”) with certain financial institutions, whereby it borrowed an aggregate principal amount of $165.0 million. The Company has repaid $110.0 million of the Term Loan. The Term Loan matures in June 2013, and borrowings generally bear interest at a variable rate equal to a margin over LIBOR. The margin varies with the ratio of the Company’s total funded debt to consolidated earnings before interest, taxes, depreciation, and amortization (“EBITDA”) as defined in the Loan Agreement. These interest rates also vary as LIBOR varies. At March 30, 2013, the interest rate of 1.2% was based on a margin over LIBOR. The Company also has a $500.0 million revolving credit facility (the “Facility”) that matures in June 2016. The Facility permits the Company to borrow at interest rates based upon a margin above LIBOR. The margin varies with the ratio of total funded debt to EBITDA, net of specified cash, as defined in the Facility. These interest rates also vary as LIBOR varies. At March 30, 2013, there were no outstanding borrowings on the Facility. The Company pays a commitment fee on the unused amount of the Facility, which also varies with the ratio of total funded debt to EBITDA. At March 30, 2013, the Company had $22.7 million of standby letters of credit issued under the Facility and $477.3 million of available borrowing capacity under the Facility.

Based on rates for instruments with comparable maturities, credit risks, and terms, which are classified as Level 2 inputs, the approximate fair value of the Company's debt was $863.4 million and $859.6 million as of March 30, 2013 and December 29, 2012, respectively.

At March 30, 2013, other notes payable of $17.2 million were outstanding with a weighted average interest rate of 2.2%.

The Notes, the Term Loan, and the Facility require the Company to meet specified financial ratios and to satisfy certain financial condition tests. The Company was in compliance with all financial debt covenants as of March 30, 2013.

The Company entered into interest rate swap agreements to manage fluctuations in cash flows resulting from interest rate risk. (See also Note 13 of Notes to Condensed Consolidated Financial Statements.)

8. PENSION PLANS

The Company’s net periodic defined benefit pension cost is comprised of the following components (in millions):

	Three Months Ended
	March 30, 2013	March 31, 2012
Service cost	$0.7	$0.6
Interest cost	1.8	1.9
Expected return on plan assets	(2.0)	(1.8)
Amortization of prior service cost and net actuarial loss	1.1	0.9
Net periodic benefit expense	$1.6	$1.6

The estimated net actuarial loss and prior service cost for defined benefit pension plans that will be amortized from Accumulated Other Comprehensive Loss into net periodic benefit cost during the 2013 fiscal year is $4.0 million and $0.2 million, respectively.

During the first three months of 2013 and 2012, the Company contributed $0.5 million and $1.8 million, respectively, to defined benefit pension plans. The Company expects to make contributions of $3.1 million in 2013. The Company contributed a total of $11.7 million in 2012. The assumptions used in the valuation of the Company's pension plans and in the target investment allocation have remained the same as those disclosed in the Company's 2012 Annual Report on Form 10-K/A filed on March 26, 2013.

9. SHAREHOLDERS' EQUITY

The Company recognized approximately $2.3 million and $2.1 million in share-based compensation expense for the three month period ended March 30, 2013 and March 31, 2012, respectively. The total excess income tax benefit recognized relating to share-based compensation for the three months ended March 30, 2013 and March 31, 2012 was approximately $0.6 million and $0.6 million, respectively. The Company recognizes compensation expense on grants of share-based compensation awards on a straight-line basis over the vesting period of each award. As of March 30, 2013, total unrecognized compensation cost related to share-based compensation awards was approximately $19.9 million, net of estimated forfeitures, which the Company expects to recognize over a weighted average period of approximately 2.5 years.

The Company was authorized, as of March 30, 2013, to deliver up to 5.0 million shares of common stock upon exercise of non-qualified stock options or incentive stock options, or upon grant or in payment of stock appreciation rights, restricted stock and restricted stock units. Approximately 1.0 million shares were available for future grant or payment under the various plans at March 30, 2013.

