All of the Ordinary Shares were registered on the Registration Statement to fulfill a contractual obligation. This obligation further required the Company to maintain the effectiveness of the Registration Statement until the earlier of a) the date that all of the Ordinary Shares initially issued to the security holders and issued upon exercise of warrants were sold pursuant to such Registration Statement b) the date the security holders received an opinion from counsel to the Company, which counsel was reasonably acceptable to the Company, that such Ordinary Shares may be sold under the provisions of Rule 144 without limitation as to volume, c) the date that all such Ordinary Shares were otherwise transferred to persons who may trade such shares without restriction under the Securities Act, and the Company delivered a new certificate or other evidence of ownership for such Ordinary Shares not bearing a restrictive legend or d) eighteen (18) months from the effective date of the Registration Statement. This period has expired.
