PRELIMINARY SUBJECT TO COMPLETION DATED MARCH 28, 2007

MERGER PROPOSED YOUR VOTE IS VERY IMPORTANT

On December 18, 2006, we entered into a merger agreement with Banner Corporation providing for the merger of San Juan Financial Holding Company into Banner. Before we can complete the merger, we must obtain the approval of the shareholders of San Juan Financial. We are sending you this document to ask you to vote in favor of the approval and adoption of the merger agreement.

If the merger is completed, San Juan Financial shareholders will be entitled to receive, in exchange for each share of San Juan Financial common stock they hold at the time of the merger, consideration equal to the pro rata share of (i) 819,277 shares of Banner common stock, plus (ii) $6,000,000 in cash. If, however, the price of Banner common stock at the time the merger is completed is between $36 and $38 or between $46 and $50, Banner will deliver aggregate merger consideration having a value as if the closing price of Banner common stock at the time the merger is completed were $38 or $46, respectively. If the price of Banner common stock at the time the merger is completed is less than $36, San Juan Financial may terminate the merger under certain circumstances, even if it has been previously approved by our shareholders. Similarly, if the price of Banner common stock at the time the merger is completed is more than $50, Banner may terminate the merger under certain circumstances, even if it has been previously approved by our shareholders. In addition, since the merger will be completed after March 31, 2007, San Juan Financial shareholders will become entitled to receive their pro rata share of the amount of any dividends or distributions on Banner common stock with a record date after March 31, 2007 that would have been payable on 819,277 shares of Banner common stock.

Except as described above, the value of the merger consideration (other than the possible dividends and distributions) will fluctuate with the market price of Banner common stock, which trades on the Nasdaq Global Select Market (the "Nasdaq") under the symbol "BANR." As an example, based on the closing price of $41.63 of Banner common stock on the Nasdaq on March 26, 2007, and 364,078 San Juan Financial common shares outstanding as of such date, each share of San Juan Financial common stock would be converted into the right to receive approximately $16.48 in cash and approximately 2.2503 shares of Banner common stock, having a market value of approximately $110.16. As an additional example, based on the closing price of $42.43 of Banner common stock on the Nasdaq on December 18, 2006, and 364,078 San Juan Financial common shares outstanding as of such date, each share of San Juan Financial common stock would be converted into the right to receive approximately $16.48 in cash and approximately 2.2503 shares of Banner common stock, having a market value of approximately $111.96.

Your vote is important. We cannot complete the merger of Banner and San Juan Financial unless San Juan Financial shareholders approve and adopt the merger agreement. San Juan Financial shareholders' failure to vote will have the same effect as voting against the merger. The special meeting of the shareholders of San Juan Financial will be held at Islanders Bank, Administration Bldg., 545 Park Street, Friday Harbor, Washington 98250 on April 27, 2007 at 5:15 p.m.. The San Juan Financial board of directors unanimously recommends that San Juan Financial shareholders vote FOR approval and adoption of the merger agreement.

This document gives you detailed information about the shareholder meeting and the proposed merger. We urge you to read this document carefully, including "Risk Factors" beginning on page 12 for a discussion of the risks relating to the merger. You also can obtain information about Banner from documents that it has filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission by following the instructions under "Where You Can Find More Information." Whether or not you plan to attend the special meeting, to ensure your shares are represented at the meeting, please vote as soon as possible by completing and submitting the enclosed proxy card.

To the Shareholders of San Juan Financial Holding Company:

We will hold a special meeting of San Juan Financial shareholders on April 27, 2007, at 5:15 p.m., local time, at Islanders Bank, Administration Bldg., 545 Park Street, Friday Harbor, Washington 98250 for the following purposes:

1. To consider and vote upon a proposal to approve and adopt the Agreement and Plan of Merger, dated as of December 18, 2006, between Banner Corporation and San Juan Financial Holding Company, as it may be amended from time to time, pursuant to which San Juan Financial will merge with and into Banner;

3. To transact any other business as may properly be brought before the San Juan Financial special meeting or any adjournment or postponement of the San Juan Financial special meeting.

Your proxy may be revoked at any time before it is voted. Please review the proxy statement/prospectus accompanying this notice for more complete information regarding the merger and the San Juan Financial special meeting.

The board of directors of San Juan Financial unanimously recommends that San Juan Financial shareholders vote FOR the proposal to approve and adopt the merger agreement.

By Order of the Board of Directors,

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS ABOUT THE MERGER

Q: What matters will be considered at the San Juan Financial shareholder meeting?

A: At the San Juan Financial special meeting, San Juan Financial shareholders will be asked to vote in favor of approving and adopting the merger agreement.

Q: Why is my vote important?

A: The merger agreement must be approved and adopted by the holders of two-thirds of the outstanding shares of San Juan Financial common stock. Accordingly, if a San Juan Financial shareholder fails to vote, or if a San Juan Financial shareholder abstains, that will have the same effect as a vote against approval and adoption of the merger agreement.

Q: What do I need to do now in order to vote?

A: After you have carefully read this document, please respond as soon as possible so that your shares will be represented and voted at the San Juan Financial special meeting by: completing, signing and dating your proxy card or voting instruction card and returning it in the postage-paid envelope.

Q: When and where is the shareholder meeting?

A: The San Juan Financial special meeting will take place at 5:15 p.m. on April 27, 2007. The location of the San Juan Financial special meeting is Islanders Bank, Administration Bldg., 545 Park Street, Friday Harbor, Washington 98250.

Q: Should I send in my San Juan Financial stock certificates with my proxy card?

A: No. Please DO NOT send your San Juan Financial stock certificates with your proxy card. Shortly after the merger is completed you will receive a letter of transmittal with instructions, which you should carefully review and follow, regarding how to surrender your San Juan Financial stock certificates.

Q: How do I vote my shares if my shares are held in [street name]?

A: You should contact your broker or bank. Your broker or bank can give you directions on how to instruct the broker or bank to vote your shares. Your broker or bank will not vote your shares unless the broker or bank receives appropriate instructions from you. Your failure to vote will have the same effect as a vote [AGAINST] approval and adoption of the merger agreement. You should therefore provide your broker or bank with instructions as to how to vote your shares.

Q: What if I want to change my vote after I have delivered my proxy card?

A: You may change your vote at any time before your proxy is voted at the shareholder meeting. If you are the record holder of your shares, you can do this in any of the three following ways:

- by sending a written revocation to the secretary of San Juan Financial in time to be received before the special meeting of shareholders stating that you would like to revoke your proxy;
- by properly completing another proxy card that is dated later than the original proxy and returning it in time to be received before the special meeting of shareholders; or
- by voting in person at the special meeting of shareholders if your shares of San Juan Financial common stock are registered in your name rather than in the name of a broker or bank.

If you hold your shares in [street name], you should contact your broker or bank to give it instructions to change your vote.

Q: Are San Juan Financial shareholders entitled to dissenters' rights?

A: Holders of San Juan Financial common stock have the right to dissent from the merger and to receive payment in cash for the fair value of their shares of San Juan Financial common stock. The fair value of the shares of San Juan Financial common stock of dissenting shareholders may be more than, less than or equal to the value of the merger consideration. If you are a San Juan Financial shareholder seeking to preserve your statutory dissenters' rights, you must carefully follow the procedures described in the section entitled "The Merger" "Dissenters' Rights" on pages 31-34 and prescribed by Chapter 23B.13 of the Washington Business Corporation Act, a copy of which is reprinted in its entirety and attached to this document as Annex C. Your failure to comply precisely with all procedures required by Washington law may result in the loss of your dissenters' rights.

Q: Whom can I call with questions about the shareholder meeting or the merger?

A: If you have questions about the merger or the San Juan Financial special meeting of shareholders or you need additional copies of this document, or if you have questions about the process for voting or if you need a replacement proxy card, you should contact:

San Juan Financial Holding Company
225 Blair Avenue

SUMMARY

This summary highlights selected information from this document and may not contain all of the information that is important to you. You should carefully read this entire document and the other documents to which this document refers to fully understand the merger. See [Where You Can Find More Information] on pages 67-68. Most items in this summary include a page reference directing you to a more complete description of those items.

San Juan Financial Will Merge into Banner (see page 41)

We propose a merger of San Juan Financial with and into Banner. As a result, Banner will continue as the surviving company.

San Juan Financial Shareholders Will Receive Cash and Shares of Banner Common Stock in the Merger (see pages 41-42)

If the merger is completed, Banner will deliver 819,277 shares of Banner common stock and $6,000,000 in cash to San Juan Financial shareholders, who will become entitled to receive their pro rata share of this aggregate consideration. If the price of Banner common stock at the time the merger is completed is between $36 and $38, Banner will deliver additional cash or additional shares of Banner common stock such that the aggregate merger consideration to be received by San Juan Financial shareholders will have a value of $37,132,526, which is equal to $6,000,000 plus 819,277 shares of Banner common stock valued at $38 per share. If the price of Banner common stock at the time the merger is completed is between $46 and $50, Banner will deliver less cash or fewer shares of Banner common stock such that the aggregate merger consideration to be received by San Juan Financial shareholders will have a value of $43,686,742, which is equal to $6,000,000 plus 819,277 shares of Banner common stock valued at $46 per share.

Except as described above, the value of the merger consideration will fluctuate with the market price of Banner common stock. As an example, based on the closing price of $41.63 of Banner common stock on the Nasdaq on March 26, 2007, and 364,078 San Juan Financial common shares outstanding as of such date, each share of San Juan Financial common stock would be converted into the right to receive approximately $16.48 in cash and approximately 2.2503 shares of Banner common stock, having a market value of approximately $110.16.

In addition, since the merger will be completed after March 31, 2007, San Juan Financial shareholders will become entitled to receive their pro rata share of the amount of any dividends or distributions on Banner common stock with a record date after March 31, 2007 that would have been payable on 819,277 shares of Banner common stock. See [The Merger Agreement] Consideration To Be Received in the Merger.

What Holders of San Juan Financial Stock Options and Other Equity-Based Awards Will Receive (see pages 42-43)

When we complete the merger, stock options to acquire San Juan Financial common stock that are outstanding immediately before the completion of the merger will receive a cash payment equal to the excess of the value of the cash and Banner common stock delivered in exchange for each share of San Juan Financial common stock over the exercise price of such stock option. Cash payments for options will be in addition to the cash payments for shares of common stock as described above.

The Merger Has Been Structured to Be Generally Tax-Free to Holders of San Juan Financial Common Stock to the Extent They Receive Banner Common Stock (see page 37)

The exchange by U.S. holders of San Juan Financial common stock for Banner common stock has been structured to be generally tax free for U.S. federal income tax purposes, except that:

- U.S. holders of San Juan Financial common stock generally will recognize gain, but not loss, to the extent of the cash received; and
- U.S. holders of San Juan Financial common stock generally will recognize gain or loss with respect to cash received instead of fractional shares of Banner common stock that such holders would otherwise be entitled to receive.

For further information, please refer to "The Merger" Material U.S. Federal Income Tax Consequences of the Merger.

Dividend Policy of Banner (see pages 43-44)

The holders of Banner common stock receive dividends if and when declared by the Banner board of directors out of legally available funds. Banner declared quarterly cash dividends of $0.19 per share of common stock for the fourth quarter of 2006 and $0.18 for each of the first three quarters of 2006. Following the completion of the merger, Banner expects to continue paying quarterly cash dividends on a basis consistent with past practice. However, the declaration and payment of dividends will depend upon business conditions, operating results, capital and reserve requirements and consideration by the Banner board of directors of other relevant factors.

Prior to completion of the merger, San Juan Financial shareholders will not receive any regular dividends declared and paid by Banner, except that San Juan Financial may dispose of certain assets and declare and pay a special distribution of the after-tax proceeds to San Juan Financial shareholders. See "The Merger Agreement" Conversion of Shares; Exchange of Certificates Dividends and Distributions.

San Juan Financial's Financial Advisor Has Provided an Opinion as to the Fairness of the Merger Consideration, from a Financial Point of View, to San Juan Financial's Shareholders (see pages 24-28)

McAdams Wright Ragen, Inc. or "McAdams Wright" has provided an opinion to the San Juan Financial board of directors, dated as of December 14, 2006, that, as of that date, and subject to and based upon the qualifications and assumptions set forth in its opinion, the consideration to be received by the holders of San Juan Financial common stock in the merger was fair, from a financial point of view, to such shareholders. We have attached to this document the full text of McAdams Wright's opinion as Annex B, which sets forth, among other things, the assumptions made, procedures followed, matters considered and limitations on the review undertaken by McAdams Wright in connection with its opinion. We urge you to read the opinion in its entirety. The opinion of McAdams Wright is addressed to the board of directors of San Juan Financial and is among many factors considered by the board in deciding to approve the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement. It is directed only to the consideration to be paid in the merger and does not constitute a recommendation to any shareholder as to how that shareholder should vote on the merger agreement. Pursuant to an engagement letter between San Juan Financial and McAdams Wright, San Juan Financial has agreed to pay McAdams Wright a fee, a substantial portion of which is payable only upon completion of the merger.

San Juan Financial's Board of Directors Recommends that San Juan Financial Shareholders Vote "FOR" Approval and Adoption of the Merger Agreement (see page 22-24)

San Juan Financial's board of directors has unanimously determined that the merger and the merger agreement are advisable to, and in the best interests of, San Juan Financial shareholders and unanimously recommends that San Juan Financial shareholders vote "FOR" the proposal to approve and adopt the merger agreement.

In reaching its decision to approve the merger agreement, San Juan Financial's board of directors consulted with certain of its senior management and with its legal and financial advisors and also considered the factors described under "The Merger" San Juan Financial's Reasons for the Merger; Recommendation of San Juan Financial's Board of Directors.

Interests of San Juan Financial Executive Officers and Directors in the Merger (see pages 28-30)

In considering the information contained in this document, you should be aware that San Juan Financial's executive officers and directors have financial interests in the merger that may be different from, or in addition to, the interests of San Juan Financial shareholders. These additional interests of San Juan Financial's executive officers and directors may create potential conflicts of interest and cause some of these persons to view the proposed transaction differently than you may view it as a shareholder.

San Juan Financial's board of directors was aware of these interests and considered them, among other matters, in approving the merger agreement. For information concerning these interests, please see the discussion under the caption "The Merger" Interests of San Juan Financial Executive Officers and Directors in the Merger.

Non-Solicitation (see pages 49-50)

San Juan Financial has agreed that it will not solicit or encourage any inquiries or proposals regarding any acquisition proposals by third parties. However, San Juan Financial may respond to unsolicited proposals in certain circumstances if required by its board of directors' fiduciary duties. Upon receiving any such proposal, San Juan Financial must promptly notify Banner.

Conditions to Completion of the Merger (see pages 52-53)

Each of Banner's and San Juan Financial's obligations to complete the merger is subject to the satisfaction or waiver of a number of mutual conditions including:

- the approval and adoption of the merger agreement by San Juan Financial shareholders; and
- the absence of any statute, regulation, rule, decree, injunction or other order in effect by any court or other governmental entity that prohibits completion of the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement.

Each of Banner's and San Juan Financial's obligations to complete the merger is also separately subject to the satisfaction or waiver of a number of conditions including:

- the receipt by the party of a legal opinion from its counsel to the effect that the merger will be treated as a reorganization for U.S. federal income tax purposes;
- the receipt and effectiveness of all regulatory approvals, registrations and consents, and the expiration of all waiting periods required to complete the merger; and
- the other company's representations and warranties in the merger agreement being true and correct, subject to the materiality standards contained in the merger agreement, and the performance by the other party in all material respects of its obligations under the merger agreement.

Banner's obligation to complete the merger is further subject to the condition that the regulatory approvals received in connection with the completion of the merger not include any conditions or restrictions that, in the aggregate, would reasonably be expected to have a material adverse effect on San Juan Financial or Banner, with materiality being measured on a scale relative to San Juan Financial.

Termination of the Merger Agreement (see pages 53-55)

Banner and San Juan Financial may mutually agree at any time to terminate the merger agreement without completing the merger, even if shareholders have approved the merger. Also, either of Banner or San Juan Financial can terminate the merger agreement in various circumstances, including the following:

- if a governmental entity which must grant a regulatory approval as a condition to the merger denies approval of the merger or any governmental entity has issued an order prohibiting the merger and such action has become final and non-appealable;
- if the merger is not completed by July 31, 2007 (other than because of a breach of the merger agreement caused by the party seeking termination);

- if the other party breaches the merger agreement in a way that would entitle the party seeking to terminate the agreement not to consummate the merger, subject to the right of the breaching party to cure the breach within 45 days following written notice (unless it is not possible due to the nature or timing of the breach for the breaching party to cure the breach); or
- if the approval and adoption of the merger agreement by San Juan Financial shareholders is not obtained.

Banner may also terminate the merger agreement:

- if San Juan Financial has materially breached its [non-solicitation] obligations described under [The Merger Agreement] [No Solicitation of Alternative Transactions];
- if San Juan Financial's board has failed to recommend in this proxy statement/prospectus the approval of the merger agreement by its shareholders, recommended any alternative transaction proposals with third parties or failed to call a meeting of its shareholders; or
- if the ten-day average closing price of Banner common stock exceeds $50 (subject to San Juan Financial's right to accept a reduction in the merger consideration and thereby prevent such termination as described under [The Merger Agreement] [Termination of the Merger Agreement]).

The merger agreement will terminate automatically, unless the San Juan Financial board of directors unanimously determines otherwise, if the ten-day average closing price of Banner common stock is less than $36 (subject to Banner's right to increase the merger consideration and thereby prevent such termination as described under [The Merger Agreement] [Termination of the Merger Agreement]).

Dissenters' Rights (see pages 31-34)

Under Washington law, if San Juan Financial shareholders want to assert their right to dissent from the merger and seek the fair value of their shares of San Juan Financial common stock, San Juan Financial shareholders must follow carefully the procedures described in Annex C, and summarized at pages 31-34 of this document.

San Juan Financial Will Hold its Special Meeting on April 27, 2007 (see pages 17-19)

The San Juan Financial special meeting will be held at Islanders Bank, Administration Bldg., 545 Park Street, Friday Harbor, Washington 98250, on April 30 at 5:15 p.m., local time. At the special meeting, San Juan Financial shareholders will be asked:

- to approve and adopt the merger agreement;
- to vote upon an adjournment or postponement of the San Juan Financial special meeting, if necessary, to solicit additional proxies; and

- to transact any other business as may properly be brought before the San Juan Financial special meeting or any adjournment or postponement of the San Juan Financial special meeting.

You can vote at the San Juan Financial special meeting if you owned San Juan Financial common stock at the close of business on March 26, 2007. On that date, there were 364,078 shares of San Juan Financial common stock outstanding and entitled to vote, approximately 28.14% of which were owned and entitled to be voted by San Juan Financial directors and executive officers and their affiliates. You can cast one vote for each share of San Juan Financial common stock you owned on that date. In order to approve and adopt the merger agreement, the holders of two-thirds of the outstanding shares of San Juan Financial common stock entitled to vote must vote in favor of doing so.

San Juan Financial’s Directors Have Agreed to Vote in Favor of the Merger (page 22-24)

In consideration of Banner agreeing to enter into the merger agreement, each of the members of our board of directors entered into support agreements with Banner under which they agreed to vote, and gave Banner an irrevocable proxy to vote, their shares of San Juan Financial common stock in favor of the merger agreement and against any competing acquisition transaction. The shares subject to these support agreements represent approximately 27.94% of the outstanding shares of San Juan Financial common stock as of the record date. A form of the support agreement is attached to this proxy statement as Annex D.

Regulatory Approvals Required for the Merger (see pages 35-36)

Completion of the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement is subject to various regulatory approvals, including approval from the Federal Reserve Board. Banner and San Juan Financial have completed filing all of the required applications and notices with regulatory authorities. Although we do not know of any reason why we would not be able to obtain the necessary regulatory approvals in a timely manner, we cannot be certain when or if we will get them.

RISK FACTORS

In addition to the other information contained in or incorporated by reference into this document, including Banner's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2006, and the matters addressed under the heading "Forward-Looking Statements" beginning on page 15 of this document, you should carefully consider the following risk factors in deciding whether to vote to approve and adopt the merger agreement.

As a Result of the Merger, Shareholders of San Juan Financial Will Be Subject to the Risks Attendant to Banner's Business.

If the merger is completed, San Juan Financial shareholders will become shareholders of Banner and will be subject to the risks facing Banner and its business. These risks include the risk that changes in interest rates adversely affect Banner's earnings or economic value, that general economic or political conditions, and particularly economic conditions in Washington, Oregon and Idaho, are less favorable than expected; that competitive pressure among financial services companies limits Banner's ability to grow or profitability and other risks and uncertainties that Banner discusses or identifies in its public filings with the SEC.

Banner grows its business in part by acquiring from time to time other financial services companies, and these acquisitions present a number of risks and uncertainties related both to the acquisition transactions themselves and to the integration of the acquired businesses.

Acquisitions of other financial services companies present risks to Banner other than those presented by the nature of the business acquired. In particular, acquisitions may be substantially more expensive to complete (including integration costs) and the anticipated benefits (including anticipated cost savings and strategic gains) may be significantly harder or take longer to achieve than expected. In some cases, acquisitions may involve entry into new businesses or new geographic or other markets where Banner does not have prior experience. As a regulated financial institution, Banner's pursuit of attractive acquisition opportunities could be negatively impacted due to regulatory delays or other regulatory issues. The integration of the acquired business into Banner's may result in additional future costs and expenses arising as a result of those issues.

Banner's pending acquisition of F&M Bank presents many of the risks and uncertainties related to acquisition transactions themselves and to the integration of the acquired businesses into Banner described above.

Because the Market Price of Banner Common Stock Will Fluctuate, San Juan Financial Shareholders Cannot Be Sure of the Value of the Merger Consideration They Will Receive.

Upon completion of the merger, each share of San Juan Financial common stock will be converted into the right to receive merger consideration consisting of shares of Banner common stock and cash pursuant to the terms of the merger agreement. Any change in the market price of Banner common stock prior to completion of the merger will affect the value of the merger consideration that San Juan Financial shareholders will receive upon completion of the merger. Accordingly, at the time of the San Juan Financial special meeting, San Juan Financial shareholders will not necessarily know or be able to calculate the value of the consideration they would receive upon completion of the merger. San Juan Financial is not permitted to resolicit the vote of San Juan Financial shareholders solely because of changes in the market prices of Banner common stock. Stock price changes may result from a variety of factors, including general market and economic conditions, changes in Banner's businesses, operations and prospects, and regulatory considerations. Many of these factors are beyond our control. You should obtain current market quotations for shares of Banner common stock.

San Juan Financial Shareholders Will Have a Reduced Ownership and Voting Interest After the Merger and Will Exercise Less Influence Over Management.

After the merger's completion, San Juan Financial shareholders will own a significantly smaller percentage of Banner than they currently own of San Juan Financial. Following completion of the merger, San Juan Financial shareholders will own approximately 5.9% of the combined company on a fully diluted basis (or approximately 5.2% of the combined company on a fully diluted basis assuming the prior completion of Banner's pending acquisition of F&M Bank). Consequently, San Juan Financial shareholders may be able to exercise less influence over the management and policies of Banner than they currently exercise over the management and policies of San Juan Financial.

The Merger Agreement Limits San Juan Financial's Ability to Pursue Alternatives to the Merger.

The merger agreement contains non-solicitation provisions that, subject to limited exceptions, limit San Juan Financial's ability to discuss, facilitate or commit to competing third-party proposals to acquire all or a significant part of San Juan Financial. Although San Juan Financial's board of directors is permitted to take these actions in connection with receipt of a competing acquisition proposal if it determines that the failure to do so would violate its fiduciary duties, taking such actions or similar actions (including San Juan Financial withdrawing or modifying, in a way adverse to Banner, its recommendation to its shareholders that they vote in favor of the merger) would entitle Banner to terminate the merger agreement. See "The Merger Agreement—No Solicitation of Alternative Transactions." The merger agreement also requires San Juan Financial to Banner a termination fee of $1 million if the merger agreement is terminated in specified circumstances. See "The Merger Agreement—Termination of the Merger Agreement—Payment of Termination Fee." These provisions might discourage a potential competing acquiror that might have an interest in acquiring all or a significant part of San Juan Financial from considering or proposing that acquisition even if it were prepared to pay consideration with a higher per share market price than that proposed in the merger, or might result in a potential competing acquiror proposing to pay a lower per share price to acquire San Juan Financial than it might otherwise have proposed to pay.