Subsequent to quarter end, on April 29, 2013, the Company's shareholders approved the 2013 Equity Incentive Plan ("2013 Plan"). The 2013 Plan authorizes the issuance of 3.5 million shares of common stock for equity-based awards, and terminates any further grants under prior equity plans.

Share-based Incentive Awards

The Company uses several forms of share-based incentive awards, including non-qualified stock options, incentive stock options, and stock appreciation rights ("SARs"). All grants are made at prices equal to the fair market value of the stock on the grant dates, and expire 10 years from the grant date.

The majority of the Company's annual share-based incentive awards are made in the fiscal second quarter.

A summary of share-based awards (options and SARs) as of March 30, 2013 follows below. Forfeitures of share-based awards during the three months ended March 30, 2013 were immaterial.

Number of Shares	Shares	Weighted Average Exercise Price	Weighted Average Remaining Contractual Term (years)	Aggregate Intrinsic Value (in millions)
Outstanding	1,477,235	$ 54.71	6.5	$ 39.3
Exercisable	591,170	42.68	4.4	23.0

Restricted Stock and Restricted Stock Units

The Company also grants restricted stock awards and values such awards at the closing market value of its common stock on the date of grant and restrictions generally lapse three years after the date of grant.

Changes in restricted stock awards for the three months ended March 30, 2013 were as follows:

	Shares	Weighted Average Value
Unvested restricted stock awards, December 29, 2012	199,941	$64.92
Granted	—	—
Vested	1,235	59.84
Forfeited	1,980	65.21
Unvested restricted stock awards, March 30, 2013	196,726	$64.95

10. INCOME TAXES

The effective tax rate for the three months ended March 30, 2013 was 23.2% versus 26.3% for the three months ended March 31, 2012. The change in the first quarter effective rate was primarily driven by completion of the tax integration of the EPC acquisition and the retroactive reinstatement of the 2012 U.S. Research and Development Credit. The lower effective rate as compared to the 35.0% statutory Federal income tax rate is driven by lower foreign tax rates.

As of March 30, 2013 and December 29, 2012, the Company had approximately $5.7 million of unrecognized tax benefits, all of which would affect its effective tax rate if recognized. The Company recognizes interest and penalties related to uncertain tax positions in income tax expense.

The Company files income tax returns in the U.S. federal jurisdiction, and various state and foreign jurisdictions. U.S. federal tax returns from 2009 through 2012 and various state tax returns remain subject to income tax examinations by tax authorities.

11. EARNINGS PER SHARE ("EPS")

The numerator for the calculation of basic and diluted earnings per share is Net Income Attributable to Regal Beloit Corporation. The denominator is computed as follows (in millions):

	Three Months Ended
	March 30, 2013	March 31, 2012
Denominator for basic EPS (weighted average)	45.0	41.6
Effect of dilutive securities	0.3	0.4
Denominator for diluted EPS	45.3	42.0

The "Effect of dilutive securities" represents the dilution impact of equity awards for the three months ended March 30, 2013 and March 31, 2012, respectively. For the three months ended March 30, 2013 and March 31, 2012, there were 0.6 million options and 0.4 million options, respectively, where the exercise price was above the average market price, and which were excluded from the calculation of the effect of dilutive shares as the effect of such options was anti-dilutive.

12. CONTINGENCIES

One of the Company's subsidiaries that it acquired in 2007 is subject to numerous claims filed in various jurisdictions relating to certain sub-fractional motors that were primarily manufactured through 2004 and that were included as components of residential and commercial ventilation units marketed by a third party. These claims generally allege that the ventilation units were the cause of fires. Based on the current facts, the Company does not believe these claims, individually or in the aggregate, will have a material effect on its interim consolidated financial statements as a whole.

