ITEM 1.01. ENTRY INTO A MATERIAL DEFINITIVE AGREEMENT

On September 6, 2006, Ligand Pharmaceuticals Incorporated, a Delaware corporation (the "Company"), King Pharmaceuticals, Inc., a Tennessee corporation, and King Pharmaceuticals Research and Development, Inc., a Delaware corporation and wholly owned subsidiary of King Pharmaceuticals (collectively "King") entered into a Purchase Agreement (the "Purchase Agreement"), pursuant to which King has agreed to acquire all of the Company's rights in and to Avinza(R) (morphine sulfate extended-release capsules) in the United States, its territories and Canada, including, among other things, all Avinza(R) inventory, equipment, records and related intellectual property, and assume certain liabilities as set forth in the Purchase Agreement (collectively, the "Transaction"). In addition, King agreed, subject to the terms and conditions of the Purchase Agreement, to offer employment following the closing of the Transaction (the "Closing") to certain of the Company's existing sales representatives that support the sale of Avinza(R) or otherwise reimburse the Company for certain agreed upon severance arrangements offered to any such non-hired representatives. Each party had the right to terminate the Purchase Agreement if the Closing had not occurred by December 31, 2006 (the "Outside Date").

In connection with the Transaction, King committed to loan the Company, at the Company's option, $37.75 million (the "Loan"). The Loan was drawn on October 12, 2006 and is subject to certain market terms, including a 9.5% interest rate and a security interest in the assets that comprise Avinza(R) and certain of the proceeds of the Company's sale of certain other assets. Under the original terms of the Loan, if the Closing occurred by January 8, 2007, accrued interest on the Loan would be forgiven and the outstanding principal amount due thereunder would be credited against the Closing Payment. If the Loan were drawn by the Company and the Closing did not occur by such date, accrued interest and the outstanding principal amount due thereunder would become due on January 1, 2007.

On January 3, 2007, the Company and King executed an amendment to the Purchase Agreement (the "Amendment") effective as of November 30, 2006 and a letter agreement effective as of December 29, 2006 (the "Side Letter"). Under the Amendment, the parties agreed that King could make offers to the Ligand sales representatives, plus its regional business managers starting on November 30, 2006, such offers to be contingent on the Closing. The Parties agreed on

RE: LOAN AGREEMENT DATED AS OCTOBER 12, 2006

Dear Brian:

Reference is made to that certain Purchase Agreement (as amended, supplemented or otherwise modified from time to time, the "AGREEMENT"), dated as of September 6, 2006, by and between Ligand Pharmaceuticals Incorporated ("SELLER"), King Pharmaceuticals, Inc. ("KING") and King Pharmaceuticals Research and Development, Inc. ("KING R&D", and together with King, "PURCHASER"). Capitalized terms used but not otherwise defined herein have the meanings specified in the Agreement.

On January 8 2007, King will take payment of the loan principal and interest then due as provided for under that certain Loan Agreement, dated as of October 12, 2006, between Seller, as borrower, and King, as lender (as amended, supplemented or otherwise modified from time to time, the "LOAN AGREEMENT") and the Loan Documents (as defined in the Loan Agreement), up to the amount then in the controlled deposit account held at Comerica Bank (the "DEPOSIT ACCOUNT") in connection with the Loan Documents. King will hold the interest amount, pending the Closing. If the Closing occurs on or before February 28, 2007, then King will refund any amount taken from such Deposit Account in excess of $37.75 million to Ligand as a credit at Closing, in addition to other amounts and credits that may be due under the Agreement. If the Closing does not occur by February 28, 2007, King will keep the interest due on the loan up to January 8, 2007 and no adjustment will be made at any subsequent Closing.