San Juan Financial Executive Officers and Directors Have Financial Interests in the Merger that Are Different from, or in Addition to, the Interests of San Juan Financial Shareholders.

Executive officers of San Juan Financial negotiated the terms of the merger agreement, and San Juan Financial's board of directors unanimously approved and recommended that San Juan Financial's shareholders vote to approve and adopt the merger agreement. In considering these facts and the other information contained in this document, you should be aware that San Juan Financial's executive officers and directors have financial interests in the merger that are different from, or in addition to, the interests of San Juan Financial's shareholders. Please see “Summary—Interests of San Juan Financial Executive Officers and Directors in the Merger” and “The Merger—Interests of San Juan Financial Executive Officers and Directors in the Merger” for further information about these interests.

The Voting Agreements Limit San Juan Financial’s Ability to Pursue Alternatives to the Merger.

The merger agreement must be approved by the holders of two-thirds of the outstanding shares of San Juan Financial common stock entitled to vote at the special meeting. The members of the board of directors of San Juan Financial, who in the aggregate have the power to vote approximately 27.94% of the outstanding shares of San Juan Financial common stock, have each executed voting agreements with Banner pursuant to which they have agreed to vote their shares of San Juan Financial common stock in favor of the merger and against any competing business combination transaction.

The Merger is subject to the Receipt of Consents and Approvals from Government Entities that May Impose Conditions that Could Have an Adverse Effect on Banner.

Before the merger may be completed, various approvals or consents must be obtained from the Federal Reserve Board and other authorities in the United States. These governmental entities may impose conditions on the completion of the merger or require changes to the terms of the merger. Banner is not obligated to complete the merger if the regulatory approvals received in connection with the completion of the merger include any conditions or restrictions that, in the aggregate, would reasonably be expected to have a material adverse effect on San Juan Financial or Banner, measured on a scale relative to San Juan Financial, but Banner could choose to waive this condition.

The Shares of Banner Common Stock to be Received by San Juan Financial Shareholders as a Result of the Merger Will Have Different Rights from the Shares of San Juan Financial Common Stock.

Upon completion of the merger, San Juan Financial shareholders will become Banner shareholders and their rights as shareholders will be governed by the articles of incorporation and by-laws of Banner. The rights associated with San Juan Financial common stock are different from the rights associated with Banner common stock. See the section of this document titled “Comparative Rights of Banner and San Juan Financial Shareholders” beginning on page 61 for a discussion of the different rights associated with Banner common stock.

FORWARD-LOOKING STATEMENTS

This document contains or incorporates by reference a number of forward-looking statements regarding the financial condition, results of operations, earnings outlook, and business prospects of Banner, San Juan Financial and the potential combined company and may include statements for the period following the completion of the merger. You can find many of these statements by looking for words such as "expects," "projects," "anticipates," "believes," "intends," "estimates," "strategy," "plan," "potential," "possible" and other similar expressions.

The forward-looking statements involve certain risks and uncertainties. The ability of either Banner or San Juan Financial to predict results or actual effects of its plans and strategies, or those of the combined company, is inherently uncertain. Accordingly, actual results may differ materially from those expressed in, or implied by, the forward-looking statements. Some of the factors that may cause actual results or earnings to differ materially from those contemplated by the forward-looking statements include, but are not limited to, those discussed under "Risk Factors" and those discussed in the filings of Banner that are incorporated herein by reference, as well as the following:

- those risks and uncertainties Banner discusses or identifies in its public filings with the SEC;
- the risk that the business San Juan Financial will not be integrated into the Banner corporate structure successfully or such integration may be more difficult, time-consuming or costly than expected;
- revenues following the merger may be lower than expected;
- competitive pressure among financial services companies increases significantly;
- general economic conditions are less favorable than expected;
- changes in the interest rate environment reduce interest margins and impact funding sources;
- changes in both companies' businesses during the period between now and the completion of the merger may have adverse impacts on the combined company;
- changes in market rates and prices may adversely impact the value of financial products and assets;
- legislation or regulatory environments, requirements or changes adversely affect businesses in which either company is engaged;
- litigation liabilities, including costs, expenses, settlements and judgments, may adversely affect either company or its businesses;

- deposit attrition, operating costs, customer loss and business disruption following the merger, including difficulties in maintaining relationships with employees, may be greater than expected; and
- the ability to obtain governmental approvals of the merger on the proposed terms and schedule.

Because these forward-looking statements are subject to assumptions and uncertainties, actual results may differ materially from those expressed or implied by these forward-looking statements. You are cautioned not to place undue reliance on these statements, which speak only as of the date of this document or the date of any document incorporated by reference in this document.

All subsequent written and oral forward-looking statements concerning the merger or other matters addressed in this document and attributable to Banner or San Juan Financial or any person acting on their behalf are expressly qualified in their entirety by the cautionary statements contained or referred to in this section. Except to the extent required by applicable law or regulation, Banner and San Juan Financial undertake no obligation to update these forward-looking statements to reflect events or circumstances after the date of this document or to reflect the occurrence of unanticipated events.

THE SPECIAL MEETING OF SAN JUAN FINANCIAL SHAREHOLDERS

General

This document is being furnished to San Juan Financial shareholders in connection with the solicitation of proxies by the San Juan Financial board of directors to be used at the special meeting of San Juan Financial shareholders to be held on April 27, 2007 at 5:15 p.m., local time, at Islanders Bank, Administration Bldg., 545 Park Street, Friday Harbor, Washington 98250, and at any adjournment or postponement of that meeting. This document and the enclosed form of proxy are being sent to San Juan Financial shareholders on or about March 30, 2007.

Record Date and Voting

The San Juan Financial board of directors has fixed the close of business on March 26, 2007 as the record date for determining the holders of shares of San Juan Financial common stock entitled to receive notice of and to vote at the San Juan Financial special meeting. Only holders of record of shares of San Juan Financial common stock at the close of business on that date will be entitled to vote at the San Juan Financial special meeting and at any adjournment or postponement of that meeting. At the close of business on the record date, there were 364,078 shares of San Juan Financial common stock outstanding, held by approximately 248 holders of record.

Each holder of shares of San Juan Financial common stock outstanding on the record date will be entitled to one vote for each share held of record upon each matter properly submitted at the San Juan Financial special meeting and at any adjournment or postponement of that meeting. In order for San Juan Financial to satisfy its quorum requirements, the holders of at least a majority of the total number of outstanding shares of San Juan Financial common stock entitled to vote at the meeting must be present. You will be deemed to be present if you attend the meeting or if you submit a proxy card that is received at or prior to the meeting (and not revoked as described below).

If your proxy card is properly executed and received by San Juan Financial in time to be voted at the San Juan Financial special meeting, the shares represented by your proxy card will be voted in accordance with the instructions that you mark on your proxy card. If you execute your proxy but do not provide San Juan Financial with any instructions, your shares will be voted FOR the approval and adoption of the merger agreement, FOR any adjournment or postponement of the San Juan Financial special meeting that may be necessary to solicit additional proxies and, with respect to any other proposal properly brought before the meeting, in accordance with the best judgment of the persons named in the enclosed form of proxy.

If your shares are held in street name by your broker or bank and you do not provide your broker or bank with instructions on how to vote your shares, your broker or bank will not be permitted to vote your shares, which will have the same effect as a vote against the approval and adoption of the merger agreement.

Vote Required

At the San Juan Financial special meeting, San Juan Financial shareholders will be asked to vote on the proposal to approve and adopt the merger agreement with Banner, which requires the affirmative vote of the holders of two-thirds of the outstanding shares of San Juan Financial common stock.

As noted above, approval and adoption of the merger agreement requires the affirmative vote of the holders of two-thirds of the outstanding shares of San Juan Financial common stock. Shares as to which the abstain box is selected on a proxy card will be counted as present for purposes of determining whether a quorum is present but will have the same effect as a vote against approval of the proposal. The required vote of San Juan Financial shareholders on the merger agreement is based upon the number of outstanding shares of San Juan Financial common stock, and not the number of shares that are actually voted. Accordingly, the failure to submit a proxy card or to vote in person at the San Juan Financial special meeting or the abstention from voting by San Juan Financial shareholders, or the failure of any San Juan Financial shareholder who holds shares in street name through a bank or broker to give voting instructions to such bank or broker, will have the same effect as an AGAINST vote with respect to the approval and adoption of the merger agreement.

Approval of any proposal to adjourn or postpone the meeting, if necessary, for the purpose of soliciting additional proxies may be obtained by the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the shares of San Juan Financial common stock represented at the San Juan Financial special meeting, whether or not a quorum is present.

As of the record date:

- San Juan Financial directors and executive officers and their affiliates owned and were entitled to vote approximately 102,469 shares of San Juan Financial common stock, representing approximately 28.14% of the outstanding shares of San Juan Financial common stock. The directors have agreed to vote their shares of San Juan Financial common stock in favor of the proposals to be presented at the special meeting, including the merger.
- Banner directors and executive officers and their affiliates owned and were entitled to vote no shares of San Juan Financial common stock. Banner owns no shares of San Juan Financial common stock.

Revocability of Proxies

The presence of a shareholder at the San Juan Financial special meeting will not automatically revoke that shareholder's proxy. However, a shareholder may revoke a proxy at any time prior to its exercise by:

- submitting a written revocation to San Juan Financial's corporate secretary that is received prior to the meeting;

- submitting another proxy by mail that is dated later than the original proxy and that is received prior to the meeting; or
- attending the San Juan Financial special meeting and voting in person if your shares of San Juan Financial common stock are registered in your name rather than in the name of a broker, bank or other nominee.

If your shares are held by a broker or bank, you must follow the instructions on the form you receive from your broker or bank with respect to changing or revoking your proxy.

Solicitation of Proxies

In addition to solicitation by mail, directors, officers and employees of San Juan Financial may solicit proxies for the San Juan Financial special meeting from San Juan Financial shareholders personally or by telephone and other electronic means. However, they will not be paid for soliciting such proxies. San Juan Financial also will provide persons, firms, banks and corporations holding shares in their names or in the names of nominees, which in either case are beneficially owned by others, proxy material for transmittal to such beneficial owners and will reimburse such record owners for their expenses in taking such actions.

Banner and San Juan Financial will share equally the expenses incurred in connection with the printing and mailing of this document.

THE MERGER

Background of the Merger

Periodically, the board of directors and management of San Juan Financial have reviewed San Juan Financial's future prospects from the perspective of the long-term interests of San Juan Financial and its shareholders. These reviews focused on San Juan Financial's prospects for earnings and asset growth, ability to meet liquidity demands of shareholders and the viability of independent operations in accordance with San Juan Financial's business plan. Over the years, interested parties have contacted San Juan Financial to explore the possibility of a business combination. Until the middle of 2006, San Juan Financial elected not to engage in discussions regarding these opportunities, believing that it was in the best interests of San Juan Financial and its shareholders for San Juan Financial to remain an independent entity.

In June 2006, at the request of the board Mr. Kneipp contacted McAdams Wright for assistance in developing a plan for investigating strategic alternatives available to San Juan Financial to enhance and maximize shareholder value, including a possible business combination. The board of directors also considered other methods for enhancing shareholder value, including reorganizing and electing S corporation status for federal income tax purposes. At a meeting held on June 17, 2006, the board of directors discussed at length strategic alternatives, including the possible sale of the company. Following that discussion, the board concluded that it would be in the best interests of the company and its shareholders to investigate what business combination opportunities might be available to more rapidly grow and expand San Juan Financial's business, improve the liquidity of stock in the hands of its shareholders and enhance shareholder value. As a result, the board engaged McAdams Wright as its financial advisor.

McAdams Wright worked with management and prepared a proposal for soliciting indications of interest in acquiring San Juan Financial. During these preparations the board received an unsolicited inquiry from another financial institution to discuss a potential transaction with San Juan Financial. The board met on July 18, 2006, discussed the solicitation plan and the unsolicited inquiry, and based on a report from McAdams Wright, authorized McAdams Wright to contact a limited number of qualified prospects to determine their interest in pursuing a business combination with San Juan Financial.

Between July 18, 2006 and August 30, 2006, McAdams Wright contacted six potential acquirers, including Banner and the party that had made the unsolicited inquiry, to determine their level of interest in a possible transaction with San Juan Financial. All of the parties contacted expressed interest, signed a confidentiality agreement, and were provided with confidential information about San Juan Financial. All of the parties also conducted additional preliminary due diligence and met with Mr. Kneipp and a representative of McAdams Wright. On September 21, 2006, two of the parties determined to continue exploring a potential transaction and submitted written preliminary indications of interest to San Juan Financial.

The board met on October 5, 2006 and discussed each offer in detail. The discussions included review of the proposals (including pricing and other deal terms) and information regarding the offerors, their financial performance, the nature, value and prospects for future appreciation and liquidity of the shares of common stock that would be received by San Juan Financial shareholders in the proposed transactions, among other factors. The board was assisted in its review by Sandra Gallagher-Alford, Esq. of Davis, Wright, Tremaine LLP, San Juan Financial's legal counsel, and Mr. Robert J. Rogowski of McAdams Wright. Following its consideration of the proposals, the board authorized McAdams Wright to contact the parties in order to clarify certain terms of the offers and request certain revisions.

Both parties presented revised offers on October 9, 2006. The board met on October 10, 2006 to discuss the two revised offers in detail. The board again reviewed each revised proposal, including the factors discussed at the board meeting on October 5, 2006 and including input on various issues from San Juan Financial's legal and financial advisors. Based on a review and consideration of the terms and conditions of the offers submitted, the San Juan Financial board determined that it was in the best interests of the company and its shareholders to pursue a transaction with Banner.

Between October 11, 2006 and December 13, 2006, representatives of San Juan Financial and Banner (including their respective legal counsel) negotiated the definitive transaction documents and continued their mutual due diligence review. Senior management of San Juan Financial and Banner continued to discuss the strategic and financial merits of a possible transaction. Based on these negotiations and discussions, the respective management teams of Banner and San Juan Financial agreed to recommend to their respective boards of directors a merger of San Juan Financial into Banner on terms including aggregate consideration of $6 million in cash, 819,277 shares of Banner common stock, together with dividends that would be payable on the stock component of the merger consideration after March 31, 2007 if the merger had not been completed by that date and a special distribution equal to the after tax proceeds of the sale of San Juan Financial's interest in San Juan Title LLC.

At a special meeting of San Juan Financial's board of directors on December 14, 2006, Mr. Rogowski of McAdams Wright discussed with the board the terms of the proposed transaction with Banner, including an analysis of comparable transactions and the financial position and valuation of Banner and expressed the view that the proposed transaction was fair, from a financial point of view, to San Juan Financial's shareholders. Ms. Gallagher-Alford of Davis, Wright, Tremaine LLP advised the board of their fiduciary duties and then reviewed with the board the merger agreement and related agreements that had been negotiated with Banner. Throughout the presentations, Mr. Rogowski and Ms. Gallagher-Alford responded to numerous comments and questions of the San Juan Financial board.

San Juan Financial's board considered the financial performance, stock performance, market position, growth prospects, business strategy and other matters concerning Banner. The board evaluated the proposed transaction in relation to the current value of San Juan Financial's common stock and management's estimates of the future value of San Juan Financial as an independent entity. After a thorough discussion, San Juan Financial's board determined that a business combination with Banner would provide greater enhancement to shareholder value than continuing as an independent institution, even with an S corporation reorganization and election. As a result, the board unanimously approved the merger agreement and instructed management to execute and deliver the merger agreement.

The Banner board of directors held a special meeting on December 14, 2006 and again discussed the contemplated merger. During this meeting, the Banner board of directors discussed and heard presentations from Banner management and Banner's outside advisors. Following these discussions, and review and discussion among the members of the Banner board of directors, the Banner board of directors determined that proposed transaction was in the best interests of Banner and its shareholders, and the directors voted unanimously to approve the merger with San Juan Financial.

Following completion of these board meetings, the parties and their counsel finalized the merger agreement and related documentation. The merger agreement was subsequently executed and delivered on December 18, 2006 and the transaction was announced before the market opened on the morning of December 19, 2006 in a press release issued jointly by Banner and San Juan Financial.

San Juan Financial's Reasons for the Merger; Recommendation of San Juan Financial's Board of Directors

In reaching its decision to adopt and approve the merger agreement and recommend the merger to its shareholders, the San Juan Financial board of directors consulted with San Juan Financial's management, as well as its legal and financial advisors, and considered a number of factors, including:

- the value to be received by San Juan Financial shareholders, including differing values based on fluctuating prices of Banner common stock;
- the enhanced liquidity of Banner common stock as compared to San Juan Financial common stock;
- the opportunity for each San Juan Financial shareholder to participate in the growth of the combined business through the stock component of the merger consideration;
- the opinion of McAdams Wright, San Juan Financial's financial advisor, that as of the date of the merger agreement the consideration to be received by San Juan Financial shareholders was fair from a financial point of view and McAdams Wright's presentation regarding its analyses of the business, financial condition and prospects of Banner;
- the fact that the existing management team of San Juan Financial was expected to remain in place and continue to operate San Juan Financial's business and services to its customers;
- its familiarity with the current economic climate and the conditions affecting the financial services industry and regional banks in particular, including the interest rate environment;

- its knowledge of, and the presentation of San Juan Financial senior management regarding, the respective business, operations, financial condition, earnings and prospects of San Juan Financial and Banner;
- the complementary geographic footprints of San Juan Financial and Banner, the absence of branch overlap and the fact that San Juan Financial's clients have strong ties to Seattle-Tacoma-Bellevue, Washington metropolitan areas, in which Banner has an existing presence;
- the broadened product portfolio that will become available to San Juan Financial customers;
- the expected treatment of the merger as a "reorganization" for United States federal income tax purposes, generally tax-free to the extent of Banner common stock received and taxable to the extent of cash received, by San Juan Financial shareholders;
- the terms of the merger agreement, including the non-solicitation and shareholder approval covenants;
- the approvals required from regulators and the likelihood such approvals would be received in a timely manner and without unacceptable conditions;
- the existence and nature of the voting agreements;
- the fact that some of San Juan Financial's directors and executive officers have other interests in the merger that are in addition to their interests as San Juan Financial shareholders, including as a result of change in control agreements and compensation arrangements with San Juan Financial and the manner in which they would be affected by the merger. See "Interests of San Juan Financial Executive Officers and Directors in the Merger."

The foregoing discussion of the factors considered by the San Juan Financial board of directors is not intended to be exhaustive, but, rather, includes the material factors considered by the San Juan Financial board of directors. In reaching its decision to approve the merger and the merger agreement, the San Juan Financial board of directors did not quantify or assign any relative weight to the factors considered, and individual directors may have given different weight to different factors. The San Juan Financial board of directors considered all these factors as a whole, including discussions with, and questioning of, San Juan Financial management and San Juan Financial's financial and legal advisors, and overall considered the factors to be favorable to, and to support, its determination. The San Juan Financial board of directors also relied on the experience of McAdams Wright, its financial advisor, for analyses of the financial terms of the merger and for its opinion as to the fairness of the consideration in the merger to San Juan Financial's shareholders.

For the reasons set forth above, the San Juan Financial board of directors unanimously determined that the merger, the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement are advisable and in the best interests of San Juan Financial and its shareholders, and unanimously approved and adopted the merger agreement. The San Juan Financial board of directors unanimously recommends that the San Juan Financial shareholders vote "FOR" the approval and adoption of the merger agreement.

Banner's Reasons for the Merger

The Banner board of directors has unanimously approved the merger agreement and believes that the merger joins two well-managed companies, providing strategic and financial benefits to Banner shareholders. In reaching this conclusion, the Banner board considered a number of factors, including, among other factors: the current environment in the financial services industry; its knowledge of each company's business, management team, financial condition and prospects; the potential financial impact of the merger on Banner; the impact of the transaction on Banner's footprint in the Pacific Northwest; and the need to obtain shareholder and regulatory approvals in order to complete the transaction.

Opinion of San Juan Financial's Financial Advisor

San Juan Financial retained McAdams Wright as its exclusive financial advisor pursuant to an engagement letter dated July 18, 2006, to assist it in soliciting and analyzing a possible business combination with another financial institution. McAdams Wright is a regionally recognized investment banking firm that is regularly engaged in the valuation of businesses and securities in connection with mergers and acquisitions. The San Juan Financial board selected McAdams Wright to act as San Juan Financial's exclusive financial advisor based on McAdams Wright's experience in mergers and acquisitions and in securities valuation generally.

At the December 14, 2006 meeting of San Juan Financial's Board, McAdams Wright delivered its oral and written opinion that, as of such date, the terms of the merger as set forth in the merger agreement were fair, from a financial point of view, to San Juan Financial's shareholders. The full text of McAdams Wright's opinion, which sets forth the assumptions made, matters considered, and limits on its review, is attached to this proxy statement/prospectus as Annex B. The summary of McAdams Wright's opinion in this proxy statement/prospectus is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of the opinion. San Juan Financial shareholders are urged to read the entire McAdams Wright opinion letter.

The McAdams Wright opinion is directed only to the fairness, from a financial point of view, of the consideration to be received by San Juan Financial shareholders in the merger, and does not constitute a recommendation to any San Juan Financial shareholder as to how such shareholder should vote at the special meeting. The McAdams Wright opinion is directed only to the consideration offered in the merger, and does not address the relative merits of the merger, nor does it address the Board's decision to proceed with the merger.

In rendering its opinion to San Juan Financial, McAdams Wright reviewed, among other things, the merger agreement, historical financial data of San Juan Financial, certain internal financial data and assumptions of San Juan Financial prepared for financial planning and budgeting purposes furnished by the management of San Juan Financial and, to the extent publicly available, the financial terms of certain change of control transactions involving Northwest community banks and change of control transactions on a national basis involving institutions deemed to be similar to San Juan Financial. McAdams Wright discussed with the management of San Juan Financial the financial condition, current operating results, and business outlook for San Juan Financial. McAdams Wright also reviewed certain publicly available information concerning Banner, including certain financial and securities data. McAdams Wright discussed with Banner's management the financial condition, the current operating results, and business outlook for Banner, and Banner's plans relating to San Juan Financial. In rendering its opinion, McAdams Wright relied, without independent verification, on the accuracy and completeness of all financial and other information reviewed by it and did not attempt to verify or to make any independent evaluation or appraisal of the assets of Banner or San Juan Financial, nor was it furnished any such appraisals. San Juan Financial did not impose any limitations on the scope of the McAdams Wright investigation in arriving at its opinion.

The merger agreement provides for the delivery by Banner of 819,277 shares of Banner common stock and $6,000,000 in cash to San Juan Financial shareholders. The McAdams Wright opinion is dated as of December 14, 2006, and is based on the assumption that the shares of Banner common stock to be received in the merger transaction by the San Juan Financial shareholders are valued based on the five-day average closing price of Banner common stock from November 29, 2006 through December 5, 2006, of $45.30, and that San Juan Financial shareholders will receive an aggregate consideration of $43,113,248, or approximately $118.32 per share, based on 364,078 shares of San Juan Financial common stock outstanding. McAdams Wright has expressed no opinion as to what effect fluctuations in the price of Banner common stock may have on the fairness of the merger transaction to San Juan Financial shareholders.

Methods of Analysis

McAdams Wright analyzed the total merger consideration on a fair market value basis using standard evaluation techniques (as discussed below) including the market value approach (or comparable merger multiples), relative contribution approach, accretion/dilution approach and the income approach (or net present value analysis) based on certain assumptions of projected growth of earnings and dividends and a range of discount rates from 16% to 18%.

Market Value Approach

The market value approach evaluates the price, established on an "arms-length" basis, at which knowledgeable, unrelated buyers and sellers would agree. The "hypothetical" market value for a bank with a thin market for its common stock is normally determined by comparable change-of-control transactions using financial ratios such as the average price to stockholders' equity, price to earnings, and price to total assets, adjusting for significant differences in financial performance criteria and for any lack of marketability or liquidity of the buyer. The market value in connection with the evaluation of control of a bank is determined by previous sales of small banks in the state or region. In valuing a business enterprise, when sufficient comparable trade data are available, the market value approach deserves similar weight as the income approach as discussed below.