The Company is, from time to time, party to litigation that arises in the normal course of its business operations, including product warranty and liability claims, contract disputes and environmental, asbestos, employment and other litigation matters. The Company's products are used in a variety of industrial, commercial and residential applications that subject the Company to claims that the use of its products is alleged to have resulted in injury or other damage.

The Company accrues for exposures in amounts that it believes are adequate, and the Company does not believe that the outcome of any such lawsuit individually or collectively will have a material effect on the Company's financial position, its results of operations or its cash flows.

The Company recognizes the cost associated with its standard warranty on its products at the time of sale. The amount recognized is based on historical experience.

The following is a reconciliation of the changes in accrued warranty costs for the three months ended March 30, 2013 and March 31, 2012 (in millions):

	Three Months Ended
	March 30, 2013	March 31, 2012

Deduct: Payments	(4.3) (4.9

Ending balance	$ 21.6	$ 25.0

13. DERIVATIVE INSTRUMENTS

The Company is exposed to certain risks relating to its ongoing business operations. The primary risks managed by using derivative instruments are commodity price risk, currency exchange and interest rate risk. Forward contracts on certain commodities are entered into to manage the price risk associated with forecasted purchases of materials used in the Company's manufacturing process. Forward contracts on certain currencies are entered into to manage forecasted cash flows in certain foreign currencies. Interest rate swaps are entered into to manage interest rate risk associated with the Company's floating rate borrowings.

The Company must recognize all derivative instruments as either assets or liabilities at fair value in the condensed consolidated balance sheets. The Company designates commodity forward contracts as cash flow hedges of forecasted purchases of commodities, currency forward contracts as cash flow hedges of forecasted foreign currency cash flows and interest rate swaps as cash flow hedges of forecasted LIBOR-based interest payments. There were no significant collateral deposits on derivative financial instruments as of March 30, 2013.

Cash flow hedges

For derivative instruments that are designated and qualify as a cash flow hedge, the effective portion of the gain or loss on the derivative is reported as a component of other comprehensive income or loss and reclassified into earnings in the same period or periods during which the hedged transaction affects earnings. Gains and losses on the derivative representing either hedge ineffectiveness or changes in market value of derivatives not designated as hedges are recognized in current earnings. All derivative instruments used by the Company impact operating cash flows.

At March 30, 2013, the Company had $1.7 million, net of tax, of derivative gains on closed hedge instruments in Accumulated Other Comprehensive Income (Loss) ("AOCI") that will be realized in earnings when the hedged items impact earnings. At December 29, 2012, the Company had $0.3 million, net of tax, of derivative losses on closed hedge instruments in AOCI that was realized in earnings when the hedged items impacted earnings.

As of March 30, 2013, the Company had outstanding the following commodity forward contracts (with maturities extending through June 2014) to hedge forecasted purchases of commodities (notional amounts expressed in terms of the dollar value of the hedged item in millions):

	Notional Amount
Copper	$ 154.8
Aluminum	8.8

As of March 30, 2013, the Company had outstanding the following currency forward contracts (with maturities extending through December 2015) to hedge forecasted foreign currency cash flows (in millions):

	Notional Amount
Mexican Peso	$168.8
Chinese Renminbi	86.3
Indian Rupee	38.6
Thai Baht	12.8
Euro	11.4
Australian Dollar	5.7

As of March 30, 2013, the total notional amount of the Company's receive-variable/pay-fixed interest rate swaps was $250.0 million (with maturities extending to August 2017).

The Company's commodity and currency derivative contracts are subject to master netting agreements with the respective counterparties which allow the Company to net settle transactions with a single net amount payable by one party to another party. The Company has elected to present the derivative assets and derivative liabilities on the Condensed Consolidated Balance Sheets on a gross basis for the periods ended March 30, 2013 and December 29, 2012.

14. FAIR VALUE

The Company uses a three-tier hierarchy to assess the inputs used to measure the fair value of financial assets and liabilities.

