Sony and Bertelsmann Receive Regulatory Clearance For Music Joint Venture

(July 28, 2004, New York, N.Y.) Sony Corporation of America (SCA) and Bertelsmann AG have received formal clearance from the European Commission and from the U.S. Federal Trade Commission to merge their recorded music businesses to create a new global recorded music joint venture, it was announced today by SCA, Sony Corporation's U.S.-based subsidiary. The newly formed company, which will be 50% owned by each parent company, will not include SCA's music publishing, physical distribution and disc manufacturing businesses or Sony Music Entertainment Japan. It is anticipated that the merger will close shortly and that the new company, which will be fully committed to creating music, developing artists and enriching the lives of music lovers around the world, will officially begin operation immediately thereafter.

Cautionary Statement

Statements made in this release with respect to Sony's current plans, estimates, strategies and beliefs and other statements that are not historical facts are forward-looking statements about the future performance of Sony. Forward-looking statements include, but are not limited to, those statements using words such as believe, expect, plans, strategy, prospects, forecast, estimate, project, anticipate, may or might and words of similar meaning in connection with future operations, financial performance, events or conditions. From time to time, oral or written forward-looking statements may also be included in other materials released to the public. These statements are based on management's assumptions and beliefs in light of the information currently available to it. Sony