McAdams Wright maintains a comprehensive database of prices paid for banking institutions in the Northwest, particularly Washington, Idaho, Montana and Oregon banking institutions, during 2003 through 2006. This database provides comparable pricing and financial performance data for banking institutions sold or acquired. Organized by different peer groups, these data present medians of financial performance and purchase price levels, thereby facilitating a valid comparative purchase price analysis. In analyzing the market value of San Juan Financial, McAdams Wright reviewed and evaluated price to book value multiples, price to earnings multiples, price to total assets ratios and price to deposits ratios for three samples: (1) thirty Washington, Idaho, Montana and Oregon bank transactions occurring in 2003-2006 (□Sample One□), (2) nineteen Western Washington and Western Oregon transactions from January 1, 2003 to September 30, 2006 (□Sample Two□), and (3) fifty transactions from across the United States involving sellers with total assets between $50 million and $200 million that closed during the period from January 1, 2006 through June 30, 2006 (□Sample 3□).

McAdams Wright calculated the estimated purchase price per share for the San Juan Financial/Banner transaction at $118.32, based on cash consideration of $16.48 and stock consideration of 2.25 shares of Banner common stock for each share of San Juan Financial common stock, and using the average closing price of Banner common stock for the five trading days prior to December 14, 2006, to calculate the value of the stock consideration. McAdams Wright calculated the following ratios for the merger using the appropriate San Juan Financial financial data as of September 30, 2006:

Price to Book Value	2.42 times
Price to Trailing 12 Months Earnings	19.12 times
Price to Total Assets	28.42%
Price to Deposits	19.67%

McAdams Wright calculated the same ratios using price per share data for each of the three samples. The results, and the comparison with the Banner/San Juan Financial ratios, are shown below:

Transactions	Price to Earnings	Price to Book Value	Price to Assets	Price to Deposits
Northwest Transactions	20.80x	2.34x	21.29%	16.65%
Western WA/OR Transactions	21.38x	2.42x	25.12%	18.93%
U.S. Transactions	22.20x	1.85x	20.91%	16.25%
Banner/San Juan Financial Transaction	19.12x	2.42x	28.42%	19.67%

The comparison showed that the proposed $118.32 purchase price per share compares favorably with the price to book value, price to total assets and price to deposits for all three samples. These results provide indications of fairness from a financial point of view.

Relative Contribution Approach

The relative contribution approach involves certain historical and estimated financial information for San Juan Financial and Banner and the pro forma combined entity resulting from this transaction. The following table shows the percentage contributions of each company of the indicated values to the combined company.

Percentage of Combined	Banner	San Juan
Trailing 12 Months Net Income	92.7%	7.3%
Total Assets*	95.8%	4.2%
Total Deposits*	95.5%	4.5%
Stockholders' Equity*	93.1%	6.9%
Market Value	92.8%	7.2%

* As of September 30, 2006

The proposed transaction has San Juan Financial shareholders receiving 7.2 percent of the combined purchase price and market capitalization and compares favorably with the total net income and equity percentages of 7.3 percent and 6.9 percent, respectively. Using the 6.9 percent result to calculate a price per share value for San Juan Financial, the value is $112.95 per share, a price that is lower than the $118.32 that Banner is offering San Juan Financial shareholders.

Accretion/Dilution Approach

The accretion/dilution approach is the review of pro forma earnings per share calculations for the combined company for the first year after the closing of the merger. Using the 2007 earnings per share projections for San Juan Financial as provided by San Juan Financial management, the 2007 earnings per share projections for Banner as provided by Banner management and the revenue enhancements and cost reductions estimated by San Juan Financial and Banner management to result from the merger, a pro forma 2007 adjusted earnings per share for the combined company was calculated and compared to the estimated stand-alone earnings per share projections. The analyses indicated that for the year ending December 31, 2007, the merger would be accretive to Banner's projected earnings per share. From the standpoint of a San Juan Financial shareholder, for the year ending December 31, 2007, the merger would be accretive to earnings per share. A calculation of 1% accretion to San Juan Financial projected 2007 earnings per share yields a total purchase price of $35,150,000 or $96.49 per share. The Banner proposal of $118.32 exceeds $96.49 and is another indicator of fairness. The actual results achieved by the combined company may vary from projected results and the variations may be material.

Income Approach

The income approach is sometimes referred to as the net present value or earnings analysis. One investment value method frequently used estimates the present value of an institution's future earnings or cash flow.

The investment or earnings value of any banking organization's stock is an estimate of the present value of future benefits, usually earnings, dividends, or cash flow, which will accrue to the stock. An earnings value is calculated using an annual future earning stream over a period of time of not less than five years and the residual or terminal value of the earnings stream after five years, using San Juan Financial's estimates of future growth and an appropriate capitalization or discount rate. McAdams Wright's calculations were based on an analysis of the banking industry, San Juan Financial's earnings estimates for 2006-2010, historical levels of growth and earnings, and the competitive situation in the market area of San Juan Financial. Using discount rates of 18% and 16%, acceptable discount rates considering the risk-return relationship most investors would demand for an investment of this type as of the valuation date, the "Net Present Value of Future Earnings" provided a range of $97.51 to $103.92 per share, which compares favorably with $118.32.

After subjectively weighing the market value, relative contribution, earnings per share accretion and income approaches, and with the benefit of its experience and judgment, McAdams Wright determined that in its opinion the proposed transaction was fair, from a financial point of view, to the San Juan Financial shareholders.

San Juan Financial has agreed to pay McAdams Wright a fee of $25,000 for this fairness opinion and a completion fee of approximately $290,175 (based on the March 23, 2007 closing price of Banner's common stock) that is contingent on the closing of the merger. The actual fee paid will be equal to 0.75% of the gross aggregate consideration received by San Juan Financial shareholders up to $40 million. In addition, an amount equal to 2.00% of the gross aggregate consideration beyond $40 million will be payable to McAdams Wright. The fee for the fairness opinion will be credited against any completion fee payable to McAdams Wright. In addition, San Juan Financial has agreed to reimburse McAdams Wright for its reasonable out-of-pocket expenses, including the fees and disbursements of its counsel, and to indemnify McAdams Wright against certain liabilities. During the two years preceding July 18, 2006, McAdams Wright had no other contractual relationships with San Juan Financial.

Interests of San Juan Financial's Executive Officers and Directors in the Merger

Some of the executive officers and directors of San Juan Financial have interests in the merger, which are described below, that may be in addition to, or different from, the interests of San Juan Financial shareholders generally. San Juan Financial board of directors was aware of these interests and considered them, among other matters, in approving the merger agreement and recommending that San Juan Financial shareholders vote in favor of the merger agreement.

Change in Control Payments to Be Made in Connection with the Merger to Richard W. Kneipp

Richard W. Kneipp, San Juan Financial and Islanders Bank are parties to an employment agreement dated March 1, 2005, pursuant to which Mr. Kneipp serves as the President and Chief Executive Officer of San Juan Financial and of Islanders Bank. Under the terms of this employment agreement, if either (1) during the two-year period following a change in control, such as the merger, Mr. Kneipp voluntarily terminates his employment or (2) at any time after 60 days prior to the announcement of the change in control transaction the employment of Mr. Kneipp is terminated by the company without cause, Mr. Kneipp will be entitled to receive compensation payments (based on the average total W-2 compensation for the previous two years), and continued coverage under the same or similar medical, dental and vision insurance plans, for the longer of two years following the date of termination or through March 31, 2010. The agreement provides that Mr. Kneipp will receive an additional payment equal to any tax imposed on him under Section 4999 of the Code (exclusive of any tax imposed on such reimbursement). The estimated benefit payable to Mr. Kneipp under his employment agreement if he resigned immediately after the completion of the merger would be approximately $712,571, excluding the additional payment for taxes under Section 4999 of the Code. However, as described below, Banner and Mr. Kneipp have reached an understanding that would eliminate this payment.

Islanders Bank and Mr. Kneipp are also party to a salary continuation agreement dated February 19, 2001, which provides for a series of accruals through July of 2009 at an annual rate of $32,285. Under the terms of this agreement, upon a change in control, such as the merger, the accrued benefit payable to Mr. Kneipp under this agreement would be increased by three additional plan years, but not to exceed $507,829. Assuming the merger is completed on May 1, 2007, the increase in the accrued benefit attributable to the merger would be approximately $178,381. The salary continuation agreement also provides, however, that no benefit will be paid thereunder to the extent such benefit would constitute an "excess parachute payment" within the meaning of Section 280G of the Code. Given this provision, the total benefit payable to Mr. Kneipp under the salary continuation agreement as a result of the merger (but not amounts already accrued and vested) could be reduced if Mr. Kneipp terminated his employment in connection with the merger. If Mr. Kneipp's employment terminates within two years following the completion of the merger and he becomes entitled to all payments under these agreements, the estimated total benefit to Mr. Kneipp including $329,448 that is already accrued and vested would be approximately $1,414,038, excluding the additional payment for taxes under Section 4999 of the Code.

In order to mitigate the effect of excise taxes, Mr. Kneipp and Banner have reached an understanding that Mr. Kneipp will receive a payment in the amount of $479,045 in addition to the amounts payable under the salary continuation plan described above at the time the merger is completed and will waive any future payments under his employment agreement that would constitute "excess parachute payments." As a result of this understanding, Mr. Kneipp will receive a maximum benefit of $657,426 as a result of the merger with Banner in addition to the accrued and vested amount under the salary continuation agreement). Mr. Kneipp and Banner intend to document this waiver and enter into an employment agreement, the terms of which have not been finalized, prior to the completion of the merger.

Change in Control Payments to Be Made in Connection with the Merger to Robert J. Coleman

Robert J. Coleman, San Juan Financial and Islanders Bank are parties to an employment agreement dated March 1, 2005, pursuant to which Mr. Coleman serves as the Executive Vice President, Chief Operating Officer and Secretary of San Juan Financial and of Islanders Bank. Under the terms of this employment agreement, if either (1) during the two-year period following a change in control, such as the merger, Mr. Coleman voluntarily terminates his employment or (2) at any time after 60 days prior to the announcement of the change in control transaction the employment of Mr. Coleman is terminated by the company without cause, Mr. Coleman will be entitled to receive approximately $378,495 paid in 45 equal monthly installments and continued coverage under the same or similar medical, dental and vision insurance plans, for the longer of two years following the date of termination or through March 31, 2010 and any unvested options held by Mr. Coleman will vest. Mr. Coleman currently holds an option to purchase 750 shares of San Juan Financial common stock, which is already vested with respect to 150 shares and the remainder will vest upon consummation of the merger. The net proceeds from the exercise of this option would be approximately $30,000. The agreement provides that Mr. Coleman will receive an additional payment equal to any tax imposed on him under Section 4999 of the Code (exclusive of any tax imposed on such reimbursement).

Equity Compensation Awards

Under the terms of the merger agreement, each option to purchase shares granted under the employee and director stock plans of San Juan Financial, whether vested or unvested, that is outstanding immediately prior to the merger will, upon completion of the merger be cancelled and the holder of such option, will receive an amount in cash equal to the product of (x) the excess, if any, of the per share cash consideration plus the value of the per share stock consideration over the exercise price per share of such option multiplied by (y) the total number of shares subject to such option. As of March 26, 2007, Mr. Coleman was the only holder of options. As of such date, Mr. Coleman held options to purchase 750 shares in the aggregate, 150 of which were vested and exercisable as of that date, with an exercise prices of $70 per share. Of the unvested options, all would vest automatically upon a change of control.

Indemnification and Insurance

Banner has agreed to indemnify and hold harmless each present and former director and officer of San Juan Financial to the fullest extent permitted by applicable law. Banner has also agreed, subject to certain limitations, to maintain San Juan Financial's current policy of directors' and officers' liability insurance coverage for the benefit of San Juan Financial's directors and officers for six years following the completion of the merger.

Listing of Banner Common Stock on the Nasdaq

It is a condition to the merger that the shares of Banner common stock issuable in connection with the merger be authorized for quotation on The Nasdaq Global Select Market subject to official notice of issuance.

Dissenters' Rights

The following is a brief summary of the rights under Washington law of holders of San Juan Financial common stock to dissent from the merger and receive cash payment of the fair value of their shares. This summary is not a complete discussion of the law pertaining to dissenters' rights and you should carefully read all of Chapter 23B.13 of the Washington Business Corporation Act, or WBCA, which sets forth dissenters' rights under Washington law and is attached to this document as Annex C.

If you are contemplating the possibility of dissenting from the merger, you should carefully review the text of Annex C, particularly the procedural steps required to perfect dissenters' rights, which are complex. You should also consult your legal counsel. If you do not fully and precisely satisfy the procedural requirements of the WBCA, you will lose your dissenters' rights.

The following summary of dissenters' rights is qualified in its entirety by the full text of Annex C. The following summary does not constitute any legal or other advice, nor does it constitute a recommendation that San Juan Financial shareholders exercise their dissenters' rights under WBCA Chapter 23B.13.

Requirements for Exercising Dissenters' Rights

To exercise dissenters' rights, you must:

- deliver to San Juan Financial before the vote is taken at the special meeting written notice of your intent to demand payment for your San Juan Financial common stock if the merger is completed;
- not vote your shares of San Juan Financial common stock in person or by proxy in favor of the proposal to approve and adopt the merger agreement; and
- comply with the dissenters' rights procedures described below under Procedures to Exercise Dissenters' Rights.

If you do not satisfy each of these requirements, and the merger agreement is approved and adopted at the special meeting, you will be entitled only to receive the merger consideration provided in the merger agreement.

If you are the record holder of your shares, submitting a proxy card that does not direct how the San Juan Financial common stock represented by that proxy is to be voted will result in such shares being voted in favor of the approval and adoption of the merger agreement and a waiver of your statutory dissenters' rights. In addition, voting against the proposal to approve and adopt the merger agreement will not satisfy the notice requirement referred to above with respect to dissenters' rights. You must deliver the written notice of the intent to exercise dissenters' rights to San Juan Financial at: San Juan Financial Holding Company, 225 Blair Avenue, P.O. Box 909, Friday Harbor, Washington 98250, Attention: Richard W. Kneipp, President and CEO.

Procedures to Exercise Dissenters' Rights

Within ten days after the merger is completed, San Juan Financial will deliver written notice to all shareholders who have delivered written notice under the dissenters' rights provisions and have not voted in favor of the approval and adoption of the merger agreement as described above. The notice will contain:

- the address where the demand for payment and certificates representing shares of San Juan Financial common stock must be sent and the date by which the certificates must be deposited;
- any restrictions on transfer of uncertificated shares that will apply after the demand for payment is received;
- a form for demanding payment that states the date of the first announcement to the news media or to shareholders of the terms of the merger and requires certification of the date the shareholder, or the beneficial owner on whose behalf the shareholder dissents, acquired beneficial ownership of the San Juan Financial common stock;
- the date by which San Juan Financial must receive the payment demand; and
- a copy of Chapter 23B.13 of the WBCA, which is also attached to this document as Annex C.

If you wish to assert dissenters' rights, you must demand payment by returning the form that San Juan Financial will supply to you, certify that you acquired beneficial ownership of the shares before the first announcement of the terms of the merger to the news media or shareholders, and deposit your San Juan Financial common stock certificates by the date set forth in the notice. San Juan Financial may restrict the transfer of uncertificated shares as of the date demand for payment is received. If you fail to make a demand for payment and deposit your San Juan Financial common stock certificates by the required date, you will lose the right to receive fair value for your shares under the dissenters' rights provisions, even if you filed a timely notice of intent to demand payment.

If San Juan Financial does not consummate the merger within 60 days after the date set for demanding payment and depositing share certificates, San Juan Financial will return all deposited certificates and release any transfer restrictions on uncertificated shares. If San Juan Financial does not return the deposited common stock certificates and release any transfer restrictions on uncertificated shares within 60 days after the date set, you may notify San Juan Financial in writing of your estimate of the fair value of your San Juan Financial common stock plus the amount of interest due and demand payment of your estimated amount.

Except as provided below, within 30 days of the later of the effective time of the merger or San Juan Financial's receipt of a valid demand for payment, San Juan Financial will remit to each dissenting shareholder who complied with the requirements of the WBCA the amount San Juan Financial estimates to be the fair value of the shareholder's San Juan Financial common stock, plus accrued interest. San Juan Financial will include the following information with the payment:

- annual and interim period financial statements relating to San Juan Financial;
- San Juan Financial's estimate of the fair value of the shares and a brief description of the method used to reach that estimate;
- an explanation of how the interest was calculated;
- a copy of Chapter 23B.13 of the WBCA; and
- a brief description of the procedures to be followed by a dissenting shareholder if that shareholder is dissatisfied with San Juan Financial's estimate of the fair value of the dissenting shares.

For dissenting shareholders who were not the beneficial owners of the shares of San Juan Financial common stock before December 19, 2006, the date of the first announcement to news media or San Juan Financial shareholders of the terms of the merger, San Juan Financial may withhold payment and instead send a statement setting forth its estimate of the fair value of their shares and offering to pay such amount, with interest, as a final settlement of the dissenting shareholder's demand for payment. The offer will be accompanied by an explanation of how San Juan Financial estimated fair value and calculated interest and a statement of the shareholder's rights if dissatisfied with the payment offer.

If San Juan Financial fails to make payment or consummate the merger and return deposited certificates and release transfer restrictions on uncertificated shares within 60 days after the date set for demanding payment or if you are dissatisfied with your payment or offer for payment, you may, within 30 days of the payment or offer, notify San Juan Financial in writing of your estimate of fair value of your shares and the amount of interest due and demand payment of your estimate. If any dissenting shareholder's demand for payment is not settled within 60 days after receipt by San Juan Financial of his or her payment demand, Section 23B.13.300 of the WBCA requires that San Juan Financial commence a proceeding in King County Superior Court and petition the court to determine the fair value of the shares and accrued interest, naming all the dissenting shareholders whose demands remain unsettled as parties to the proceeding.

The court may appoint one or more appraisers to receive evidence and make recommendations to the court as to the amount of the fair value of the shares. The fair value of the shares may be less than, equal to, or greater than the market value of the cash and Banner common stock to be delivered upon completion of the merger. If the court determines that the fair value of the shares is in excess of any amount remitted by San Juan Financial, then the court will enter a judgment for cash in favor of the dissenting shareholders in an amount by which the value determined by the court, plus interest, exceeds the amount previously remitted.

The court will determine the costs and expenses of the court proceeding and assess them against San Juan Financial, except that the court may assess part or all of the costs against any dissenting shareholders whose actions in demanding payment are found by the court to be arbitrary, vexatious or not in good faith. If the court finds that San Juan Financial did not substantially comply with the relevant provisions of Sections 23B.13.200 through 23B.13.280 of the WBCA, the court may also assess against San Juan Financial any fees and expenses of attorneys or experts that the court deems equitable. The court may also assess those fees and expenses against any party if the court finds that the party has acted arbitrarily, vexatiously or not in good faith in bringing the proceedings. The court may award, in its discretion, fees and expenses of an attorney for the dissenting shareholders out of the amount awarded to the shareholders, if it finds the services of the attorney were of substantial benefit to the other dissenting shareholders and that those fees should not be assessed against San Juan Financial.

A shareholder of record may assert dissenters' rights as to fewer than all of the shares registered in the shareholder's name only if the shareholder dissents with respect to all shares beneficially owned by any one person and notifies San Juan Financial in writing of the name and address of each person on whose behalf the shareholder asserts dissenters' rights. The rights of the partial dissenting shareholder are determined as if the shares as to which the shareholder dissents and the shareholder's other shares were registered in the names of different shareholders. Beneficial owners of San Juan Financial common stock who desire to exercise dissenters' rights themselves must dissent with respect to all the shares they beneficially own or have the power to direct the vote and must obtain and submit the record shareholder's written consent to the dissent at or before the time they file the notice of intent to demand fair value.

For purposes of the WBCA, "fair value" means the value of San Juan Financial common stock immediately before the effective time of the merger, excluding any appreciation or depreciation in anticipation of the merger, unless that exclusion would be inequitable. Under Section 23B.13.020 of the WBCA, a San Juan Financial shareholder has no right, at law or in equity, to set aside the approval and adoption of the merger agreement and or the consummation of the merger except if the approval, adoption or consummation fails to comply with the procedural requirements of Chapter 23B.13 of the WBCA, San Juan Financial's articles of incorporation or San Juan Financial's bylaws, or was fraudulent with respect to that shareholder or San Juan Financial.

ACCOUNTING TREATMENT

The merger will be accounted for using the purchase method of accounting with Banner treated as the acquiror. Under this method of accounting, San Juan Financials' assets and liabilities will be recorded by Banner at their respective fair values as of the closing date of the merger. Financial statements of Banner issued after the merger will reflect such values and will not be restated retroactively to reflect the historical financial position or results of operations of San Juan Financial.

REGULATORY APPROVALS

Banner and San Juan Financial have agreed to use their reasonable best efforts to obtain all regulatory approvals required to complete the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement. These approvals include approval from the Federal Reserve Board. Banner and San Juan Financial have completed the filing of all applications and notices required in order to complete the merger.

Federal Reserve Board

The merger is subject to prior approval by the Federal Reserve Board under Section 3 of the Bank Holding Company Act of 1956, as amended, which we refer to as the "BHCA." The BHCA prohibits the Federal Reserve Board from approving a merger under Section 3 of the BHCA if (1) it would result in a monopoly or be in furtherance of any combination or conspiracy to monopolize or to attempt to monopolize the business of banking in any part of the United States or (2) its effect in any section of the country would be substantially to lessen competition or to tend to create a monopoly, or if it would in any other respect result in a restraint of trade, unless the Federal Reserve Board finds that the anti-competitive effects of the merger are clearly outweighed by the probable effect of the transaction in meeting the convenience and needs of the communities to be served.

Section 3 of the BHCA requires the Federal Reserve Board, when considering transactions such as the merger, to consider the financial and managerial resources of Banner and San Juan Financial and their depository institution subsidiaries, the effect of the merger on the convenience and needs of the communities to be served, and the institutions' effectiveness in combating money laundering activities. As part of its consideration of these factors, we expect that the Federal Reserve Board will consider the regulatory status of Banner Bank and Islanders Bank, including legal and regulatory compliance and the adequacy of the capital levels of the parties and the resulting institution.

Under the Community Reinvestment Act of 1977, as amended, the Federal Reserve Board will take into account the records of performance of the insured depository institution subsidiaries of Banner and San Juan Financial in meeting the credit needs of the communities served by such institutions, including low and moderate income neighborhoods. Each of the depository institution subsidiaries of Banner and San Juan Financial has received either an outstanding or a satisfactory rating in its most recent Community Reinvestment Act performance evaluation from its federal regulator.

The Federal Reserve Board will furnish notice and a copy of the application for approval of the merger to the Washington Department of Financial Institutions, Division of Banks, which we refer to as the "WDFI," and the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation, which we refer to as the "FDIC." The WDFI and the FDIC have 30 days to submit their views and recommendations to the Federal Reserve Board. The Federal Reserve Board is required to hold a public hearing in the event it receives a written recommendation of disapproval of the application from the WDFI or FDIC within this 30-day period. A copy of the application is also provided to the United States Department of Justice, or "DOJ," which will review the merger for adverse effects on competition. Furthermore, applicable federal law provides for the publication of notice and opportunity for public comment on the application. The Federal Reserve Board frequently receives comments and protests from community groups and others and may, in its discretion, choose to hold public hearings or a meeting on the application. Any hearing or meeting or comments provided by third parties could prolong the period during which the application is under review by the Federal Reserve Board.

The merger may not be completed until the 30th day after the Federal Reserve Board has approved the transaction, which may be reduced to 15 days by the Federal Reserve Board with the concurrence of the Attorney General of the United States. The commencement of an antitrust action by the DOJ would stay the effectiveness of the Federal Reserve Board's approval unless a court specifically orders otherwise.

We cannot assure you that all of the regulatory approvals described above will be obtained and, if obtained, we cannot assure you as to the timing of such approvals or our ability to obtain the approvals on satisfactory terms. The parties' obligation to complete the merger is conditioned upon the receipt of all required regulatory approvals. See "The Merger Agreement—Conditions to Complete the Merger."

We are not aware of any material governmental approvals or actions that are required for completion of the merger other than those described above. It is presently contemplated that if any such additional governmental approvals or actions are required, those approvals or actions will be sought. There can be no assurance, however, that any additional approvals or actions will be obtained.