Level 1	Unadjusted quoted prices in active markets for identical assets or liabilities
Level 2	Unadjusted quoted prices in active markets for similar assets or liabilities, or Unadjusted quoted prices for identical or similar assets or liabilities in markets that are not active, or Inputs other than quoted prices that are observable for the asset or liability
Level 3	Unobservable inputs for the asset or liability

The Company uses the best available information in measuring fair value. Financial assets and liabilities are classified in their entirety based on the lowest level of input that is significant to the fair value measurement.

The fair value of the Company's cash equivalents, term deposits, accounts receivable and accounts payable approximated book value as of March 30, 2013 and December 29, 2012, respectively, due to their short-term nature. See Note 7 of Notes to Condensed Consolidated Financial Statements for disclosure of the approximate fair value of the Company's debt at March 30, 2013 and December 29, 2012.

The following table sets forth the Company's financial assets and liabilities that were accounted for at fair value on a recurring basis as of March 30, 2013 and December 29, 2012 (in millions):

	March 30, 2013	December 29, 2012	Classification
Assets:
Prepaid Expenses and Other Current Assets:

Derivative Commodity Contracts	1.0	4.2	Level 2

Interest Rate Swap	32.0	35.4	Level 2
Derivative Currency Contracts	0.2	0.3	Level 2
Other Noncurrent Liabilities:
Deferred Contingent Purchase Price	13.7	21.1	Level 3

The Company's derivative contracts are valued at fair value using the market or income approaches. The Company measures the fair value of foreign exchange contracts using Level 2 inputs based on observable spot and forward rates in active markets. The Company measures the fair value of commodity contracts using Level 2 inputs through observable market transactions in active markets provided by financial institutions. The Company measures the fair value of interest rate swaps using Level 2 inputs in an income approach for valuation based on expected interest rate yield curves over the remaining duration of the interest rate swaps. During the three months ended March 30, 2013, there were no transfers between classification Levels 1, 2 or 3.

The table below sets forth a summary of changes in fair market value of the Company's Level 3 liabilities for the three months ended March 30, 2013 and March 31, 2012 (in millions):

	Three Months Ended
	March 30, 2013	March 31, 2012
Beginning Balance	$21.1	$23.5
Valuation Adjustments	0.3	0.3
Ending Balance	$21.4	$23.8

The Level 3 liabilities described above are comprised entirely of the deferred contingent purchase price of the Company's acquisitions and are measured using Level 3 inputs. The contingent consideration, payable in cash, is based upon sales or earnings before interest and income taxes for the acquired businesses for the applicable contingency period. The fair value of the contingent consideration is a Level 3 input; the measurement of which is derived using a probability weighted discounted cash flow analysis. The Company has estimated that the maximum contingent amount will be paid under all agreements so the key assumption is the estimated timing of the payments and the discount rates. The discounted cash flow utilized risk-based discount rates ranging from approximately 5.0% to 8.0%.

15. RELATED PARTY TRANSACTIONS

As part of the consideration paid for the acquisition of certain assets of Elco S.p.A. on November 1, 2010, the Company assumed $22.3 million payable to an entity that is affiliated with its Elco Group B.V. joint venture partner resulting from a bankruptcy proceeding involving Elco S.p.A. During the first quarter of 2012, $5.3 million was paid by the Company. The final payment was made in the third quarter of 2012.

16. SUBSEQUENT EVENT

Subsequent to quarter end, on April 29, 2013, the Company's shareholders approved the 2013 Equity Incentive Plan ("2013 Plan"). The 2013 Plan authorizes the issuance of 3.5 million shares of common stock for equity-based awards, and terminates any further grants under prior equity plans.

ITEM 2. MANAGEMENT'S DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS OF FINANCIAL CONDITION AND RESULTS OF OPERATIONS

Unless the context requires otherwise, references in this Item 2 to "we," "us," "our" or the "Company" refer collectively to Regal Beloit Corporation and its subsidiaries.

