Forward Looking Statements

This presentation contains forward-looking statements within the meaning of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. These forward-looking statements include, but are not limited to, statements about (i) the benefits of the merger between Webster Financial Corporation ("Webster" or "WBS") and FIRSTFED AMERICA BANCORP, INC. ("FIRSTFED" or "FAB"), including future financial and operating results, cost savings and accretion to reported earnings that may be realized from the merger; (ii) Webster's and FIRSTFED's plans, objectives, expectations and intentions and other statements contained in this presentation that are not historical facts; and (iii) other statements identified by words such as "expects," "anticipates," "intends," "plans," "believes," "seeks," "estimates" or words of similar meaning. These forward-looking statements are based upon the current beliefs and expectations of Webster's and FIRSTFED's management and are inherently subject to significant business, economic and competitive uncertainties and contingencies, many of which are beyond our control. In addition, these forward-looking statements are subject to assumptions with respect to future business strategies and decisions that are subject to change. Actual results may differ materially from the anticipated results discussed in these forward-looking statements.

The following factors, among others, could cause actual results to differ materially from the anticipated results or other expectations expressed in the forward-looking statements: (1) the businesses of Webster and FIRSTFED may not be combined successfully, or such combination may take longer to accomplish than expected; (2) the cost savings from the merger may not be fully realized or may take longer to realize than expected; (3) operating costs, customer loss and business disruption following the merger, including adverse effects on relationships with employees, may be greater than expected; (4) governmental approvals of the merger may not be obtained, or adverse regulatory conditions may be imposed in connection with governmental approvals of the merger; (5) the stockholders of FIRSTFED may fail to approve the merger; (6) adverse governmental or regulatory policies may be enacted; (7) the interest rate environment may further compress margins and adversely affect net interest income; (8) the risks associated with continued diversification of assets and adverse changes to credit quality; (9) the risks associated with a proposed balance sheet deleveraging; (10) difficulties associated with achieving expected future financial results; (11) competition from other financial services companies in Webster's and FIRSTFED's markets; (12) the risk of an economic slowdown that would adversely affect credit quality and loan originations. Additional factors that could cause actual results to differ materially from those expressed in the forward-looking statements are discussed in Webster's and FIRSTFED's reports (such as Annual Reports on Form 10-K, Quarterly Reports on Form 10-Q and Current Reports on Form 8-K) filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission and available at the SEC's Internet site (<http://lwww.sec.gov>). All subsequent written and oral forward looking statements concerning the proposed transaction or other matters attributable to Webster or FIRSTFED or any person acting on their behalf are expressly qualified in their entirety by the cautionary statements above. Except as required by law, Webster and FIRSTFED do not undertake any obligation to update any forward-looking statement to reflect circumstances or events that occur after the date the forward-looking statement is made.

Additional Information

The proposed transaction will be submitted to FIRSTFED's stockholders for their consideration. Webster and FIRSTFED will file with the SEC a registration statement, a proxy statement/prospectus and other relevant documents concerning the proposed transaction with the SEC. Stockholders of FIRSTFED are urged to read the registration statement and the proxy statement/prospectus when it becomes available and any other relevant documents filed with the SEC, as well as any amendments or supplements to those documents, because they will contain important information. You will be able to obtain a free copy of the proxy statement/prospectus, as well as other filings containing information about Webster and FIRSTFED, at the SEC's Internet site (<http://www.sec.gov>). Copies of the proxy statement/prospectus and the SEC filings that will be incorporated by reference in the proxy statement/prospectus can be obtained, without charge, by directing a request to Terrence K. Mangan, Senior Vice President/Investor Relations, Webster Financial Corporation, Webster Plaza, Waterbury, CT 06702 (203) 578-2318 or to Edward A. Hjerpe, Chief Operating Officer and Chief Financial Officer, FIRSTFED AMERICA BANCORP, INC., ONE FIRSTFED PARK, Swansea, MA 02777 (508) 679-8181.

FIRSTFED and its directors and executive officers may be deemed to be participants in the solicitation of proxies from the stockholders of FIRSTFED in connection with the merger. Information about the directors and executive officers of FIRSTFED and their ownership of FIRSTFED common stock is set forth in the proxy statement, dated June 26, 2003, for FIRSTFED's 2003 annual meeting of stockholders, as filed with the SEC on a Schedule 14A. Additional information regarding the interests of such participants may be obtained by reading the proxy statement/prospectus when it becomes available.