MATERIAL U.S. FEDERAL INCOME TAX CONSEQUENCES OF THE MERGER

The following section describes the anticipated material U.S. federal income tax consequences of the merger to U.S. holders (as defined below) of San Juan Financial common stock. This discussion addresses only those holders that hold their San Juan Financial common stock as a capital asset within the meaning of Section 1221 of the Internal Revenue Code, as amended in 1986 (the "Code"), and does not address all the U.S. federal income tax consequences that may be relevant to particular holders in light of their individual circumstances or to holders that are subject to special rules, such as financial institutions, mutual funds, insurance companies, partnerships or other pass-through entities (and persons holding San Juan Financial common stock through a partnership or other pass-through entity), tax-exempt organizations, brokers or dealers in securities or currencies, persons whose functional currency is not the U.S. dollar, traders in securities that elect to use a mark to market method of accounting, expatriates or former long-term residents of the United States, persons that hold San Juan Financial common stock as part of a straddle, hedge, constructive sale, or conversion or other risk-reduction transaction and U.S. holders who acquired their shares of San Juan Financial common stock through the exercise of an employee stock option or otherwise as compensation.

The following is based upon the Code, its legislative history, Treasury regulations promulgated under the Code and published rulings and decisions, all as currently in effect as of the date of this document, and all of which are subject to change, possibly with retroactive effect, and to differing interpretations. Tax considerations under state, local and foreign laws, or federal laws other than those pertaining to income tax, are not addressed in this discussion.

Holders of San Juan Financial common stock are strongly urged to consult with their own tax advisors as to the tax consequences of the merger in their particular circumstances, including the applicability and effect of the alternative minimum tax and any state, local or foreign and other tax laws and of changes in those laws.

For purposes of this discussion, the term "U.S. holder" means a beneficial owner of San Juan Financial common stock that is for U.S. federal income tax purposes:

- a U.S. citizen or resident;
- a corporation, or entity taxable as a corporation, created or organized in or under the laws of the United States, any state thereof or the District of Columbia;
- an estate the income of which is subject to United States federal income tax regardless of its source; or
- a trust if either (a) it is subject to the primary supervision of a court within the United States and one or more U.S. persons have the authority to control all substantial decisions of the trust or (b) it has a valid election in effect under applicable Treasury regulations to be treated as a U.S. person.

Tax Consequences of the Merger Generally

Banner and San Juan Financial have structured the merger to qualify as a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Code. It is a condition to Banner's obligation to complete the merger that Banner receive an opinion of its counsel, Wachtell, Lipton, Rosen & Katz, dated the closing date of the merger, to the effect that the merger will be treated as a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Code. It is a condition to San Juan Financial's obligation to complete the merger that San Juan Financial receive an opinion of its counsel, Davis Wright Tremaine LLP, dated the closing date of the merger, to the effect that the merger will be treated as a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Code. These opinions will be based on facts, representations and assumptions set forth or referred to in the opinion and representations contained in certificates to be received from Banner and San Juan Financial. None of the tax opinions given in connection with the merger or the opinions described below will be binding on the Internal Revenue Service, and neither Banner nor San Juan Financial intends to request any ruling from the Internal Revenue Service as to the U.S. federal income tax consequences of the merger.

Consequently, no assurance can be given that the Internal Revenue Service will not assert, or that a court would not sustain, a position contrary to any of those set forth below. In addition, if any of the facts, representations or assumptions upon which those opinions are based is inconsistent with the actual facts, the U.S. federal income tax consequences of the merger could be adversely affected. It is assumed for purposes of the remainder of the discussion that the merger will qualify as a reorganization within the meaning of the Code. Based on this assumption, the following material U.S. federal tax consequences will result from the merger:

- for a U.S. holder receiving a combination of Banner common stock and cash (other than cash received instead of a fractional share), gain (but not loss) will be recognized, and the gain recognized will be equal to the lesser of:
 - the excess, if any, of:
 - the sum of the cash and the fair market value of the Banner common stock the U.S. holder received in the merger, over
 - the tax basis in the shares of San Juan Financial common stock surrendered by the U.S. holder in the merger, or
 - the amount of cash received;
- any capital gain or loss generally will be long-term capital gain or loss if the U.S. holder held the shares of San Juan Financial common stock for more than one year at the time the merger is completed. Long-term capital gain of an individual generally is subject to a maximum U.S. federal income tax rate of 15%. The deductibility of capital losses is subject to limitations. In some cases, such as if the U.S. holder actually or constructively owns Banner common stock immediately before the merger, such gain could be treated as having the effect of the distribution of a dividend under the tests set forth in Section 302 of the Code, in which case such gain would be treated as ordinary dividend income. These rules are complex and dependent upon the specific factual circumstances particular to each U.S. holder. Consequently, each U.S. holder should consult its tax advisor as to the application of these rules to the particular facts relevant to such U.S. holder; and

- no gain or loss will be recognized by Banner or San Juan Financial in the merger.

Tax Basis and Holding Period

A U.S. holder's aggregate tax basis in the Banner common stock received in the merger, including any fractional share interests deemed received and redeemed by the U.S. holder under the treatment described below, will equal its aggregate tax basis in the San Juan Financial common stock surrendered in the merger, increased by the amount of taxable gain or dividend income, if any, recognized in the merger (excluding any gain resulting from the deemed receipt and redemption of a fractional share interest as described below), and decreased by the amount of cash, if any, received in the merger (excluding any cash received instead of a fractional share interest). The holding period for the shares of Banner common stock received in the merger generally will include the holding period for the shares of San Juan Financial common stock exchanged therefor. For a U.S. holder who acquired different blocks of San Juan Financial common stock at different times and at different prices, realized gain or loss generally must be calculated separately for each identifiable block of shares exchanged in the merger, and a loss realized on the exchange of one block of shares cannot be used to offset a gain realized on the exchange of another block of shares. If a U.S. holder has differing bases or holding periods in respect of shares of San Juan Financial common stock, the U.S. holder should consult its tax advisor prior to the exchange with regard to identifying the bases or holding periods of the particular shares of Banner common stock received in the merger.

Cash Received Instead of a Fractional Share of Banner Common Stock

A U.S. holder who receives cash instead of a fractional share of Banner common stock will be treated as having received the fractional share of Banner common stock pursuant to the merger and then as having exchanged the fractional share of Banner common stock for cash in a redemption by Banner. In general, this deemed redemption will be treated as a sale or exchange, provided the redemption is not essentially equivalent to a dividend. The determination of whether a redemption is essentially equivalent to a dividend depends upon whether and to what extent the redemption reduces the U.S. holder's deemed percentage stock ownership of Banner. While this determination is based on each U.S. holder's particular facts and circumstances, the Internal Revenue Service has ruled that a redemption is not essentially equivalent to a dividend and will therefore result in sale or exchange treatment in the case of a shareholder of a publicly held company whose relative stock interest is minimal and who exercises no control over corporate affairs if the redemption results in any actual reduction in the stock interest of the shareholder. As a result, the redemption of a fractional share of Banner common stock generally is treated as a sale or exchange and not as a dividend, and a U.S. holder generally will recognize capital gain or loss equal to the difference between the amount of cash received and the basis in its fractional share of Banner common stock as set forth above. This capital gain or loss generally will be long-term capital gain or loss if, as of the effective date of the merger, the holding period for the shares is greater than one year. The deductibility of capital losses is subject to limitations.

Information Reporting and Backup Withholding

Cash payments received in the merger by a U.S. holder may, under certain circumstances, be subject to information reporting and backup withholding at a rate of 28% of the cash payable to the holder, unless the holder provides proof of an applicable exemption or furnishes its taxpayer identification number, and otherwise complies with all applicable requirements of the backup withholding rules. Any amounts withheld from payments to a holder under the backup withholding rules are not additional tax and will be allowed as a refund or credit against the U.S. holder's U.S. federal income tax liability, provided the required information is timely furnished to the Internal Revenue Service.

Reporting Requirements

A U.S. holder who receives Banner common stock as a result of the merger will be required to retain records pertaining to the merger and will be required to file with its United States federal income tax returns for the year in which the merger takes place a statement setting forth certain facts relating to the merger.

THE MERGER AGREEMENT

The following is a summary of the material provisions of the merger agreement. This summary is qualified in its entirety by reference to the merger agreement, a copy of which is attached as Annex A to this document and is incorporated into this document by reference. You should read the merger agreement in its entirety, as it is the legal document governing this merger.

The Merger

Each of the Banner board of directors and the San Juan Financial board of directors has unanimously approved the merger agreement, which provides for the merger of San Juan Financial with and into Banner. Banner will be the surviving corporation in the merger. Each share of Banner common stock issued and outstanding at the effective time of the merger will remain issued and outstanding as one share of common stock of Banner, and each share of San Juan Financial common stock issued and outstanding at the effective time of the merger will be converted into a combination of cash and Banner common stock, as described below. See Consideration To Be Received in the Merger.

The Banner articles of incorporation will be the articles of incorporation, and the Banner bylaws will be the bylaws, of the combined company after the completion of the merger.

Effective Time and Completion of the Merger

The completion of the merger is expected to take place within five business days after the satisfaction or waiver of all the conditions to closing.

We currently expect that the merger will be completed in the second quarter of 2007, subject to San Juan Financial shareholders' approval and adoption of the merger agreement, the receipt of all necessary regulatory approvals and the expiration of all regulatory waiting periods prior to such date. However, completion of the merger could be delayed if there is a delay in obtaining the required regulatory approvals or in satisfying any other conditions to the merger. There can be no assurances as to whether, or when, Banner and San Juan Financial will obtain the required approvals or complete the merger.

Consideration To Be Received in the Merger

As a result of the merger, each San Juan Financial shareholder will receive with respect to each share of San Juan Financial common stock held, subject to the adjustments described below, merger consideration consisting of:

- cash in an amount equal to $6,000,000 divided by the number of San Juan Financial shares outstanding at the time the merger is completed (this amount is sometimes referred to as the cash consideration per share);
- that number of shares of Banner common stock equal to 819,277 divided by the number of San Juan Financial shares outstanding at the time the merger is completed (except that cash shall be issued in lieu of any fractional shares of Banner common stock) (this amount is sometimes referred to as the "stock consideration per share"); and

- if the merger is completed after March 31, 2007, an additional amount in cash equal to the value of any dividends and distributions declared by the Banner board of directors on Banner common stock with a record date after March 31, 2007 and prior to the date the merger is completed that would have been payable with respect to 819,277 shares of Banner common stock, divided by the number of San Juan Financial shares of common stock outstanding at the time the merger is completed.

The aggregate value of the merger consideration will fluctuate with the market price of Banner common stock. In addition:

- if the price of Banner common stock at the time the merger is completed is between $36 and $38, Banner will deliver additional cash or additional shares Banner common stock such that the aggregate merger consideration to be received by San Juan Financial shareholders will have a value of $37,132,526, which is equal to $6,000,000 plus 819,277 shares of Banner common stock valued at $38 per share;
- if the price of Banner common stock at the time the merger is completed is between $46 and $50, Banner will deliver less cash or fewer shares of Banner common stock such that the aggregate merger consideration to be received by San Juan Financial shareholders will have a value of $43,686,742, which is equal to $6,000,000 plus 819,277 shares of Banner common stock valued at $46 per share; and
- if the price of Banner common stock at the time the merger is completed is less than $36 or more than $50, then the merger agreement may terminate or be terminated under certain circumstances, even if the merger agreement and merger have been previously approved by the San Juan Financial shareholders. See "The Merger Agreement" Termination of the Merger Agreement.

Stock Options and Other Stock-Based Awards

Each outstanding option to acquire San Juan Financial common stock granted under San Juan Financial's stock option and incentive plans will be converted automatically at the effective time of the merger into the right to receive a lump-sum cash payment, which will be in addition to the cash payments to San Juan Financial shareholders for their shares of San Juan Financial common stock. The amount of this cash payment will be equal to the excess of the sum of the cash consideration per share plus the value of the stock consideration per share over the exercise price of such option, less any applicable withholding, for each underlying share of San Juan Financial common stock.

Each outstanding restricted share of San Juan Financial common stock will be converted automatically at the effective time of the merger into the right to receive, on the same terms and conditions as applied to such restricted shares immediately prior to the effective time of the merger (including transfer restrictions), the merger consideration described above, subject to Banner's right to deduct and withhold any amounts required under the Code or applicable state or local tax law when the restrictions on such restricted shares lapse.

Conversion of Shares; Exchange of Certificates

The conversion of San Juan Financial common stock into the right to receive the merger consideration will occur automatically at the effective time of the merger. As soon as reasonably practicable after the effective time of the merger, the exchange agent will exchange certificates representing shares of San Juan Financial common stock for merger consideration to be received in the merger pursuant to the terms of the merger agreement. Computershare will be the exchange agent in the merger, exchange certificates for the merger consideration and perform other duties as explained in the merger agreement.

Letter of Transmittal

Soon after the completion of the merger, the exchange agent will send a letter of transmittal to San Juan Financial shareholders at the effective time of the merger. This mailing will contain instructions on how to surrender shares of San Juan Financial common stock in exchange for the merger consideration the holder is entitled to receive under the merger agreement.

If a certificate for San Juan Financial common stock has been lost, stolen or destroyed, the exchange agent will issue the consideration properly payable under the merger agreement upon receipt of appropriate evidence as to that loss, theft or destruction, appropriate evidence as to the ownership of that certificate by the claimant, and appropriate and customary indemnification.

Withholding

The exchange agent will be entitled to deduct and withhold from the cash consideration or cash instead of fractional shares, cash dividends or distributions payable to any San Juan Financial shareholder the amounts it is required to deduct and withhold under any federal, state, local or foreign tax law. If the exchange agent withholds any amounts, these amounts will be treated for all purposes of the merger as having been paid to the shareholders from whom they were withheld.

Dividends and Distributions

Until San Juan Financial common stock certificates are surrendered for exchange, any dividends or other distributions declared after the effective time with respect to Banner common stock into which shares of San Juan Financial common stock may have been converted will accrue but will not be paid. Banner will pay to former San Juan Financial shareholders any unpaid dividends or other distributions, without interest, only after they have duly surrendered their San Juan Financial stock certificates.

Prior to the effective time of the merger, San Juan Financial and its subsidiaries may not declare or pay any dividend or distribution on their capital stock or repurchase any shares of their capital stock, other than:

- dividends paid by any of the subsidiaries of San Juan Financial to San Juan Financial or to any of its wholly owned subsidiaries;
- the acceptance of shares of San Juan Financial common stock in payment of the exercise of a stock option of San Juan Financial common stock granted under a San Juan Financial stock plan, in accordance with past practice; and
- a special distribution in an amount equal to the net after-tax proceeds realized as a result of the disposition of San Juan Financial's interest in San Juan Title LLC (which disposition San Juan Financial will use reasonable best efforts to complete).

Representations and Warranties

The merger agreement contains generally customary representations and warranties of Banner and San Juan Financial relating to their respective businesses. Certain representations and warranties are qualified by the likelihood of a material adverse effect. In determining whether a material adverse effect has occurred or is reasonably likely, the parties will disregard any effects resulting from (1) changes in generally accepted accounting principles or regulatory accounting requirements applicable to banks or savings associations and their holding companies generally, (2) changes in laws, rules or regulations of general applicability or their interpretations by courts or governmental entities, (3) changes in global or national political conditions or in general economic or market conditions affecting banks or their holding companies generally, except to the extent that such changes have a materially disproportionate adverse effect on such party, (4) public disclosure of the merger, (5) changes in national or international political or social conditions including the engagement by the United States in hostilities, whether or not pursuant to the declaration of a national emergency or war, or the occurrence of any military or terrorist attack upon or within the United States, or any of its territories, possessions or diplomatic or consular offices or upon any military installation, equipment or personnel of the United States, except to the extent such changes affect such party disproportionately or (6) actions or omissions of a party taken with the prior written consent of the other party in contemplation of the merger.

The representations and warranties of each of Banner and San Juan Financial have been made solely for the benefit of the other party and such representations and warranties should not be relied on by any other person. In addition, such representations and warranties:

- have been qualified by information set forth in confidential disclosure schedules exchanged by the parties in connection with signing the merger agreement—the information contained in these schedules modifies, qualifies and creates exceptions to the representations and warranties in the merger agreement;

- will not survive consummation of the merger and cannot be the basis for any claims under the merger agreement by the other party after termination of the merger agreement except if willfully false as of the date of the merger agreement;
- may be intended not as statements of fact, but rather as a way of allocating the risk to one of the parties to the merger agreement if those statements turn out to be inaccurate;
- are subject to materiality standards that may differ from what may be viewed as material by you; and
- were made only as of the date of the merger agreement or such other date as is specified in the merger agreement.

Each of Banner and San Juan Financial has made representations and warranties to the other regarding, among other things:

- corporate matters, including due organization and qualification;
- capitalization;
- authority relative to execution and delivery of the merger agreement and the absence of conflicts with, or violations of, organizational documents or other obligations as a result of the merger;
- governmental filings and consents necessary to complete the merger;
- the timely filing of regulatory reports, and the absence of investigations by regulatory agencies;
- financial statements and the absence of undisclosed liabilities;
- brokers' fees payable in connection with the merger;
- the absence of material adverse effects;
- legal proceedings;
- tax matters;
- compliance with applicable laws;
- risk management instruments;
- investment securities;
- loan and mortgage portfolios;

- real property;
- intellectual property;
- environmental liabilities;
- tax treatment of the merger; and
- the accuracy of information supplied for inclusion in this document and other similar documents.

In addition, San Juan Financial has made representations and warranties to Banner as to employee matters and benefit plans, matters relating to certain contracts, the inapplicability of state takeover laws and the receipt of an opinion from its financial advisor.

The representations described above and included in the merger agreement were made for purposes of the merger agreement and are subject to qualifications and limitations agreed to by the respective parties in connection with negotiating the terms of the merger agreement. In addition, certain representations and warranties were made as of a specific date, may be subject to a contractual standard of materiality different from what might be viewed as material to shareholders, or may have been used for purposes of allocating risk between the respective parties rather than establishing matters as facts. This description of the representations and warranties, and their reproduction in the copy of the merger agreement attached to this document as Annex A, are included solely to provide investors with information regarding the terms of the merger agreement. Accordingly, the representations and warranties and other provisions of the merger agreement should not be read alone, but instead should only be read together with the information provided elsewhere in this document and in the documents incorporated by reference into this document, including the periodic and current reports and statements that Banner files with the SEC. See [Where You Can Find More Information] on page 67.

Conduct of Business Pending the Merger

Each of Banner and San Juan Financial has undertaken customary covenants that place restrictions on us and our respective subsidiaries until the effective time of the merger. San Juan Financial further has agreed that, with certain exceptions, San Juan Financial will not, and will not permit any of its subsidiaries to, among other things, undertake the following actions without the prior written consent of Banner (which shall not be unreasonably withheld):

- take any action or knowingly fail to take any action reasonably likely to prevent the merger from qualifying as a reorganization for federal income tax purposes;
- amend its articles of incorporation or bylaws, or otherwise take any action to exempt any person or entity (other than Banner) or any action taken by any person or entity from any takeover statute or similarly restrictive provisions of its organizational documents or terminate, amend or waive any provisions of any confidentiality or standstill agreements in place with any third parties;

- take certain actions that would affect the interest rate risk characteristics of San Juan Financial's assets and liabilities;
- commence or settle any material claim, except in the ordinary course of business and without imposing operating restrictions on the conduct of San Juan Financial's business;

- create, renew, amend, terminate or cancel any San Juan Financial contract other than in the ordinary course of business consistent with past practice or enter into any contract providing either for benefits payable to San Juan Financial officers or employees as a result of the approval or consummation of the merger or that includes any non-competition, non-solicitation, exclusive dealing or similar agreement or obligation; and
- agree to take, or adopt any resolutions by the board of directors in support of, any of the actions prohibited by the preceding bullet points.

Banner has agreed that, with certain exceptions, except with San Juan Financial's prior written consent, Banner will not, and will not permit its subsidiaries to, (1) amend, repeal or otherwise modify Banner's articles of incorporation or bylaws in a manner that would adversely affect San Juan Financial or the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement, (2) take any action, or knowingly fail to take any action, that would be reasonably likely to prevent the merger from qualifying as a reorganization for tax purposes, (3) take any action, or fail to take any action, that is intended or may reasonably be expected to result in any of the closing conditions not being satisfied or (4) agree to take, make any commitment to take, or adopt any resolutions of its board of directors in support of, any of the foregoing actions.

The merger agreement also contains mutual covenants relating to the preparation of this document, access to information of the other company and public announcements with respect to the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement.

Reasonable Best Efforts

Banner and San Juan Financial have agreed to cooperate fully with each other and to use reasonable best efforts to take, or cause to be taken, all actions, and to do, or cause to be done, all things necessary, proper or advisable to consummate and make effective, at the time and in the manner contemplated by the merger agreement, the merger.

San Juan Financial has agreed to hold a meeting of its shareholders as soon as is reasonably practicable for the purpose of obtaining shareholder approval of the merger agreement. San Juan Financial will use its reasonable best efforts to obtain such approval. San Juan Financial has agreed that it has an unqualified obligation to submit the merger agreement to a vote of its shareholders.

No Solicitation of Alternative Transactions

San Juan Financial has agreed that it, its subsidiaries and their respective officers and directors, will not, and will not knowingly permit their employees, agents or representatives, directly or indirectly to:

- solicit, initiate, encourage or facilitate (including by furnishing information), or take any other action designed to facilitate, any [alternative proposal] (as defined below); or
- participate in any discussions or negotiations, or enter into any agreement, regarding any [alternative transaction] (as defined below).

However, prior to the shareholders' meeting, San Juan Financial may respond to, furnish information with respect to, consider and participate in discussions or negotiations with respect to a written alternative proposal if:

- it has first entered into a confidentiality agreement with the party proposing the alternative proposal on terms substantially similar to, and no less favorable to San Juan Financial, as applicable, than, the confidentiality agreement by San Juan Financial in favor of Banner; and
- the San Juan Financial board of directors reasonably determines in good faith after consultation with outside legal counsel, that failure to do so could reasonably cause it to violate its fiduciary duties.

Upon having received an alternative proposal, the board of directors of San Juan Financial may withdraw or modify its recommendation of the merger agreement if and only to the extent that the board of directors reasonably determines in good faith after consultation with outside legal counsel that the failure to do so would cause it to violate its fiduciary duties. San Juan Financial is nonetheless obligated to submit the merger agreement to its shareholders.

In addition, San Juan Financial has agreed:

- to notify Banner promptly (but in no event later than 48 hours) after it receives any alternative proposal, or any material change to any alternative proposal, or any request for nonpublic information relating to it or any of its subsidiaries, and to provide Banner with relevant information regarding the alternative proposal or request;
- to keep Banner fully informed of any material changes in the status and terms of any such alternative proposal; and
- to cease any existing discussions or negotiations with any persons with respect to any alternative proposal, and to use reasonable best efforts to cause all persons (other than Banner) who had been furnished with confidential information in connection with an alternative proposal within 12 months prior to the date of the merger agreement to return or destroy such information.

As used in the merger agreement, "alternative proposal" means any inquiry or proposal regarding any merger, share exchange, consolidation, sale of assets, sale of shares of capital stock (including by way of a tender offer) or similar transactions involving San Juan Financial or any of its subsidiaries that, if completed, would constitute an alternative transaction.

As used in the merger agreement, "alternative transaction" means any of the following:

- a transaction pursuant to which any person or group (other than Banner or its affiliates) directly or indirectly, acquires or would acquire more than 30% of the outstanding shares of San Juan Financial or its subsidiaries or outstanding voting power or of any new series or new class of preferred stock that would be entitled to a class or series vote with respect to a merger of San Juan Financial or any of its subsidiaries, whether from San Juan Financial or any of its subsidiaries or pursuant to a tender offer or exchange offer or otherwise;
- a merger, share exchange, consolidation or other business combination involving San Juan Financial or any of its subsidiaries (other than the merger of Banner and San Juan Financial); or
- any transaction pursuant to which any person or group (other than Banner or its affiliates) acquires or would acquire assets (including for this purpose the outstanding equity securities of subsidiaries of San Juan Financial and securities of the entity surviving any merger or business combination including any of San Juan Financial's subsidiaries) of San Juan Financial, or any of its subsidiaries representing more than 25% of the fair market value of all the assets of San Juan Financial and its subsidiaries, taken as a whole, immediately prior to such transaction.