Overview

Over the past several years, as part of our strategic growth plans, we have typically acquired multiple businesses in any given fiscal year. When we refer to the financial impact of the "recently acquired businesses," we are referring to the results of operations of acquired businesses prior to the first anniversary of their acquisition.

On an ongoing basis, we focus on a variety of key indicators to monitor business performance. These indicators include organic and total sales growth (including volume and price components), gross profit margin, operating profit, net income and earnings per share, and measures to optimize the management of working capital, capital expenditures, cash flow and Return on Invested Capital ("ROIC"). We monitor these indicators, as well as our corporate governance practices (including our Code of Business Conduct and Ethics), to ensure that we maintain business health and strong internal controls.

To achieve our financial objectives, we are focused on initiatives to drive and fund growth. We seek to capture significant opportunities for growth by identifying and meeting customer product needs within our core product categories, developing new products, and identifying category expansion opportunities. We meet these customer product needs through focused product research and development efforts as well as through a disciplined acquisition strategy. Our acquisition strategy emphasizes acquiring companies that offer market growth potential as a result of geographic base, technology or synergy opportunities. The cash flow needed to fund our growth is developed through continuous, corporate-wide initiatives to lower costs and increase effective asset utilization.

We also prioritize investments that generate higher return on capital. Our management team is compensated based on a modified Economic Value Added ("EVA") program which reinforces capital allocation disciplines that drive increases in shareholder value. The key metrics in our program include total sales growth, organic sales growth, operating margin percent, operating cash flow as a percent of net income, and ROIC.

Given the current global economic uncertainty, we anticipate that the near-term operating environment will remain challenging. Slower economic growth or recessions in the U.S. and international markets may reduce the demand for our products. In particular, we are seeing recent declines in sales of our products used in commercial, industrial and power generation. We believe these sales declines are due to slower economic growth, recession or uncertainty about future economic conditions in the markets in which we compete.

In our residential and commercial HVAC businesses, we continue to see strong competition primarily on the basis of price and technology. Periodically, customers may change suppliers to achieve cost savings, technology advantages, supplier diversity or for other reasons. Also, the market shares of our customers may change due to product differentiation, pricing, service, quality or consumer preferences. All of these factors impact our sales of residential and commercial HVAC products. We anticipate these factors will combine to limit or reduce our organic revenue growth in the HVAC business by approximately $40 million over the next four quarters. However, revenue gains from other customers, new product sales or mix changes may offset some or all of the anticipated declines.

Net sales for the first quarter 2013 decreased 3.7% to $778.2 million compared to $807.9 million in the first quarter 2012. Net sales for the first quarter 2013 included $8.0 million of incremental net sales from recently acquired businesses.

Net Income Attributable to Regal Beloit Corporation increased 1.6 % to $49.5 million for the first quarter 2013 compared to $48.7 million for the first quarter 2012. Diluted earnings per share decreased to $1.09 for the first quarter 2013 compared to $1.16 for the first quarter 2012 driven by higher shares outstanding in 2013.

Net cash provided by operating activities was $66.0 million for the three months ended March 30, 2013, a decrease of $2.5 million from the comparable prior year period.

Mechanical segment operating expenses in 2013 included an incremental $0.3 million related to the recently acquired business. Mechanical segment operating expenses in 2012 were net of a gain on sale of assets of $1.3 million.

The lower effective rate as compared to the 35.0% statutory Federal income tax rate is driven by lower foreign tax rates.

Liquidity and Capital Resources

Our principal source of liquidity is operating cash flow, committed credit lines and existing cash balances. In addition to operating income, other significant factors affect our liquidity including working capital levels, capital expenditures, dividends, acquisitions, availability of debt financing, and the ability to attract long-term capital on acceptable terms.

Cash flow provided by operating activities ("operating cash flow") was $66.0 million for the three months ended March 30, 2013, a $2.5 million decrease from the three months ended March 31, 2012.

Cash flow used in investing activities was $26.8 million for the three months ended March 30, 2013, an $83.7 million decrease from the three months ended March 31, 2012 primarily due to lower acquisitions in 2013. Capital expenditures were $20.6 million in the three months ended March 30, 2013 compared to $19.8 million in the three months ended March 31, 2012. Business acquisitions were $6.0 million for the three months ended March 30, 2013, compared to $93.0 million for the three months ended March 31, 2012, driven by the 2012 acquisition of MGC.

Cash flow used in financing activities for the three months ended March 30, 2013 was $3.0 million compared to cash flow provided by financing activities of $61.8 million in the three months ended March 31, 2012, primarily due to the use of the revolving credit facility to partially fund the Milwaukee Gear acquisition in 2012.

Working capital was $1.1 billion at March 30, 2012 and $1.0 billion at December 29, 2012.

The following table presents selected financial information and ratios as of March 30, 2012 and December 29, 2012 (in millions):

	March 30, 2013	December 29, 2012
Cash and Cash Equivalents	$411.9	$375.3
Trade Receivables, Net	509.3	446.0
Inventories, Net	573.1	557.0
Working Capital	1,051.3	1,006.0
Current Ratio	2.7:1	2.9:1

A significant amount of operating income is earned in jurisdictions where it is deemed to be permanently reinvested. Our most prominent jurisdiction of operation is the U.S. We currently do not intend nor foresee a need to repatriate funds to the U.S., and no provision for U.S. income taxes has been made with respect to such earnings. It is expected that existing cash and cash equivalents available to the U.S., the cash generated by U.S. operations, committed credit lines as well as the expected ability to access the capital markets will be sufficient to fund U.S. operating and capital needs for at least the next twelve months and thereafter for the foreseeable future. There are no current trends, demands or uncertainties that are believed reasonably likely to require repatriation or to have a material impact on our ability to fund our U.S. operations.

At March 30, 2013, we had $750.0 million of senior notes (the “Notes”) outstanding. Details on the senior notes at March 30, 2013 were (in millions):

	Principal	Interest Rate	Maturity
Floating Rate Series 2007A	$150.0	Floating (1)	August 2014
Floating Rate Series 2007A	100.0	Floating (1)	August 2017
Fixed Rate Series 2011A	100.0	4.1%	July 2018
Fixed Rate Series 2011A	230.0	4.8 to 5.0%	July 2021
Fixed Rate Series 2011A	170.0	4.9 to 5.1%	July 2023
	$750.0

(1) Interest rates vary as LIBOR varies. At March 30, 2013, the interest rate was 1.0%.

We have interest rate swap agreements to manage fluctuations in cash flows resulting from interest rate risk. In 2008, we entered into a Term Loan Agreement (“Term Loan”) with certain financial institutions, pursuant to which we borrowed an aggregate principal amount of $165.0 million. The Company has repaid $110.0 million of the Term Loan. The Term Loan matures in June 2013, and borrowings generally bear interest at a variable rate equal to a margin over LIBOR which varies with the ratio of our total funded debt to consolidated earnings before interest, taxes, depreciation, and amortization (“EBITDA”) as defined in the Term Loan. These interest rates also vary as LIBOR varies. At March 30, 2013, the interest rate of 1.2% was based on a margin over LIBOR.

We also have a $500.0 million revolving credit facility that matures in 2016. The Facility permits borrowing at interest rates based upon a margin above LIBOR. The margin varies with the ratio of total funded debt to EBITDA as defined in the Facility. These interest rates also vary as LIBOR varies. At March 30, 2013, there was $0.0 million outstanding on the Facility. At March 30, 2013, we had $22.7 million of standby letters of credit issued under the Facility and $477.3 million of available borrowing capacity under the Facility.

Based on rates for instruments with comparable maturities, credit risks, and terms, which are classified as Level 2 inputs, the approximate fair value of our debt was $863.4 million and $859.6 million as of March 30, 2013 and December 29, 2012, respectively.