Employee Matters

Banner has agreed that for the one-year period following the closing of the merger, with respect to the employees of San Juan Financial and its subsidiaries at the effective time, it will provide such employees in the aggregate with employee benefits that are substantially comparable in the aggregate to the aggregate employee benefits provided to such employees pursuant to San Juan Financial's benefit plans as in effect immediately prior to the merger. Such employees will also be permitted to participate in Banner's employee stock ownership plan. In addition, prior to the effective time of the merger, Banner will develop a retention bonus plan reasonably satisfactory to San Juan Financial to be adopted by Banner as of completion of the merger.

In addition, Banner has agreed, to the extent any San Juan Financial employee becomes eligible to participate in Banner benefit plans following the merger:

- generally to recognize each employee's service with San Juan Financial prior to the completion of the merger for purposes of eligibility to participate, vesting credit, entitlement to benefits and levels of benefits (except, in certain circumstances, under defined benefit pension plans or frozen post-retirement welfare plans), in each case under the Banner plans to the same extent such service was recognized under comparable San Juan Financial plans prior to the completion of the merger;
- to waive any waiting period, limitation, evidence of insurability requirement or exclusion for pre-existing conditions under any Banner medical, health, dental or disability benefit plans, to the extent such limitation, exclusion or requirement would have been waived or satisfied under a corresponding San Juan Financial plan in which such employee participated immediately prior to the effective time, and to take all necessary steps to ensure that San Juan Financial employees do not suffer a lapse in such benefits; and
- recognize any medical, health or dental expenses incurred in the year in which the merger closes for purposes of applicable deductible and annual out-of-pocket expense requirements under any medical, health or dental plan of Banner.

Banner has no obligation to continue the employment of any San Juan Financial employee for any period following the merger.

Indemnification and Insurance

The merger agreement requires Banner to maintain in effect after completion of the merger the current rights of current and former directors and officers of San Juan Financial or its subsidiaries (or of another person if such service is requested by San Juan Financial or its subsidiaries) to indemnification under San Juan Financial's or its subsidiaries' charter documents or existing indemnification agreements. The merger agreement also provides that, upon completion of the merger, Banner will indemnify and hold harmless, and provide advancement of expenses to, the same individuals against all losses, claims, damages, costs, expenses, liabilities, judgments or amounts paid in settlement to the fullest extent permitted by applicable laws.

The merger agreement provides that Banner will maintain for a period of six years after completion of the merger San Juan Financial's current directors' and officers' liability insurance policies, or policies of at least the same coverage and amount and containing terms and conditions that are not less advantageous than the current policy, with respect to acts or omissions occurring prior to the effective time of the merger, subject to specified cost limitations.

Conditions to Complete the Merger

Our respective obligations to complete the merger are subject to the fulfillment or waiver of mutual conditions, including:

- the approval and adoption of the merger agreement by the San Juan Financial shareholders;
- the approval of the quotation of Banner common stock to be issued in the merger on the Nasdaq, subject to official notice of issuance;
- the effectiveness of the registration statement with respect to the Banner common stock to be issued in the merger under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended and the absence of any stop order or proceedings initiated or threatened by the SEC for that purpose; and
- the absence of any statute, regulation, rule, decree, injunction or other order in effect by any court or other governmental entity that prohibits completion of the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement.

Each of Banner's and San Juan Financial's obligations to complete the merger is also separately subject to the satisfaction or waiver of a number of conditions including:

- the receipt by the party of a legal opinion from its counsel with respect to certain federal income tax consequences of the merger;
- the receipt and effectiveness of all regulatory approvals, registrations and consents, and the expiration of all waiting periods required to complete the merger; and
- the other company's representations and warranties in the merger agreement being true and correct, subject to the applicable materiality standards contained in the merger agreement, and the performance by the other party in all material respects of its obligations under the merger agreement.

Banner's obligation to complete the merger is further subject to the condition that the regulatory approvals received in connection with the completion of the merger not include any conditions or restrictions that, in the aggregate, would reasonably be expected to have a material adverse effect on Banner or San Juan Financial, measured relative to San Juan Financial.

We cannot provide assurance as to when or if all of the conditions to the merger can or will be satisfied or waived by the appropriate party. As of the date of this document, we have no reason to believe that any of these conditions will not be satisfied.

Termination of the Merger Agreement

General

The merger agreement may be terminated at any time prior to the completion of the merger by our mutual written consent authorized by each of our boards of directors, as determined by a vote of a majority of its respective members, or by either Banner or San Juan Financial if:

- a governmental entity which must grant a regulatory approval as a condition to the merger denies approval of the merger or any governmental entity has issued an order prohibiting the merger and such action has become final and non-appealable;
- the merger is not completed by July 31, 2007 (other than because of a breach of the merger agreement caused by the party seeking termination);
- the other party breaches the merger agreement in a way that would entitle the party seeking to terminate the agreement not to consummate the merger, subject to the right of the breaching party to cure the breach within 45 days following written notice (unless it is not possible due to the nature or timing for the breach for the breaching party to cure the breach); or
- if any approval of the shareholders of San Juan Financial is not obtained at the San Juan Financial shareholders' meeting or at any adjournment or postponement of such meeting.

The merger agreement may also be terminated by Banner if San Juan Financial has materially breached its "non-solicitation" obligations, or San Juan Financial's board has failed to recommend in the proxy statement the approval of the merger agreement, publicly withdrawn or modified, or publicly announced its intention to withdraw or modify, in any manner adverse to Banner, its recommendation that its shareholders approve or adopt the merger agreement, or recommended an alternative proposal or failed to recommend against any publicly disclosed alternative proposal within ten business days or failed to call a meeting of San Juan Financial's shareholders.

The merger agreement will terminate automatically five business days after the "determination date," which will be the tenth business day prior to the anticipated closing date (or a later date if agreed by Banner and San Juan Financial) if the ten-day average closing price of Banner common stock is less than $36 unless:

- the San Juan Financial board unanimously determines otherwise within four business days of the determination date; or
- Banner elects, within five business days of the date on which the automatic termination would occur, to deliver additional merger consideration, in cash or in stock, such that the aggregate merger consideration has the value it would have had, had the price of Banner common stock been $36 at the time the merger is completed.

The merger agreement may also be terminated by Banner within two business days of the determination date if its board of directors determines (and gives written notice to San Juan Financial of such determination) by majority vote of all its members if:

- the ten-day average closing price of Banner common stock is more than $50; and
- prior to the determination date, no proposal has been publicly announced for (1) a business combination involving Banner or acquisition of securities of Banner after which existing Banner shareholders would not own or have the right to vote at least a majority of the shares of Banner or the resulting entity or (2) a sale of more than 50% of the consolidated assets of Banner.

If Banner gives written notice of termination to San Juan Financial, the merger agreement will terminate unless San Juan Financial elects, within five business days of the date of such notice, to accept a reduction in the merger consideration, in cash or in stock, such that the aggregate merger consideration has the value it would have had, had the ten-day average price of Banner common stock been $50 at the time the merger is completed.

Effect of Termination

In the event the merger agreement is terminated as described above, the merger agreement will become void and neither Banner nor San Juan Financial will have any liability under the merger agreement, except that:

- both Banner and San Juan Financial will remain liable for any willful breach of the merger agreement; and
- designated provisions of the merger agreement, including the payment of fees and expenses, non-survival of the representations and warranties, confidential treatment of information, and publicity restrictions will survive the termination.

Payment of Termination Fee

Under the terms of the merger agreement, San Juan Financial will pay to Banner in cash a termination fee of $1 million under the following circumstances:

- if Banner terminates the merger agreement because San Juan Financial materially breached its [non-solicitation] obligations, or San Juan Financial's board failed to recommend in the proxy statement the approval of the merger agreement, publicly withdrew or modified, or publicly announced its intention to withdraw or modify, in any manner adverse to Banner, its recommendation that its shareholders approve or adopt the merger agreement, or recommended an alternative proposal or failed to recommend against any publicly disclosed alternative proposal within ten business days or failed to call a meeting of San Juan Financial's shareholders, then San Juan Financial will pay Banner the termination fee within ten business days following termination;

- if (1) either party terminates the merger agreement due to the failure of San Juan Financial shareholders to approve and adopt the merger agreement, (2) an alternative proposal has been publicly announced or otherwise communicated to the shareholders of San Juan Financial or made known to its senior management or board of directors prior to the San Juan Financial special meeting of shareholders, and (3) San Juan Financial or Islanders Bank enters into a definitive agreement with respect to, or consummates, an alternative transaction within twelve months of the date of such termination, then San Juan Financial will pay Banner the termination fee on the date of such execution or consummation, whichever is earlier; and
- if (1) Banner terminates the merger agreement either as a result of a failure to consummate the merger prior to July 31, 2007 caused by a material and willful breach of the merger agreement by San Juan Financial, or as a result of a material and willful breach of the merger agreement by San Juan Financial, and (2) San Juan Financial or Islanders Bank enters into a definitive agreement with respect to, or consummates, an alternative transaction within twelve months of the date of such termination, then San Juan Financial will pay Banner the termination fee on the date of such execution or consummation, whichever is earlier.

Amendment, Waiver and Extension of the Merger Agreement

Amendment

We may amend the merger agreement by action taken or authorized by our boards of directors. However, after any approval of the merger agreement by the San Juan Financial shareholders, there may not be, without further approval of the shareholders, any amendment of the merger agreement that requires such further approval under applicable law.

Extension; Waiver

At any time prior to the completion of the merger, each of us, by action taken or authorized by our respective board of directors, to the extent legally allowed, may:

- extend the time for performance of any of the obligations or other acts of the other party under the merger agreement;
- waive any inaccuracies in the other party's representations and warranties contained in the merger agreement; and

- waive the other party's compliance with any of the agreements or conditions contained in the merger agreement.

Fees and Expenses

In general and except as described above in "Payment of Termination Fee," all costs and expenses incurred in connection with the merger agreement will be paid by the party incurring such expenses, except that those expenses incurred in connection with filing, printing and mailing the registration statement and this document will be shared equally by Banner and San Juan Financial.

Restrictions on Resales by Affiliates

Shares of Banner common stock to be issued to San Juan Financial shareholders in the merger have been registered under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, which we refer to as the "Securities Act," and may be traded freely and without restriction by those shareholders not deemed to be affiliates (as that term is defined under the Securities Act) of San Juan Financial. Any subsequent transfer of shares by any person who is an affiliate of San Juan Financial at the time the merger is submitted for a vote of the San Juan Financial shareholders, however, will require either:

- the further registration under the Securities Act of the Banner common stock to be transferred;
- compliance with Rule 145 promulgated under the Securities Act, which permits limited sales under certain circumstances; or
- the availability of another exemption from registration.

An "affiliate" of San Juan Financial is a person who directly, or indirectly through one or more intermediaries, controls, is controlled by, or is under common control with, San Juan Financial. These restrictions are expected to apply to the directors and executive officers of San Juan Financial and the holders of 10% or more of the outstanding San Juan Financial common stock. The same restrictions apply to the spouses and certain relatives of those persons and any trusts, estates, corporations or other entities in which those persons have a 10% or greater beneficial or equity interest.

Banner will give stop transfer instructions to the exchange agent with respect to the shares of Banner common stock to be received by persons subject to these restrictions, and the certificates for their shares will be appropriately legended.

San Juan Financial has agreed in the merger agreement to use its reasonable best efforts to cause each person who is an affiliate of San Juan Financial for purposes of Rule 145 under the Securities Act to deliver to Banner a written agreement intended to ensure compliance with the Securities Act.

Required Vote for Mergers and Dispositions of Assets.

Chapter 23B.19 of the Washington Business Corporation Act prohibits a corporation from engaging in any significant business transaction with an interested shareholder (generally defined as a 10% shareholder) for five years after the interested shareholder becomes such, unless the significant business transaction was approved by a majority of the target's board prior to the interested

BANNERSAN JUAN FINANCIAL

Banner's articles of incorporation prohibit Banner from engaging in a "business combination" with an interested shareholder who, together with its associates and affiliates, beneficially owns 10% or more of the outstanding voting stock of the corporation unless at least 80% of the outstanding capital stock entitled to vote and a majority of the outstanding shares of capital stock entitled to vote excluding all shares beneficially owned by the interested shareholder approve the transaction.

This supermajority voting requirement does not apply to any business combination that is approved by two-thirds of the "continuing directors" acting a meeting where two-thirds of the continuing directors are present. A "continuing director" is any director who is unaffiliated with the interested shareholder and who was a director prior to the time the interested shareholder became such, or any director recommended by such directors.

The following transactions are "business combinations" subject to the restrictions described above:

- a merger or consolidation of Banner or any of its subsidiaries with the interested shareholder;
- a sale or other disposition to or with the interested shareholder of assets exceeding 25% of the total assets of Banner at the end of the preceding fiscal year;
- the issuance of securities of Banner or its subsidiaries to the interested shareholder;
- the acquisition by Banner or its subsidiaries of securities of the interested shareholder; shareholder becoming such.

In addition, Washington law provides certain exceptions to this supermajority requirement if (i) five years has passed since the interested shareholder became such and (ii) either of the following conditions is met:

- a majority of the shareholders, excluding the interested shareholder, approve the significant business transaction; or
- certain substantive conditions are met generally assuring that the price paid in the business combination equals or exceeds the highest price paid by the interested shareholder to acquire capital stock of the corporation.

Under Washington law, a "significant business transaction" is defined as any of the following:

- a merger, share exchange or consolidation of a target or any of its subsidiaries with the interested shareholder or its affiliates;
- a sale or other disposition to or with the interested shareholder of assets representing 5% or more of the market value of the assets or shares or earning power of the target or subsidiary;
- the issuance, transfer or redemption by a target or its subsidiaries of shares, options, warrants or rights to acquire shares to or owned by an interested shareholder, unless pro rata to all shareholders;
- the liquidation of a target proposed by the interested shareholder;

AGREEMENT AND PLAN OF MERGER

AGREEMENT AND PLAN OF MERGER, dated as of December 18, 2006 (this Agreement), by and between SAN JUAN FINANCIAL HOLDING COMPANY, a Washington corporation (San Juan Financial) and BANNER CORPORATION, a Washington corporation (Banner).

WITNESSETH:

WHEREAS, the Boards of Directors of San Juan Financial and Banner have determined that it is in the best interests of their respective companies and their shareholders to consummate the strategic business combination transaction provided for in this Agreement in which San Juan Financial will, on the terms and subject to the conditions set forth in this Agreement, merge with and into Banner (the Merger), so that Banner is the surviving corporation in the Merger (sometimes referred to in such capacity as the Surviving Corporation);

WHEREAS, for federal income Tax purposes, it is intended that the Merger shall qualify as a reorganization under the provisions of Section 368(a) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the Code), and this Agreement is intended to be and is adopted as a plan of reorganization for purposes of Sections 354 and 361 of the Code; and

WHEREAS, the parties desire to make certain representations, warranties and agreements in connection with the Merger and also to prescribe certain conditions to the Merger.

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the mutual covenants, representations, warranties and agreements contained in this Agreement, and other good and valuable consideration, the receipt and sufficiency of which are hereby acknowledged, and intending to be legally bound hereby, the parties agree as follows:

ARTICLE I

THE MERGER

1.1 The Merger. (a) Subject to the terms and conditions of this Agreement, in accordance with the Washington Business Corporation Act (the WBCA), at the Effective Time, San Juan Financial shall merge with and into Banner. Banner shall be the Surviving Corporation in the Merger, and shall continue its corporate existence under the laws of the State of Washington. As of the Effective Time, the separate corporate existence of San Juan Financial shall cease.

(b) Banner may, with San Juan Financial's consent (which shall not be unreasonably withheld), at any time change the method or structure of effecting the combination (including by providing for the merger of San Juan Financial and a wholly owned subsidiary of Banner); provided, however, that no such change shall (i) alter or change the amount or kind of the Merger Consideration provided for in this Agreement, (ii) adversely affect the Tax treatment of the Merger with respect to San Juan Financial's shareholders or (iii) materially impede or delay consummation of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement. This Agreement and any related documents will be appropriately amended in order to reflect any such changed method or structure.

1.2 Effective Time. The Merger shall become effective at the time set forth in the articles of merger that shall be filed with the Secretary of State of the State of Washington (the Articles of Merger) on the Closing Date, in the form attached hereto Exhibit A. The term Effective Time shall be the date and time when the Merger becomes effective as set forth in the Articles of Merger.

1.3 Effects of the Merger. At and after the Effective Time, the Merger shall have the effects set forth in Revised Code of Washington (RCW) 23B.11.060 and other applicable law.

1.4 Conversion of San Juan Financial Common Stock. At the Effective Time, by virtue of the Merger and without any action on the part of Banner, San Juan Financial or the holder of any of the following securities:

(a) Each share of common stock, par value $0.01 per share, of Banner (the Banner Common Stock) issued and outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time shall remain issued and outstanding and shall not be affected by the Merger.

(b) All shares of common stock, par value $1.00 per share, of San Juan Financial (the San Juan Financial Common Stock) issued and outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time that are beneficially owned by Banner or any Subsidiary of San Juan Financial (other than shares of San Juan Financial Common Stock held in trust accounts, managed accounts and the like, or otherwise held in a fiduciary or agency capacity, that are beneficially owned by third parties and other than shares of San Juan Financial Common Stock held, directly or indirectly, by Banner or a Subsidiary of San Juan Financial in respect of a debt previously contracted) shall be cancelled and shall cease to exist and no stock of Banner or other consideration shall be delivered in exchange therefor.

(c) Except as provided in clause (b) above, and subject to adjustments as set forth in clauses (e) and (g) below, each share of San Juan Financial Common Stock issued and outstanding immediately before the Merger (other than Dissenting Shares) shall be converted into the right to receive (i) the Per Share Cash Consideration, (ii) the Per Share Stock Consideration, and (iii) the Per Share Additional Consideration, if any.

(d) As used in this Agreement, the following terms shall have the meanings set forth below:

Aggregate Consideration means the aggregate value of the Merger Consideration.

Anticipated Closing Date means the date first mutually agreed by the parties to be the date on which the parties expect that the conditions set forth in Article VI would have been satisfied and the Closing would occur.

Average Closing Price of the Banner Common Stock shall mean the arithmetic mean of the daily closing sales prices per share of Banner Common Stock reported on the The Nasdaq Stock Market (the Nasdaq) (as reported by the Wall Street Journal or, if not reported thereby, another authoritative source) for the ten (10) consecutive Nasdaq trading days ending at the close of trading on the Determination Date.

Business Day means Monday through Friday of each week, except a legal holiday recognized as such by the U.S. Government or any day on which banking institutions in the State of Washington are authorized or obligated to close.

A Change in Control Event shall be deemed to have occurred if, between the date of this Agreement and the Determination Date, a proposal shall have been publicly announced for (A) a merger, consolidation or other business combination involving Banner in connection with which Banner would not be the surviving corporation (unless shareholders of Banner immediately prior to such transaction own at least a majority of the surviving corporation or its ultimate parent company), or which, if consummated, would result in any person (or group of persons, as group is defined in Rule 13d under the Exchange Act) acquiring securities of Banner or a Subsidiary representing 50 percent or more, in the aggregate, of the voting power of Banner; (B) a transaction pursuant to which any person (or group of persons) directly or indirectly, acquires or would acquire more than 50 percent of the outstanding equity securities of Banner, whether pursuant to a tender offer, share exchange, exchange offer or otherwise, (C) a transaction pursuant to which any person (or group of persons) acquires or would acquire (by purchase, lease, exchange or otherwise) assets of Banner or any of its banking Subsidiaries representing more than 50 percent of the consolidated assets of Banner and its Subsidiaries.

Determination Date means a date that is ten (10) Business Days prior to the Anticipated Closing Date.

Lower Ceiling Price means $46.

Lower Floor Price means $36.

Merger Consideration means the aggregate Per Share Stock Consideration and Per Share Cash Consideration payable or issuable in connection with the Merger.

Per Share Cash Consideration means cash in an amount equal to the quotient, rounded to the nearest cent, obtained by dividing the Total Cash Amount by the total number of shares of San Juan Financial Common Stock issued and outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time.

Per Share Stock Consideration means the quotient, rounded to the nearest ten-thousandth, obtained by dividing the Total Stock Amount by the total number of shares of San Juan Financial Common Stock issued and outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time.

□Total Cash Amount□ means an amount equal to $6,000,000, as such amount may be adjusted pursuant to the provisions of this Agreement.

□Total Stock Amount□ means 819,277 shares of Banner Common Stock, as such amount may be adjusted pursuant to the provisions of this Agreement.

□Upper Ceiling Price□ means $50.

□Upper Floor Price□ means $38.

(e) In the event that (i) the Average Closing Price is less than the Upper Floor Price but greater than or equal to the Lower Floor Price, then the Merger Consideration shall be increased by an amount that represents the difference between the Upper Floor Price and the Average Closing Price, multiplied by the Total Stock Amount; or (ii) the Average Closing Price is greater than the Lower Ceiling Price but less than or equal to the Upper Ceiling Price, and no Change of Control Event has occurred, then the Aggregate Consideration shall be reduced by an amount that represents the difference between the Lower Ceiling Price and the Average Closing Price, multiplied by the Total Stock Amount. Any increase or decrease in the Aggregate Consideration contemplated by this clause may be effected by an increase in the Per Share Cash Consideration, the Per Share Stock Consideration or a combination thereof, at Banner's discretion, provided that in no event shall the proportions of cash and Banner Common Stock issued in the Merger be adjusted so as to prevent the Merger from qualifying as a reorganization pursuant to Section 368(a) of the Code. If the amount of Aggregate Consideration is adjusted pursuant to this clause, the definitions of Per Share Cash Consideration and Per Share Stock Consideration herein shall be deemed to have been adjusted accordingly.

If, between the date of this Agreement and the Effective Time, the outstanding shares of Banner Common Stock shall have been increased, decreased, changed into or exchanged for a different number or kind of shares or securities as a result of a reorganization, recapitalization, reclassification, stock dividend, stock split, reverse stock split, or other similar change in capitalization, appropriate adjustments shall be made to the Lower Floor Price, the Lower Ceiling Price, the Upper Floor Price and the Upper Ceiling Price.

(f) All of the shares of San Juan Financial Common Stock converted into the right to receive the Merger Consideration pursuant to this Article I shall no longer be outstanding and shall automatically be cancelled and shall cease to exist as of the Effective Time, and each certificate previously representing any such shares of San Juan Financial Common Stock (each, a □Certificate□) shall thereafter represent only the right to receive the Merger Consideration, Additional Consideration (if any) and/or cash in lieu of fractional shares, into which the shares of San Juan Financial Common Stock represented by such Certificate have been converted pursuant to this Section 1.4 and Section 2.3(f), as well as any dividends to which holders of San Juan Financial Common Stock become entitled in accordance with Section 2.3(c) .

(g) If, between the date of this Agreement and the Effective Time, the outstanding shares of Banner Common Stock shall have been increased, decreased, changed into or exchanged for a different number or kind of shares or securities as a result of a reorganization, recapitalization, reclassification, stock dividend, stock split, reverse stock split, or other similar change in capitalization, an appropriate and proportionate adjustment shall be made to the Total Stock Amount.

(h) Notwithstanding any other provision contained in this Agreement, no shares of San Juan Financial Common Stock that are issued and outstanding as of the Effective Time and that are held by a shareholder who has properly exercised such shareholder's appraisal rights (any such shares being referred to herein as "Dissenting Shares") under RCW 23B.13.210 and RCW 23B.13.230 shall be converted into the right to receive the Merger Consideration as provided in Section 1.4(c) and instead shall be entitled to such rights (but only such rights) as are granted by RCW Chapter 23B.13 (unless and until such shareholder shall have failed to perfect, or shall have effectively withdrawn or lost, such shareholder's right to dissent from the Merger under the WBCA) and to receive such consideration as may be determined to be due with respect to such Dissenting Shares pursuant to and subject to the requirements of the WBCA. If any such shareholder shall have failed to perfect or shall have effectively withdrawn or lost such right, each of such holder's shares of San Juan Financial Common Stock shall thereupon be deemed to have been converted into and to have become, as of the Effective Time, the right to receive the Merger Consideration and the Additional Consideration (if any) in accordance with the applicable provisions of this Agreement. San Juan Financial shall give Banner (i) prompt notice of any notice or demand for appraisal or payment for shares of San Juan Financial Common Stock received by San Juan Financial and (ii) the opportunity to participate in and direct all negotiations and proceedings with respect to any such demand or notices. (b) As of the Effective Time, each restricted share of San Juan Financial Common Stock granted to any employee or director of San Juan Financial under a San Juan

The Per Share Additional Consideration shall be equal to the quotient obtained by dividing the Additional Consideration by the total number of shares of San Juan Financial Common Stock issued and outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time.