At March 30, 2013, other notes payable of approximately $17.2 million were outstanding with a weighted average interest rate of 2.2%.

The Notes, the Term Loan and the Facility require us to meet specified financial ratios and to satisfy certain financial condition tests. We were in compliance with all financial debt covenants as of March 30, 2013.

The Company entered into interest rate swap agreements to manage fluctuations in cash flows resulting from interest rate risk. (See also Note 13 of Notes to Condensed Consolidated Financial Statements.)

Critical Accounting Policies

Our disclosures of critical accounting policies, which are contained in our Annual Report on Form 10-K/A for the year ended December 29, 2012, have not materially changed since that report was filed.

ITEM 3. QUANTITATIVE AND QUALITATIVE DISCLOSURES ABOUT MARKET RISK

We are exposed to market risk relating to our operations due to changes in interest rates, foreign currency exchange rates and commodity prices of purchased raw materials. We manage the exposure to these risks through a combination of normal operating and financing activities and derivative financial instruments such as interest rate swaps, commodity cash flow hedges and foreign currency forward exchange contracts. All hedging transactions are authorized and executed pursuant to clearly defined policies and procedures, which strictly prohibit the use of financial instruments for speculative purposes.

All qualified hedges are recorded on the balance sheet at fair value and are accounted for as cash flow hedges, with changes in fair value recorded in Accumulated Other Comprehensive Income (Loss) ("AOCI") in each accounting period. The ineffective portion of the change in fair value, if any, is recorded in earnings in the period of change.

Interest Rate Risk

We are exposed to interest rate risk on certain of our short-term and long-term debt obligations used to finance our operations and acquisitions. At March 30, 2013, net of interest rate swaps, we had $502.0 million of fixed rate debt and $320.2 million of variable rate debt. As a result, interest rate changes in variable rate debt impact future earnings and cash flow assuming other factors are constant. We utilize interest rate swaps to manage fluctuations in cash flows resulting from exposure to interest rate risk on forecasted variable rate interest payments. We have LIBOR-based floating rate borrowings, which expose us to variability in interest payments due to changes in interest rates. A hypothetical 10% change in the weighted average borrowing rate on outstanding variable rate debt at March 30, 2013 would result in a change in after-tax annualized earnings of approximately $0.1 million.

We entered into pay fixed/receive LIBOR-based floating interest rate swaps to manage fluctuations in cash flows resulting from interest rate risk. These interest rate swaps have been designated as cash flow hedges against forecasted LIBOR-based interest payments. Details regarding these instruments, as of March 30, 2013, are as follows (in millions):

Instrument	Notional Amount	Maturity	Rate Paid	Rate Received	Fair Value (Loss)
Swap	$150.0	August 23, 2014	5.3	% LIBOR (3 month)	$(11.1)
Swap	100.0	August 23, 2017	5.4	% LIBOR (3 month)	(20.9)

As of March 30, 2013 and December 29, 2012, the interest rate swap liability of $(32.0) million and $(35.4) million, respectively, was included in Hedging Obligations. The unrealized loss on the effective portion of the contracts net of tax of $(19.8) million and $(21.9) million as of March 30, 2013 and December 29, 2012, respectively, was recorded in AOCI.