(a) As soon as reasonably practicable after the Effective Time, the Exchange Agent shall mail to each holder of record of Certificate(s) which immediately prior to the Effective Time represented outstanding shares of San Juan Financial Common Stock whose shares were converted into the right to receive the Merger Consideration pursuant to Section 1.4 and any cash in lieu of fractional shares of Banner Common Stock to be issued or paid in consideration therefor (i) a letter of transmittal (which shall specify that delivery shall be effected, and risk of loss and title to Certificate(s) shall pass, only upon delivery of Certificate(s) (or affidavits of loss in lieu of such Certificate(s))) (the “Letter of Transmittal”) to the Exchange Agent and shall be substantially in such form and have such other provisions as shall be prescribed by the Exchange Agent Agreement and (ii) instructions for use in surrendering Certificate(s) in exchange for the Merger Consideration, the Additional Consideration (if any) and any cash in lieu of fractional shares of Banner Common Stock to be issued or paid in consideration therefor in accordance with Section 2.3(f) upon surrender of such Certificate and any dividends or distributions to which such holder is entitled pursuant to Section 2.3(c) .

(b) Upon surrender to the Exchange Agent of its Certificate(s), accompanied by a properly completed Letter of Transmittal, a holder of San Juan Financial Common Stock will be entitled to receive, promptly after the Effective Time, the Merger Consideration (with the aggregate Cash Consideration paid to each such holder rounded to the nearest cent), the Additional Consideration to which such holder is entitled (if any) and any cash in lieu of fractional shares of Banner Common Stock to be issued or paid in consideration therefor in respect of the shares of San Juan Financial Common Stock represented by its Certificate(s). Until so surrendered, each such Certificate shall represent after the Effective Time, for all purposes, only the right to receive, without interest, the Merger Consideration, the Additional Consideration (if any) and any cash in lieu of fractional shares of Banner Common Stock to be issued or paid in consideration therefor upon surrender of such Certificate in accordance with, and any dividends or distributions to which such holder is entitled pursuant to, this Article II.

(c) No dividends or other distributions with respect to Banner Common Stock shall be paid to the holder of any unsurrendered Certificate with respect to the shares of Banner Common Stock represented thereby, in each case unless and until the surrender of such Certificate in accordance with this Article II. Subject to the effect of applicable abandoned

(d) In the event of a transfer of ownership of a Certificate representing San Juan Financial Common Stock that is not registered in the stock transfer records of San Juan Financial, the proper amount of cash and/or shares of Banner Common Stock shall be paid or issued in exchange therefor to a person other than the person in whose name the Certificate so surrendered is registered if the Certificate formerly representing such San Juan Financial Common Stock shall be properly endorsed or otherwise be in proper form for transfer and the person requesting such payment or issuance shall pay any transfer or other similar Taxes required by reason of the payment or issuance to a person other than the registered holder of the Certificate or establish to the satisfaction of Banner that the Tax has been paid or is not applicable. The Exchange Agent (or, subsequent to the first anniversary of the Effective Time, Banner) shall be entitled to deduct and withhold from the cash portion of the Merger Consideration, any cash in lieu of fractional shares of Banner Common Stock, any Additional Consideration to which the holder is entitled, and cash dividends or distributions payable pursuant to Section 2.4(c) hereof and any other cash amounts otherwise payable pursuant to this Agreement to any holder of San Juan Financial Common Stock such amounts as the Exchange Agent or Banner, as the case may be, is required to deduct and withhold under the Code, or any provision of state, local or foreign Tax law, with respect to the making of such payment. (e) After the Effective Time, there shall be no transfers on the stock transfer books of San Juan Financial of any shares of San Juan Financial Common Stock that were issued and outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time other than to settle transfers of San Juan Financial Common Stock that occurred prior to the Effective Time. (f) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this Agreement, no certificates or scrip representing fractional shares of Banner Common Stock shall be issued upon the surrender of Certificates for exchange, no dividend or distribution with respect to Banner Common Stock shall be payable on or with respect to any fractional share, and such fractional share interests shall not entitle the owner thereof to vote or to any other rights of a shareholder of Banner. In lieu of the issuance of any such fractional share, Banner shall pay to each former shareholder of San Juan Financial who otherwise would be entitled to receive such fractional share, an amount in cash (rounded to the nearest cent) determined by multiplying (i) the Average Closing Price by (ii) the fraction of a share (after taking into account all shares of San Juan Financial Common Stock held by such holder at the Effective Time and rounded to the nearest one thousandth when expressed in decimal form) of Banner Common Stock to which such holder would otherwise be entitled to receive pursuant to Section 1.4.

(g) Any portion of the Exchange Fund and any Additional Consideration that remains unclaimed by the shareholders of San Juan Financial as of the first anniversary of the Effective Time shall be paid to Banner. Any former shareholders of San Juan Financial who have not theretofore complied with this Article II shall thereafter look only to Banner with respect to the Merger Consideration and the Additional Consideration, any cash in lieu of any fractional shares and any unpaid dividends and distributions on the Banner Common Stock deliverable in respect of each share of San Juan Financial Common Stock such shareholder holds as determined pursuant to this Agreement, in each case, without any interest thereon. Notwithstanding the foregoing, none of Banner, San Juan Financial, the Exchange Agent or any other person shall be liable to any former holder of shares of San Juan Financial Common Stock for any amount delivered in good faith to a public official pursuant to applicable abandoned property, escheat or similar laws.

(h) In the event any Certificate shall have been lost, stolen or destroyed, upon the making of an affidavit of that fact by the person claiming such Certificate to be lost, stolen or destroyed and, if reasonably required by Banner or the Exchange Agent, the posting by such person of a bond in such amount as Banner may determine is reasonably necessary as indemnity against any claim that may be made against it with respect to such Certificate, the Exchange Agent will issue in exchange for such lost, stolen or destroyed Certificate the Merger Consideration and Additional Consideration deliverable in respect thereof pursuant to this Agreement.

(f) Except as set forth in Section 3.11(g) of the San Juan Financial Disclosure Schedule: (i) no San Juan Financial Benefit Plan is a Multiemployer Plan or a plan that has two or more contributing sponsors at least two of whom are not under common control, within the meaning of Section 4063 of ERISA (a "Multiple Employer Plan"); (ii) none of San Juan Financial, and its Subsidiaries nor any of their respective San Juan Financial ERISA Affiliates has, at any time during the last six years, contributed to or been obligated to contribute to any Multiemployer Plan or Multiple Employer Plan; and (iii) none of San Juan Financial, and its Subsidiaries nor any San Juan Financial ERISA Affiliates has incurred any Withdrawal Liability that has not been satisfied in full. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, neither San Juan Financial nor any of its Subsidiaries, nor any of their respective San Juan Financial ERISA Affiliates, has engaged in any transaction described in Section 4069 or Section 4204 or 4212 of ERISA.

(g) Except for any such benefits described in Section 3.11(g) of the San Juan Financial Disclosure Schedule with respect to the individuals listed thereon, San Juan Financial and its Subsidiaries have no liability for life, health, medical or other welfare benefits to former employees or beneficiaries or dependents thereof, except for health continuation coverage as required by Section 4980B of the Code or Part 6 of Title I of ERISA and at no expense to San Juan Financial and its Subsidiaries. San Juan Financial and each of its Subsidiaries has reserved the right to amend, terminate or modify at any time all plans or arrangements providing for retiree health or life insurance coverage.

(h) Section 3.11(h) of the San Juan Financial Disclosure Schedule sets forth an accurate and complete description of each provision of any Plan or Employment Agreement under which the execution and delivery of this Agreement or the consummation of the transactions contemplated hereby could (either along or in conjunction with any other event) result in, cause the accelerated vesting, funding or delivery of, or increase the amount or value of, any payment or benefit to any employee, officer or director of San Juan Financial or any of its Subsidiaries, or could limit the right of San Juan Financial or any of its Subsidiaries to amend, merge, terminate or receive a reversion of assets from any San Juan Financial Benefit Plan or related trust or any Employment Agreement or related trust. San Juan Financial has delivered to Banner true, correct and complete copies of all Plans and Employment Agreements described in Section 3.11(h) of the San Juan Financial Disclosure Schedule.

The books and records of Banner and its Subsidiaries have been, and are being, maintained in all material respects in accordance with GAAP and any other applicable legal and accounting requirements and reflect only actual transactions. These disclosures were made in writing by management to Banner's auditors and audit committee and a copy has previously been made available to San Juan Financial. As of the date hereof, there is no reason to believe that its outside auditors and its chief executive officer and chief financial officer will not be able to give the certifications and attestations required pursuant to the rules and regulations adopted pursuant to Section 404 of the Sarbanes-Oxley Act, without qualification, when next due.

(d) Since December 31, 2005, (i) through the date hereof, neither Banner nor any of its Subsidiaries nor, to the knowledge of the officers of Banner, any director, officer, employee, auditor, accountant or representative of Banner or any of its Subsidiaries has received or otherwise had or obtained knowledge of any material complaint, allegation, assertion or claim, whether written or oral, regarding the accounting or auditing practices, procedures, methodologies or methods of Banner or any of its Subsidiaries or their respective internal accounting controls, including any material complaint, allegation, assertion or claim that Banner or any of its Subsidiaries has engaged in questionable accounting or auditing practices, and (ii) no attorney representing Banner or any of its Subsidiaries, whether or not employed by Banner or any of its Subsidiaries, has reported evidence of a material violation of securities laws, breach of fiduciary duty or similar violation by Banner or any of its officers, directors, employees or agents to the Board of Directors of Banner or any committee thereof or to any director or officer of Banner.

There are no material disputes pending, or claims asserted, for Taxes or assessments upon Banner or any of its Subsidiaries for which Banner does not have reserves that are adequate under GAAP. Neither Banner nor any of its Subsidiaries has taken or agreed to take any action that would, or would be reasonably expected to, prevent or impede the Merger from qualifying as a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Code.

(a) Banner and each Banner Subsidiary hold all material licenses, franchises, permits and authorizations necessary for the lawful conduct of their respective businesses under and pursuant to each, and have complied in all respects with and are not in default in any material respect under any, applicable law, statute, order, rule, regulation, policy or guideline of any Governmental Entity relating to Banner or any of its Subsidiaries, except where the failure to hold such licenses, franchises, permits and authorizations, or such non-compliance or default, has not had and would not reasonably be expected to have, individually or in the aggregate, a Material Adverse Effect on Banner.

(b) Except as has not had and would not reasonably be expected to have, individually or in the aggregate, a Material Adverse Effect on Banner: Banner and each Banner Subsidiary has properly administered all accounts for which it acts as a fiduciary, including accounts for which it serves as a trustee, agent, custodian, personal representative, guardian, conservator or investment advisor, in accordance with the terms of the governing documents, applicable state and federal law and regulation and common law. (a) Each of Banner and each Banner Subsidiary has good title to all securities owned by it (except those sold under repurchase agreements or held in any fiduciary or agency capacity), free and clear of any Lien, except to the extent such securities are pledged in the ordinary course of business to secure obligations of Banner or its Subsidiaries. ARTICLE VI

ADDITIONAL AGREEMENTS

6.1 Regulatory Matters. (a) Banner shall promptly prepare and file with the SEC the Form S-4, in which the Proxy Statement will be included as a prospectus. Banner shall use its reasonable best efforts to have the Form S-4 declared effective under the Securities Act as promptly as practicable after such filing, and San Juan Financial shall thereafter mail or deliver the Proxy Statement to its shareholders. San Juan Financial acknowledges that Banner is required to file the opinion described in Section 7.3(c) with the Form S-4 or with a post-effective amendment thereto, and agrees to obtain such consents to such filing as may be necessary. Banner shall also use its reasonable best efforts to obtain all necessary state securities law or "Blue Sky" permits and approvals required to carry out the transactions contemplated by this Agreement, and San Juan Financial shall furnish all information concerning San Juan Financial and the holders of San Juan Financial Common Stock as may be reasonably requested in connection with any such action.

(b) The parties shall cooperate with each other and use their respective reasonable best efforts to promptly prepare and file all necessary documentation, to effect all applications, notices, petitions and filings, to obtain as promptly as practicable all permits, consents, approvals and authorizations of all third parties and Governmental Entities that are necessary or advisable to consummate the transactions contemplated by this Agreement (including the Merger), and to comply with the terms and conditions of all such permits, consents, approvals and authorizations of all such third parties, San Juan Financial Regulatory Agencies, Banner Regulatory Agencies or other Governmental Entities. San Juan Financial and Banner shall have the right to review in advance, and, to the extent practicable, each will consult the other on, in each case subject to applicable laws relating to the confidentiality of information, all the information relating to San Juan Financial or Banner, as the case may be, and any of their respective Subsidiaries, which appear in any filing made with, or written materials submitted to, any third party or any Governmental Entity in connection with the transactions contemplated by this Agreement. In exercising the foregoing right, each of the parties shall act reasonably and as promptly as practicable. The parties shall consult with each other with respect to the obtaining of all permits, consents, approvals and authorizations of all third parties and Governmental Entities necessary or advisable to consummate the transactions contemplated by this Agreement and each party will keep the other apprised of the status of matters relating to completion of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement. Notwithstanding the foregoing, nothing contained herein shall be deemed to require Banner to take any action, or commit to take any action, or agree to any condition or restriction, in connection with obtaining the foregoing permits, consents, approvals and authorizations of Governmental Entities, that would reasonably be expected to have a material adverse effect (measured on a scale relative to San Juan Financial) on either Banner or San Juan Financial (a "Materially Burdensome Regulatory Condition").

(c) Each of Banner and San Juan Financial shall, upon request, furnish to the other all information concerning itself, its Subsidiaries, directors, officers and shareholders and such other matters as may be reasonably necessary or advisable in connection with the Proxy Statement, the Form S-4 or any other statement, filing, notice or application made by or on behalf of Banner, San Juan Financial or any of their respective Subsidiaries to any Governmental Entity in connection with the Merger and the other transactions contemplated by this Agreement.

(d) Each of Banner and San Juan Financial shall promptly advise the other upon receiving any communication from any San Juan Financial Regulatory Agency, Banner Regulatory Agency or other Governmental Entity consent or approval of which is required for consummation of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement that causes such party to believe that there is a reasonable likelihood that any Banner Requisite Regulatory Approval or San Juan Financial Requisite Regulatory Approval, respectively, will not be obtained or that the receipt of any such approval may be materially delayed.

(e) San Juan Financial shall cooperate with such reasonable requests as may be made by Banner with respect to any post-Closing reorganization of Banner's and San Juan Financial's Subsidiaries, including filing prior to the Closing such applications with Regulatory Agencies or Governmental Entities as may be necessary or desirable in connection with any such reorganization.

6.2 Access to Information. (a) Upon reasonable notice and subject to applicable laws relating to the confidentiality of information, each of San Juan Financial and Banner shall, and shall cause each of its Subsidiaries to, afford to the officers, employees, accountants, counsel, advisors, agents and other representatives of the other party, reasonable access, during normal business hours during the period prior to the Effective Time, to all its properties, books, contracts, commitments and records, and, during such period, such party shall, and shall cause its Subsidiaries to, make available to the other party (i) a copy of each report, schedule, registration statement and other document filed or received by it during such period pursuant to the requirements of federal securities laws or federal or state banking or insurance laws (other than reports or documents that such party is not permitted to disclose under applicable law) and (ii) all other information concerning its business, properties and personnel as the other party may reasonably request (in the case of a request by San Juan Financial, information concerning Banner that is reasonably related to the prospective value of Banner Common Stock or to Banner's ability to consummate the transactions contemplated hereby). Neither San Juan Financial nor Banner, nor any of their respective Subsidiaries, shall be required to provide access to or to disclose information where such access or disclosure would jeopardize the attorney-client privilege of such party or its Subsidiaries or contravene any law, rule, regulation, order, judgment, decree, fiduciary duty or binding agreement entered into prior to the date of this Agreement. The parties shall make appropriate substitute disclosure arrangements under circumstances in which the restrictions of the preceding sentence apply.

(b) All information and materials provided pursuant to this Agreement shall be subject to the provisions of the Confidentiality Agreement entered into by San Juan Financial in favor of Banner as of November 7, 2006 (the "San Juan Financial Confidentiality Agreement"), and the Confidentiality Agreement entered into by Banner in favor of San Juan

Financial as of July 19, 2006 (collectively with the San Juan Financial Confidentiality Agreement, the "Confidentiality Agreements").

(c) No investigation by a party hereto or its representatives shall affect the representations and warranties of the other party set forth in this Agreement.

6.3 Shareholder Approval. San Juan Financial shall call a meeting of its shareholders (the "San Juan Financial Shareholders' Meeting") to be held as soon as reasonably practicable for the purpose of obtaining the requisite shareholder approvals required in connection with this Agreement and the Merger. The Board of Directors of San Juan Financial shall recommend to San Juan Financial's shareholders the approval and adoption of this Agreement and the Merger (the "San Juan Financial Recommendation"); provided, however, that San Juan Financial's Board of Directors shall not be required to make such San Juan Financial Recommendation to the extent provided in Section 6.11. Notwithstanding any change in the San Juan Financial Recommendation, unless otherwise directed in writing by Banner, this Agreement and the Merger shall be submitted to the shareholders of San Juan Financial at the San Juan Financial Shareholders' Meeting for the purpose of approving the Agreement and the Merger and nothing contained herein shall be deemed to relieve San Juan Financial of such obligation; provided, however, that if the Board of Directors of San Juan Financial shall have effected a change in San Juan Financial Recommendation in accordance with this Agreement, then in submitting this Agreement to San Juan Financial's shareholders, the Board of Directors of San Juan Financial may submit this Agreement to San Juan Financial's shareholders without recommendation (although the resolutions adopting this Agreement and the Plan of Merger as of the date hereof may not be rescinded or amended), in which event the Board of Directors of San Juan Financial may communicate the basis for its lack of a recommendation to San Juan Financial's shareholders in the Proxy Statement or an appropriate amendment or supplement thereto to the extent required by law.

6.4 Affiliates. San Juan Financial shall use its reasonable best efforts to cause each director, executive officer and other person who is an "affiliate" (for purposes of Rule 145 under the Securities Act) of San Juan Financial to deliver to Banner, as soon as practicable after the date of this Agreement, and prior to the date of the meeting of San Juan Financial shareholders to be held pursuant to Section 6.3, a written agreement, in the form of Exhibit B.

6.5 Nasdaq Listing. Banner shall cause the shares of Banner Common Stock to be issued in the Merger to be approved for listing on the Nasdaq, subject to official notice of issuance, prior to the Effective Time.

6.6 Employee Matters. (a) For the one year period following the Effective Time, the employees of San Juan Financial who are employed by the Surviving Corporation or any of its Subsidiaries as of the Effective Time (the "Covered Employees") and who remain employed with the Surviving Corporation or any of its Subsidiaries during such period will continue to be offered participation and coverage under employee benefit plans that are no less favorable in the aggregate than the San Juan Financial Benefit Plans as in effect immediately prior to the Effective Time; provided, that Covered Employees shall be eligible to participate in Banner's employee stock ownership plan.

(b) To the extent permitted by applicable law or the terms of any applicable insurance policies, Banner shall cause each employee benefit plan of Banner (each a "Banner Benefit Plan") in which Covered Employees are eligible to participate to take into account for purposes of eligibility, vesting and benefit accruals under the Banner Benefit Plans the service of such employees with San Juan Financial and its Subsidiaries (and any predecessor entities) to the same extent as such service was credited for such purpose by San Juan Financial and its Subsidiaries; provided, however, that such service shall not be recognized for purposes of benefit accruals under any defined benefit pension plan, to the extent that such recognition would result in a duplication of benefits with respect to the same period of service, or with respect to newly implemented plans for which prior service is not taken into account. Nothing herein shall limit the ability of Banner or the Surviving Corporation to amend or terminate any of the San Juan Financial Benefit Plans or Banner Benefits Plans in accordance with their terms at any time.

(c) If Covered Employees become eligible to participate in a medical, dental, health or disability insurance plan of Banner or its Subsidiaries, Banner shall cause each such plan to (i) waive any preexisting condition limitations to the extent such conditions are covered under the applicable medical, health, dental or disability insurance plans of Banner, (ii) honor under such plans any deductible, co-payment and out-of-pocket expenses incurred by such employees and their beneficiaries during the portion of the calendar year prior to such participation and (iii) waive any waiting period limitation or evidence of insurability requirement which would otherwise be applicable to such employee on or after the Effective Time for the year in which the Effective Time occurs, in each case to the extent such employee had satisfied any similar limitation or requirement under an analogous medical, dental, health or disability insurance plan of San Juan Financial prior to the Effective Time for the year in which the Effective Time or participation in such medical, dental or health plan of Banner, as applicable, occurs.

(d) From and after the Effective Time, Banner and its Subsidiaries will honor in accordance with their terms as in effect immediately prior to the Effective Time all Employment Agreements entered into prior to the date hereof; provided that such Employment Agreements shall be subject to any amendment or termination thereof that may be permitted by their terms. At the Effective Time, Banner shall take the actions set forth in Section 6.6(d) of the Banner Disclosure Schedule.

(e) Without limiting the generality of the final sentence of Section 9.9, nothing in this Section 6.6, express or implied, is intended to or shall confer upon any other person including without limitation any Covered Employee, any right, benefit or remedy of any nature whatsoever under or by reason of this Agreement, and no provision of this Section 6.6 shall constitute an amendment of any compensation or benefit plan, program, policy, agreement or other arrangement.

6.7 Indemnification; Directors' and Officers' Insurance. (a) In the event of any threatened or actual claim, action, suit, proceeding or investigation, whether civil, criminal or administrative (a "Claim"), including any such Claim in which any individual who is now, or has been at any time prior to the date of this Agreement, or who becomes prior to the Effective Time, a director or officer of San Juan Financial or any San Juan Financial Subsidiary or who is or was serving at the request of San Juan Financial or any San Juan Financial Subsidiary as a director or officer of another person (the “Indemnified Parties”), is, or is threatened to be, made a party based in whole or in part on, or arising in whole or in part out of, or pertaining to (i) the fact that he is or was a director or officer of San Juan Financial or any of its Subsidiaries prior to the Effective Time or (ii) this Agreement or any of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement, whether asserted or arising before or after the Effective Time, the parties shall cooperate and use their best efforts to defend against and respond thereto. All rights to indemnification and exculpation from liabilities for acts or omissions occurring at or prior to the Effective Time now existing in favor of any Indemnified Party as provided in their respective certificates or articles of incorporation or by-laws (or comparable organizational documents), and any existing indemnification agreements set forth in Section 6.7 of San Juan Financial Disclosure Schedule, shall survive the Merger and shall continue in full force and effect in accordance with their terms, it being understood that nothing in this sentence shall require any amendment to the articles of incorporation or by-laws of the Surviving Corporation.

(b) From and after the Effective Time, the Surviving Corporation shall, to the fullest extent permitted by applicable law, indemnify, defend and hold harmless, and provide advancement of expenses to, each Indemnified Party against all losses, claims, damages, costs, expenses, liabilities or judgments or amounts that are paid in settlement of or in connection with any Claim based in whole or in part on or arising in whole or in part out of the fact that such person is or was a director or officer of San Juan Financial or any Subsidiary of San Juan Financial, and pertaining to any matter existing or occurring, or any acts or omissions occurring, at or prior to the Effective Time, whether asserted or claimed prior to, or at or after, the Effective Time (including matters, acts or omissions occurring in connection with the approval of this Agreement and the consummation of the transactions contemplated hereby) or taken at the request of Banner pursuant to Section 6.8 hereof.

(c) Banner shall cause the individuals serving as officers and directors of San Juan Financial or any of its Subsidiaries immediately prior to the Effective Time to be covered for a period of six years from the Effective Time by the directors’ and officers’ liability insurance policy maintained by San Juan Financial (provided that Banner may substitute therefor policies of at least the same coverage and amounts containing terms and conditions that are not less advantageous than such policy) with respect to acts or omissions occurring prior to the Effective Time that were committed by such officers and directors in their capacity as such; provided that in no event shall Banner be required to expend annually in the aggregate an amount in excess of 200% of the annual premiums currently paid by San Juan Financial (which current amount is set forth in Section 6.7 of the San Juan Financial Disclosure Schedule) for such insurance (the “Insurance Amount”), and provided further that if Banner is unable to maintain such policy (or such substitute policy) as a result of the preceding proviso, Banner shall obtain as much comparable insurance as is available for the Insurance Amount.

(d) The provisions of this Section 6.7 shall survive the Effective Time and are intended to be for the benefit of, and shall be enforceable by, each Indemnified Party and his or her heirs and representatives.

6.8 Additional Agreements. (a) Subject to the terms and conditions of this Agreement, each of San Juan Financial and Banner agree to cooperate fully with each other and to use reasonable best efforts to take, or cause to be taken, all actions, and to do, or cause to be done, all things necessary, proper or advisable to consummate and make effective, at the time and in the manner contemplated by this Agreement, the Merger.

(b) In case at any time after the Effective Time any further action is necessary or desirable to carry out the purposes of this Agreement (including any merger between a Subsidiary of Banner, on the one hand, and a Subsidiary of San Juan Financial, on the other) or to vest the Surviving Corporation with full title to all properties, assets, rights, approvals, immunities and franchises of either party to the Merger, the proper officers and directors of each party and their respective Subsidiaries shall, at Banner's sole expense, take all such necessary action as may be reasonably requested by Banner.

6.9 Advice of Changes. Each of Banner and San Juan Financial shall promptly advise the other of any change or event (i) having or reasonably likely to have a Material Adverse Effect on it or (ii) that it believes would or would be reasonably likely to cause or constitute a material breach of any of its representations, warranties or covenants contained in this Agreement; provided, however, that no such notification shall affect the representations, warranties, covenants or agreements of the parties (or remedies with respect thereto) or the conditions to the obligations of the parties under this Agreement; provided further that a failure to comply with this Section 6.9 shall not constitute a breach of this Agreement or the failure of any condition set forth in Article VII to be satisfied unless the underlying Material Adverse Effect or material breach would independently result in the failure of a condition set forth in Article VII to be satisfied.

6.10 Exemption from Liability Under Section 16(b). Prior to the Effective Time, Banner shall take all such steps as may be necessary or appropriate to cause any disposition of shares of San Juan Financial Common Stock or conversion of any derivative securities in respect of such shares of San Juan Financial Common Stock in connection with the consummation of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement to be exempt under Rule 16b-3 promulgated under the Exchange Act, including any such actions specified in the No-Action Letter dated January 12, 1999, issued by the SEC to Skadden, Arps, Slate, Meagher & Flom, LLP.

6.11 No Solicitation. (a) San Juan Financial, each San Juan Financial Subsidiary and each of their respective officers or directors shall not, and shall not knowingly permit any employee, agent or representative (including any investment banker, financial advisor, attorney, accountant or other retained representative) of San Juan Financial or any of its Subsidiaries shall to, directly or indirectly (i) solicit, initiate, encourage, facilitate (including by way of furnishing information) or take any other action designed to facilitate any inquiries or proposals regarding any merger, share exchange, consolidation, sale of assets, sale of shares of capital stock (including, without limitation, by way of a tender offer) or similar transactions involving San Juan Financial or any of its Subsidiaries that, if consummated, would constitute an Alternative Transaction (any of the foregoing inquiries or proposals, including any indication of an intention to propose any of the foregoing, being referred to herein as an "Alternative Proposal"), (ii) participate in any discussions or negotiations regarding an Alternative Transaction or (iii) enter into any agreement regarding any Alternative Transaction. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Board of Directors of San Juan Financial shall be permitted, prior to the meeting of San Juan Financial shareholders to be held pursuant to Section 6.3, and subject to compliance with the other terms of this Section 6.11 and to first entering into an agreement with the person proposing such Alternative Proposal on terms substantially similar to, and no less favorable to San Juan Financial than, those contained in the San Juan Financial Confidentiality Agreement, to (A) consider and participate in discussions with respect to a bona fide Alternative Proposal received in writing by San Juan Financial, and (B) withdraw, modify or qualify the San Juan Financial Recommendation, in each case if and only to the extent that the Board of Directors of San Juan Financial reasonably determines in good faith after consultation with outside legal counsel that failure to do so could reasonably cause it to violate its fiduciary duties.

As used in this Agreement, Alternative Transaction means any of (i) a transaction pursuant to which any person (or group of persons) (other than Banner or its affiliates) directly or indirectly, acquires or would acquire more than 30% of the outstanding shares of San Juan Financial or its Subsidiaries or outstanding voting power or of any new series or new class of preferred stock that would be entitled to a class or series vote with respect to a merger of San Juan Financial or any of its Subsidiaries whether from San Juan Financial or any of its Subsidiaries or pursuant to a tender offer or exchange offer or otherwise, (ii) a merger, share exchange, consolidation or other business combination involving San Juan Financial or any of its Subsidiaries (other than the Merger and other than a merger, share exchange, consolidation or other business combination solely involving San Juan Financial and one or more of its Subsidiaries), or (iii) any transaction pursuant to which any person (or group of persons) (other than Banner or its affiliates) acquires or would acquire assets (including for this purpose the outstanding equity securities of Subsidiaries of San Juan Financial and securities of the entity surviving any merger or business combination including any of San Juan Financial's Subsidiaries) of San Juan Financial, or any of its Subsidiaries representing more than 25% of the fair market value of all the assets of San Juan Financial and its Subsidiaries, taken as a whole, immediately prior to such transaction.

(b) San Juan Financial shall notify Banner promptly (but in no event later than 48 hours) after receipt of any Alternative Proposal, or any material modification of or material amendment to any Alternative Proposal, or any request for nonpublic information relating to San Juan Financial or any of its Subsidiaries or for access to the properties, books or records of San Juan Financial or any Subsidiary by any person or entity that informs the Board of Directors of San Juan Financial or any Subsidiary that it is considering making, or has made, an Alternative Proposal. Such notice to Banner shall be made orally and in writing, and shall indicate the identity of the person making the Alternative Proposal or intending to make or considering making an Alternative Proposal or requesting non-public information or access to the books and records of San Juan Financial or any Subsidiary (other than San Juan Title, LLC), and the material terms of any such Alternative Proposal or modification or amendment to an Alternative Proposal. San Juan Financial shall keep Banner fully informed of any material changes in the status and any material changes or modifications in the terms of any such Alternative Proposal, indication or request. San Juan Financial shall also promptly, and in any event within 48 hours, notify Banner, orally and in writing, if it enters into discussions or negotiations concerning any Alternative Proposal in accordance with Section 6.11(a).

(c) San Juan Financial and its Subsidiaries shall immediately cease and cause to be terminated any existing discussions or negotiations with any persons conducted heretofore with respect to any of the foregoing, and shall use reasonable best efforts to cause all persons other than Banner who have been furnished confidential information regarding San Juan Financial or its Subsidiaries in connection with the solicitation of or discussions regarding an Alternative Proposal within the 12 months prior to the date hereof promptly to return or destroy such information. San Juan Financial agrees not to, and to cause its Subsidiaries not to, release any third party from the confidentiality and standstill provisions of any agreement to which San Juan Financial or any of its Subsidiaries is or may become a party, and shall immediately take all steps necessary to terminate any approval that may have been heretofore given under any such provisions authorizing any person to make an Alternative Proposal.

(d) San Juan Financial shall ensure that the officers, directors, investment bankers, financial advisors, attorneys and accountants of San Juan Financial or its Subsidiaries are aware of the restrictions described in this Section 6.11 as reasonably necessary to avoid violations thereof.

(e) For the avoidance of doubt, it is understood by the parties that, for purposes of this Section 6.11, San Juan Title, LLC is not a Subsidiary of San Juan Financial.

6.12 Special Distribution. San Juan Financial shall use reasonable best efforts to dispose of its interest in San Juan Title LLC (the Disposition) prior to the Effective Time. If the Disposition is consummated prior to or contemporaneously with the Effective Time, San Juan Financial shall inform Banner of the amount, net of any Taxes paid or payable by San Juan Financial with respect to the Disposition, realized as a result of the Disposition (the Disposition Proceeds) and, subject to Banner's reasonable verification of the amount of Disposition Proceeds, shall be permitted to pay to the shareholders of San Juan Financial a special distribution equal the Disposition Proceeds prior to the Effective Time.

ARTICLE VII

CONDITIONS PRECEDENT

7.1 Conditions to Each Party's Obligation to Effect the Merger. The respective obligations of the parties to effect the Merger shall be subject to the satisfaction at or prior to the Effective Time of the following conditions:

(a) Shareholder Approval. This Agreement shall have been approved and adopted by the requisite affirmative vote of the holders of San Juan Financial Common Stock entitled to vote thereon.

(b) Nasdaq Listing. The shares of Banner Common Stock to be issued to the holders of San Juan Financial Common Stock upon consummation of the Merger shall have been authorized for listing on the Nasdaq, subject to official notice of issuance.

(c) Form S-4. The Form S-4 shall have become effective under the Securities Act and no stop order suspending the effectiveness of the Form S-4 shall have been issued and no proceedings for that purpose shall have been initiated or threatened by the SEC.

(d) No Injunctions or Restraints; Illegality. No order, injunction or decree issued by any court or agency of competent jurisdiction or other legal restraint or prohibition (an Injunction) preventing the consummation of the Merger or any of the other transactions contemplated by this Agreement shall be in effect. No statute, rule, regulation, order, Injunction or decree shall have been enacted, entered, promulgated or enforced by any Governmental Entity that prohibits or makes illegal consummation of the Merger.

7.2 Conditions to Obligations of Banner. The obligation of Banner to effect the Merger is also subject to the satisfaction, or waiver by Banner, at or prior to the Effective Time, of the following conditions:

(a) Representations and Warranties. The representations and warranties of San Juan Financial set forth in Section 3.2 of this Agreement shall be true and correct (other than for such failures to be true and correct as are de minimis in effect), and the remaining representations and warranties of San Juan Financial set forth in this Agreement shall be true and correct (for this purpose disregarding any qualification or limitation as to materiality or Material Adverse Effect), in each case as of the date of this Agreement and as of the Closing Date as though made on such date, except to the extent such representations and warranties are expressly made only as of an earlier date, in which case as of such earlier date; provided that, if any of such representations and warranties (other than the representations and warranties contained in Section 3.2, which shall be true and correct other than for such failures to be true and correct as are de minimis in effect) shall not be true and correct (for this purpose disregarding any qualification or limitation as to materiality or Material Adverse Effect), then the condition stated in this clause (a) shall be deemed satisfied unless the cumulative effect of all inaccuracies of such representations and warranties (for this purpose disregarding any qualification or limitation as to materiality or Material Adverse Effect) shall be or have a Material Adverse Effect on San Juan Financial; and Banner shall have received a certificate signed on behalf of San Juan Financial by its Chief Executive Officer or Chief Financial Officer to the foregoing effect.

(b) Performance of Obligations of San Juan Financial. San Juan Financial shall have performed in all material respects all obligations required to be performed by it under this Agreement at or prior to the Effective Time; and Banner shall have received a certificate signed on behalf of San Juan Financial by the Chief Executive Officer or the Chief Financial Officer of San Juan Financial to such effect.

(c) Federal Tax Opinion. Banner shall have received the opinion of its counsel, Wachtell, Lipton, Rosen & Katz, dated the Closing Date, to the effect that, on the basis of facts, representations and assumptions set forth or referred to in such opinion, the Merger will be treated as a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Code. In rendering such opinion, counsel may require and rely upon customary representations contained in certificates of officers of San Juan Financial and Banner.

(d) Regulatory Approvals. All regulatory approvals set forth in Section 4.4 required to consummate the transactions contemplated by this Agreement, including the Merger, shall have been obtained and shall remain in full force and effect and all statutory waiting periods in respect thereof shall have expired (all such approvals and the expiration of all such waiting periods being referred as the □Banner RequisiteRegulatory Approvals□), and no such regulatory approval shall have resulted in the imposition of any Materially Burdensome Regulatory Condition.

7.3 Conditions to Obligations of San Juan Financial. The obligation of San Juan Financial to effect the Merger is also subject to the satisfaction or waiver by San Juan Financial at or prior to the Effective Time of the following conditions:

(a) Representations and Warranties. The representations and warranties of Banner set forth in the last sentence of Section 4.2 of this Agreement shall be true and correct (other than for such failures to be true and correct as are de minimis in effect), and the remaining representations and warranties of Banner set forth in this Agreement shall be true and correct (for this purpose disregarding any qualification or limitation as to materiality or Material Adverse Effect), in each case as of the date of this Agreement and as of the Closing Date as though made on such date, except to the extent such representations and warranties are expressly made only as of an earlier date, in which case as of such earlier date; provided that, if any of such representations and warranties (other than the representations and warranties contained in the last sentence of Section 4.2, which shall be true and correct other than for such failures to be true and correct as are de minimis in effect) shall not be true and correct (for this purpose disregarding any qualification or limitation as to materiality or Material Adverse Effect), then the condition stated in this clause (a) shall be deemed satisfied unless the cumulative effect of all inaccuracies of such representations and warranties (for this purpose disregarding any qualification or limitation as to materiality or Material Adverse Effect) shall be or have a Material Adverse Effect on Banner; and San Juan Financial shall have received a certificate signed on behalf of Banner by its Chief Executive Officer or Chief Financial Officer to the foregoing effect.

(b) Performance of Obligations of Banner. Banner shall have performed in all material respects all obligations required to be performed by it under this Agreement at or prior to the Effective Time, and San Juan Financial shall have received a certificate signed on behalf of Banner by the Chief Executive Officer or the Chief Financial Officer of Banner to such effect.

(c) Federal Tax Opinion. San Juan Financial shall have received the opinion of its counsel, Davis Wright Tremaine LLP, dated the Closing Date, to the effect that, on the basis of facts, representations and assumptions set forth or referred to in such opinion, the Merger will be treated as a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Code. In rendering such opinion, counsel may require and rely upon customary representations contained in certificates of officers of San Juan Financial and Banner.

(d) Regulatory Approvals. All regulatory approvals set forth in Section 3.4 required to consummate the transactions contemplated by this Agreement, including the Merger, shall have been obtained and shall remain in full force and effect and all statutory waiting periods in respect thereof shall have expired (all such approvals and the expiration of all such waiting periods being referred as the San Juan Financial Requisite Regulatory Approvals).

ARTICLE VIII

TERMINATION AND AMENDMENT

8.1 Termination. This Agreement may be terminated at any time prior to the Effective Time, whether before or after approval of the matters presented in connection with the Merger by the shareholders of San Juan Financial or Banner:

(a) by mutual consent of San Juan Financial and Banner in a written instrument authorized by the boards of directors of San Juan Financial and Banner, as determined by a vote of a majority of the members of each respective entire board of directors;

(b) by either San Juan Financial or Banner, if any Governmental Entity that must grant a Banner Requisite Regulatory Approval or a San Juan Financial Requisite Regulatory Approval has denied approval of the Merger and such denial has become final and nonappealable or any Governmental Entity of competent jurisdiction shall have issued a final and nonappealable order permanently enjoining or otherwise prohibiting the consummation of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement;

(c) by either San Juan Financial or Banner, if the Merger shall not have been consummated on or before July 31, 2007, unless the failure of the Closing to occur by such date shall be due to the failure of the party seeking to terminate this Agreement to perform or observe the covenants and agreements of such party set forth in this Agreement;

(d) by either Banner or San Juan Financial (provided that the terminating party is not then in material breach of any representation, warranty, covenant or other agreement contained herein), if there shall have been a breach of any of the covenants or agreements or any of the representations or warranties set forth in this Agreement on the part of San Juan Financial, in the case of a termination by Banner, or Banner, in the case of a termination by San Juan Financial, which breach, either individually or in the aggregate, would result in, if occurring or continuing on the Closing Date, the failure of the conditions set forth in Section 7.2 or 7.3, as the case may be, and which is not cured within 45 days following written notice to the party committing such breach or by its nature or timing cannot be cured within such time period;

(e) by Banner, if (i) San Juan Financial shall have materially and willfully breached its obligations under Section 6.3 or Section 6.11, or (ii) the Board of Directors of San Juan Financial shall have (A) failed to recommend in the Proxy Statement the adoption of the agreement of merger set forth in this Agreement, (B) publicly withdrawn or modified, or publicly announced its intention to withdraw or modify, in any manner adverse to Banner, its recommendation that its shareholders approve or adopt this Agreement or (C) recommended any Alternative Proposal or failed to recommend against any Alternative Proposal that constitutes a tender offer within the 10 Business Day period specified in Rule 14e-2(a) under the Exchange Act (or, in the case of clause (ii), resolved to take any such action), whether or not permitted by the terms hereof;

(f) by either San Juan Financial or Banner if any approval of the shareholders of San Juan Financial contemplated by this Agreement shall not have been obtained by reason of the failure to obtain the required vote at the San Juan Financial Shareholders' Meeting or at any adjournment or postponement of such meeting;

(g) automatically, on a date that is five Business Days after the Determination Date (or on such later date, not later than 20 Business Days after the Determination Date, as the parties may agree) in the event that, as of the Determination Date, the Average Closing Price shall be less than the Lower Floor Price, unless (i) the Board of Directors of San Juan Financial determines by the unanimous vote of its members that the Agreement should not be automatically terminated pursuant to this Section 8.1(g) and gives written notice of such determination to Banner not later than four (4) Business Days after the Determination Date (or on such later date, not later than 19 Business Days after the Determination Date, as the parties may agree) or (ii) Banner gives notice to San Juan Financial on or prior to the fifth Business Day after the date on which automatic termination would occur that it intends to exercise the Banner Fill Option; or

(h) by Banner, if the Board of Directors of Banner so determines by the vote of a majority of all of its members, and if no Change of Control Event has occurred, by giving written notice to San Juan Financial not later than the end of the second Business Day next following the Determination Date, in the event that, as of the Determination Date, the Average Closing Price shall be more than the Upper Ceiling Price, unless San Juan Financial gives notice to Banner within five Business Days after its receipt of such notice that it intends to exercise the San Juan Financial Fill Option.

"Banner Fill Option" means an increase in the Aggregate Consideration by an amount that represents the difference between the Lower Floor Price and the Average Closing Price, multiplied by the Total Stock Amount; and "San Juan Financial Fill Option" means a decrease in the Aggregate Consideration by an amount that represents the difference between the Upper Ceiling Price and the Average Closing Price, multiplied by the Total Stock Amount. If the Banner Fill Option or the San Juan Financial Fill Option is exercised, this Agreement shall not terminate, and any increase or decrease in the Aggregate Consideration contemplated by this clause may be effected by an adjustment to the Per Share Cash Consideration, the Per Share Stock Consideration or a combination thereof, at Banner's discretion, provided that in no event shall the proportions of cash and Banner Common Stock issued in the Merger be adjusted so as to prevent the Merger from qualifying as a reorganization pursuant to Section 368(a) of the Code. If the amount of Aggregate Consideration is adjusted pursuant to Section 8.1(g) or 8.1(h), the definitions of Per Share Cash Consideration and Per Share Stock Consideration herein shall be deemed to have been adjusted accordingly.

The party desiring to terminate this Agreement pursuant to any clause of this Section 8.1 (other than clause (a)) shall give written notice of such termination to the other party in accordance with Section 9.3, specifying the provision or provisions hereof pursuant to which such termination is effected.

8.2 Effect of Termination. In the event of termination of this Agreement by either San Juan Financial or Banner as provided in Section 8.1, this Agreement shall forthwith become void and have no effect, and none of San Juan Financial, Banner, any of their respective Subsidiaries or any of the officers or directors of any of them shall have any liability of any nature whatsoever under this Agreement, or in connection with the transactions contemplated by this Agreement, except that (i) Sections 6.2(b), 8.2, 8.3 and 9.2 through and including 9.9 shall survive any termination of this Agreement, and (ii) neither San Juan Financial nor Banner shall be relieved or released from any liabilities or damages arising out of its willful breach of any provision of this Agreement.

8.3 Fees and Expenses; Termination Fees.

(a) Except (i) as provided in this Section 8.3 and (ii) with respect to costs and expenses of printing and mailing the Proxy Statement and all filing and other fees paid to the SEC in connection with the Merger, which shall be borne equally by San Juan Financial and Banner, all fees and expenses incurred in connection with the Merger, this Agreement, and the transactions contemplated by this Agreement shall be paid by the party incurring such fees or expenses, whether or not the Merger is consummated.

(b) San Juan Financial shall pay to Banner, by wire transfer of immediately available funds to such accounts as Banner may designate, the fee provided below in the event that this Agreement is terminated as follows:

(i) if Banner shall terminate this Agreement pursuant to Section 8.1(e), then San Juan Financial shall pay an amount equal to $1,000,000 (the Termination Fee) within ten (10) Business Days following such termination;

(ii) if (A) either party shall terminate this Agreement pursuant to Section 8.1(f) due to the failure to obtain the required San Juan Financial shareholder approval, (B) an Alternative Proposal shall have been publicly announced or otherwise communicated generally to the San Juan Financial shareholders or made known to the senior management or Board of Directors of San Juan Financial prior to the San Juan Financial Shareholder Meeting, and (C) San Juan Financial or San Juan Financial Bank enters into a definitive agreement with respect to, or consummates, an Alternative Transaction within twelve months of the date of such termination of this Agreement, then San Juan Financial shall pay a Termination Fee upon the date of such execution or consummation, whichever is earlier; and

(iii) if (A) Banner shall terminate this Agreement as a result of a failure to consummate the Merger prior to the date set forth in Section 8.1(c)

caused by a material and willful breach of this Agreement by San Juan Financial, or Banner shall terminate this Agreement pursuant to Section 8.1(d) as a result of a material and willful breach of this Agreement by San Juan Financial, and (B) San Juan Financial or San Juan Financial Bank enters into a definitive agreement with respect to, or consummates, an Alternative Transaction within twelve months of the date of such termination of this Agreement, then San Juan Financial shall pay a Termination Fee upon the date of such execution or consummation, whichever is earlier.

(c) In the event either party fails to pay when due any amount payable under this Section 8.3 and the other party commences a suit that results in a judgment for a Termination Fee, then the prevailing party shall reimburse the other party for all costs and expenses (including disbursements and reasonable fees of counsel) incurred in connection with such suit.

8.4 Amendment. This Agreement may be amended by the parties, by action taken or authorized by their respective Boards of Directors, at any time before or after approval of the matters presented in connection with Merger by the shareholders of San Juan Financial and Banner; provided, however, that after any approval of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement by the shareholders of San Juan Financial or Banner, as the case may be, there may not be, without further approval of such shareholders, any amendment of this Agreement that requires such further approval under applicable law. This Agreement may not be amended except by an instrument in writing signed on behalf of each of the parties.

8.5 Extension; Waiver. At any time prior to the Effective Time, the parties, by action taken or authorized by their respective Board of Directors, may, to the extent legally allowed, (a) extend the time for the performance of any of the obligations or other acts of the other party, (b) waive any inaccuracies in the representations and warranties contained in this Agreement or (c) waive compliance with any of the agreements or conditions contained in this Agreement. Any agreement on the part of a party to any such extension or waiver shall be valid only if set forth in a written instrument signed on behalf of such party, but such extension or waiver or failure to insist on strict compliance with an obligation, covenant, agreement or condition shall not operate as a waiver of, or estoppel with respect to, any subsequent or other failure.

ARTICLE IX

GENERAL PROVISIONS

9.1 Closing. On the terms and subject to the conditions set forth in this Agreement, the closing of the Merger (the Closing) shall take place at 10:00 a.m. on a date and at a place to be specified by the parties, which date shall be no later than five Business Days after the satisfaction or waiver (subject to applicable law) of the latest to occur of the conditions set forth in Article VII (other than those conditions that by their nature are to be satisfied or waived at the Closing) and any periods required to pass prior to the Closing under Section 8.1(g) have passed, unless extended by mutual agreement of the parties (the Closing Date).