Foreign Currency Risk

We are also exposed to foreign currency risks that arise from normal business operations. These risks include the translation of local currency balances of foreign subsidiaries, intercompany loans with foreign subsidiaries and transactions denominated in foreign currencies. Our objective is to minimize our exposure to these risks through a combination of normal operating activities and the utilization of foreign currency exchange contracts. Contracts are executed with creditworthy banks and are denominated in currencies of major industrial countries. We do not hedge our exposure to the translation of reported results of foreign subsidiaries from local currency to United States dollars. As of March 30, 2013, derivative currency assets (liabilities) of $13.8 million, $3.9 million, $(2.2) million and $(0.2) million, are recorded in Prepaid Expenses, Other Noncurrent Assets, Hedging Obligations (current), and Hedging Obligations, respectively. As of December 29, 2012, derivative currency assets (liabilities) of $6.8 million, $2.3 million, $(4.6) million, and $(0.3) million are recorded in Prepaid Expenses, Other Noncurrent Assets, Hedging Obligations (current), and Hedging Obligations, respectively. The unrealized gain (loss) on the effective portion of the contracts of $9.5 million net of tax, and $2.7 million net of tax, as of March 30, 2013 and December 29, 2012, was recorded in AOCI. At March 30, 2013, we had $1.4 million, net of tax, of currency losses on closed hedge instruments in AOCI that will be realized in earnings when the hedged items impact earnings. At December 29, 2012, we had $0.1

million of derivative currency gains on closed hedge instruments in AOCI that were realized in 2012 earnings when the hedged items impacted earnings.

The following table quantifies the outstanding foreign exchange contracts intended to hedge non-U.S. dollar denominated receivables and payables and the corresponding impact on the value of these instruments assuming a hypothetical 10% appreciation/depreciation of their counter currency on March 30, 2013 (in millions):

Currency	Notional Amount	Fair Value	Gain (Loss) From
			10% Appreciation of Counter Currency	10% Depreciation of Counter Currency
Mexican Peso	$168.8	$15.6	$16.9	$ (16.9)
Chinese Renminbi	86.3	0.9	8.6	(8.6)
Indian Rupee	38.6	(1.9)	3.9	(3.9)
Thai Baht	12.8	0.6	1.3	(1.3)
Euro	11.4	0.2	1.1	(1.1)
Australian Dollar	5.7	(0.1)	0.6	(0.6)

Gains and losses indicated in the sensitivity analysis would be offset by gains and losses on the underlying forecasted non-U.S. dollar denominated cash flows.

Commodity Price Risk

We periodically enter into commodity hedging transactions to reduce the impact of changing prices for certain commodities such as copper and aluminum based upon forecasted purchases of such commodities. The majority of these transactions are designated as cash flow hedges and the contract terms of commodity hedge instruments generally mirror those of the hedged item, providing a high degree of risk reduction and correlation.

Derivative commodity assets (liabilities) of $1.0 million and $(6.9) million were recorded in Prepaid Expenses and Other Current Assets and Hedging Obligations (current) respectively, at March 30, 2013. Derivative commodity assets (liabilities) of $4.2 million, $0.2 million and $(1.7) were recorded in Prepaid Expenses and Other Current Assets and Hedging Obligations (current), respectively, at December 29, 2012. The unrealized gain (loss) on the effective portion of the contracts of $(3.7) million net of tax and $1.5 million net of tax, as of March 30, 2013 and December 29, 2012, respectively, was recorded in AOCI. At March 30, 2013, we had $0.3 million, net of tax, of derivative commodity gains on closed hedge instruments in AOCI that will be realized in earnings when the hedged items impact earnings. At December 29, 2012, there was $0.2 million, net of tax, of derivative commodity losses on closed hedge instruments in AOCI that were realized in 2012 earnings when the hedged items impacted earnings.

The following table quantifies the outstanding commodity contracts intended to hedge raw material commodity prices and the corresponding impact on the value of these instruments assuming a hypothetical 10% appreciation/depreciation of their prices on March 30, 2013 (dollars in millions):

Commodity	Notional Amount	Fair Value	Gain (Loss) From
			10% Appreciation of Commodity Prices	10% Depreciation of Commodity Prices
Copper	$154.8	$(5.4)	$15.5	$ (15.5)
Aluminum	8.8	(0.5)	0.9	(0.9)

Gains and losses indicated in the sensitivity analysis would be offset by the actual prices of the commodities.

The net AOCI balance of $12.3 million loss at March 30, 2013 includes $4.3 million of net current deferred losses expected to be realized in the next twelve months.