Annex B

[MCADAMS WRIGHT RAGEN, INC. LETTERHEAD]

December 14, 2006

Board of Directors
San Juan Financial Holding Company
545 Park Street
Friday Harbor, WA 98250

Members of the Board:

You have requested our opinion as to the fairness, from a financial point of view, of the consideration to be received by the common shareholders of San Juan Financial Holding Company and its wholly subsidiary, Islanders Bank, (["SJFHC"]) from Banner Corporation (["BANR"]) pursuant to the terms of a draft of the Definitive Merger Agreement (the ["Agreement"]), dated December 13, 2006, between SJFHC and BANR, whereby SJFHC will be merged with and into BANR.

In connection with the proposed merger transaction (the ["Transaction"]), SJFHC shareholders will receive cash in the amount of $6,000,000 and stock in an amount equal to 819,277 shares of BANR common stock. If the Transaction were to close contemporaneously with the delivery of this opinion, and using the 5-day average closing price of BANR common stock of $45.30 per share for November 29, 2006 through December 5, 2006, gross aggregate consideration would be $43,113,248. SJFHC shareholders would receive approximately $118.32 per share, based on 364,078 SJFHC shares. The Agreement provides the complete terms of the proposed transaction, and this summary is qualified in its entirety by reference thereto.

McAdams Wright Ragen, Inc. (["MWR"]), as a part of its corporate finance services, is periodically engaged in valuation and advisory services provided to the directors, officers and shareholders of both public and private financial institutions with respect to the fairness, from a financial point of view, of the consideration to be received in merger and acquisition transactions, such as that proposed by the Agreement. With particular regard to our qualifications for rendering an opinion as to the fairness, from a financial point of view, of the consideration to be received by SJFHC pursuant to the Agreement, our corporate finance department's professionals have advised numerous Northwest community banks and thrifts regarding fairness of merger and capital transactions in the past ten years. SJFHC has agreed to pay a fee for our financial advisory services and for rendering this opinion letter and the accompanying report.

In connection with rendering this opinion, we have, among other things: (i) reviewed the draft Agreement dated December 13, 2006; (ii) reviewed SJFHC's unaudited financial statements for the nine months ended September 30, 2006; (iii) reviewed SJFHC's audited financial statements for the twelve months ended December 31, 2005, the twelve months ended December 31, 2004, and the twelve months ended December 31, 2003; (iv) reviewed certain internal financial analyses and certain other forecasts prepared by and reviewed with the management of SJFHC; (v) conducted interviews with senior management of SJFHC regarding the past and current business operations, results thereof, and financial condition; (vi) reviewed the current market environment generally and the financial services industry environment in particular; (vii) reviewed the prices paid in recent comparable mergers and acquisitions; (viii) reviewed unaudited financial information of BANR for the three months ended March 31, 2006, June 30, 2006 and September 30, 2006 and audited financial statements as of December 31, 2005 and December 31, 2004; (viii) reviewed the price ranges for BANR common stock; (ix) conducted interviews with senior management of BANR regarding the past and current business operations, results thereof, and financial condition; and (x) reviewed such other information, studies and analyses, performed such other investigations and took into account such other matters as we deemed appropriate.

In conducting our review and arriving at our opinion, we have assumed and relied on the accuracy and completeness of all financial information publicly available and supplied or otherwise made available to us by SJFHC management. We have not independently verified such information nor have we undertaken an independent appraisal of the assets or liabilities of SJFHC or BANR. With respect to the financial forecasts referred to above, we have assumed that they have been reasonably prepared on bases reflecting the best currently available estimates and judgment of the senior management of SJFHC as of the date of this letter.

This opinion is necessarily based upon economic, market and other conditions as they exist and should be evaluated as of the date of this letter. In rendering our opinion, we have assumed that in the course of obtaining the necessary approvals for the Agreement, no restrictions, limitations or conditions will be imposed that would have a material adverse effect on the expected benefits of the Agreement to SJFHC's shareholders or the ability to consummate the Agreement.

This opinion is being furnished for the use and benefit of the Board of Directors of SJFHC and is not intended to be, nor constitutes, a recommendation to any shareholder as to how such shareholder should vote with respect to the Agreement. We express no opinion on matters of a legal, regulatory, tax or accounting nature or the ability of the Agreement to be consummated. No limitations were imposed on us regarding the scope of our investigation or otherwise by SJFHC or BANR.

In reliance upon and subject to the foregoing, it is our opinion that, as of the date hereof, the Agreement consideration to be issued by BANR to the SJFHC shareholders pursuant to the Agreement is fair, from a financial point of view, to the shareholders of SJFHC.

WASHINGTON BUSINESS CORPORATION ACT CHAPTER 23B.13.
DISSENTERS' RIGHTS

23B.13.010. Definitions

As used in this chapter:

- (1) "Corporation" means the issuer of the shares held by a dissenter before the corporate action, or the surviving or acquiring corporation by merger or share exchange of that issuer.
- (2) "Dissenter" means a shareholder who is entitled to dissent from corporate action under RCW 23B.13.020 and who exercises that right when and in the manner required by RCW 23B.13.200 through 23B.13.280.
- (3) "Fair value," with respect to a dissenter's shares, means the value of the shares immediately before the effective date of the corporate action to which the dissenter objects, excluding any appreciation or depreciation in anticipation of the corporate action unless exclusion would be inequitable.
- (4) "Interest" means interest from the effective date of the corporate action until the date of payment, at the average rate currently paid by the corporation on its principal bank loans or, if none, at a rate that is fair and equitable under all the circumstances.
- (5) "Record shareholder" means the person in whose name shares are registered in the records of a corporation or the beneficial owner of shares to the extent of the rights granted by a nominee certificate on file with a corporation.
- (6) "Beneficial shareholder" means the person who is a beneficial owner of shares held in a voting trust or by a nominee as the record shareholder.
- (7) "Shareholder" means the record shareholder or the beneficial shareholder.

23B.13.020. Right to dissent

- (1) A shareholder is entitled to dissent from, and obtain payment of the fair value of the shareholder's shares in the event of, any of the following corporate actions:
 - (a) Consummation of a plan of merger to which the corporation is a party (i) if shareholder approval is required for the merger by RCW 23B.11.030, 23B.11.080, or the articles of incorporation, and the shareholder is entitled to vote on the merger, or (ii) if the corporation is a subsidiary that is merged with its parent under RCW 23B.11.040;

- (b) Consummation of a plan of share exchange to which the corporation is a party as the corporation whose shares will be acquired, if the shareholder is entitled to vote on the plan;
 - (c) Consummation of a sale or exchange of all, or substantially all, of the property of the corporation other than in the usual and regular course of business, if the shareholder is entitled to vote on the sale or exchange, including a sale in dissolution, but not including a sale pursuant to court order or a sale for cash pursuant to a plan by which all or substantially all of the net proceeds of the sale will be distributed to the shareholders within one year after the date of sale;
 - (d) An amendment of the articles of incorporation, whether or not the shareholder was entitled to vote on the amendment, if the amendment effects a redemption or cancellation of all of the shareholder's shares in exchange for cash or other consideration other than shares of the corporation; or
 - (e) Any corporate action taken pursuant to a shareholder vote to the extent the articles of incorporation, bylaws, or a resolution of the board of directors provides that voting or nonvoting shareholders are entitled to dissent and obtain payment for their shares.
- (2) A shareholder entitled to dissent and obtain payment for the shareholder's shares under this chapter may not challenge the corporate action creating the shareholder's entitlement unless the action fails to comply with the procedural requirements imposed by this title, RCW 25.10.900 through 25.10.955, the articles of incorporation, or the bylaws, or is fraudulent with respect to the shareholder or the corporation.
- (3) The right of a dissenting shareholder to obtain payment of the fair value of the shareholder's shares shall terminate upon the occurrence of any one of the following events:
- (a) The proposed corporate action is abandoned or rescinded;
 - (b) A court having jurisdiction permanently enjoins or sets aside the corporate action; or
 - (c) The shareholder's demand for payment is withdrawn with the written consent of the corporation.

23B.13.030. Dissent by nominees and beneficial owners

- (1) A record shareholder may assert dissenters' rights as to fewer than all the shares registered in the shareholder's name only if the shareholder dissents with respect to all shares beneficially owned by any one person and delivers to the corporation a notice of the name and address of each person on whose behalf the shareholder asserts dissenters' rights. The rights of a partial dissenter under this subsection are determined as if the shares as to which the dissenter dissents and the dissenter's other shares were registered in the names of different shareholders.

- (2) A beneficial shareholder may assert dissenters' rights as to shares held on the beneficial shareholder's behalf only if:
 - (a) The beneficial shareholder submits to the corporation the record shareholder's consent to the dissent not later than the time the beneficial shareholder asserts dissenters' rights, which consent shall be set forth either (i) in a record or (ii) if the corporation has designated an address, location, or system to which the consent may be electronically transmitted and the consent is electronically transmitted to the designated address, location, or system, in an electronically transmitted record; and
 - (b) The beneficial shareholder does so with respect to all shares of which such shareholder is the beneficial shareholder or over which such shareholder has power to direct the vote.

23B.13.200. Notice of dissenters' rights

23B.13.210. Notice of intent to demand payment

- (1) If proposed corporate action creating dissenters' rights under RCW 23B.13.020 is submitted to a vote at a shareholders' meeting, a shareholder who wishes to assert dissenters' rights must (a) deliver to the corporation before the vote is taken notice of the shareholder's intent to demand payment for the shareholder's shares if the proposed action is effected, and (b) not vote such shares in favor of the proposed action.
- (2) A shareholder who does not satisfy the requirements of subsection (1) of this section is not entitled to payment for the shareholder's shares under this chapter.

23B.13.220. Dissenters' rights--Notice

- (1) If proposed corporate action creating dissenters' rights under RCW 23B.13.020 is authorized at a shareholders' meeting, the corporation shall deliver a notice to all shareholders who satisfied the requirements of RCW 23B.13.210.
- (2) The notice must be sent within ten days after the effective date of the corporate action, and must:

- (a) State where the payment demand must be sent and where and when certificates for certificated shares must be deposited;
- (b) Inform holders of uncertificated shares to what extent transfer of the shares will be restricted after the payment demand is received;
- (c) Supply a form for demanding payment that includes the date of the first announcement to news media or to shareholders of the terms of the proposed corporate action and requires that the person asserting dissenters' rights certify whether or not the person acquired beneficial ownership of the shares before that date;
- (d) Set a date by which the corporation must receive the payment demand, which date may not be fewer than thirty nor more than sixty days after the date the notice in subsection (1) of this section is delivered; and
- (e) Be accompanied by a copy of this chapter.

23B.13.230. Duty to demand payment

- (1) A shareholder sent a notice described in RCW 23B.13.220 must demand payment, certify whether the shareholder acquired beneficial ownership of the shares before the date required to be set forth in the notice pursuant to RCW 23B.13.220(2)(c), and deposit the shareholder's certificates, all in accordance with the terms of the notice.
- (2) The shareholder who demands payment and deposits the shareholder's share certificates under subsection (1) of this section retains all other rights of a shareholder until the proposed corporate action is effected.
- (3) A shareholder who does not demand payment or deposit the shareholder's share certificates where required, each by the date set in the notice, is not entitled to payment for the shareholder's shares under this chapter.

23B.13.240. Share restrictions

- (1) The corporation may restrict the transfer of uncertificated shares from the date the demand for their payment is received until the proposed corporate action is effected or the restriction is released under RCW 23B.13.260.
- (2) The person for whom dissenters' rights are asserted as to uncertificated shares retains all other rights of a shareholder until the effective date of the proposed corporate action.

23B.13.250. Payment

- (1) Except as provided in RCW 23B.13.270, within thirty days of the later of the effective date of the proposed corporate action, or the date the payment demand is received, the corporation shall pay each dissenter who complied with RCW 23B.13.230 the amount the corporation estimates to be the fair value of the shareholder's shares, plus accrued interest.

- (2) The payment must be accompanied by:
 - (a) The corporation's balance sheet as of the end of a fiscal year ending not more than sixteen months before the date of payment, an income statement for that year, a statement of changes in shareholders' equity for that year, and the latest available interim financial statements, if any;
 - (b) An explanation of how the corporation estimated the fair value of the shares;
 - (c) An explanation of how the interest was calculated;
 - (d) A statement of the dissenter's right to demand payment under RCW 23B.13.280; and
 - (e) A copy of this chapter.

23B.13.260. Failure to take action

- (1) If the corporation does not effect the proposed action within sixty days after the date set for demanding payment and depositing share certificates, the corporation shall return the deposited certificates and release any transfer restrictions imposed on uncertificated shares.
- (2) If after returning deposited certificates and releasing transfer restrictions, the corporation wishes to undertake the proposed action, it must send a new dissenters' notice under RCW 23B.13.220 and repeat the payment demand procedure.

23B.13.270. After-acquired shares

- (1) A corporation may elect to withhold payment required by RCW 23B.13.250 from a dissenter unless the dissenter was the beneficial owner of the shares before the date set forth in the dissenters' notice as the date of the first announcement to news media or to shareholders of the terms of the proposed corporate action.
- (2) To the extent the corporation elects to withhold payment under subsection (1) of this section, after taking the proposed corporate action, it shall estimate the fair value of the shares, plus accrued interest, and shall pay this amount to each dissenter who agrees to accept it in full satisfaction of the dissenter's demand. The corporation shall send with its offer an explanation of how it estimated the fair value of the shares, an explanation of how the interest was calculated, and a statement of the dissenter's right to demand payment under RCW 23B.13.280.

23B.13.280. Procedure if shareholder dissatisfied with payment or offer

- (1) A dissenter may deliver a notice to the corporation informing the corporation of the dissenter's own estimate of the fair value of the dissenter's shares and amount of interest due, and demand payment of the dissenter's estimate, less any payment under RCW 23B.13.250, or reject the corporation's offer under RCW 23B.13.270 and demand payment of the dissenter's estimate of the fair value of the dissenter's shares and interest due, if:
 - (a) The dissenter believes that the amount paid under RCW 23B.13.250 or offered under RCW 23B.13.270 is less than the fair value of the dissenter's shares or that the interest due is incorrectly calculated;
 - (b) The corporation fails to make payment under RCW 23B.13.250 within sixty days after the date set for demanding payment; or
 - (c) The corporation does not effect the proposed action and does not return the deposited certificates or release the transfer restrictions imposed on uncertificated shares within sixty days after the date set for demanding payment.
- (2) A dissenter waives the right to demand payment under this section unless the dissenter notifies the corporation of the dissenter's demand under subsection (1) of this section within thirty days after the corporation made or offered payment for the dissenter's shares.

23B.13.300. Court action

- (1) If a demand for payment under RCW 23B.13.280 remains unsettled, the corporation shall commence a proceeding within sixty days after receiving the payment demand and petition the court to determine the fair value of the shares and accrued interest. If the corporation does not commence the proceeding within the sixty-day period, it shall pay each dissenter whose demand remains unsettled the amount demanded.
- (2) The corporation shall commence the proceeding in the superior court of the county where a corporation's principal office, or, if none in this state, its registered office, is located. If the corporation is a foreign corporation without a registered office in this state, it shall commence the proceeding in the county in this state where the registered office of the domestic corporation merged with or whose shares were acquired by the foreign corporation was located.
- (3) The corporation shall make all dissenters, whether or not residents of this state, whose demands remain unsettled, parties to the proceeding as in an action against their shares and all parties must be served with a copy of the petition. Nonresidents may be served by registered or certified mail or by publication as provided by law.
- (4) The corporation may join as a party to the proceeding any shareholder who claims to be a dissenter but who has not, in the opinion of the corporation, complied with the provisions of this chapter. If the court determines that such shareholder has not complied with the provisions of this chapter, the shareholder shall be dismissed as a party.

- (5) The jurisdiction of the court in which the proceeding is commenced under subsection (2) of this section is plenary and exclusive. The court may appoint one or more persons as appraisers to receive evidence and recommend decision on the question of fair value. The appraisers have the powers described in the order appointing them, or in any amendment to it. The dissenters are entitled to the same discovery rights as parties in other civil proceedings.
- (6) Each dissenter made a party to the proceeding is entitled to judgment (a) for the amount, if any, by which the court finds the fair value of the dissenter's shares, plus interest, exceeds the amount paid by the corporation, or (b) for the fair value, plus accrued interest, of the dissenter's after-acquired shares for which the corporation elected to withhold payment under RCW 23B.13.270.

23B.13.310. Court costs and counsel fees

- (1) The court in a proceeding commenced under RCW 23B.13.300 shall determine all costs of the proceeding, including the reasonable compensation and expenses of appraisers appointed by the court. The court shall assess the costs against the corporation, except that the court may assess the costs against all or some of the dissenters, in amounts the court finds equitable, to the extent the court finds the dissenters acted arbitrarily, vexatiously, or not in good faith in demanding payment under RCW 23B.13.280.
- (2) The court may also assess the fees and expenses of counsel and experts for the respective parties, in amounts the court finds equitable:
 - (a) Against the corporation and in favor of any or all dissenters if the court finds the corporation did not substantially comply with the requirements of RCW 23B.13.200 through 23B.13.280; or
 - (b) Against either the corporation or a dissenter, in favor of any other party, if the court finds that the party against whom the fees and expenses are assessed acted arbitrarily, vexatiously, or not in good faith with respect to the rights provided by chapter 23B.13 RCW.
- (3) If the court finds that the services of counsel for any dissenter were of substantial benefit to other dissenters similarly situated, and that the fees for those services should not be assessed against the corporation, the court may award to these counsel reasonable fees to be paid out of the amounts awarded the dissenters who were benefited.

Annex D

PART II

INFORMATION NOT REQUIRED IN PROSPECTUS

ITEM 20. INDEMNIFICATION OF DIRECTORS AND OFFICERS.

Washington Business Corporation Act

Banner is organized under the Washington Business Corporation Act (the "WBCA") which, in general, empowers Washington corporations to indemnify a person made a party to a threatened, pending or completed action, suit or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative and whether formal or informal, other than an action by or in the right of the corporation, by reason of the fact that such person is or was a director, officer, employee or agent of the corporation, or is or was serving at the request of the corporation as a director, officer, partner, trustee, employee or agent of another enterprise, against expenses, including attorney's fees, judgments, amounts paid in settlements, penalties and fines actually and reasonably incurred in connection therewith if the person acted in good faith and in a manner reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the corporation or its shareholders and, with respect to a criminal action or proceeding, if the person had no reasonable cause to believe his or her conduct was unlawful. Such indemnification is mandatory with respect to reasonable expenses for a director who is wholly successful on the merits or otherwise in the defending any proceeding. Washington corporations may not indemnify a person in connection with such proceedings if the person was adjudged to have received an improper personal benefit.

The WBCA also empowers Washington corporations to provide similar indemnity to such a person in connection with actions or suits by or in the right of the corporation if the person acted in good faith and in a manner the person reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the interests of the corporation or its shareholders, unless the person was adjudged liable to the corporation.

If authorized by the articles of incorporation of a Washington corporation or by its shareholders, a Washington corporation may indemnify and advance expenses to the persons described above without regard to the limitations described above, provided that such indemnity will not cover acts or omissions of the person finally adjudged to be intentional misconduct or a knowing violation of law, conduct finally adjudged to involve a violation of WBCA Section 310 (related to certain unlawful distributions), and any transaction with respect to which it was finally adjudged that the person received a benefit to which such person was not legally entitled.

The WBCA also permits a Washington corporation to purchase and maintain on behalf of such person insurance against liabilities incurred in such capacities. Banner has obtained a policy of directors' and officers' liability insurance.

The WBCA further permits Washington corporations to limit the personal liability of directors for a breach of their fiduciary duty. However, the WBCA does not eliminate or limit the liability of a director for any of the following: (i) acts or omissions that involve intentional misconduct by a director or a knowing violation of law by a director; (ii) conduct violating WBCA Section 08.310; or (iii) any transaction from which the director will personally receive a benefit in money, property or services to which the director is not legally entitled.

Banner's Articles of Incorporation and Bylaws

Banner's articles of incorporation limit the personal liability of directors for a breach of their fiduciary duty except for under the circumstances required to be excepted under Washington law described above.

Banner's articles of incorporation generally require Banner to indemnify directors, officers, employees and agents to the fullest extent legally possible under the WBCA. In addition, the articles of incorporation require Banner to similarly indemnify any such person who is or was serving at the request of Banner as a director, officer, partner, trustee, employee or agent of another entity. Banner's articles of incorporation further provide for the advancement of expenses under certain circumstances.

ITEM 22. UNDERTAKINGS

- (a) The undersigned registrant hereby undertakes to file, during any period in which offers or sales are being made, a post-effective amendment to this registration statement:
- (1) To include any prospectus required by Section 10(a)(3) of the Securities Act of 1933;
 - (2) To reflect in the prospectus any facts or events arising after the effective date of the registration statement (or the most recent post-effective amendment thereof) which, individually or in the aggregate, represent a fundamental change in the information set forth in the registration statement. Notwithstanding the foregoing, any increase or decrease in volume of securities offered (if the total dollar value of securities offered would not exceed that which was registered) and any deviation from the low or high end of the estimated maximum offering range may be reflected in the form of prospectus filed with the Commission pursuant to Rule 424(b) if, in the aggregate, the changes in volume and price represent no more than 20 percent change in the maximum aggregate offering price set forth in the "Calculation of Registration Fee" table in the effective registration statement; and
 - (3) To include any material information with respect to the plan of distribution not previously disclosed in the registration statement or any material change to such information in the registration statement.
- (b) The undersigned registrant hereby undertakes that, for the purpose of determining any liability under the Securities Act of 1933, each such post-effective amendment shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.
- (c) The undersigned registrant hereby undertakes to remove from registration by means of a post-effective amendment any of the securities being registered which remain unsold at the termination of the offering.
- (d) The undersigned registrant hereby undertakes that, for purposes of determining any liability under the Securities Act of 1933, each filing of the registrant's annual report pursuant to Section 13(a) or 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (and, where applicable, each filing of an employee benefit plan's annual report pursuant to Section 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934) that is incorporated by reference in the registration statement shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.

- (e) (1) The undersigned registrant hereby undertakes as follows: that prior to any public reoffering of the securities registered hereunder through use of a prospectus which is a part of this registration statement, by any person or party who is deemed to be an underwriter within the meaning of Rule 145(c), the issuer undertakes that such reoffering prospectus will contain the information called for by the applicable registration form with respect to reofferings by persons who may be deemed underwriters, in addition to the information called for by the other items of this form; and
- (2) the registrant undertakes that every prospectus: (i) that is filed pursuant to paragraph (1) immediately preceding, or (ii) that purports to meet the requirements of Section 10(a)(3) of the Securities Act of 1933 and is used in connection with an offering of securities subject to Rule 415, will be filed as a part of an amendment to the registration statement and will not be used until such amendment is effective, and that, for purposes of determining any liability under the Securities Act of 1933, each such post-effective amendment shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.
- (f) Insofar as indemnification for liabilities arising under the Securities Act of 1933 may be permitted to directors, officers and controlling persons of the registrant pursuant to the foregoing provisions, or otherwise, the registrant has been advised that in the opinion of the Securities and Exchange Commission such indemnification is against public policy as expressed in the Securities Act of 1933 and is, therefore, unenforceable. In the event that a claim for indemnification against such liabilities (other than the payment by the registrant of expenses incurred or paid by a director, officer or controlling person of the registrant in the successful defense of any action, suit or proceeding) is asserted by such director, officer or controlling person in connection with the securities being registered, the registrant will, unless in the opinion of its counsel the matter has been settled by controlling precedent, submit to a court of appropriate jurisdiction the question whether such indemnification by it is against public policy as expressed in the Securities Act of 1933 and will be governed by the final adjudication of such issue.
- (g) The undersigned registrant hereby undertakes to respond to requests for information that is incorporated by reference into the prospectus pursuant to Items 4, 10(b), 11 or 13 of this form, within one business day of receipt of such request, and to send the incorporated documents by first class mail or other equally prompt means. This includes information contained in documents filed subsequent to the effective date of the registration statement through the date of responding to the request.
- (h) The undersigned registrant hereby undertakes to supply by means of a post-effective amendment all information concerning a transaction, and the company being acquired involved therein, that was not the subject of and included in the registration statement when it became effective.
